

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—The Republican State Convention, assembled at Pittsburg, Pa., on Wednesday last week. There were about 3000 persons in attendance from different parts of the State. After a preliminary organization, a Committee on officers was appointed, who reported the Hon. Wm. Jessup, of Susquehanna, for President, with the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The Committee appointed for that purpose, reported a series of resolutions opposed to the aggressions of Slavery, assuming that the question overstepped all others; declaring that freedom is National and Slavery sectional, and condemning the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. The resolutions were adopted by acclamation. No side issues were introduced. After the adoption of the resolutions the Convention was addressed by T. J. Bingham, of Allegheny, and Hon. Joshua Giddings, Member of Congress from Ohio. After which, Passmore Williamson was nominated for Canal Commissioner, amid great enthusiasm. The resolutions adopted declare that—

The President of the United States and the political party which sustains him have endeavored to overthrow the principles of civil liberty proclaimed by our Revolutionary fathers, by extending the bounds of slavery into territories expressly consecrated to Freedom by a solemn compromise, and by obtaining territory of Mexico for the purpose of spreading the withering curse of human bondage; and by endeavoring to involve us in war with Spain for the acquisition of Cuba, with the intention of perpetuating and strengthening the institution of slavery, and by sustaining the slave trade on our coast. They call upon the North to unite and resist the aggressions of slavery, declare that the Republican party is in favor of the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, because it virtually suspends the sacred writ of habeas corpus, and takes away the right of trial by jury, and that the imprisonment, without trial, of citizens of free States by the Federal Judiciary, is a bold invasion of personal liberty, a violation of the guaranteed rights of States, and an assumption of federal power that should be resisted determinedly by every friend of personal and civil liberty.

A BABY ELEPHANT.—One of the female elephants belonging to Barnum's travelling Menagerie has recently given birth to an infant, thus disproving the assertions of Buffon and Goldsmith that these animals never gestate white in the state of captivity. The New York Sunday Times says the one in question is perfectly formed, and differs from its parent only in size, but that difference is so amazing that it becomes ludicrous, and when one sees the "baby" walking to and fro under its mother, the impulse cannot be restrained to laugh at the oddity of the comparison. The bulky mother's care of her "baby" is described as extremely human-like and affectionate. If an apple, for instance, is given to the latter, the mother takes it in her trunk, examines it closely, and then, as if satisfied of its harmlessness, returns it to her infant to eat.

A SENSITIVE INDIAN.—An Indian passing through the woods one day, stopped before a man who was chopping wood, and surveyed him with gravity. He remarked, that every time the man brought his axe to the log he sent forth a sound somewhat like "ugh," as if that was part of the operation. "Why you speak up when you bring your axe down?" said he. The man laughed. "Oh, it makes me chop faster." "Ah! does it? Why you no say when you take him up, then you chop twice so fast!"

On Monday last the train of cars ran over the entire road for the first time, and there were something less than 100 cars in the train, and I suppose they have all stopped at

JOSEPH STOPP'S CHEAP CASH STORE, in Allentown, at No. 41, corner of Hamilton and Eighth streets, near Hagenbush's Hotel, for I passed his Store, and by the looks of the tremendous quantity of goods Stopp and his clerks were unloading I am sure that the depot must be right at his Store, and that the whole train of cars must have been loaded with Goods for Stopp. We all stopped and looked with astonishment at the piles of Shawls, De Lains, Silks, Merinoes, Persian Cloth, Cashmere, Alpaca, Galicoes, &c., from the floor to the ceiling, the goods all new styles. Then I looked to the other side of the Store, and lo, and behold, my eyes were greeted with perfect mountains of Goods, consisting of Cloths, Cassimeres, Satins, Kentucky Jeans, Flannels, Muslins, Table Diapers, Toweling, Stocking Yarn, and Stockings, Gloves, Mittens, Woolen Comforts, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Glass and Queensware, Looking Glasses, Knives, Forks, Spoons, &c., &c. Then one of his clerks showed me in another room, there he had piles of

Ready Made Clothing, such as coats, vests, pants and over coats, all of their own manufacture, and he showed me the prices of some of their goods, then I said I don't wonder that all the people say that Dan Rice has the best show and Joseph Stopp the cheapest Cash Store. Sept. 12. —1f
