Kansas Affairs.

On the 1st the pro-slavery party of Kan-sas went through the farce of an election for Delegate to Congress and members of the Legislature. Of course they had no opposition. people of Lawrence very properly resolved to take no part in the matter, and we trust the same course was pursued by the Free State men throughout the Territory. They should do nothing that would imply a recognition of the territorial laws, which they, as well as the lower House of Congress, have persistently repudated. But how could they participate in the elections, even if they desired it. They are utterly disfranchised. They cannot discuss the very questions at issue without violating the laws and subjecting themselves to arrest. Be-fore they can vote they must take an oath to support laws which nine-tenth of them hold unconstitutional. And they must pay a poll tax of one dollar, which hundreds of them could not do, having been robbed of their money by the invaders.

According to the latest accounts from Kansas,

Gov. Geary is by no means inclined to be im partial in his conduct toward the Free-State and pro-slavery settlers. According to the St. Louis Republican, when he visited the camp of the ruffians under Atchison, who were going to destroy Lawrence, he was extremely complaisant adequate, he would call them out and Mr. Smith crush out Lanc's army of marauders. He furthermore, before leaving the camp, au-mediately enrolled, and the force would be made up in a few days. Thus these men, whom the Governor well knew were marching on the town of Lawrence for the purpose of murdering making a total of 200,—embracing representatives its citizens and destroying their property—for they did not hesitate to avow this as their object from far-off California. The establishment seems to United States! Was ever a more outrageous in- numerous and wide-spread patronage it enjoys is a sult heaped upon a free people? To extend slavery by force ed by this dodge of manufacturing majorities and outrage is honorable, but to defend freedom is a sin not to be pardoned—it is treason? It is evident that even-handed justice is not to be expected from Gov. Geary.

It was necessary for him to signalize his adcent into the territory by securing the dispersion of the Missouri forces. It was necessary vet doomed to feel the vindictive and relentless oppression of the present Administration through the agency of Governor Geary. Many are returning East, and many more will go just as soon as they can get away. We have a Governor that has said be would, enforce these territorial laws, and he has the United States government to back him up. What shall we do? What can we do?

"The roads have been closed for six weeks. It time would permit, I would give you an account of our different battles. The day after our company came to Lawrence, we marched forty-four miles after 10 o'clock, and did not have an thing to cut until next day. We slept on the ground. There were 100 of us, and we drove 1,000 of the Missourians back to

of us, and we drove 1,000 of the Missourians back to their dens, without firing a gun."

The policy of keeping back the Free State men, and encouraging the border ruflians—of suffering the latter to rob or marder, and punshing the former for organized resistance—is the policy upon which Governor Shannon acted. The new Governor has signalized his advent by some meritorious acts ; but if, as would appear from recent developments, he intends to pursue the same policy as his predecessor, the situation of the Free Sate men will be in no wise ameliorated. It is this outrageous policy of patting the border ruffians on the back and calling them good fellows, which has been at the foundation of all the troubles in Kansas. The Free State men and actual settlers could sweep the Missouriansout of the State were it not for the interference of the Territorial authorities and United

It appears ome three or four disorderly characters, in a state of intoxication, came to the public house of Wm. J. Rothrock, but liquor being refused them, they left for an ale house in another part of the village, where they became very boliterous, and afterwards neain returned to the hotel of Mr. Rothrock, and threatened his life, and destruction of his property, unless heave them a drink. In order to reconcile them, and with a promise that they would leave peaceably, Mr. It, was induced to give them a drink. After getting the drink, they refused to leave and attempted toin the New Havener, Sept. 19, published in the New Haven Palladam, Says:

"Gov. Geary has now one hundred Free State men prisoners. They went on Saturday night to drive off some of our enemy—and after a snarr fight they, were ejected from the room, and the door closed,—on Sauday started for Lawrence, but were taken by Mr. R. however warned them to desist, and threatenthe troops. But did he arrest the men who came to attack Lawrence? Oh, no.-All he did was to tell cd to shoot into them if they did not. Being under The Free State men are down-hearted, and who ing them off, aiming at their legs so as to avoid any can blame them? If the Free State men tain serious injury to them; but just at the moment he out to-defend themselves they will be arrested; and pick up a stone and was shot in a mortal part. He lied in about three hours thereafter. Mr. Rothrock mmediately gave Littself up to the sutherities, and had a hearing, upon which the justice required him to enter into bonds for his appearance at the next term of Court. The deceased lived in the vicinity of

> A NEW BATCH OF SLAVE STATES .- A letter writer thus divides the possibilities for new slave states, if either Fillmore or Buchanan are elected to the Presidency:

3 new slave states out of Kansas.

2 new slave states out of Nebraska. 3 new slave states out of Texas.

2 new slave states out of Washington. 2 new slave states out of the N. West Terri-new slave state out of the Indian Territory.

4 new slave states out of New Mexico.

l new slave states out of Utah. 2 new slave states out of Minnesota

1 new slave state out of South California.

3 new slave states out of Cuba. 20 additional slave states.

Supposing that Kansas should be lost to freelom, the above estimate is reasonable. If there is a right in making Kansas slave ground, the same right will carry the institution into III would be well for the Germans and Irish to remember the words of Robert Wick-liffe, one of the Kentucky delegates to the Cininnati convention which nominated Buchanan, when he returned to his own state. Referred to the probable extension of slavery, and the demand for slave labor that would arise, he said that if there were not niggers enough, he was a in favor of making slaves of the d—d Irish and Dutch." So says Cassius M. Clay, who heard the remark, and no one has ventured to dispute the accuracy of his statement.

TFLORIDA FLECTION .- The returns indicate that the American party in Florida have elected their Governor, and the Fillmore papers claim that state for their candidate at the Presidential election. Florida has 31 counties, and 16 have been heard from, which give the Americans 1,179 votes and the Democrats 963.

President Pierce says he intends to become a farmer in his own native State. New Hampshire, after the expiration of his Presidential term. How much better it would have been to have come to this decision before making an abortive effort to secure a re-nomination.
