Where are the Democrats!

The Pennsylvanian and other Buchanan or gans have been assuring their readers ever sinc the Cincinnati nomination, that the great body of the Old Line Whigs were going for Buchanan and by way of proof that such was the case, in the State of Maine, four out of six Buchanan candidates for Congress, were taken from the Old Whig ranks. In Iowa too, the Buchaniers counted on carrying the State by an overwhelming majority from the alleged fact that a great proportion of the Whigs had joined their party. Now, admitting that the Whigs are generally for Buchanan, the question arises, where are the Democrats? Iowa and Maine have been carried by the Fremonters by larger majorities than used to be given in those States for the than used to be given in those States for the Democratic party, and the conclusion is irresistible that if the Whigs have turned Democrats the majority of the old Deniocrats are now in the Republican ranks, where they are battling for the same principles that animated their party under the leadership of Jefferson and Madison; while the pretended and spurious Democrats having discarded every cardinal principle of the fathers of their faith, are very consistently endeavoring to elevate to the Presi dency a man who distinguished himself in early life as the deadly foe of the Democratic party, but who in his latter days has assumed the Democratic name in order more effectually to overthrow Democratic principles.

Editor Hung in Kansas.

The Evansville Journal learns from a gentleman just come from Green Castle, Putnam county, that Alfred Patrick, Esq., formerly eligible Patrick, eligible tor of the Putnam county Banner, was hung in Leavenworth, by the Border Ruslians, a short time since. The news first came as a rumor, which was not believed till verified by a letter to one of his relatives. Mr. Patrick was well known over the State as an editor. He was a vigorous and spicy writer, and before his departure for Kansas was a strong pro-slavery an' and advocated the American cause. After his arrival in Kansas, and he had an opportunipro-shovery men there, he wrote home letters signifying a decided change in his views, and detailing dangers he had escaped from holding opinions sympathetic with those of the free State

Our Third Year.

With this issue we commence our third year in the publication of the "Register," and also our third year in the Editorial profession, -a sufficient length of time for our readers to form their opinion of our ability to conduct a newspaper. As we said above, two years since we took upon ourself the responsibilities, trials and anxieties, in the publication of a public journal, and we entered upon its duties with a degree of diffidence generally attending the debut of a young man into business life; but with perseverance and unceasing exertion we have been enabled to stem the tide of difficulties and trials, and steer our barque clear from all adverse winds. When the "Register" passed into our hands, its subscriped English democratic paper, with all the influence and power of the "county officers" to face of the old man." How far we have succeeded in this we leave the public to judge, but at the same time we feel most happy in being able to say that through our own humble exertions and the kind assistance of our friends, we have built up a subscription list that we are proud of—our advertising patronage has more than doubled itself and our jobbing orders are equal, with one exception, to those of any other office in the place. For this evidence of appreciation, we return our grateful acknowledgements, and trust that we may, in future, be as successful in rendering satisfaction as has been the case in the past.

An important change has however taken week dropped the neutral banner, and will now conduct it upon strict party grounds, taking the principles of the great Republican party as the basis which shall govern us; and in doing party and join the true Democratic, to wit:so, it will be our object and aim to place those principles before the people, in an honest, candid manner, and shall "sink or swim" in endeavoring to render "THE GREATEST GOOD TO
