Explosion of a Gas House.

We are astonished and surprised at the old offender of the Law, he puts us in mind like the little boy that was playing with a Bladder, after throwing and bouncing it around awhile, he came to a conclusion that there must be something queer in the inside, and by opening it, to the little boy's astenishment, there was nothing in the inside but wind. And the nearest comparison we can make to the little boy's bladder, is one of our uptown business men, who is always gussing and blowing about his piles of goode, and after he is done with his gassing and blowing, it is just about the same as it was with the little boy's bladder, there is nothing but wind: In last week's paper one of our up town business men wanted to know who struck the boy. Why it was the Philadelphia merchant when they relied the goods out for him, and gent them to German & Lichtenwallner's Cheap Dry Goods and Clothing Emporium, which they are now selling at the rate of 2;10. We can also tell him whom the auctioneer struck some time past, when he refused his bid, and called the auctioneer a lar: the nuctioneer soon jumped down and gave him part of the fourth of July over his mouth, and liar: the nuctioneer soon jumped down and gave him part of the fourth of July over his mouth, and him part of the fourth of July over his mouth, and five dollars, and sent him outside one time as one of us just happened to pass his store when he opened some of his boxes containing something more than cotten laps and wadding, it scared him so when he opened the above named boxes, he just happened to think about the blow the auctidneer gave him the time he refused his bid, that quaked like an catthquake and was all the time thinking that the fauitioneer was hummering on his head yet. he accordance and was an end of the child he head yet while he was thinking about the auctioneer rais ing his list, German & Lichtenwallner were selling their goods as fast as they were able to carry them. That time they might have used some of a certain man's blacks, negroes &c., that were advertised not long ago.
