

FEMALE JOCKEYS.—At a recent horse-race in Doylestown, twelve females, each mounted on a "sporting horse," entered the list for the prize. Among the list were three circus women from Philadelphia. They started and made the race in the presence of thirty thousand people. The first premium was awarded to Miss Anna Roberts of Doylestown, the second to Mrs. Aaron of Norristown, and the third to Mrs. Jenkins of Montgomery Square. Commenting on the proceedings the Buffalo Express remarks:

What a comment upon the taste—the modesty—the morality of the times. Here are twelve females—the wonder and admiration of the gaping multitude of a race course, when they should have been adorning twelve households with the dignity of modest refinement. It would have been far better for them had they been engaged that afternoon over twelve wash-tubs, rather than riding twelve horses in a heat over the race course surrounded by vile men and impudent women. This is a kind of progress which bodes no good to a refined and moral toned society. When our mothers, daughters and sisters turn horse racers and gamblers, their influence upon the generations that follow will be such as to fill the earth with all manner of iniquity.

FEVER AT NORFOLK.—The Baltimore Star of the 26th, says:—By way of Richmond and Petersburg we have news from Norfolk and Portsmouth up to 6 o'clock on Monday morning. The trains on the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad, it is stated, have adopted the course of the Bay Line of steamers, and only make three trips a week. The latest intelligence is not at all encouraging. The report of the death of Dr. Walter, of Baltimore, is, we regret to say, confirmed. On Saturday, in Norfolk the deaths were 40; in Portsmouth 17. On Sunday, in Norfolk, 31; in Portsmouth, 17. (Another account says only 3.) The Richmond Dispatch says:

The mortality among the doctors on Saturday was surprising. Five physicians died on that day in Norfolk and Portsmouth, viz: Dr. Capry, of N. Y.; Dillard, of Montgomery, Ala., and Dr. Burns, of Norfolk; and Dr. Rizer, of Philadelphia; and Dr. Walter, of Baltimore, in Portsmouth. Dr. Rizer had left Portsmouth and returned home once, but went back again and fell a victim to the plague. This is the largest mortality in one day among the physicians, except on the 5th September, when seven died.

PROOF THAT THE MOON IS NOT ILLUMINATED.—Dr. Scoresby, in an account that he has given of some recent observations made with the Earl of Rosse's telescope, says: "With respect to the moon, every object on its surface of 100 feet was now distinctly to be seen; and he had no doubt that, under very favorable circumstances, it would be so with objects 60 feet in height. On its surface were craters of extinct volcanoes, rocks, and masses of stones almost innumerable. He had no doubt that if such a building as he was then in were upon the surface of the moon, it would be rendered distinctly visible by these instruments. But there are no signs of habitations such as ours—no vestige of architecture remains to show that the moon is or ever was inhabited by a race of mortals similar to ourselves. It presented no appearance which could lead to the supposition that it contained any thing like the green fields and lovely verdure of the beautiful world of ours.—There was no water visible—not a sea or a river, or even the measure of a reservoir for supplying town or factory—all seemed desolate."

HOW TO DRY PUMPKIN AND MAKE THE PIE.—Perhaps some don't know the best way to dry pumpkins. It is this:—Cut them up and stew them till they are soft and dry; pound and strain through a colander; then grease pie-pans, and spread it on a quarter of an inch thick and dry it; roll it up, and put it away in a tight box, or bag, from the insects. Each one of these rolls will make a pie. It is very easy now to make a pie. Put in sweet milk, and let it soak about two hours; put in an egg a table-spoonful of ginger, and one of allspice; and if you are lovers of pumpkin pie, as we are, you will pronounce it good.—Ohio Farmer.

OPENING THE MAILS.—INTRUDERS MUST BE TURNED OUT.—The Post Office Department has issued an order in relation to the opening and closing of mails. It sets forth that the mails cannot, in compliance with law, be opened or made up by the postmaster or his sworn assistants within the reach of persons not authorized to handle them. The postmaster must therefore, while discharging these duties, exclude from the room appropriated to the use of his office all persons except his assistants regularly employed and sworn. This law is often violated by postmasters, and the agents of the department are required to promptly report to the department all cases that come to their notice.

THE EMANCIPATION IN KENTUCKY.—The Newport (Ky.) News, at the suggestion of a number of prominent slaveholders in Kentucky, proposes that a Convention be held in Frankfort, to adopt a plan for the gradual abolition of slavery in that State. Public sentiment in Kentucky and also in Maryland and Virginia, has been undergoing a change for some years in respect to maintaining the slave institution.—The fact is that the proposition for freedom comes from slaveholders themselves, is one of great significance, and shows that the political bearings of the question are as well understood among intelligent men in the South as they are in the North.

PROSTITUTION IN NEW YORK.—A gentleman in New York named GOULD, who has been for some time investigating the causes and progress of crime in that city, from motives of practical philanthropy, has ascertained that there are now living in that city no less than twenty-four thousand unfortunate or abandoned women, and no fewer than fourteen hundred houses of ill fame. This is truly a frightful proportion of the entire population of New York.
