THE LEHIGH REGISTER, NOVEMBER 19, 1856.

An Outrage Revenged.

Shortly after 8 o'clock on Wednesday even ing of last week, Mr. Philip S. Clawges, of the five hundred men, including commissioned and firm of Wilmer & Clawges, dry goods merchants, No. 139 Market street, was shot and ded into six squadrons, which are stationed in mortally wounded by his principal clerk, Mr. different parts of the world. There are five re-Isaac C. Shurlock. This sanguinary affair occurred at the corner of Seventh street and yous for those enlisting in the service before Lodge alley, above Chesnut street, Philadelphia.

The facts of the case as near as we could as- destined. certain, are as follows: --Mr. Clawges was invited, on several occasions, by Mr. Shurlock to visit his residence, and as a matter of course, became acquainted with Mrs S. Availing himself of the opportunity offered, he poisoned the wife against her husband, by telling stories of her husband's infidelity, &c., &c. She listened, and finally yielded to his desires. This was carried on for several weeks. On Tuesday evening she made a full confession of all facts. The husband resolved on vengence, and on Wednesday evening he and Clawges, after attending to some business at the Masonic Hall, proceeded down Chestnut street, turned up Seventh, and at the corner of Lodge Alley, the former made known his complaint. Clawges langhed, and Shurlock fired three barrels of a revolver at him. Two balls took effect in the lower part of the abdomen and another in his during the momentary excitement Shurlock nut streets, to await a hearing next morning. The wounded man died next day.

The Pennsylvanian says of the prisoner after his arrest:

He was perfectly cool and collected, and told his wrongs in a manner which elicited the sym- his arrival. The good " Queen Anne" presentpathy of all the officers present. He said, "I committed the act; I fired the revolver, and have been most foully wronged. This man took my wife away down town, drugged her with wine, and then seduced her. She told me so. I love my wife as I love myself." The priso, er was searched, and had upon his person a small amount of money and a daguerrectype of his wife-one of the most impressive likenesses which we ever saw.

I Hog slaughtering will commence in this city in two or three weeks, and during the houses. The single firm of Van Brunt and nati Columbian. Watrous will kill and pack about 60.000 or at the rate of 1 000 per day. The total number slaughtered will fall short of last year's business, as there is comparatively little foreign demand. We are informed by a gentleman who has just returned from the West, that while there is no scarcity of hogs, there is at this time no inducement to drive them forward ; for. while five cents per pound, live weight, is given for hogs in Chicago. as at present, and six and three quarters in New York, the difference leaves but a small margin for profit, after paying for transportation and other expenses .-Cuncinnati Journal of Commerce.

TRAPPING HOUSE ANTS .- Take a large sponge and wash it well, and after it is dry lay it near any spot frequented by ants, and sprinkle fine white sugar over it. In a short time the meshes will be nearly filled with the minute insects, which can then be destroyed by dipping the sponge into hot water, and after washing and drying, it may be replaced again. Thousands are often destroyed at a time, and by repeating the process the locality will soon be freed from them.

The origin of the phrase "Mason and Dixon's line," is as follows: In the seven-

THE WHERLBARROW BET .- Maj. Ben. Poore, the Fillmore candidate for Congress, in the sixth District, Mass., bet a barrel of Apples with Col. Burbank, a Fremont State Senator of Boston, that Fillmore would get more votes in Massachusetts, than Fremont-the looser to wheel the barrel of apples on a wheelbarrow, to the residence of the winner. Maj. Poore losing, performed his contract by gearing himself-up to his wheelbarrow, in a laborer's overalls and green baize jacket, and made his 32 miles in two and a half days. Maj. Poore was received in Boston, by the Fillmore Cluba military company and a mounted cavalcade of citizens. The novelty of the thing brought together about ten thousand citizens.

ANCIENT CHURCHES IN PHILADELPHIA.-The oldest church in Philadelphia is the Gloria arm, badly shattering the bone. The reports Dei, which was erected in 1700 on the same site of the pistol alarmed the neighborhood, and as its predecessor which was built of logs, and served the double purpose of a place of worship cried out "I did it-take me--I'll not run and a defence against the Indians. Christ away." He was locked up at Fifth and Chest- Church is where Washington and Franklin worshipped. It was also at first a log building The present edifice was finished in 1753. Daniel Stearns, Esq., who had been ill with fever for some time, to all appearance died on Friday afternoon ; all the arrangements were made, and the friends and the clergyman were assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the supposed deceased, when the body appeared warm to the touch. Restoratives were administered, and in a few minutes the man who had months of December and January following, come so near being buried alive, was sitting up probably 200 000 will be killed by our packing He is now in a fair way of recovery .-- Cincin-

> BICKWHEAT CAKES .- One buckwheat cake " differeth from another in glory." yet not one in a thousand is made right. Yet of all things, it is the easiest to cook, if the meal is made rightly. To every three bushels of buckwheat, add one of good heavy oats ; grind them out together as if they were only buckwheat ; thus will you have cakes always light and al ways brown, to say nothing of the greater di gestibi ity, and the lightening of spirits, which are equally certain. He who feeds on buckwheat may be grum and lethargic : while he of the oat meal will have exhibiration of the brain and contentment of the spirit.

The Cataract says there is a child in Cohoes, one half of whose left eve is blue while the other half is black. The division is equal, and the dividing line, which is drawn perpendicularly across the eye is straight and well defined, the color changing abruptly from blue to black. Cases are frequent where each of the eyes is of different color from the other, but we venture to say that it would be difficult if not impossible, to cite another instance like the one in question.

DA REVERSE. - A man was brought before the Police Court yesterday, on a charge of va-grancy, who ten years since was worth forty thousand dollars. He was allowed twelve hours to leave the city, or in the alternative to serve twelve months in the house of correction. -Boston Traveller.

CERTAIN politicians, interested in the support of the "peculiar institution," have endoavored to persuade the public that Mrs. Stowe's last work is a failure, and that it has produced no profound impres-sion on either side of the Atlantic. But the publishers, are happy to state, that of the many hundreds of American notices which they have received, the vast majority have been decidedly fa-torable, most of them enthusiastic.
