

A GREAT FARM IN OHIO.—The farm of General Worthington, near Chillicothe, contains seven or eight hundred acres of the best land in the garden of Ohio, well supplied with the purest water, and adorned with magnificent groves of forest trees. Fruit of the choicest kind, and of every variety, is to be found in the spacious orchards. Figs from the land of Smyrna, frijoles from the plains of Mexico, and peas from Japan, flourish in his gardens. A large stone mansion, built for durability, comfort and convenience by his ancestor, Governor Worthington, stands upon the bluff from the top of which may be seen all up and down the winding Scioto. On the east, at the foot of the hill, is a lake, constructed by the General, containing about 15 acres, stocked with fishes. A large ice-house, built upon the verge of the lake, holds enough to supply the wants of the people of Chillicothe during the hot season. At a convenient distance from the waters of this beautiful lake, the milk of fifty short horned Durhams is kept, from the sale of which alone, the past year, the General realized $4000.

NATIVE WINES.—The vineyards of Ohio are becoming a source of great revenue to that State, and if the popularity of native wines and brandy continue at an equal ratio with the last few years, imported liquors will find a formidable rival. The wine made from the Catawba grape is in all probability the purest article that can possibly be obtained. The Wine Association of Cincinnati protect not only themselves but the public, and whenever an article is detected that is not fully up to the standard the manufacturer is at once held responsible. There is nothing in these wines or brandies but the pure juice of the grape. The sparkling Catawba is now preferred to most of the imported brands, and as a beverage is much more agreeable and healthy. It contains no "headache" commodities. The still wines are preferable to the light French or German wines, and as the consumer is guaranteed a pure article there is much more safety in using the native. The o-wines are highly recommended by physicians as an excellent tonic, and every way beneficial to the invalid.

A BOY THAT CAN PLAY "WIG-WAG."—The London Dispatch says that at Middlesborough, England, there exists a singular freak of nature, "a boy with a real tail." He is about four months old and in good health, and has a perfect caudal appendage four or five inches in length, which, like a cat's, is a continuation of the spine, and can be moved at will. Only think of an urchin wagging his tail upon being presented with a stick of candy; besides, it may prove of great inconvenience to the possessor in after life, as it will intrude upon the seat of honor.

ONE HUNDRED SNAKES.—The Worcester, Massachusetts, Patriot says that Mr. Albert Smith, of that town, while mowing in a meadow a few days since, killed an immense snake of the garter species, which measured three feet and a half in length, and in one live young snakes were found in its pouch. These the old mother serpent had swallowed on the approach of danger. Eight other snakes were killed in the same lot, making an aggregate of one hundred snakes killed in one day.

NO GREAT TRAVELLER.—A Bethlehem correspondent speaks of Miss Christina Engelhardt, who recently died in that place in the 93rd year of her age, as having been in some respects a remarkable woman. She enjoyed good health all her life and was a regular attendant at church, but for the last seventy years she has never been further from her home (the sister's house) than to church, which adjoins the house. She never saw any of the houses in Bethlehem north of "Old Marcus Felter's Blacksmith Shop" except the "Gast-haus," (Sun Hotel) which was then erected and which point is now considered in the lower end of the town.—Easton Argus.

MARRIED.—On the 26th of August, by the Rev. S. K. Brobst, Mr. WILCOUGHBY HYL, to Miss LEA DEAN, both of Upper Saucon.

At the same time, by the same, Mr. MANASSE SCHOFFER, to Miss MATILDA KOB, both of Lower Saucon, Northampton Co.

On the 21st inst., by the Rev. Mr. Vogelbach, Mr. CHARLES KEVIN, to Miss ROSSETTA REBER, both of Allentown.

On the 19th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Weiser, Mr. FRED NEUMAN, of Zionville, to Miss AUGUSTA WALZER, of Allentown.

On the 23rd inst., by the Rev. Mr. Heerman, Mr. W. ACHS, of Hamburg, to Miss ELIZABETH GEORGE, of Lowhill.

On the 19th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Reoller, Mr. PHOENIX HAAS, of Lyntown, to Miss MARY ACKER, of Allentown.

DIED.—On Thursday morning last, of fever, in this borough, ADAM KLEIN, aged 60 years.

On the 20th of August, in Bethlehem, ANNA MARIA, consort of Godfried Knauss, aged 35 years.

Fresh Arrival of NEW GOODS!

At the Cheap Store of Levi Haas

AT THE

Lehigh Valley Iron Works,

THE undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia where he has purchased a large stock of Store Goods, comprising a very extensive assortment of

Dry Goods, GROCERIES,

Queensware, Hardware, and all other articles generally kept in a country store. He will make it his business not only to compete in the selection of the most fashionable goods with the Stores in Catsaquana, Allentown and Bethlehem, but also in the cheapness of the same.

If you want a bargain give Haas a trial. The fact is you can buy as much of him for $20 as you can at any other store in the neighborhood for $30. And of course you would like to know how he can afford to do it. Why, he buys for Cash. Try him.

He also keeps on hand a large and extensive assortment of Stoves, Tin Ware, &c.

All kinds of Country Produce will be taken in exchange for Goods, for which he will allow the highest market prices.

He returns his sincere thanks for favors heretofore received, and trusts that by strict attention to business, and going upon the principle of "live and let live," he may continue to receive a liberal share of public patronage.

Singer's Sewing Machine.

DURING the last four years these machines have been fully tested in all kinds of manufactures that can be sewed, and have rendered general satisfaction. Truly thousands of worthless Sewing Machines have been brought before the public, yet Singer's alone has merited and obtained a good reputation for its perfection and real worth. To a tailor or seamstress one of these Machines will bring a yearly income of $750.

The undersigned having purchased of I. M. Singer & Co. the sole and exclusive right to use and vend to others to be used, the above named Machines, in the following localities: The State of Wisconsin, the northern part of Indiana, and Pennsylvania (with the exception of the counties of Erie, Allegheny, Philadelphia, and Northampton) and is now prepared to sell Machines as above mentioned.

All orders for the Machines will be punctually attended to. In all cases where a Machine is ordered, a good practical tailor and operator will accompany the same, to instruct the purchaser how to use it. A bill of sale will be forwarded with each Machine. The price of the Machine, with printed or personal instructions is $125. For further information address

Glorious News!

FOR all those ladies and gentlemen that had to work hard for their dollars and cents through having made up their minds to purchase Joseph Stopp's has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, and he is now going to sell off his entire stock of Summer Goods at near half price, so as to enable him to make room for a new winter stock. Stopp is determined to sell Parasols at half price; Lawns worth 25 cents he sells at 12 1/2; some worth 12 1/2 he sells at 6 1/2 cents per yard; fine needle worked handkerchiefs at 4 1/2; collars 4 cents; calicoes worth 12 1/2 he sells at 6 1/2; blue ribbons and a fine lot of fans going off almost for nothing. Mantles at almost half price, also a fine lot of silks and berege, a little too nice and cheap for cash.—Glorious news, good times for the people, if they call at Joseph Stopp's Cheap Cash Store, No. 41, at the corner of Hamilton and Eighth streets, near Hagenbuch's Hotel, in Allentown. If you want Ready-made Clothing or the stuff to make them, Stopp sells almost for half price. Well I do declare that Stopp is just as contrary as Dick's hat band, for it goes twice round and ties no where, for every thing is high now and Stopp sells every thing very low, or cheaper than ever for cash. Look out, gentlemen, if he ever fails, just say, I know that for he sold too cheap; then you hit the nail right on the head.
