

Myers & Madigan's Circus Tent Entirely Destroyed by a Mob.
Myers & Madigan's Circus tent, which company exhibited at Allentown in May last, was destroyed, together with some of the wagons, by a mob, at Toronto, in Canada. We take the following account from the Toronto Colonist of last week:

"One of the most disgraceful riots that ever occurred in this city, took place on Friday night last, the circumstances of which we have taken trouble to ascertain accurately, and they are as follows: Howe's Menagerie and Myers & Madigan's Equestrian Troupe jointly exhibited and performed in this city, on the vacant space near the Jail, on the evenings of Thursday and Friday. On Thursday night a row occurred in a house of ill-fame, in which two or three of the circus people were concerned. Two young men named Fawcett and Fraser, who it is said belong to the Hook and Ladder Company in this city, were seriously injured, one of them getting his jaw broken in two pieces, from the blow of a decenter. The parties who inflicted these injuries were those connected with the circus; and consequently the friends of the sufferers vowed vengeance on the whole establishment. From the inquiries we have made, we have ascertained that the friends of Fawcett and Fraser were busy during the whole of Friday preparing for an attack on the circus establishment in the evening. Every endeavor was made to collect such a force as would, if possible, overawe both the circus people and the police, and allow the mob to do just as it pleased. Indeed we have heard from several that they were aware of a riot being contemplated several hours previous to that at which the performance commenced in the evening. It also appears, as was stated by Constable McCaffrey in his evidence at the Police Court, that a certain system of action was decided upon. Symptoms of the riot were quite perceptible during the hours of performance; but no regular attack was made upon the premises until the audience had departed. It was then that some one commenced to cut the canvas with a knife, and a most violent demonstration was made by yells and shouts. The employees of the circus armed themselves with such weapons as they could lay hands upon, sallied out in a body and made a clearance, and again returned under the canvas. The police here, it seems, made a feeble attempt to arrest some persons, but were prevented by the mob. About this time we believe it was, that Joseph Bird, a member of the Hook and Ladder Company, received a blow of an iron bar from one of the circus men, and had to be taken home. A pistol-shot, we understand, was also fired by one of the party assailed. The next step of the mob was to make an attack on one of the wagons, which they pulled away and tumbled over the embankment into the river. They then attacked the ticket wagon, which was smashed into pieces with their axes and set on fire. His Worship the Mayor had previously been sent for by Mr. Yalo, one of the managers of the company, and he soon arrived on the spot, and endeavored to quell the disturbance. He advised the circus men to lay down their weapons and consider themselves as prisoners, and he would do everything in his power to protect them; to which request they immediately yielded, sitting down together under the tent. His Worship then expostulated with the mob outside, and entreated of them to desist; but his efforts, although successful in one quarter, were defeated in another. He managed however to rescue two men belonging to the company, who were set upon by the crowd, some of whom shouted out "kill them," "knock them down," &c., and whom he sent off in a cab to the Police station. The work of destruction still went on. When the ticket-wagon was set on fire, some of the mob proceeded to the St. Lawrence Hall, (about 11 o'clock) and caused the fire alarm to be rung, which proceeding, most likely preconcerted, had the effect of bringing the Hook and Ladder wagon and several of the engines to the ground. Amidst the yells and the darkness of the night, relieved only by the dim light of the burning vehicle, the hooks were applied to the chains and ropes of the pavilion, and to the cry of "this way, rakers," from the ringleaders, the work of pulling down the canvas commenced. While this part of the proceedings was going on, several attempts were made to fire the tent, but the operation was not successful until it was pulled down, when the wardrobe, which was now, and everything that could be laid hold of was thrown into the fire and destroyed. The Police, of whom there were thirteen on the ground, were, with the exception of Chief Constable Sherwood and Constable McCaffrey, either unwilling or incapable of rendering the Mayor any effectual assistance. Mr. Councilman Conkey, who reached the ground late, was extremely active, and with his aid and that of three or four others, the Mayor was fortunately successful in preventing serious personal collision, although he was frequently obliged to throw himself between the assailants and the parties attacked. After the tent was destroyed, the mob rushed toward the caravans of wild beasts, one of which (that of the Camel Leopard), they backed towards the flames, but the Mayor and his assistants rescued it. His Worship finally addressed the excited populace from the roof of one of the wagons, pointing out to them the shameful character of their proceedings; and after some time they began to disperse. As soon as he found the inefficiency of the police, his Worship had sent off for the enrolled pensioners; a body of whom, amounting to thirty or forty, under Colonel Tulloch, marched on to the ground about 2 o'clock, at which time the disturbance had wholly ceased. On Saturday morning the two men who were rescued by the Mayor were examined at the Police Office, but no accusation being brought against them, and it being understood that Bird's injuries were not of a serious character, they were discharged. One of the circus party, it seems, was kicked and beaten in so serious a manner as to prevent him leaving the city on Saturday with his companions, who are now, we hear, at Brampton, awaiting the arrival of a new tent, &c., from New-York. Myers, one of the proprietors, who was the party implicated in the assault on Thursday evening, on Fawcett and Fraser, is now in custody, having been arrested at Brampton on Saturday.

ADVANTAGE OF PRESERVING CORRESPONDENCE.—A package of old love letters recently brought a man $20,000 in Bristol, England.—This first flame married another man, and he himself also married, but retained the love letters of his first, against an occasional remembrance of his wife. After some years, the writer of the letters died, a widow, leaving her old lover $20,000 and her letters to him were essential to prove his identity. The wife is now glad she was not allowed to burn the evidence of her husband's early affection for another.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—Among the latest counterfeiters are 10's on the Newark City Bank, altered from 2's. Vig. stone cutters at work.—Washington on right end. Also 5's on the Pynchon Bank, Springfield; 5's on the Bank of Springfield; 5's on the Bank of the State of New York; 10's on the People's Bank, New York; 10's on the Bank of Montpelier; 3's on the Mechanics' Bank, Boston; 1's on the City Bank, Bath; 3's on the Connecticut River Banking Co.; 5's on the Union Bank, Watertown; 3's on the City Bank, Hartford. A large number of bills on these banks are in circulation. Look out for them.

KANSAS.—The message of Gov. Reeder has been submitted to the Legislature just assembled. The Governor contends for the right of the people to settle their own affairs, uninfluenced by other States, and says the territorial Legislature may act on the question of slavery to a limited extent, and temporarily regulate it. He recommends the enactment of a stringent liquor law, on account of the Indians. He announces the population of the territory to be 3,383 females, and 5,133 males.

RUSSIAN CONTRACTS WITH PHILADELPHIA MECHANICS.—Bancroft & Sellers, who have extensive machine works in Philadelphia, have entered into a contract with the Russian Government for large quantity of machinery which is to be used in the shops of that Government at Cronstadt. Other parties in that city, have also contracts with that Government for heavy machinery. Quite a compliment to the mechanics of the "Quaker City."

GREAT REAPING.—The Columbus Ohio Statesman says, that Mr. Win. Lee, last week, cradled about five acres of wheat per day, for several days, upon the farm of Stanislaus Mitchell, on Jersey Ridge near this city. He worked steadily, and apparently with great ease, and cut so rapidly that it required two good hands to bind after him, and at times three binders could not fairly keep up with him. Three acres per day is considered good work.

IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH.—A noticeable circumstance occurred at Morrilton, N. J., on the 4th of July. A company of twelve ladies and gentlemen came from Hackettstown to that place, and were all married by the Rev. John K. Shaw, of Morrilton, who likewise married another couple during the day—making twenty six persons made happy or miserable, through his instrumentality, in one day.

BARBAROUS INHUMANITY.—The Baltimore Republican tells a shocking story of a soldier, named Louis Loup, being dreadfully beaten by a Sergeant at Fort McHenry, and then gagged and tied up to the flag staff, in which position he died. The victim was a Swiss by birth, and had served seventeen years in the U. States army, including the Florida and Mexican wars. His offense was some drunken misconduct.

VERY SINGULAR.—At Media, N. Y., a young man 22 years of age, who had been deaf and dumb since his ninth year, was taken with violent spasms of the chest about a week ago, and after throwing up a small quantity of blood found that his hearing and power of speech were entirely restored.

AN EXTENSIVE FARMER.—The Norfolk (Va.) Herald says: It is stated as an ascertained fact that Mr. William Ellen, of Claremont, on James River, will raise for sale this year fifty thousand bushels of wheat; and, without some unforeseen occurrence, five thousand barrels of corn.

A BOOK OF HONORS.—A Cincinnati house is about to publish the record of all the steamboat disasters that have occurred on the Western waters during the last forty years. By these disasters 100,000 lives have been lost.

MARRIED.
On the 27th ult. at Suffield, Conn., by the Rev. Mr. Ives, Mr. GEORGE W. GILBERT, of Bethlehem, to Miss MARY S. LOOMIS of the former place.

On Sunday last, by the Rev. J. Dubs, Mr. JESSIE H. BERNARD, of Allentown, to Miss FIANAN THOXELL, of South Whitehall.
The happy couple, amid their joy, did not forget the printer, and it is our duty to acknowledge the receipt of a monster "bridal cake," for which they will accept our kindest compliments and best wishes in return. We found that it would be impossible for us to do justice to it, and consequently called in our neighbors, who in connection with ourselves, after partaking of it, pronounced it the richest treat of the season. The printer's heart always feels grateful for kind remembrances; and we but express our mutual estimation of the wedded couple, by hoping that their joys may be a continued sunshine through the vicissitudes and responsibilities which are consequent upon their happy alliance, and that their joy may be perpetual "May-day,"—bright, joyous happy,—the life of life few and far between, and all that is pleasing and desirable attend them in their journey through life.

Glorious News!
FOR all those ladies and gentlemen that had to work hard for their dollars and cents through hay-making and harvest, Joseph Stopp has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, and he is now going to sell off his entire stock of Summer Goods at near half-price, so as to enable him to make room for a new winter stock. Stopp is determined to sell Parasols at half price; Lawns worth 25 cents he sells at 12; some worth 12 he sells at 6; cents per yard; fine needle work handkerchiefs at 6; collars 4 cents; calicoes worth 12 he sells at 6; black mitts and a fine lot of fans going off almost for nothing. Mantillas at almost half price, also a fine lot of silks and broads, a little too nice and cheap for cash. Glorious news, good times for the people, if they call at Joseph Stopp's Cheap Cash Store, No. 41, at the corner of Hamilton and Eighth streets, near Hagenbuch's Hotel, in Allentown. If you want Ready-made Clothing or the stuff to make them, Stopp sells almost for half price. Well I do declare that Stopp is just as contrary as Dick's hat band, for it goes twice round and ties no where, for every thing is high now and Stopp sells every thing very low, or cheaper than ever for Cash. Look out, gentlemen, if he ever fails, just say, I knew that for he sold too cheap; then you hit the nail right on the head.
