

U. S. Senator.

At 12 o'clock on the 27th, the two Houses assembled in joint Convention, in the Hall of the House, pursuant to adjournment, for the purpose of proceeding to an election for the U. S. Senator. On motion the Convention proceeded to ballot, and the vote being taken by tellers was announced as follows:

FIRST BALLOT. For Simon Cameron (American), 55 Charles R. Buckalew (Dem.), 23 Scattering, 78 The whole vote cast was 130, making 66 necessary to a choice.

On the first ballot, the members voted as follows:

For Simon Cameron.—Messrs. Crabb, Cresswell, Frazier, Fry, Haldeman, Hendricks, Hoge, Killinger, Platt, Quiggle, Sellers and Shuman, of the Senate, and Messrs. Barry, Boal, Caldwell, Carlisle, Clover, Crawford, Criswell, Cummings, of Philadelphia, Cumming, of Somerset, Donaldson, Eyster, Fletcher, Frailley, Free, Gross, Guy, Haines, Hubbs, King, Kirkpatrick, Krepps, Lane, McConkey, McConnell, Morrison, Muse, Morth, Palmer, Reese, Rittenhouse, Rutter, Sallade, Sherrer, Smith, of Allegheny, Smith, of Blair, Stahley, Stockdale, Sturdevant, Weddell, Wood, Yorkes, Ziegler, and Strong, (Speaker) of the House.

There being no choice, Mr. Frailley moved to go into a second ballot, which was agreed to, and resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast, 131.—Mr. Allegood coming in between the two ballots.

A third ballot was now had and resulted as follows:

On the result of the third ballot being announced, Mr. Browne moved to adjourn until the first Tuesday in October next.

The Convention adjourns, it adjourn to meet tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

The previous question was called and sustained—yeas 104, nays 26.

Mr. Haldeman's amendment was then negatived—yeas 63, nays 66.

Mr. Browne's motion was then agreed to—yeas 60, nays 65.

EXTRAORDINARY AND RUFFIANLY MURDER.

A shocking murder was committed near Popewell, Fauquier county, Virginia, a few days since for which there seems to have been no sort of provocation. A desperate character named William Sinclair leveled his rifle at the head of a man named John Smith, and he did so, "I believe I will shoot you." "I believe I will kill you," said Sinclair, and immediately fired, and in a few hours his victim was a corpse. Strange to say, Sinclair was enabled to make good his escape, by threatening to kill any person who attempted to arrest him.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.—The George Law arrived at New York on the 25 inst., with $1,113,000 in gold as freight. The isthmus is now crossed from ocean to ocean by Railroad. The steamer Pearl exploded her boilers while running near Sacramento and about seventy lives were lost. It is said the boat was racing at the time but the agents (of course) deny this. Fifty three dead bodies were recovered and 20 more are missing. Thirty-eight ballots have been had for U. S. Senator, without any election.

SUCCESS WITH GRAPES.—E. A. McKay, Esq., of Naples, Ontario county, N. Y., writes to the Horticulturist that he raised from one acre of land eleven thousand pounds of Isabella grapes, over five and a half tons. Isabella commanded readily in our market last fall twenty-five cents per pound. At that place the products of this single acre would have brought $2750; at only twenty cents, they would have brought $2200.

MURDEROUS ROW IN NEW YORK.—A terrible fight occurred in a tavern in New York city, on Saturday night, in which six men attacked and desperately wounded the prize fighter, Bill Poole, who at first was thought mortally wounded, but is since recovering. The fighting was entirely done with revolvers, and most of the parties were wounded, but several of them shot Poole after he fell.

THE REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.—We have later news from Mexico to the effect that Alvarez, the revolutionary chief, has been honored with a triumphant entry into Acapulco, the road for one league being lined with soldiers and adorned with arches bearing such inscriptions as "Liberty and Justice." It is also stated that in a few days Alvarez intended to leave for the Capitol in command of an army of five thousand men. When the army reaches Chilpancingo it is to be reinforced by the addition of seven thousand troops from the State of Michoacan. On arriving within a few leagues of the capital they are to proclaim Alvarez President of the Republic pro tem.

WEDDED IN WINTER.—The Elmira Republican says, a marriage took place at Horseheads last week, the parties of which were respectively about eighty and seventy-eight years of age, making an aggregate age of one hundred and sixty-three years!

FOURTH OF JULY.—We perceive that 3,000 boxes of fire crackers arrived at Boston on Sunday, in the ship Andes, from Shanghai. Young America must prepare for the Fourth of July.

Horrible Suffering.

We are furnished by a gentleman from Lafayette, Ind., with the details of a rumor current in that city on Thursday, which fills the mind with horror, in view of the sufferings of the party to whom it refers.

On the Saturday preceding the memorable storm of the 21st of January, two families numbering ten persons, moving from Southern Indiana to Northern Illinois, arrived at Oxford, the county seat of Benton county, Ind., about forty miles northwest of Lafayette, with two teams, and well provided with necessaries for the road. They remained there through the storm, and on Monday morning resumed their journey. Last Tuesday morning a man passing over a prairie, only about five miles from Oxford, came upon a sight which filled him with horror.

The carcasses of two oxen, from which the viscera had been removed, lay upon the ground. Inside of one of them were the frozen bodies of four children, and in the other the frozen corpse of the mother, with a nursing infant at her breast. Under the snow was a heap of ashes, in which the iron of the wagons showed that the party had broken them up and burned everything they had in them, in the effort to save their lives. Not far from this spot, was found the body of the other woman of the party, partly concealed in a snow drift, and near her one of the men. The two other men had not been found.

It is probable that the party became inextricably involved in the snow drifts on the prairie, and lost their presence of mind. After turning up their wagons it would seem that the men had killed two of the oxen for a shelter to those found in them, and then, accompanied by one woman, vainly endeavored to reach the town they had left, and procure aid to rescue their companions. The two other oxen had wandered off. There was nothing about the persons to indicate who they were, and nothing more is known about them than was accidentally communicated by them during their brief stay at Oxford.

HORRIBLE STORY.—One Boy Murdered by Another!

A gentleman living in Russia, Iorkimer county, who was in this city yesterday, informs us that a horrible tragedy was reported to have occurred in that vicinity a few days since. As the story was told us, two boys, aged 12 and 14, respectively, engaged in a quarrel which terminated in a threat on the part of the youngest lad that he would shoot his antagonist. He went to the house, asked his mother to hand down from a shelf a pistol which lay there, and told her he was going to shoot a boy with it. She, supposing that he was only joking, gave him the pistol. He took it, walked out toward where the other boy stood, and deliberately shot him through the head, killing him instantly. The boys were said to be both Irish. Our informant did not learn the names.—Allegheny Argus, Feb. 25th.

THE GREAT CALIFORNIA TREE.—The owner of the great tree from the Sierra Nevada has asked the Common Council of New York, to let him exhibit in the Park as no building can be obtained large enough to contain it. The Post says the tree was taken from the Sierra Nevada mountains by Capt. Handford, and will be taken to the Great Fair of Paris. It is ninety feet in circumference and sixty feet in height. The owner proposes to have it put up in the southern end of the Park for a few days prior to its departure for Paris. No charge is to be made for an outside view of it, but he will make a nominal charge to all who examine the interior of the tree.—New York Paper.

LETTER APOSTOLIC.—The Freeman's Journal of last week publishes a "letter apostolic of our most holy Lord Pius IX., by Divine Providence Pope, concerning the dogmatic definition of the Virgin Mother of God." It occupies more than six columns of that paper, and concludes with the declaration that "should any presume to assail it (the dogma) let him know that he will incur the displeasure of Omnipotent God and of His blessed apostles, Peter and Paul."

SOLDIERS IN EUROPE.—The number of men bearing arms of war at this time in Europe may be set down thus:—England 230,000, Turkey 457,000, Prussia 580,000, Austria 590,000, France 566,000, Russia 1,540,000. The German States with the exception of Austria and Prussia 1,398,000, making the whole number of soldiers now under arms in Europe, five millions three hundred and sixty-four thousand.—No wonder the people emigrate to other countries.

MORE "HARD TIMES."—Silk goods to the amount of $968,000 have been entered at the Boston custom-house since the 1st day of January, the present year.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW. How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilarating influence incident to the enjoyment of health.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE.

But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently in a moment, she becomes a feeble, sickly, nervous, debilitated wife, with many attendant evils, the progress of which is slow, but sure, and the result a premature grave, the violation of which entails the most suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often to the children.

HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN.

"UNTO THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION," TRANSMITTING CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, RHEUMATISM, INSANITY, GOUL, KING'S EVIL, and other worse Diseases, as a DREADFUL INHERITANCE FROM THE PARENTS.

"And must this continue?" (this be?) Is there no remedy? No relief? No hope? Is there no remedy to be had by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and by taking the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are points out in

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.

PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO. One Hundredth Edition, 600,000, pp. 250. [ON FIVE PARTS, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.]

A standard work of established reputation, found in the libraries of the great medical schools in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and by the principal bookellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time it has been sold by the million.

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES have been sold, of which there were not more than ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a reliable popular Medical

the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to and by her.

Every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaint.

This work, after becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prostrated spirits (falling of the womb), or from flur alius (weakness, dizziness, &c.) may have an constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficulty if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will find that in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness, not less than your own. It will avoid to you and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocations, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, it has been translated into various languages, and is now published in the English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, and Portuguese, and is sold by all the principal bookellers, and is a standard work in the libraries of the most distinguished physicians, and is a standard work in the libraries of the most distinguished physicians, and is a standard work in the libraries of the most distinguished physicians.
