

THE LEHIGH REGISTER. ALLENTOWN, PA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1859.

PETER C. HUBER & JOHN H. OLIVER, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS. THE LEHIGH REGISTER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION BY SEVERAL HUNDRED THAN ANY OTHER ENGLISH PAPER IN THE COUNTY.

REMOVAL. THE OFFICE OF The Lehigh Register Has been removed to the room on the second story of the new building now occupied by Neigh & Breinig's Clothing Store, "LION HALL," second door above the German Reformed Church.

STATE NOMINATIONS. AUDITOR GENERAL: Thomas E. Cochran, YORK COUNTY. SURVEYOR GENERAL: Gen. William H. Keim, BERKS COUNTY.

COUNTY TICKET. ASSEMBLY. A. J. WINTERSTEEN, Carbon County. SAMUEL J. KISTLER, Lehigh County. SHERIFF. GEORGE BEISEL, Allentown. COMMISSIONER. PAUL BALLIET, North Whitehall. COUNTY TREASURER. CHARLES KLEIN, Allentown. DEPUTY SURVEYOR. EDWARD KOHLER, North Whitehall. RECORDER. JOSEPH SAEGER, Allentown. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR. REUBEN GLICK, South Whitehall. DISTRICT ATTORNEY. WILLIAM H. ANEY, Allentown. AUDITOR. R. CLAY HAMBERSLEY, Catasauqua. TRESTRES. AMOS RITTINGER, Allentown. ANDREW S. KECK, Hanover.

Reasons for voting the People's County Ticket. The men on the ticket are fully qualified for the respective offices, for which they are nominated.

They are fully competent. An impartial man must acknowledge, that they are more competent than the democratic nominees.

They have never changed their politics for office. Old Whigs, they have been true to the political party, to which they have been attached, through disaster as well as under more flattering prospects.

Consistency in politics, wherever met with, should meet with public favor. The seal of condemnation should be stamped on men, whose politics change with the wind, and who are members of a party solely for office.

Democratic leaders should be rebuked. There is a renegade at the head of the English organ of the Party, the Allentown Democrat, who left the party in 1856, because his father was not nominated for Sheriff, and who came back again to the party, because he thought, that his father would be nominated for Sheriff.

If Charles B. Haintz is defeated for the Sheriffalty, other traitors and renegades will learn the lesson, that an honest, straightforward course is the best.

There is no reason, why Democrats should vote for a Know Nothing for Sheriff. If the People's candidates for Assembly are elected, the county will save two hundred dollars. See card in another column.

There is no reason, why Democrats should vote for an old whig for Assembly on the democratic ticket. If a whig is to be elected, let us have a simple pure whig. The county will save one hundred dollars by electing the People's candidate for County Treasurer. See card in another column.

The People's candidate for Director of the Poor and County Commissioner will do all in their power to lessen the enormous expenditures of the county.

The Peoples party in their resolutions on Saturday took two steps in economizing, which will save the county three hundred dollars. This is but a small item in the amount, which might be saved, if the Directors of the Poor, and County Commissioners would properly care for the finances of the county.

To be slaughtered. It has been suggested, that the Democrats took their ticket for the purpose of slaughtering some of the candidates and getting them out of the way. If the Democracy return to the old land-marks and carry out the established rules of the party, put Democrats on the ticket, and do not renegades from the other side, there may be a chance of success. As it is, however, it has been remarked by a Democratic friend, the Democratic party is in a fair way of being used up.

C. B. Haintz was a Know Nothing. In another column will be found the sworn proof. In 1856 was C. B. Haintz asked under oath before a Democratic Delegate Convention, as to whether he was a Know Nothing? If so, what was the answer? Was he asked the same question under oath at any other gathering? If so, what was his answer?

The Democratic Party.

If there ever was a time when the Democratic party should be defeated, it is now. That the Democratic party will be defeated in the State by an overwhelming majority, Democrats themselves must concede. That it should be defeated there are many reasons. The Democracy have placed in power a President, universally unpopular, a man who has proven faithless to his pledges, and turned traitor to his friends. The warmest Democrats cannot but acknowledge that he has blundered in his Administration, whilst the great bulk of the party secretly execrate his name. A citizen of Pennsylvania, he should have cared with a zealous eye for the interests of his native state. Never was a better opportunity afforded. Financial disasters were upon us. The people called for protection. Pennsylvania strongly demanded it. The President pretended to be in favor of protection, and yet whilst all the power of the Administration was used in carrying out the views of the President in the Kansas issue, a Democratic Secretary of the Treasury was allowed to make a report, arguing against a protective tariff. The Opposition clamored for an increase of tariff rates: the Democratic party would allow no change in the tariff. The Democracy of Lehigh, thus aloof, and cut loose from an Administration, they cannot but condemn, are left to rally only in the name of the Democratic party. The name is empty. The life-blood of the party has been lost. Its cherished principles have been deserted, and the members of a party are left to hang on to a lifeless corpse. The name is all, that is left to rally the people of the county. When, however, we come to home and county matters, the Democracy find, that Jordan is a hard road to travel. On the ticket are placed a Know Nothing for Sheriff, and an old whig for Assembly. At the head of party organs are men, who have for years gone-by been laboring hard against the party, in the ranks of the opposition. The old standards will not recognize such Democracy. No wonder, then, that the party get up such small meetings in the country; that there are members of the party, who will not go to the election; and that there are others, who openly bolt. The Democracy themselves are prepared for the worst, and we should not be surprised if their misfortunes exceed their expectations. The great struggle now is to elect a Sheriff. For this they would trade away the rest of the ticket. Let, however, Republicans beware. We have a noble man for Sheriff, and let not Republicans be seduced from his support by flattering bargains, promises or any inducements. Charles B. Haintz has no claims on the office, and certainly none on Republicans.

The Tonnage Tax.

Democratic Politicians have been endeavoring to get up the report, that the Pennsylvania Railroad company, have sent three thousand dollars to Carbon county and an equal amount to Lehigh for the purpose of electing the People's Legislative ticket, with the understanding, that the members elect will vote for the repeal of the tonnage tax. After seeing the card of General Wintersteen and Samuel Kistler to be found in another column, the people acquainted with these gentlemen will be satisfied, that these reports are false. The people of our own county know, that a more truthful and honest man than Samuel J. Kistler is not to be found in the county and that his word is as good as his bond. It is but one of the little tricks of a desperate and sinking cause. A word further, however, on the tonnage tax question. The main line of the Public Works was sold, when both branches of the Legislature were democratic. The remainder of the Public Works have been sold to the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company, when both branches of the Legislature were democratic. The Democrats have the honor of having bartered away the Public Works for a mere song. Last winter the opposition had a large majority in the House, and a word was breathed about the repeal of the tonnage tax. When the swindling railroad speculators have had favors to ask, they have asked them of the Democratic Legislature and not of the opposition, and if money has been sent into our District the probabilities are, that it is in the hands of democratic leaders.

Money.

The ALLENTOWN DEMOCRAT intimates that the Opposition will undertake to carry the County with money. Such is not the case. We expect to carry the County partly because of the People's disapprobation of a Democratic Administration at Washington, partly because in the hands of the Democratic party county matters have been mismanaged, and partly because we have the best men on our ticket. With such reasons we are willing to go before the people. It is somewhat strange, however, that the Democratic party of Lehigh with all the offices in their hands, and heretofore always flush in money, are all at once getting very poor. The cry of poverty, however, will not go down. The people are not to be hoodwinked by the cry of poverty into the support of men and measures for the benefit of interested rich men.

Recorder.

Will the friends of Joseph Saeger bear him in mind on election day? He is industrious, deserving, fully competent, and would make an efficient officer. Recollect, that although unable to speak, he has a son, who can speak with all persons coming to the office, either in German or English, and can communicate with his father.

The Bell-Hamel Ticket.

Old Democrats, who have worked a lifetime for the party, have been compelled to stand aside, and the Convention took up a Know Nothing for Sheriff and an old Whig for Assembly. How will the old-liners stand this?

Getting Desperate.

The Democracy are aware, that they are in a miserable plight. The old-liners do not relish the idea of receiving instruction in the Democratic faith from the Editors now at the head of their party organs. The Editor of the REPUBLICAN was but a few years since at the head of the German organ of the opposition. The Editor of the DEMOCRAT stepped fresh from the REGISTER into the English organ of the party. He admitted that he had been playing the rascal with the opposition for three successive years, and that he had done the lying and dirty work of the party. What assurances have honest Democrats, that he is not playing the rascal again? Not only, however, do renegades from the opposition manage the party organs, they must likewise have the offices. A Know Nothing gets the nomination for Sheriff. An old-line Whig gets on the ticket for the Assembly. It becomes hard for the old-liners to say, whether they any longer in the Democratic party. The party has also been acting badly generally. Nobody has confidence in President Buchanan. Every-body believes him to be an old reprobate. Coming to matters nearer at home there has been gross mismanagement in State and County matters. A Republican Assembly endeavored to lower the state tax; the Democratic Senate prevented it. The Democracy raised the salary of members of the Legislature to seven hundred dollars. The affairs of the county have been miserably mismanaged, as everybody knows. They see impending doom written on the wall. They endeavor to elect a Sheriff on the plea of poverty. We understand that some are so glib as to vote the Republican State ticket, provided Republicans will vote for the Democratic candidate for Sheriff. Let Republicans beware of this dodge of the enemy. Lies are resorted to. It has been reported, that three thousand dollars have been sent into Carbon county and three thousand into our own county, to secure the election of candidates pledged to the repeal of the tonnage tax. The report is a lie; known to be a lie by such as circulate it, we care not how respectable their characters. We repeat, we brand as deliberate liars all such as circulate the last-mentioned report, and what we write on paper, we are ready to say to their face. We might speak of some other weak inventions of the enemy, but believing that the people of the county are not so readily gulled, we look forward with hope to the pending election. Let every Republican in the county be at the polls. If defeat should be our lot, let it not be said, that it was because, we have not done our best.

PROOF.

We copy the annexed affidavit, sworn to by Mr. F. H. Weidner, lately a well known citizen of our county, proving beyond a doubt, that Charles B. Haintz, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff was a Know Nothing. It is due to Mr. Weidner and ourselves to say, that we have been compelled to take this course in consequence of the persistent efforts of Mr. Haintz's friends to deny this fact. If the fact had been admitted, no proof would have been necessary. It is, however, established beyond a doubt, and denial hereafter will amount to nothing. We further add, that we could have the affidavit of other persons to establish the same fact. We would like to know whether Mr. Haintz was interrogated at any political gathering, as to whether he had been a Know Nothing, and if so, what was his reply. Lehigh County, ss.

Personally and voluntarily appeared before me, J. E. Rahe, a Justice of the Peace in and for said county, Francis H. Weidner, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he was present, when Charles B. Haintz, the democratic candidate for Sheriff of Lehigh county, was regularly initiated into the American Order, or secret political organization, commonly known as the Know Nothing Order, and that said Order, in which the said Haintz was so initiated, was not the order known as the Shanghai Association.

FRANCIS H. WEIDNER. Sworn and subscribed Sept. 30th, 1859. J. F. RUIE, J. P.

That Oath.

From the Carbon and Allentown Democrat we learn the Oath, taken by Know Nothings upon initiation. Presuming that they are booked up in the mysteries of Know Nothingism, we infer that Charles B. Haintz, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff upon initiation took the following oath:

"I, CHARLES B. HAINTZ, of my own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, my left hand resting on my right breast, and my right hand extending to the flag of my country, do solemnly and sincerely swear that if I may legally I will, when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on me power to do so, REMOVE ALL FOREIGNERS, ALIENS, OR ROMAN CATHOLICS FROM OFFICE OR PLACE IN MY GIFT. I do solemnly swear that this and all other obligations which I have previously taken shall ever be kept throughout life sacred and inviolate."

WHO VOTED FOR THE REDUCTION OF THE STATE TAX?

A REPUBLICAN ASSEMBLY. WHO VOTED AGAINST THE REDUCTION OF THE STATE TAX? A DEMOCRATIC SENATE. OUR PRESENT DEMOCRATIC COMMISSIONERS.

WHO WAS A KNOW NOTHING?

CHARLES B. HAINTZ.

The oppositor of Northampton county on Saturday last took up the following ticket: Robert Black, George Wrenner, Sheriff; Edward Eckert; Treasurer; Wm. Shuman; Commissioner; Joseph Engler; District Attorney; Wm. H. Armstrong; Surveyor; Ebenezer Searle; Auditor; J. Stoneback; Coroner; Henry Switzer; Director of the Poor; Wm. Hess.

Highly Important to Voters.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE. October 4th, 1859.

The attention of all good citizens, and of election officers especially, is called to the following sections of the Act of Assembly relating to elections:—"In all cases where the name of the persons claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessor, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof; but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector: that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove into the said district for the purpose of voting therein."

If an Inspector or Judge shall receive the vote of any person whose name shall not be returned on the list furnished by the Commissioners or Assessor, without first requiring the evidence directed in the act, the person so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Immediate prosecutions will follow any disregard by the election officers of these most vital requisites of a fair election by the people, and I call upon the good citizens of all parties to see that the law be faithfully observed by their agents, to note any disregard or violation of it, and to report forthwith such conduct to this office, with the name of the person so offending. On the receipt of such information I will at once draw Bills of Indictment, and send them with the witnesses before the Grand Jury. WILLIAM B. MANN, District Attorney.

DIRECTIONS HOW TO PROTECT THE PURITY OF THE BALLOT-BOX, AND GUARD AGAINST ILLEGAL VOTES AND FRAUDS.

When a Person offers to Vote. First—Search for the name of the person upon the List of Taxables. If it be not upon it, then the Election Officers must not take the vote, without first receiving proof as follows:— 1. The party offering to vote must be sworn or affirmed, and the following questions asked him:— 1. Are you a citizen of the State of Pennsylvania? 2. Have you resided therein one year before the election? 3. Have you paid a State or County Tax within two years? 4. Do you say that your bona fide residence in pursuance of your lawful calling, is within this District, and that you have not moved therein for the mere purpose of voting? Next—A qualified elector must then be sworn or affirmed, and the following questions asked him:— 1. Do you know the person offering to vote? 2. Has he resided within this Division ten days preceding the election? Any omission of these duties on the part of the officers vitiates the vote, and the officers are liable to indictment for receiving it. Should this occur note it, and give information to the District Attorney. If the name of the person be on the list of taxables, and you doubt his right to vote, then challenge him. He must then be sworn to payment of tax within two years, or show a receipt for the same, and must answer the following question:— Are you a citizen of the State of Pennsylvania? If naturalized, produce your certificate. The oath of the applicant is sufficient evidence of his right to vote—if his name be on the list of taxables—except he be naturalized; in which case the evidence must be the certificate of naturalization.

Prospects in the Borough.

It is not necessary to say to our friends in town, that the Borough of Allentown in this election will do better for our cause, than ever before. Such we are assured and convinced is the case and will appear to be the case after Tuesday next. We only wish to assure our county friends of the fact, in order that they may be inspired to effort and action. We understand that some few recruits in the democratic ranks have been endeavoring to persuade some people from the country, that the Democrats will carry the borough. Let the Democrats be prepared for a crushing vote from the borough, and from some other of our strongholds. Let the minority in strong Democratic districts not be kept from the polls. Their votes will count as much as votes of their friends in districts in which the majorities are the other way. Let no effort be spared in every nook and corner of the county, and all will be right on Tuesday next.

The Prospects.

During fair week we had an opportunity of seeing persons from all parts of the county, and were glad to learn that the prospects for the whole ticket never could have been fairer. Let then each man who desires the success of the cause, see that no effort is spared, which may help the common cause. Let no one stay at home. Let every one see that his neighbors vote. Let every one spare no pains to get out in whole vote in the township. Let not the weather interfere. Every Republican is expected to do his duty. The next issue of the REGISTER, which reaches our readers will announce an overwhelming victory in the State, and we trust we may have the satisfaction of announcing a victory here in "Little Lehigh."

Will the Republicans of Lehigh county recollect, that no person has been more abusive of our party in the past, than C. B. Haintz. Can such a man with good grace ask support from men not belonging to his party?

The Opposition nominating convention of Northampton county passed a resolution unanimously recommending Andrew H. Roeder as a candidate for Governor.

In accordance with a resolution adopted at the County Convention, on Saturday last, the candidates from our County for Assembly and County Treasurer have desired the publication of the following cards:—

A CARD To the voters of this Assembly District. The People's Nominating Convention of Lehigh county, held September 24th, inst., at the Public House of Solomon Wrenner, by which I had the honor of being placed on the ticket as a candidate for the Lehigh County Treasury, do, it gives me pleasure to state, that the resolution records with my long settled convictions. I hereby pledge my word of honor, in case of my election, to labor for the reduction of the salary of the members of the Legislature, and in case this cannot be effected, to pay with pleasure the proposed two hundred Dollars into the County Treasury. SAMUEL J. KISTLER, September 28th, 1859.

To the voters of Lehigh County. At a People's Convention for Lehigh county, held on the 24th of September, at the Public House of Solomon Wrenner, in South Whitehall township, which placed me in nomination as a Candidate for County Treasurer, a resolution was adopted, which requires of me, if elected, to discharge the duties of the Office at a charge of seven-eighths instead of one per cent, for receipts and payments of County funds, as heretofore allowed. It gives me pleasure to carry out this measure of economy, and I hereby pledge myself, if elected, to discharge the duties of the office at the commission fixed by the resolution of Convention, and thus to save the County, as I have been informed, about the sum of one hundred Dollars. CHARLES KLINE, September 28th, 1859.

A Card to the Public. Our opponents have spread a report, that our friends have received money from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to aid in our election, and that if elected we are pledged to vote for the repeal of the tonnage tax. We hereby declare in the first place, that said report is altogether false and groundless, without the shadow of truth, and in the second place, we hereby pledge ourselves, if elected, to labor and vote against the repeal of said tax. SAMUEL J. KISTLER. A. JACKSON WINTERSTEEN.

THE SHERIFFALTY.

The Democracy having taken up as a candidate for Sheriff, a man known to be incompetent for the office, fearing defeat, are undertaking to elect him on the plea of poverty. On this subject a word to Republicans. Col. George Beisel never sought the office. Personally popular, known to be an industrious, hard working business man, the very man for the Sheriff's office, our party with singular unanimity looked forward with pride to him, as one of the standard-bearers of this fall's campaign. He was named as a candidate for Sheriff, not because of his own solicitation, but because the party wanted a strong and available candidate to help electing the whole county ticket. He is now a candidate, not because of the impolitics of the office, but because our party in the county, dissatisfied with democratic mismanagement, wish to make a change in our county politics for the better. After being thus placed on the ticket, it is right that Republicans should be led from his support by appeals to our sympathies. The cry of poverty comes with a bad grace from C. B. Haintz. A man, who is too lazy to work, cannot expect others to remain poor like whole lifetime, and should not ask to be pensioned by the public. If C. B. Haintz were a hard-working, industrious citizen, his claims would be in the first place, but if he has neglected taking care of himself, he cannot ask the Public to take care of him. Who asks help of others, must first show a willingness to help himself. The Allentown Democrat talks of being a mechanic. When did he last work at his trade? If Col. Beisel has succeeded in life, it speaks well for his industry and business qualifications, and we are willing to let the issue in this shape go before the people.

Handbills.

The ALLENTOWN DEMOCRAT of last week cautions the Democracy against using handbills. We on our part assert that neither in our paper, nor otherwise elsewhere, publish anything which we shall not be able to prove, and for which we shall not hold ourselves responsible. Why, however, this Democrat Handbills? Are the Democrats afraid that anything can be published which they would not like the community to know? It has been the practice, however, of the Democracy to issue lying handbills, of some of our readers may recollect in the former campaign, and of such let all Republicans beware. Beware of all lying rumors, because there is no doubt, but that there will be plenty circulated. There is no lie too thick for the miserable crew, who now manage the Allentown Democrat to give circulation to their lies let all beware.

The State Journal thus speaks of John H. Seltzer, recently nominated by Philadelphia for the Legislature. The Seventh District has placed in nomination Dr. J. H. Seltzer as the People's candidate for Assembly, a man in the prime of life, of vigorous intellect, and superior education. He is a native of "old Berks," and our exchanges from that quarter all speak of him in commendatory terms. He has done good service on the stump in the interior of the State, and John C. Jones found in him a formidable opponent. He has the ability to make an efficient legislator, and we doubt not, will faithfully represent the wishes of his constituents. Of his election there can be no doubt.

John Lichtenthaler should have been named in our last week's issue, as a member of the Executive Committee from Upper-Macongo township, instead of John H. Lichtenthaler.

Charles B. Haintz a Know Nothing.

The Allentown Democrat of this week challenges us in the sum of one hundred dollars to produce the Constitution and Bye Laws of a Know Nothing Order, with the appended signature of Charles B. Haintz. Whether that Constitution has been destroyed or not we know not. We are however willing to forfeit our whole printing establishment, if we fail to prove a number of witnesses that Charles B. Haintz went through a process of initiation, by which he became recognized as a member of a secret political organization, commonly known as Know Nothings, provided the Editor of the Allentown Democrat will agree to forfeit his printing establishment, if we succeed in establishing the truth of the above proposition. Let the Editor come up to the scratch if he dare.

The Meeting at Trexlertown.

We received a communication from a friend at Trexlertown stating, that the Democratic meeting at that place on Saturday afternoon last was a complete failure. The Democratic politicians from the borough found no audience in the afternoon, and then adjourned until the evening, when but a very few persons made their appearance. The truth is, the people of the county cannot be aroused into an enthusiasm in the support of a party, when all its measures in the management of county matters are wrong and wrong only.

Nominations in Bucks.

The People's party of Bucks county have taken up the following excellent ticket:— Assembly, Hiram A. Williams, of Tinicum; Joseph Barnevel, of Warmistown; Associate Judge, Isaac C. Kirk, of Buckingham; District Attorney, James Gillyon, of Doylestown; Commissioner, Samuel Anglemeyer, of Doylestown township; Treasurer, Joseph A. Vanhorn, of Lower Merion; Surveyor, J. Watson Case, of Buckingham; Director, Enos Hunsberger, of Hilltown; Auditor, Christian S. Loux, of Warrington; Delegates to the State Convention, Dr. Samuel C. Bradshaw, of Richland; Enos Prizer, of Doylestown; A. S. Cadwalader, of Lower Merion.

An Honest Confession.

"An honest confession is good for the soul." The Allentown Democrat of this week, says:—"In order to carry the county on next Tuesday it is absolutely necessary that every democratic vote in the county be deposited in the ballot box." We say, that if every Republican vote is out, the county is ours. Will Republicans bear this in mind?

NORTH WHITEHALL, Sept. 30th 1859.

MENSA, EDITORS.—Having heard many people of this place and vicinity express their opinion in regard to the nominations of the different persons composing the opposite tickets for the approaching contest; I deem it not impertinent, for me, in making myself in part, towards giving publicity to the sentiment of this place, in regard to the matter. Knowing also by the way the eagerness you manifest in publishing whatever is true and impartial, I submit this to you with the confidence of a friend in the columns of your respected paper. But to the subject. To come out and take it the nearest way, the substance of political debate, among our citizens, is about as follows. As a matter of course, they begin at the top of the ticket. Speaking about the aspirants for Assembly the Democrats all express great sorrow and indignation at their nomination, saying that they could not conscientiously vote for Eisenhard. "For" said they, "there were too much Democrats in to support him; he has not been with the party long enough to insure us of his stability as a Democrat." "And" say they, "we do not know when he may turn around and join another party."

"Eisenhard" as it is this time, they say; "here is Kistler, he is a man of the highest established integrity, abundantly qualified for the office, and has pledged himself in case the salary of Assembly-men cannot be reduced to pay $3000 in the County Treasury." "Now why shall we not support such a man?" This is about the tenor of the argument used here by the Democrats, and let me assure you and everybody else, that the votes polled for the turnout Eisenhard, at the coming election can be borne in the eye.

But what is able to say in imitation of what the Democrats say about Haintz? I think it is worse than folly for me to attempt to describe how manifold and diverse are the execrations called down upon him. "Why" say they "are we so far released into wickedness and ignorance as to support a man who is a Know Nothing?" "No the powers forbid it!" "We will not support a man who has sworn allegiance to a party, the principles of which are our cordial prejudice to denounce."

"Why" say they "this is the course he has pursued for the last twelve years; try to get into office, and he has so far been rejected by all parties, why shall we so base as to support him?" "By the way cannot help saying to myself—being impartial—that the conduct of Mr. Haintz, as has been heretofore rather suspicious. He serves defeat. I would advise him to be prepared for meeting it, as it will inevitably come to pass. This is the manner in which the whole Democratic ticket is treated by our party in North Whitehall, the despairing of which would however, be too laborious. Neither is it necessary as it is my opinion, it is so held throughout the whole county. Let for Assembly, Beisel for Sheriff, will I think, persons before elected for the same office in the county.—More soon. N. WHITEHALL.

A LITTLE MISTAKE.—The Milwaukee News tells of a Irishman who while at work in a stone quarry near that city, saw an animal, which he recognized as one of his neighbors kittens, glide under a large flat stone upon which he was at work. He called it a conard to hold the stone while he got the porridge out without hurting it. Getting down upon his knees he reached gently under the stone, and drew the cat gently forth, then dropping her instantly, he clasped both hands to his nose, and exclaimed: "How mither! what has she been eating?" It was a skunk.

A QUEEN WITH TWELVE HUSBANDS.—The Queen of Boni, South Pacific, after having spent some time with her seraglio, the sovereignty in favor of one of her native generals, rejecting in the name of Aroo Palatta, who has been proclaimed King.
