

Official Vote of Canal Commissioner in 1855.

Table with columns for Counties, Ym. Higher, J. Pollock, A. Plumer, T. Nicholson, and T. Nichols. Lists counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc., with corresponding vote counts.

VARIETY OF FOOD NECESSARY.—It is in vegetable as in animal life; a mother crams her child exclusively with arrow root—it becomes fat, it is true, but alas! it is rickety, and gets its teeth very slowly, and with difficulty.

THE GRAVE-DIGGER GONE.—The following touching paragraph is contained in the Norfolk correspondence of the Petersburg Express:—"Wm. Loring died last night. Mr. Dubbs is also dead. Mr. Dubbs deserves more than a passing notice. He had the superintendency of burying the dead in the three Protestant burying grounds of the city, and most faithfully has he performed his melancholy duties."

APPLES FOR HUMAN FOOD.—With us the value of an apple, as an article of food, is far underrated. Besides containing a large amount of sugar, mullage, and other nutritive matter, apples contain vegetable acids, aromatic qualities, etc., which act powerfully in the capacity of refrigerants, tonics, and antiseptics; and when freely used at the season of mellow ripeness, they prevent debility, indigestion, and avert, without doubt, many of the ills which his flesh is heir to."

FIGHT BETWEEN A RATTLESNAKE AND HOGS.—The State Rights Democrat, published at Elba, Ala., narrates as follows: "Two gentlemen were lately in the woods when their attention was attracted by an uproarious noise of hogs. Thinking that something uncommon was to pay, they repaired to the spot, and found that the hogs had been in a fight with a very large rattlesnake. The fight, from appearances, had been a long and desperate one. The snake was torn to pieces, three hogs dead and a fourth dying. They say that as the last hog would groan, the snake would raise his head, being unable to do anything else. The snake and 4 hog soon died. They report that for thirty yards around, the grass and ground was torn up. The snake was six and a half or seven feet long. The hogs, in the fight, had demolished all the rattles except two."

QUEER ELECTION PLACE.—The Village Record states that at the late election in Schuylkill township, Chester county, the landlord of the Bull Tavern—now closed—where it had been customary to hold the election, and where it was advertised to be held as usual, refused to open his house for the accommodation of the election officers for less than seventy-five dollars, on Tuesday the 9th inst. This they declined to give, and sent two miles for a big wagon which they stationed in the public highway, and in which the officers received the "free and independent suffrages of the people."

A POLITICAL BABEL.—There are thirty-six distinct parties, in New York, with all sorts of strange and whimsical names, adopted apparently more out of ridicule than as characteristic of political principles. It must be difficult, amid such a confusion of parties, for any individual to know exactly to which he belongs, or on what platform he stands.

The Governor elect of California is only 30 years of age. Snow to the depth of 3 inches fell on the mountains between Wheeling and Cumberland, on Saturday last.

MARRIED.—On the 14th of October, by the Rev. Mr. Yeager, M. REUBEN BENNETT of Upper Saucon, to Miss CLARISA KEIPER, of Hanover. On the 10th of October, by the same, Mr. JAMES McCALLISTER, to Miss MARIA SELLERS, both of Catawissa. On the 21st of October, by the same, Mr. BENJAMIN F. KNAUSS, to Miss SARAH A. STEININGER, both of South Whitehall.

DIED.—On the 17th of October, in Salisbury, EMMA E. E., daughter of the late Philip Sauter, aged 2 years. On the 18th of October, in Longswamp, Berks Co., OSCAR BAUMER, aged 8 months and 27 days. On the 18th of October, in Lower Saucon, HANNAH, consort of the late Lewis Banner, aged 81 years.
