My husband, 'twas for thee I left My own; my happy home ; For thes I left my cottage bowers,

With thee in joy to roam ; And where are all thy holy vowe, The truth, the love, the trust, That wop my heart ?-- all scattored now And trampled in the dust.

I lave thee with a fove untold. And when I stood beside . Thy noble form, I joyed to think , I was thy chosen bride, They told are I was thy own. How sad my lot would be : I thought not of the future, then-

I only thought of thee. I left my home, my happy home. A sunny-hearted thing, Forgetting that my happiness A shadowing cloud might bring. The sunny side of life is gone, Its shadows only mine -And thorns are springing in my heart, Where blossoms used to twine.

I do not blame thee for thy lot, I only pray for thee, That thou may'st from the tempters power (Oh. joyful thought !) be free ; That thou niay'st bend above my grave, With penitence sincere, And for the broken hearted one,

Let fall a sober-tes THE CAVALRY OFFICER.
