CONSUMPTION. Thus remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of overy variety of pulmonary aisenso, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the oridences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its use, fulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer headintewhat antidote to employ for the distrossing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our elimate. And not only in formulable at tacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSNENS, &c.; and for CHIDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicino that can be obtained.
