WANTED AN HEIR FOR $100,000.-The following curious advertisement appears in the New Orleans Picayune of a late date :

Wanted, by a person who has one hundred thousand dollars and no heir, to adopt from birth, a child. It must be of American parents, and from one hour to ten days old, sex immaterial. Any person having a child they wish to dispose of, can thus secure it a good home and a fortune; or any lady about to become a mother and willing to part with her child, can have a respectable physician to attend her and no questions asked or answered. Applications must be made in ten days. Addres "A," through the Post Office, or the Picayune office.

A Costly Sword.—The sword worn by Napoleon Bonaparte at the battle of Marengo, in 1800, was purchased by the Emperor Nicholas, in 1850, just half a century after that eventful and bloody battle, for the sum of thirty-two thousand dollars. French swords, since then. have cost the Emperor of Russia much more than that sum, large as it is.

These Blinds are far superior to any other ever manufac-tured, and are secured by Letters Patent, known as "Ruse's Patent," They 'Rose's Patent." The are greatly superior t all others in the fact tha they are constructed wit upper and lower heads n such a manner the when the upper head fastoned to the window-frame; the lower part may be separated or connected with ease. A little child can take the blind down, clean, and replace it. This is a great advantage when it is remembered that with the old style of Blinds, a mechanic was always necessary to take them down or put them up.

In other particulars, ten they exceed for beauty. In other particulars, too, they exceed for beauty and convenience all others.

AD This improvement will be attached to the old fashioned Blinds on reasonable terms.
