Escape and Pursuit of Baker. The mystery attending the whereabouts of Baker, who is believed to have shot Wm. Poole, is solved, and an unheard of amount of correption and infidelity of some of the New York officers disclosed, a number of them having been actually engaged in assisting his escape, and defeating the ends of justice. Judge Stuart, who suspected the true condition of things, instituted searching investigations, which resulted in tracing Baker, to Jersey City, where he had been secreted, and whence he sailed on Saturday in the brig Isabella Jewett, for Palmas City, Canary Islands. It appears that. by the aid of his friend, S. McLaughlin, of Jersey City, he crossed over the ferry disguised as a milkman, and was secreted in the house of Mr. L.'s hostler, where he remained several days, during which he read the accounts of the murder in the newspapers, and was frequently visited by his friends, including some of the New York officers. Judge Stewart, on ascertaining the fact, came over, to Jersey City on Friday night, with a posse and visited the house in Barrow st., but through some treachery, Baker was forewarned, and escaped, so short a time previous, that they found his bed still warm, and blood stains from his wounds upon the sheets ! They continued the search through the neighborhood without effect and finally returned to the city. It was subsequently ascertained that he was smuggled on board the Isabella Jewett, then lying at Jersey City, waiting for fair weather to sail for the Canary Islands. The Captain alarmed at the dangerous character of his passenger, objected at first but finally consented to take him upon receiving an extra fee from Baker's friends. She sailed with a fair wind on Sunday the 11th. Judge Stuart The abitained from the Quaran-tine at Staten Island & batch of letters which

Baker had given a boatman to deliver to his friend, officer Linn, including letters to a Judge of one of the city courts, and another to his lawyer in New York, in the latter of which he discloses all with regard to himself, but their contents are kept strictly private. Judge Stuart has since been taking testimony against various persons suspected of being accessories after the fact to the murderer, and the following additional persons have been arrested and imprisoned in default of 30,000 bail each :

James E. Kerrigan, Councilman, 13th District ; John Lyng, pugilist and gambler ; George Burns, emigrant runner ; Harvey Young, gambler ; Daniel Linn, policeman ; John Hyler, profession unknown

RYE FLOUR. -GRAIN-White Wheat, The celebrated clipper ship, Grapeshot with Capt. Hepburn in command, plenty of stores, and as fine a crew of scamen as ever manned a ship, went to sca on Sunday the 18th. in pursuit (eight days behind) of the Isabella Jewett, the vessel on which Baker, the alleged murderer of Poole, is believed to have made his escape. The distance to the city of Palmas, the destination of the Isabella Jewett, is three thousand miles, of which she must already have and e near one third the distance. Will it not be a hard struggle, with all her speed, for the clipper to overtake her ! Apprehensive that she may not, Judge Stuart took the precaution to provide his officers, Messrs. Barton, Brush, Blace and Evans, with such letters and papers from the Spanish authorities in the United States to the authorities of her Catholic Majesty, the Queen of Spain, at the city of Palmas, as will, although there is no extradition treaty, most propably secure Baker's arrest, (if he can be found after landing,) and return him to be dealt with in this city as justice may require. Accompaning the officers on board are twelve volunteer citizens, in aid of the nolice force in this service. The City Judge and

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW.

How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pithble condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and excilarating influ-once incident to the enjoyment of health.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE. THE BLOOMING BRIDE, But a fow yours ago in the fluch of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently in-oxplicably, becomes a feeblo, sickly, sallow, dobili-tated wile, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrang, spirits deprossed, countonance bearing the imprese of sufforing, and an utter physical and mental pros-tration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the mar-riage state, the violation of which ontails disease, suffering and missery, not only to the wife; but ofter HEDEDIMENT (DURL LINER DURL) THE OUT STREE OF THE HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN

"And must this continue? Must this be? Is there me remedy? No relief? No hope?" The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in THE MARRIED WOMAN'S

BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person-and by letter.

Hero every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness for bids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregular ities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and OS which their delicacy forbids seeking modical advice. Many soffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womble or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many and in constant agony for many months preceding configment Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives and hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief. It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother ? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and auxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advortised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.
