

THE COST OF BOMBARDING SABASTOPOL.—The bombardment of Sabastopol, by the last advice, had continued for thirteen days, pouring an incessant fire upon the town, and according to the English advices, making a steady progress against the works, though Gortschakoff's report the latest, says the Allies fire was slackening. The iron shot fired into Sabastopol exceed anything of the kind that the annals of war have ever recorded. Five hundred guns, firing one hundred and twenty rounds a day, gives a total of sixty thousand rounds, which may well be termed an "infernal fire," as Gortschakoff called it. It is estimated that the amount of shot fired in the thirteen days of the bombardment by the Allies, equalled thirty-five millions one hundred thousand pounds, which would cost, not including the transportation and the powder, $313,888. The powder would cost $702,000, making a total of over a million dollars. This if it resulted in the capture of the place, would be cheap, but the correspondent of the London Times, who is a spectator of the bombardment, says, in his last letter, "we are not one inch nearer the town than we were last October."

THE FOOL'S DEATH.—A Mr. Rogelstone recently died in London, who in ten years, literally ate up a fortune of 150,000 pounds sterling. This singular person traversed all Europe for the sake of gratifying his appetite. In 1849 he actually seduced the cook of Prince Potemkin, in Russia, from his service. He had agents in China, Mexico, and Canada, to supply him with the rarest delicacies. A single dish sometimes cost him fifty pounds sterling. A rival of Apicius, but wiser than the Roman, he waited until all his patrimony was consumed before he quit his life. On the 15th of April nothing was left him but a solitary guinea, a shirt, and a battered hat. He bought a woodcock with the guinea, which he had served up in the highest style of the culinary art. He gave himself two hours of rest for an easy digestion, and then jumped into the Thames from Westminster Bridge.

MATRIMONIAL AFFECTION.—It is an old saying, and a trite one, that no one loves like a mother. A case of this kind has just been exemplified out West at the burning of the steamer William Knox, on the Ohio River, some ten days ago, a woman jumped overboard with a babe. She came to the surface, and taking the babe's hand in her mouth, thus held it out of the water, while she attempted to paddle to the shore. A man plunged in after, and by strong efforts succeeded in getting the mother to where the water was shallow enough to allow them to touch the bottom. "Do not bite it hard now—you are safe," said one to her, while they were wading ashore. She took the child's hands between her teeth, and simply said, "You do not know a mother, sir." Scarcely a print of the gentle mother's hold on the poor infant's hand was perceptible.

THE NEXT GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE.—We observe a number of party presses are already agitating the question of the next Governorship of this State. Among the names suggested on the Democratic side, we find Hon. Edward B. Hubley and General Geo. M. Keim, of Berks; Col. John W. Forney; William L. Dewart, of Northumberland; John Weidman, of Lebanon; Enoch Banks, of Millin; William F. Packer, of Lycoming; and Asa Packer, of Carbon county.

WHAT IS BAGGAGE?—In a recent suit in New York, the question came up, whether a gold watch is an article of wearing apparel, or to be deemed baggage. The Superior Court decided it is an article of wearing apparel, and when not carried about the person, but in a trunk, while travelling, is to be deemed baggage.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW.
How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilarating influence incident to the enjoyment of health.
THE BLOOMING BRIDE,
But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, sorrow, debilitated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the patient, but often HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN.

PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.
One Hundredth Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 204.
[ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.]
A standard work of established reputation, found also in the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by all the booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time it has sold upwards of 500,000 copies.
FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES have been sold, of which there were upwards of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a reliable popular Medical
BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.
These every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.
The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her confidence in a sensible consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.
How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from premenstrual (falling of the womb) or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in a state of agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficulty if not dangerous deliveries, and many and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.
It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage.
Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own.
