PAMILY TOUBNALL ON BURETEES.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY HAINES & DIEFENDERFER AT ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER ANNUM.

Allentown, Pa., August 27, 1856.

MUSIC STORE,

THE undersigned herewith announces to the citi-The innersigned nerowith announces to the citizens of Allentown and vicinity, that he still has his Music Store, at the old stand above named, and that he has lately quade large additions to his heretofore well selected stock of Musical Instruments.—Among his stock he always has PIANO FORTES from the best manufactories in New York, of powerful yet pleasant tone, and warrants them to give satisfaction. Also imported Pianos, of the best manufacture of the best manufacture in the United States, of different sizes and prices.

MELODEONS.

VIOLINS of all qualities and prices, VIOLONCELLOS, of Expellent quality, VIOLAS, or ContraBass, ACCORDEONS, of different sizes and prices, FLUTES and FIFES, Violin Strings, best quality, Bows, and in short all trimmings belonging to the Violin.
BRASS INSTRUMENTS will be furnished at short notice and on the most reasonable terms, to which BRASS INSTRUMENTS will be furnished at short notice and on the most reasonable terms, to which fact he particularly calls the attention of new Bands about forming, and those already established.

Sheet Music and Books for beginners for all musical instruments, always on hand.

As the undersigned makes this his sole business, he will pap particular and prompt attention to it in all its various branches. He is thankful for past patronage, and trusts that by keeping good articles at low prices, to merit a continuance of the same.

He respectfully invites people to call and ex amin his instruments, particularly his pianos, and give them a trial, to satisfy themselves of their superior mechanism.

April 16.

—6m

// Wieder & Berger WHOLESALE AND RETAIL MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN HATS AND CAPS.

No. 25 West Hamilton street, Allentown, WE invite the attention of our old customers and W E invite the attention of our ord customers and friends, as well as the public in general, to our large stock of spring and summer style of PATS AND CAPS, good as the best, and cheaper than they can be purchased at any store in town. This is an in the purchased at any store in town. AND CAPS, good as the best, and cheaper than they can be purchased at any store in town. This is an actual fact, and not merely idle talk to "draw on" enstoners, and as a proof of what we say, we but ask you to give us a call before purchasing clsewhere.—

e its a can before purchasing eisewhere,— Among our stock we have Moleskin, Silk, Beaver, Neutria, Russin, Cassimere, Soft and every other kind of This that can be thought of, and will be able to suit the taste and inclination of all who may favor us with n call.

STRAW GOODS.—Of straw goods we have a very STRAW GOODS,—Of straw goods we have a very fine and choice stock, not surpassed by any in town. It consists of Men's, Boys' and Youths' Panama, Palm Leaf, Leghorn, Canada, Mayichilo, Michigan, &c.—A fine stock of Misses' Bloomers.

Our assortment of CAPS is one of the most extension in the above.

Denslow & Co., Commission Merchants, AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN .

PAREIGN AND DOMESTIC LEAF TODACCO,

MANUFACTURED Tobucco, and Foreign and Do-mestic Segars, 21 South Front Street, Phila-delphia. Importers of Fine Havana Segars of the choicest growths of the Vuelta-Abajo, a large assort-ment of which are kept constantly on hand; and for sale at a small advance on cost of importation. Act Consignments respectfully solicited, on which liberat advances will be made when desired. N. B.—Special attention given to orders for pur-chase on commission, of Tonacco, as also every de-scription of Merchandise, for account of parties living at a distance from this market.

Surgical and Mechanical and warrant them to be not only durable, but made DENTIST.

DR. C. C. II. GULDIN, from New York, invites the attention of those in Allentown and vicinity, who require operations on the natural Teeth, or who are in need of artificial ones, to his superior mode of operating in all the different departments of Dentistry.

Having had eight years' experience in his profession, and availing himself of every valuable improvement, he knows he can render the very best assistance to the patient of which the Art is capable.

Beffinences.—Rev. Thomas De Witt, D. D.

Rev. Charles M. Jameson, F. Clarkson, M. D., William Underhill, M. D., New York city.

Office for the present at the American Hotel. Patients also visited at their residence if de-Allentown, Jan. 17, 1855.

VENDUE CRYER.

THE undersigned, a son of the well known and popular Vendue Cryer, John Smith, deceased, respectfully informs the public that he has adopted the business, and offers his services in that capacity to all who may require them. He considers himself able to render satisfaction, as hundreds of references can be given. He can be engaged to go any distance can be given. He can be engaged to go any distance that may be required. His residence is the first door above the German Referenced Church discrete t may be required. His residence is the first too.

by the German Reformed Church, directly oppose the German Reformed Church, directly opposed to FRANKLIN SMITH. O below Pretz, Guth at the American Hotel.

Cheap Boots & Shoes, Witty & Enauss,

No. 21 East Hamilton street, Allentown.

A. H. RUHE having sold his interest in the establishment the control of the control o A. Hishment, the undersigned formed a co-partner-ship, and now invite the attention of the citizens of the town and vicinity, as well as country merchants, to their largeand superior stock of

at the above named old stand, one door east of the German Reformed Church, where they manufacture and sell of WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, all kinds of fine and coarse gentlemen's Boots and Shoes. Also, all kinds of the latest styles of Ladies' and Children's Shoes, comprising all styles, qualities and prices. Ladies' Gaiters, with or without beels, made up of French, Italian English and American Lasting, of all colors and styles. Dress Shoes of Patent Leather, Morocco, Kid, French Morocco and Seal, different colors, for Women, Misses, Children and Infants. All we ask is an examination of our goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

MEASURE OR CUSTOMER WORK will always be attended to with nunctuality, in the Country Merchants will find that we are prepared to sell to them at the very lowest city Jobbing prices. Orders respectfully solicited. WITTY & KNAUSS.

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, Caps, Lamps, Trunks, Valisos, Carpet Bags, Cc.

Caps, Lamps, Trunks, Valisos, Carpet Bags, Cc.

No. 15 East Hamilton street, Allentown, Pa.,

A GAIN take pleasure in calling the attention of the citizens of the town, and the public generally to the largest and freshest stock of the above goodsever exhibited in this place, consisting of spring and summer BOOTS and SHOES purchased direct from the manufacturers in New England, at the lowest CASH PRICES, which enables us to offer rare inducements to our customers, either wholesale or fetall, Great care has been observed as to style, quality and sizes,—such sizes as are best suited for this section of country. In this particular we are prepared to give better satisfaction to country merchants than they will receive in either Philadelphia or New York.

In connection with the above we desire particularically to call intention to goods of our own manufacture, by to call intention to goods of our own manufacture, suitable for all clares, consisting of the country. In this particular we are prepared to give better satisfaction to country merchants than they will receive in either Philadelphia or New York.

In connection with the above we desire particularically to call intention to goods of our own manufacture, with one of the banker pushed towards him a heap of gold.

Men's, Boys', Youths' and Children's Coarre, Kip, Calf, Morocco, Philadelphia or New York.

And the banker pushed towards him a heap of gold.

"I," said Frank, approaching the table. "Are you sure of that?"

"He refuses," cried one of the players, leaning his elbows on the table, and eagerly devouring with his eyes the glittering pile of gold.

"Shaw, are such things ever refused?" in young sailor cast a rapid glance at the players, whose eyes were all fixed upon him and addressing the banker, said:

"This, sir, I take it, as a joke. It can't be possible that all this belongs to me!"

"But it is all yours, sir!" replied the bank. No. 45 East Hamilton street, Allentown, Pa., for spring and summer wear. We have a very handsome and complete assortment of Soft Hats for Gents.

Boys and Youths. Our Gents' Silk or Moleskin Hats are not equalved by any establishment in town, as they are all ma nufactured to order by the most fashjournable Hatters in Philodelukia.

A fine stock of Misses' Bhonners.

Our assortment of CAPS is one of the most extensive in the place, and are adding to it almost daily. Customers may rest assured that they can be suited as the stock has been selected from the largest assortments in the cities.

As all HATS are manufactured under the immediator, they feel warranted in saying that for durability ment in town.

April 9.

They are all manufactured to order by the most fashionable Hatters in Philindelphia.

STRAW GOODS.—In this line we are not surpassed by any establishment out of the large cities. Our stock is very large, consisting of Mens, Boys, and Youths' Panama, Maricaiho, Leghorn Pedile, Children's Fancy Hats and Leghorn Caps, Misses' Flats, Ladies' Riding Hats, &c.

Children's Fancy Hats and Leghorn Caps, Misses' Flats, Ladies' Riding Hats, &c.

Our assortment of Lamps, Trunks and Carpet Bags is usual, full and complete.

P. S. All the above goods will be furnished to Merchants supplied at the lowes will receive prompt attention.

The banker was a man as yet, in the prime of life, but grown old and hardened by a long carrier of wickedness.

Ah," said he, leaning back in his chair, his pallied lips quelies with a cards.

Keck & Newhard's.

No. 35 East Hamilton Street, NO. 3.) PAST HAMIHON DIFCCI,
THE largest assortment of Spring and Summer
I Goods ever seen in Allentown. We purchased FOR CASH, which enables us to sell lower than any other Clothing Establishment in town. We have relected our Goods with an eye to durability and fancy, and have fone but the latest styles that could be found in the New York and Philadelphia Markets,— We keen on hand at all times a large assortment of quivered with suppressed anger. The same sandonic smile played on his features but their palenesss had faded to a yet more livid and say hue.

In an instant the players were on their feet, and grouping round the two actors of this strange and unexpected drama. Frank was standing up, with his hands convulsively clenched, his eyes up with neatness and taste.

CUSTOMER WORK

Spring and Summer outfit.

A.O Remember the spot—No. 35 East Hamilton street, nearly opposite the German Reformed Church. March 26.

TOR. H. A. GRIM, A. M. OFFICE AT THE

EAGLE HOTEL, NO. 3 WEST HAMILTON STREET, Allentown, Feb. 6.

COURTLANDT STREET MADE DE MA 28 Courtlandt Street.

NEW YORK. J. S. STEBBINS, PROPRIETOR.

two or three wax lights on a table, round which were seated a group of grave, auxious-looking, and thoughtful men-a few words exchanged at intervals, and for accompaniment the metalic chink of the handfuls of gold, which rolled will always be attended to with punctuality, in the chant, and an heiress of an immense wealth latest styles, of good materials by superior workmen. Frank Vincent was an American by birth, and an officer in the navy. Estelle was his cousin, and he was to marry her.

The dances were made up, and the ballroom-was filled to suffication. The young men, fatigued with the glare of light, the bustle and YOUNG & LEH.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN DAATE CHAIC HATCE

other, but made no reply.

"Count me in for the balance," said Frank, unconcernedly, willing to try whether the said forebodings with which his mind had been haun-possible that all this belongs to me "But it is all yours, sir !" replied the bank- the table. er, in the same cold tone, adding with it a bit-"You held the blank, and the cards

A prolonged murmur of astonishment ran telle.

Frank made a compulsive spring backwards.

Liar ?" he exclaimed, in a hollow voice. The banker sat motionless, but his thin lips quivered with suppressed anger. The same saidonic smile played on his features but their palenesses had faded to a yet more livid and scription of Merchandise, for account of parties aving at a distance from this market.

AB-Also Agent for F. A. Goetz's Celebrated German Smoking Tobacco, comprising thirty different varieties.

Auril 9.

READY-MADE CLOTHESC,

such as Coats of every color and description: Pantalons of all styles and prices, all kinds of Vests, Shirts and Undershirts, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, & Shirts and Undershirts and Undershirts and Coats of every color and description: Pantalons of all styles and prices, all kinds of Vests, Shirts and Undershirts, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, & Casting on the spectators a look of self-possession, at the same time playing with the pile of gold heaped up on his right.

heaped up on his right.
"Sir!" he at last said, measuring Frank with his eye from head to foot, with the coolest CUSTOMER WORK will be done up as usual, and for our work we are willing to be held responsible.
We invite all people who desire immense bargains, to give us a call and thereby save from FIFTY to SEVENTY-FIVE per cent, in the purchase of their
Spring and Summer outfit.
Spring and Summer outfit.
Spring and Summer outfit. suppose, that knowing them, you would not have taken upon yourself to give me the lie in their presence. Pray, sir, what may be your servoir of votes for Smith was opened. Smith namo "Insolent fellow!" cried Frank, in concentrated rage.

"Very well, if that name pleases you," replied the banker, with impurturable calmness,

I have the choice of weapons; sir. Perhaps it is well you should know that I have never yet missed my man.

Yet missed my man."

"You try hard to frighten somebody, don't you?" said Frank impatiently.

"I? not in the least." replied the banker with indifference, and with the same cold sneer and smile of duplicity. "But I cannot find it in my conscience to assassinate you."

And so saying be draw a least ride right. And so saying he drew a long rifle-pistol from his pocket and coolly laid it on the table before him.

before him.

A death-like silence pervaded the room. "There, sir," he continued, "this is the best who comes into possession. Ambition stimuthing I have to propose; indeed, it is all I lated by hope and a half-filled pocket-book, has possibly can do to accommodate you. Bring the he continued in the same tone of voice,

The door of the play-room was closed, and true?

As if howed by the force of an electric shock every head was bent upon the cloth. The action of this terrific drama had passed so rapidly, the end was an account that the control of the state of the control of the co ly, the end was so near at hand, that one could not believe in the reality of this atrocious scene enacting without noise or interruption, and hundreds of people within call.

The banker in a loud voice reckoned up the " Six and six are twelve, one are thirteen : a good throw, a very good throw upon my word, young gentleman -- a very good throw!" He took the dice and replaced them in the box with an air of the coolest indifference, and addressing the spectators :

er, still stretched out in his chair, was quietly engaged in adjusting the lock, and carefully examining the priming of his pistol. "I am ready," replied the young man standing motionless before him.

A little more room, if you please gentlemen," said the banker, at the same time bowsaid the banker, at the same time bowing to the spectators, and motioning with his arm for them to stand on one side.

"Fire!" said Frank, uncoving his breast, his countenance beaming intrepidity and unshrinking resignation.

The banker withdrew his hand and raised his head.

The speciation breathed once more. The unnatural scene had been protracted too long, and for an instant there was hope.

"We have not chosen our seconds," he remarked "but as for that," he added, after a long hope may moment's silence, "these gentlemen here may serve as witnesses in case of need."

He leveled again and fired. "The young lieutenant lay grasping upon the floor in the last agonies of death. and addressing the banker, said:

"This, sir, I take it, as a joke. It can't be banker, as he laid the pistol, still smoking upon

At the noise made by the report of the pistol the noise made by the report of the piscon, the folding doors of the saloon were burst open, and the crowd rushed in. There was a piereing shrick—a young girl fell senseless on the bleeding corpse of Frank Vincent. It was Estableship to the corps of the piece of of th

The banker is now in California.

From the San Fransisco Chroniele.

A Stuffed Ballot-Box. We yesterday had an opportunity of seeing a ballot-box, in the possession of the Vigitance Committee, which was rascally ingenious. It will receive prompt attention.

New Spring and Simmer

Greer of wickedness.

"Ah," said he, leaning back in his chair, his pallied lips curling with a faint laugh of scorn; "indeed young gentleman but you would most certainly have paid it though; and that, too, in good hard gold; or else you would have paid it at the muzzle of a pistol!"

But the control of the control of the outside a dark sky blue color. It had moulding or eleast around the bottom, and at the top next the lid. The lock, which looked like an ordinary one, is so constructed that, though it was worked with a key, it might also be opened by a peculiar pressure mean one side of the lid. was about two feet long, fourteen inches wide, a peculiar pressure upon one side of the lid. There was an auger hole in the middle of the lid, and some of the wax with which it had been sealed at the closing of the polls when last used, was still remaining. It seems that the box was used last at a primary election in the Seventh Ward, and the votes were still in it. On looking at the box, few would suspect the contrivances about it, but on further and minute examination it was found that it had a first drawn, which is the poorest. false bottom and a false side, sliding in grooves, under and behind which were packed quantities of spurious votes, all ready for an election. The mode of working the machine scems to have been this :- A sufficient number of the votes which the initiated wishes to elect, prepared and secreted under and behind the false bottom and side. The election was held; Smith was the man to be elected, but Brown votes : or suppose Brown had still a majority, the false side was pulled down, and another renow had a triumphant majority, though the seal had not been touched; or if nothing else would do, a handful of votes for Smith be easily thrown in, and in each case the lid would probably be opened, and polled votes, cor-responding with the number of the stuffed ones be withdrawn. One thing was certain -Smith would be elected!

The only money that does a man good is To Cure Cramp.—Persons subject to what he earns himself. A ready-made fortune cramp in the night can instantly relieve themis like ready-made clothes, seldom fits the man a power that will triumph over all difficulties, beginning with the rich man's contumely and had the lad received a slight shock, than he fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master! I did steal your cigars and a little knife, and have lied ever so many times; please to While holding that position became acquaints."

While holding that position became acquaints with the holding that position became acquaints.

Velocity of Lightning.

Sound travels in the air with a velocity of only 113 feet in a second, but lightning at the rate of 195,000 miles in the same period of time. The time in which the flash of lightning reaches us from the different points of its course, may consequently be considered instantaneous; but the time which the explosion occupies will be very appreciable, and will vary with the distance of the several parts of the long line, which the distance travels. A calculation has been made formulation that the distance travels. made, founded on the interval between the flash and the sound, and the duration of the thunderelan, showing that a flash of lightning will frequently fraverse a page of the lightning will and, when we take into Mcconfer the Mclarg course which it ordinarily follows, its alternate approach and recession, will account for henomena in question. Such would be the ted. fleet produced upon an observer standing at the end of a long file of soldiers, who were to lischarge their muskets at the same moment. He would not hear a single report, but a succession of reports, which would produce an irregular rolling sound.

Facts About Milk.

narrow dish; and if it be desired to free it most completely of cream, it should be poured into a broad, flat dish, not much exceeding one inch of bringing a cash return to the butter maker The evolution of cream is facilitated by a rise, and retarded by a depressure of temperature. At the usual temperature of the dairy-50 degrees of Falmenheit-all the cream cy-50 degrees of Fairgenheit—an the cream three cowill probably rise in thirty six hours; but at by salt. 70 degrees, it will perhaps rise in half of that 70 degrees, it will perhaps rise in half of that time; and when the milk is kept near the freezing point the green will rise your cloudy had just as sweet as clive oil, without salt, if autumn the butter keeping is better than that of summer—the cows less frequently milked, gave richer milk and consequently more but-The morning's milk is richer than the evening's. The last drawn milk of each milking at all times and seasons, is richer than the

Be Careful of the Hoops. 'Sam, what was the matter with you last night, when I saw you walking up and down

Oh Bill, I met with a bad misfortune on last Sunday night,—time of that hard wind. 'How came that, Sam?'

You know those hoops the ladies have got to rearing in their skirts ?

'Yes Sam. I do, and I don't like them.'
You needn't like them. for I was walking with my lady that night, who had one of them on, and blame the thing, it kept rolling my boot handles, and for an excuse, I told her to let go of my arm while I got my handkerchief, and in the meantime a gale of wind came and took her up in the air, and I have not seen her since! 'Well, have you heard from her since ?' 'Yes, I got a letter from her to-day.

Where is she?' Why, she's over in Jersey, where she landed after a pleasant ride of fifteen minutes. speaks in eloquent terms of the people of Jersey, and says that they are about as clever and hospitable as the people of the United States!

Losing a cow for the sake of a cat. This is the Chinese interpretation of going to law.

To catch a beau-Bait yourself with hoops, paint, silks, ribbons, and the et ceteras. TO CURE CRAMP. - Persons subject to Paper. selves by tying a bandage tightly round the leg, immediately above the knee

The following recipe is said by the N. Y. Chronicle, to be a sure and easy cure for corns: turning half round in his chair, "and shut that leaving off with the envious man's malice, it several times a day with spirits of turpendoor."

The Albany Police Tribune says this. Ain't it time; this will, in three days, cure the corn Tie a piece of raw cotton to the corn, and wet tine; this will, in three days, cure the corn without the least apparent pain.

THE GAMBLER,

OR, A NIGHT IN A SPORTINU HOUSE.

It was the height of the season, and the rooms were crowded.

That evening at the party there was dancing on one side and playing on the other. Here the glare of waxlights, the sparkle of diamonds on the foreheads of the women, and the confused on the table. The highest throw kills on the foreheads of the women, and the confused on the table. The music of the orchestra, and the hum of voices only reached the room in a suppressed and distant a friend related the following:

A gentleman a few milesoutof town, recently ing some experiments. As soon as he got home, the negroes as usual flocked around him, on the foreheads of the women, and the confused on the table, seizting the late thunder storm of last Friday.

A gentleman a few milesoutof town, recently ing some experiments. As soon as he got home, the negroes as usual flocked around him, on the foreheads of the women, and the confused on the table, seizting to reveal all if an officer wanted moving, or in other words to piller or was sent to him.

wanted moving, or in other words to pilfer occasionally.

"Now, Jack," says his master, "look here; this machine is to make the people tell the truth; and if you have stolen anything, or lied to me, it will knock you down."

"Why, master," said the boy, "I never lied or stole anything in my life."

"Well, take hold of this;" and no sooner had the lad received a slight shock, than he fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master than fell on his knees and bawled out, "Oh, master to make the people tell the in Broadway, deputed officer Masterton and learn what he had to communicate. Accordingly the officer proceeded to the island, where he found Lawler, a young man 26 years of age, who on being questioned, told a story which, if true abundantly verifies the old adage, that "truth is stranger than fletion." Lawler states the fill the information had some reference to the late mysterious murder in Broadway, deputed officer Masterton and learn what he had to communicate. Accordingly the officer proceeded to the island, where he found Lawler, a young man 26 years of age, who on being questioned.

and have lied ever so many times; piease to forgive me."

The same experiment was tried with like success on half a dozen juyeniles. At last an old nigger who had been looking on very attentively, stepped up.

Date the with a girl named Mary Dunn, with whom he kept-company for some time; and one night after having made improper proposals to her, which she indignantly repelled, he murdered and threw her body into the river. The corpse was found a few days afterwards, and the box with an air or the coccated addressing the spectators:

"Thirteen," he exclained: "a very good point! but it is always an unlucky number.—Come, gentlemen, who bets a couple of hundred on the life of that young gentleman yonder?" he continued, fixing his eye with malignant, and deadly glare on the young lieutenant, who quailed beneath it.

The players turned pale and remained silent. "Well, then," said he, with a smile "as there seems to be none to bet, here for myself!" and the dice rolled out on the table.

"Fifteen! You've lost, sir! It's pity, too, with so good a point. The affair was well contested, at all events. See then, sir, your life of the property of the fearful the preparation of the fearful the preparation of the fearful deed was unknown. But while the officers of the law were at fault, the conscience of the murderer was not, and he imagined that every one who looked at him knew his dreadful secret. This at length best to know too much. Dars many a soul with so good a point. The affair was well contested, at all events. See then, sir, your life of the property at the other property. The corpse was found a few days afterwards, and the feat of her being nurdered made apparent, but the perpetrator of the fearful deed was unknown. But while the officers of the law were at fault, the conscience of the murderer was not, and he imagined that every one who looked at him knew his dreadful secret. This at length best to ketch your soul somehow, an' I reckon you had jest take an' burn it up an' have it sould into the river. The corpse was found a few days afterwards, and the feat of her being murdered made apparent, but the perpetrator of the feat fully the preparation of the feat of her being murdered and threw her body into the river. The corpse was found a few days afterwards, and the feat of her being murdered was of the preparation of the feat of his made at an all threw her body into the river. The corpse was found a few days afterwards, and there were a stanting shock. It looked first at fault, the him. Day and night the fearful vision was before his eyes, and no employment could banish it from his mind.

At length he joined the United States army At length he joined the United States army abut he lived in such a constant state of terror from his supposed spectral visitant, that he determined to make a clean breast of it, and, by confessing his crime, obtain some peace and quiet. On hearing the strange story, the officer arrested him, and on application to Justice Connolly, had him committed, and he is now in the lock-up in the City Hall, awaiting examination. tion. There is a suspicion that the man is crazy, but Sergeant Owen, who is familiar with the town of Rathdrum - having been educated there-ustilles. Uptalo, wher is a boorp and tensors very direct and clear. The prisoner is a young man, a fine penman, and evidently well educavelopment of this singular affair. N. I. BUTTER.

To-day there will doubtless be further

Will salt preserve butter? No: that question is easily answered. Salt is added to butter for two reasons,-one is to assist in its preservation, the dairy woman vainly thinking Cream cannot rise through a great depth of milk. If, therefore, milk is desired to retain its with the idea that all the salt put in the butter is a time, it should be put into a deep. sold at the full price the butter brings. It is a to the butter-maker proves a positive loss of several cents a pound, because it reduces the value of every pound of butter so over salted, frequently as much as three cents a pound. Butter is not preserved ing point, the cream will rise very slowly, be-no other substance is incorporated with it. It cause it becomes solidified. In wet and cold is cascinet of milk that spoils the butter, and weather, the milk is less rich then in dry and warm; and on this account more cheese is obtained in cold than in warm, though not in thunder weather. The season has its effects — The tained in cold than in warm, though not in thum-dery weather. The season has its effects. The milk in spring is supposed to be the best for drinking; hence it would be the best for calves; in summer it is best suited for cheese; and in summer it is best suited for cheese; and in absolutely free of butternilk or particles of sour curd, and then just enough and no more, salt added to suit the taste of the consumer. The salt must be pure and one ounce to ten pounds of butter will be sufficient. Then pack the butter solidly in any cask of sweet wood or stone pot, so as to exclude the air, and just as long as the air is excluded the butter will remain sweet. If it could be kept perfectly ex-cluded, the period it would keep sweet is forever. Your question is answered. Salt will not preserve butter.

> A FUNNY INCIDENT.-A few evenings since, a young man who had never witnessed a dramatic performance, visited one of our theatres. In the course of the play, a mimic conflagration broke out upon the stage, and all the horrors of a theatrical fire alarm at once burst forth. The verdant youth, supposing the scene to be reality, was surprised at the insensibility of the audience to the danger, and springing to his feet, he exclaimed. "By thunder, I'm as brave as any of you but I'll be hanged if I am going to be roasted alive here!" and rushed out, amid the laughter. On reaching the street, he began to think that he had been "sold," and, after some deliberation, slowly wended his way back. His re-appearance was the signal for renewed merriment on the part of the audience, who received him with great ap-plause; but without being at all abashed, he stood upon his seat, and as soon as silence was restored, good-humoredly said, "Ladies and gentleman, I'm a 'purchased' individual, and he manager of this concern would do me a particular favor by taking my hat." This speech brought down a tempest of applause, and the green horn, bowed his acknowledgements, took his seat in triumph .- Philadelphis

WHIPPING A WHITE MAN.—A few days since, a white man, named Daniel Moran, received fifteen lashes at the public whipping post, in Norfolk, Va., by order of the Hastings Court, having been convicted of petty larceny. The receipts of the Lehigh Valley R. R. last month were $26,000.