

INTERESTING LETTER FROM KANSAS.

Leocompton, September 25th, 1856. DEAR MOTHER:—You wonder why I date this letter at Leocompton—that place of Border-ruffian notoriety. The circumstances which I am about to relate will explain all. I wrote you about the battle of Franklin, and you have heard through other sources how the Free State party, after being outraged and oppressed, resolved to take up arms, show themselves men, and act on the defensive. Did you ever hear of such oppression as we have suffered? Oppression originating from the Border-ruffians, continued by the Border-ruffians, and aided and abetted by the Government? No sooner had the dens of murderers been broken up at Franklin and Washington Creek, and Titus been routed by our party, than the most infamous lies were circulated in Missouri by Atchison, Stringfellow and others. These lies incited the credulous scruff to another invasion, and we have had it. The country has lately been flooded by armed ruffians, who have been roaming about in a cowardly manner murdering undefending citizens, plundering their houses, and ravishing their wives and daughters. Atchison published his call for an invasion in the Border-ruffian papers, and in it cried "no quarters! no quarters for the d-d abolitionists!" Such was the state of affairs when citizens from all parts of the Territory had to flee to Lawrence for mutual protection, and temporary safety. Such were the state of affairs on Saturday, Sept. 13th, when a message arrived at Lawrence from Col. Lane, who was near Topeka, stating that a large party of ruffians were in the vicinity of Hickory Point, about twenty-five miles from Lawrence, robbing, murdering, and burning out the Free State settlers. He urged the citizens to turn out and assist him in driving out the ruffians; accordingly, about ten o'clock, P. M. on Saturday the 13th inst., about 105 men, under command of Col. Harvey, started from Lawrence, and about 10 o'clock the next day (Sunday,) we came in sight of the town of Hickory Point, where we found the enemy, about one hundred strong, in a well-enclosed camp, fortified in their log-houses, with a black piratical flag floating over them. What a flag to be floating over the beautiful prairies of Kansas! "No quarters!" what a motto to be heralded forth in a civilized country! We saw nothing of Lane and his men, but notwithstanding, Col. Harvey gave the command to "pitch in" and "we went in." Our artillery, of which we had six pieces, did good execution on the log houses, and our "Sharps" rifles spoke volumes. After fighting about four or five hours, we sent them word to surrender, or we would take them if we had to fight all night. The conditions were, that they should take down their flag, disband, and leave the country. They complied with the conditions, considering themselves whipped. In the battle three of our men were wounded—two by loss on their side one killed, and they report, four wounded, of U. S. troops, headed by one Woodhouse, who was called Grass-hopper, robbed, and driven out the Free State settlers in the surrounding country. Well, after accomplishing our object, we started homeward, very tired, sleep, and hungry, having had no sleep and very little food since we had started. When we got five miles from the battle ground, we concluded to encamp for the night. It was thought best by the physicians who were with us, to take the wounded men right on to Lawrence, and they requested an order to Lawrence, and about twenty of us started in wagons. When we were within two miles from the main camp, we were met by a large body of men who ordered us to "halt." At first we thought they were the ruffians, and our men, the most of whom were sleeping in the bottom of the wagons, were aroused, when we prepared for a battle. But we soon discovered our mistake; for we found ourselves surrounded by a large body of U. S. troops, headed by one Woodhouse, who was out in a stentorian voice, "you are all arrested by authority of the United States, and of Gov. Geary." We were in Uncle Sam's clutches and were compelled to succumb. Our arms were taken from us, and we were marched back to the rest of our men who shared the same fate. The pro-slavery whelp who guided the troops to us, was shot by one of the Dragoons. He was riding off from the party, no doubt to inform Missourians at Hickory Point of the proximity of the troops, when he was ordered by a trooper to halt! Instead of halting he turned and fired upon the trooper, wounding him in the shoulder; whereupon another dragoon shot the ruffian through the heart, thinking he was one of our men trying to escape. He was thrown into a wagon box, behind the wagon, and brought through Leocompton. After they had arrested us all, and taken all the arms they could find, we were brought through Leocompton to Lawrence, where we were placed in a row and counted 103, and all our arms taken from us, almost to a pen-knife. A guard was placed around us—we were enclosed within about half an acre—and were there compelled to wait five or six hours before we got any thing to eat, making about 18 hours without food. When the rations did come, we were not much benefitted, for two crackers each, a piece of fat bacon, and a cup of coffee, in a poor consolation to a famished stomach. That was our ration for each meal while we were in the U. S. camp. In the meantime, the greatest excitement was existing in Lawrence. Twenty eight hundred Missourians were about 10 miles behind the city with six pieces of artillery, marching on with the avowed intention of burning Lawrence, and murdering its inhabitants. What was to be done by the citizens? Here were over 100 of us in prison perfectly helpless, and the remaining men scattered over the Territory protecting the Free State families from the Border Ruffian Guerrillas. About 200 armed men could be mustered in Lawrence; what could they do against such a contending force? They appealed to the Governor (Geary,) and he consented finally, to bring the U. S. force against them. They sent word to him to take the troops out of the way or they would butcher them. Geary says they met, he compromised with them, he let them now enrolled some of them as territorial militia from Missouri. We saw some of them from our prairie plain marching through the U. S. camp, with a black flag flying over their cannon. While the Kickapoo rangers were between Lawrence and Leocompton they shot down a Free State man. Are they arrested? No! they are roaming the prairie, robbing, murdering, and destroying our homes. But I must return to our particular case. We were kept in the U. S. camp until Monday, Sept. 22d, when we were placed under the Missouri territorial militia, marched into Leocompton, and into a place no better than a hog-pen, and like hogs we are treated. Our commissary just handed me the following list as our rations from Marshall Hall's—Monday evening.—One sack of (nearly) bran, 75 lbs. side bacon, no coffee or sugar, rations for the day for 105 men. Such are our daily rations. I suppose you want to know what we are arrested for? We did not know ourselves until yesterday, when we were brought into court, and for the first time we found we were charged with murder. How ridiculous! One hundred men thrown into prison and tried for murder because we fought a battle, and in that battle one man was killed on the enemy's side. It was a court of investigation, Judge Cato presiding; and Judge Cato has indicated us for murder in the first degree, and says he does not know yet whether we will be admitted to bail or not. So here we are, in our filthy prison, with Border Ruffians guarding us, some times with their guns cocked, ready to "blow us to hell,"—they say, if we attempt to escape. We are all in as good spirit as the case will admit of, for we feel that we have been doing right instead of wrong. If we do not get bail, probably we will have to stay here until next spring, and when our trial comes off I expect the Border Ruffian jury will sentence us to be hanged. Read this to the Democrats and tell them it is all true, for such is the case. I would write a great deal more, but I am out of paper and am not allowed to procure any more. I am afraid to sign my name to this, for if the ruffians should get hold of it, and find out who wrote it they would cut me to pieces. The people of Lawrence come up some times to see us and we send letters by them. They are not allowed among us, but we slip them through the cracks of our prison. I wonder why they don't arrest the men who murdered Buffon in cold blood? Remember civil war was existing, and was so proclaimed by Gov. Woodson, Atchison and Stringfellow, and now we are imprisoned because we were defending the homes of our citizens, and one hundred and three of us will probably be hung, because we, in a bat. le, and did not let defence, killed one of our enemy. How absurdly devoid of justice are all their proceedings. I received your letter since I have been in prison. Go on in your good work, money is needed here: we are destitute, for we have met with no money and receive here. If the money is sent to my brother and reaches here, it will be freely distributed. Mr. E. Whitman brought $10,000 some time ago towards the relief of the Kansas sufferers, and it has all been distributed beneficially. The piece of cannon which was taken from us, I now see pointed at our board prison. Col. Titus says if one of us attempts to escape, he will touch it off and blow us all to hell. Fear not, for our only crime is self defence in the cause of liberty. From your affectionate son, J. B.

War in Kansas. GREAT EXCITEMENT! IT is an indisputable fact that at the present time there is much excitement existing all over our country, and great men seem to be discussing the important subject as to whether the Territory of Kansas shall be a free or slave State. But we take pleasure in informing the people of Allentown and surrounding country, who desire to live a peaceful life, that we have just received from New York and Philadelphia a large and heavy stock of Fall and Winter Goods. We do not think it necessary to "blow" and "gas" about "30 and 40" car-loads as some of our neighbors do, and of making people believe we can sell cheaper than anybody else, because we believe that "honesty is the best policy." We must have small profit on everything we sell, and so must others if they try to make an honest living, which fact is well known by the public. We buy and sell for CASH, which with "many" more of our practice however enables us to sell almost as cheap as regular goods are sold in the cities, and as cheap as the cheapest in Allentown. These are honest facts, and we invite persons to examine for themselves before making purchases elsewhere, which will no doubt convince them of what we say. ROSE'S PATENT WINDOW BLINDS. THE subscribers invite the attention of the public to their new patent VENEZIAN WINDOW BLINDS, which they are now manufacturing, and selling wholesale and retail, at their Factory, No. 125 West Hamilton St., Allentown, Pa. These blinds are far superior to any other ever manufactured, and are secured by Letters Patent, known as Rose's Patent. They are greatly superior to all others in the fact that they are constructed with rollers, and they can be raised in such a manner that when the upper head is fastened to the window-frame, the lower part may be separated or connected with ease. A little child can take the blind down, clean and replace it. This is a great advantage when it is remembered that with the old style of Blinds, a mechanic was always necessary to take them down or put them up. In other particulars, too, they exceed for beauty and convenience all others. This improvement will be attached to the old-fashioned Blinds on reasonable terms. Orders are respectfully solicited. Persons wishing to secure Patent Rights of the above in any part of the Union, can do so by addressing the undersigned at Allentown, Lehigh Co., Pa. ROSE & HUMBERT. Allentown, Sept. 3. —3m

GREAT RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT! $50,000 LOST AT EASTON! Fall of the Railroad Bridge—two locomotives precipitated into the Canal—One man killed and several wounded. Accompanying this terrible disaster there still was a strike of luck to the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company for its occurring at the time it did—on Tuesday afternoon, because on the following morning some 30 or 40 cars were about being loaded by merchants in New York and Philadelphia with new style Fall and Winter Goods, all of which were to pass over the Bridge the same afternoon, directly to Allentown, and there to be unloaded at Joseph Stopp's Cheap Cash Store, No. 35 West Hamilton street. It is evident that if these cars, with their heavy freight, had been shipped in time to get on the Bridge, that their immense weight would have broken down the entire structure, and precipitated their contents into the Delaware, and thus would have incurred a loss to the Company of between $300,000 and $400,000; and not this alone, but the citizens of Allentown and vicinity would also have felt the loss, because if this immense quantity of cheap goods would have been lost, it would certainly have caused a scarcity, and a rise of 20 per cent. But by the aid of luck and the telegraph the intelligence of the accident was communicated to Philadelphia, and Stopp consequently had his goods loaded during the three successive days, on steamboats, canal boats, wagons, carts, wheelbarrows, backs of niggers, &c., and now they have commenced to land at his new Store House. His clerks are now engaged both day and night in unpacking and selling goods. As I passed by there last night between 11 and 12 o'clock, I stepped in, and to my astonishment found perfect mountains of goods piled from floor to ceiling. I passed back through the Store and saw a pile of about 500 Shawls, of all colors and prices—from $25 down to 37 1/2 cents a piece. On the other side I saw about 4000 yards fancy De Laines; and a little further along about 6000 yds. of twisted Persian Cloth—on the other side I hit my elbow against 14 or 15 cart loads of Calico, and a little further along there was a pile of 8 or 10,000 yds. shirting and sheeting from 4 to 24 yds. wide. I then looked for men and boys' wear, and on one side of the store saw many thousand yards of cloths, cassimers, satinets, Kentucky jeans, tweeds, &c., of all colors and prices.—I then began to get towards the rear end of the store, and my eyes fell on carpets, oil clothes, heavy stocks of Fall and Winter goods and queensware. By this time I began to get pretty tired and sleepy, and as I turned around at the end of the store I made a mis-step and down I went, head over heels, into the cellar. When I opened my eyes and my senses were restored, I saw a stack of salt in one corner from floor to ceiling; on the other side there was the nicest sugar, coffee, molasses, cheese, and mackerel I ever laid eyes on. I asked one of the clerks some of the prices, and after I was told, I felt disgusted at reflecting that I had so long been a fool by paying double prices for my goods elsewhere. It was almost daylight now, and I determined after breakfast to send you these facts for publication in the Register. In conclusion I will say, both one all, great and small, go to Stopp's Cheap Cash Store, No. 35 West Hamilton street. SAM.
