Schleifer's Livery Stable.

THE undersigned having purchased the Livery stock and good will of William Vaeger, will continue the business at the old stand, in Law Alley, in the rear of Dr. Romig's residence, where he is prepared to accommodate all who wish horses and vehicles, at the shortest notice and on reasonable terms. His stock of Horses has been selected with great care, and trained with an especial view to safety, which places him in a position of keeping the very model of a LIVERÝ STABLE.

LIVERY STABLE.

He does not approve of hiring out broken-down, balky, runaway, ring-boned, spavined or disensed horses, but of keeping the right kind of stock; such as can travel well and do credit to his stable. His carriages and vehicles of every description will always be kept clean and in good order. He trusts that by strict attention to business, and liberal prices, to be favored with a liberal share of patronage.

He also continues to run an omnibus to and from the Railroad depot, on the arrival and departure of the trains. Passongers will be called for in any of the trains. Passongers will be called for in any part of the town, if order is given at either Ihrie's, Bachman's, Hagenbuch's, or Metzger's Hotels.

Lochman's AMBROTYPE AND DAGUERREOTYPE GALLERY,

No. 9 West Hamilton street, Allentown, Pa. B. LOCHMAN respectfully informs the citizens of D. Allentown and vicinity, that he is now prepar-ed to take AMBROTYPES in connection with Daguerostypes. His Ambrotypes are far superior to those of any other operator in town—however much may be talked of the "Patent" Ambrotype, to the contrary notwithstanding. The Ambrotype is a new and beautiful style of picture taken on glass, and unequalibeautiful style pretting the design of the Daguerrootype, and therefore can be seen in any view. They can be seen on either side of the plate, are not reversed, and show everything in its true position. Their cost is but a trifle more than a discuerrectype, and they are indestructable to the action of the atmosphere, and cannot be injured by rubbing or washing. Both Ambrotypes and Daguerrectypes taken in an unsurpassed style without regard to taken in an initial passes and the window panel to please, and heavy investments of capital, he feels assured that any one who may favor him with a call will receive in return a perfect picture, not to be excelled, in point of artistic heauty, by any one in this section of country. He would also invite attention to his new and splendid stock of cases, which range in price from 75 cents to 10 dollars. Please clear in mind, that pictures can be taken in clear or Allentown, Feb. 7.

out Fall and Winter stock of Dry Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, &c., and which we can afford to sell cheaper than any other Store in town, and for the proof of what we say we only ask a call before purchases are made elsewhere, as we don't charge anything for showing what we have, not force any person to bif prices, styles and quality are not suit ble. We are confident we have the most fashionable goods in town, because we have no 20 year old stock on our shelves like some others, which is frequently palmed off for new, but nearly everytting is fresh, and always manage to keep it so, by selling at such low prices that at the end of each season we have searcely anything remaining. We buy exclusively for CASH, and by gaining that per centage we can sell lower than those who buy on "tick," and who are therefore compelled to "screw" the discount out of their patrons. These are facts worthy of consideration. We have just unpacked a large and striped Silks, very cheap, De Laines, barred and striped Silks, very cheap, De Laines. packed a large and splendid stock of Indies' DRESS GOODS, of the latest styles of plain, black, chang, barred and striped Silks, very cheap, De Laines, Cashmere, De Beges, Plaid De Laines, plain and fancy all-wool De Laines, Coburg Cloths, Alpaceas, Lustres, and Calicoes, of all sorts and prices, from 5 ets. up to 12½. GREAT RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT! $50,000 LOST AT EASTON.—Great Fall of the Railroad Bridge—two locomotives precipitated into the Canal-One man killed and several wounded. Accompanying this terrible disaster there still was a strick of luck to the Lebigh Valley Rullroad Compa-ny for its occurring at the time it did—on Taesday afternoon, because on the following morning some 30 or 40 cars were about being loaded by merchants in New York and Philadelphia with new style Fall and Winter Goods, all of which were to pass over the Bridge the same afternoon, directly to Allentown, and there to be unloaded at Joseph Stopp's Chear Cash Store, No. 25 West Hamilton street. It is evident that if these cars, with their heavy freight, had been shipped in time to get on the Bridge, that their immense weight would have broken down the entire structure, and precipitated their contents into the Delaware, and thus would have incurred a loss to the Company of between $300,000 and $400,000; and not this alone, but the citizens of Allentown and vicinity would also have felt the loss, because if this immense quantity of cheap goods would have been lost, it would certainly have caused a scarcity, and a rise of 20 per cent. But by the aid of luck and the telegraph the intelligence of the accident was communicated to Philadelphia, and Stopp consequently had his goods loaded during the three successive days, steamboats, canal boats, wagons, carts. wheelbarrows, backs of niggers, &c., and now they have commenced to land at his new Store House. His clerks are now engaged both day and night in unpacking and selling goods. As I passed by there last night between 11 and 12 o'clock, I stepped in, and to my astonishment found perfect mountains of goods piled from floor to ceiling. I passed back through the Store and saw a pile of about 500 Shawls, of all colors and prices—from $25 down to 373 cts. a piece. On the other side I saw about 4000 yards fancy De Laines; and a little further along about 6000 yds. of twilled Persian Cloth; on the other side I hit my elbow against 14 or 15 cart loads of Calico, and a little further along there was a pile of 8 or 10,000 yds. shirting and sheeting from 2 to 21 yds. wide. I then looked for men and boys' wear, and on one side of the store saw many thousand yards of cloths, cassimeres, sattinetts, Kentucky jeans, tweeds, &c., of all colors and prices.— I then began to get towards the rear end of the store, and my eyes fell on carpets, oil cloths, looking glasses, window shades, glass and queensware. By this time I began to get pretty tired and sleepy, and as I turned around at the end of the store I made a mis-step and down I went, head over heels, into the cellar. When I opened my eyes and my senses were restored. I saw a stack of salt in one corner from floor to ceiling; on the other side there was the nicest sugar, coffee, molasses, cheese, and mackerel I ever laid eyes on. I asked one of the clerks some of the prices, and after I was told, I felt disgusted on reflecting that I had so long been a fool by paying double prices for my goods elsowhere. It was almost daytime now, and I determined after breakfast to send you these facts for publication in the Register. In conclusion I will say, both one all, great and small, go to
