CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

CONSUMPTION. THIS remedy has won for itself such notoricly from its cures of every variety of pulmenary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evi-dences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wild is the field of its use-funces, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too appa-rent to escape observation, and where its virtue-are known, the public no longer besitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affec-tions of the pulmonary organs which are incident to employ for the distressing and dangerous affec-tions of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable at tacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUCHS, HOARSENESS, &c.; and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by— all the Jurugersts in Adentown, and by Druggist
