THIS GREAT QUESTION 7 In the CONTINENTAL CONGRESS of 1784, THOMAS JEFFERSON, the AUTION of the immortal DEGLARA-TION OF INDEFENDENCE-as Chairman of a Commit-

Tion of Inderendence-mis chainman of a commu-tee on the subject of TERRITORIES-Proposed-"That the TERRITORIES-by individual States to the United States," shall be formed into distinct States," and "That after the year 1800 of the Christian Era there shall be NEITHbe formed into distinct status, into "into and and the year 1800 of the Christian Era there shall be NEITH-'AR SLAVERY nor involuntary servitude in any of the said STATES, otherwise than in the punishment of erimes whereof the party shall have been convicted to have been personally guilty." 9 States would have been necessary to pass it. Ton of the 13 orig-inal States voted on it, April 19, 1784. 6 States Aye, 3 States No, 1 Divided, THOMAS JEFFER-SON VOTED ATE. The CONTINENTAL CONGRESS passed "An ORDINANCE for the Government of the Territory of the United States North West of the Ohio," which embraced every foot of Territory them belonging to the United creat for the State thus: "There SMALL ER NEITHER

One of its "six unalterable articles of perpetual compact" reads thus: "There SHALL DE NEITHER BLAVERY NOB INVOLUNTARY SERVITODE in the said territory, otherwise than in punishment of crimes whereof the parties shall be duly convicted." Which was adopted July 13th, 1787, BY A UNANIMOUS VOTE OF THE STATES. (As shavery existed in the Territory at this time, the Ordinance actually abol-ished shorey there).

The First Congress after the adoption of the Constitution, ro-affirmed the slavery prohibiting ordinance, by an act which was approved by (EORGE WASH-INGTON, President of the United States, on the 7th of August, 1789.

INGTON, President of the United States, on the 7th of August, 1789. The Seventh Congress passed an act authorizing Ohio to form a State Constitution, and for her admission into the Union, "Provided the same shall be repub-lican and not represent to the ordinance of the 13th of July, 1787," which prohibited startery. Approved by Theomes Jefferson, President United States, on the 20th of April, 1802. The Territory of Indiana applied to Congress re-pontedly to suspend the ordinance of 1787, prohibiting slavery in that Territory. These applications of Indiana were hefore— The Seventh Congress, March 2d, 1803; The Eighth Congress, February 17th, 1804; The Ninth Con-gress, February 17th, 1806; The Tonth Congress, Jan. 21st, 1807, and Feb. 12; 1807; and each time refused, all under the administration of THUSAS JEFFERSON, President. These for refused to suspend the Ordi-nance of '87, were so many configurations of it." "I act, then, in conformity to the long, uniformly-es-tablished policy of Congress, as well as in comform-ity to my own principles, in refusing to rote for the extension of slavery." Speech of Thes. If. Benton, United States Scaule, June 10, 1850. The Fourteenth Congress passed an Act authorizing Indiana to form a State Constitution, which provid-ed that it should be "Republican and not Repug-mant to the Ordinance of July 13, 1787." Approved by JAMES MADISON, President. April 10, 1816.

April 19, 1940. The Fifteenth Congress passed a similar Act in ro-gard to Illinois, and provided that it should be " Re-publican and not Repugnant to the Ordinance of July a second 13, 1787. oved by JAMES MADISON, President.

In another speech ho said— "Whenever there is a foot of land to be staid back from becoming slave territory, I am ready to awart the principle of exclusion of slavery." The Democratic Party of Pennaylvania at its State Convention, held at Pittaburg, July 4th, 1849, amer-ted directly opposite ground to that now assumed. The following Resolution was then unanimously adopt-ed.

The following Resolution was then unanimously adopt-ed: "Resolved, That the Democratic party adheres now as it has over done, to the Constitution of the country Its letter and epirit they will neither weaken nor de-stroy, and they redeclare ' that flyery is a local, do-mestic institution of the South, subject to State law alone, and with which the general Government has nothing to do. Wherever the State law extends its jurisdiction, the local institution can continue to ex-is'. Esteeming it a violation of State rights to carry it beyond State limits, we deny the power of any citi-zen to extend the area of bondage beyond its present dominion; nor do we consider it a part of the Consti-tution, that slavery should forever travel with the ad-vancing column of our temitorial progrees." vancing column of our tersitorial progress."

Let the People Remember,

That every man who votes for James Buchanan, votes directly for the perpetration of the outrages in Kansas, which have been countenanced and encouraged by the present administration. He votes to consign that vast territory which was solemnly confirmed by the Missouri Compromise to the free white man forsouri Compromise to the free white man for ever, to the labor of the negro slave. Will you preserve this wide domain for yourselves, your children, and your children's children. or will you blacken it with the curse of negro slavery ?

Consider it with the curse of negro slavery i Consider it well, and fear not to record your ken of the robbery by the United States governdecision on the side of justice and right, yourselves and your kindred.

Union Convention at Harrisburg.

The Union State Convention, called for the ourpose of forming an anti-Buchanan Electoral ticket, met on Tuesday, at 2 o'clock. in the hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg. The attendance was large, most of the counties being represented by double delegations. On motion, Wm. M. Baird, of Berks, was appointed temporary President, and Messrs. Hill, of Blair, and Laurence, of Dauphin, appointed Secretaries. A committee was appointed to examine cre dentials, and to report a list of delegates to the Convention: A committee of one delegate from each Sena torial District was then appointed to report per-manent officers for the Convention.

During the absence of the committee, on mo-tion, the address of the Hon. Charles Gibbons, exposing the course of John P. Sanderson Chairman of the American State Committee, in relation to a union electoral ticket, was read for the information of the Convention.

Political Facts for the People It is a fact that the Buchanan party is in favor of the extension of slavery. It is a fact that the present administration is trying to plant slavery in Kansas. It is a fact that the Buchananiers wish Kan sas to be a slave State. It is a fact that the agents of the Government and the United States troops in Kansas favored the pro-slavery men against the free State men.

It is a fact that Mr. Buchanan's election would favor the introduction of slavery into Kansas.

It is a fact that Mr. Buchanan did injustice to Henry Clay. It is a fact that the reports that come from Kansas about murders, robberies, &c., are facts, and half the truth is not told.

It is a fact that the free State settlers in Kan sas have been driven from the territory by the Missouri ruffians. It is a fact that the present National administration drove out and dispersed the legally elected Legislature of Kansas at the point of the bavonet. It is a fact that James Buchanan and the C neinnati platform approve of this outrage. It is a fact that the free State men are at this time denied the right to enter the territory of Kansas.

It is a fact that an armed mob of slavery propagandists have blockaded the rivers and roads to that territory. It is a fact that the present National admin from the arsenals-which have been broken ment.

It is a fact that robbery, pillage, arson murder, and the violation of every right, sacred and divine, is daily committed in Kansas upon the free State men, and their complaints are laughed to scorn by the United States authorities there, and by the Buchanan party everywhere.
