A FAILURE.—The truthfulness of the old adage that "true love never runs smooth" was clearly exemplified last week in the case of a couple of "lovyers" in the north of this county, who, contrary to father, had taken the slide and come to this place, intending to take the cars and proceed to some other point to be formally spliced " for better, or for worse." inluckily, they failed in making the connection being about 10 minutes too late for the train, and sequently had to tarry through the day. In the mean time the exasperated "parient," arrived carrying a suspicious-looking shooting-iron; not, it is supposed, with the intention of using it, but merely by to fill an appointment for Rev. B. Dick, in Al way of giving notice that he was in search of game. Ifaving spied out the couple, he took his daughte ander his protection and convoyed her home, leaving the luckless swain "all alone." not "in his glory," but greatly disappointed and mortified.— Such is the uncertainty of human events—all bright sunshine one day, all lowering clouds the next.

PROF. O. S. FOWLER.—This distinguished au thor and eloquent lecturer upon the Science of Phrenology, we are most happy to inform our readers, will deliver the first of three of his interesting lectures this evening at the Odd Fellows' Hall. We bespeak for him a crowded house—let the Hall be filled to where he shed his blood, and though often overflowing - his eminent talents, his world-wide taken away, even to some distance, constantly reputation, his untiring efforts in advancing, developing and establishing the great and important Science of Phrenology, demands this as a compliment at the hands of our citizens. We trust he will meet with such a reception, as will gladden his heart to return again to our presperous and thriving town after an interval of 22 years; and while he will fine abundant evidence on every hand of improvemen and progress, we doubt not our citizens will gladl manifest their high appreciation of the science h teaches, while they will carnestly and heartily wel come, one of the most scientific authors of the age,-Phrenology's greatest living champion, an the true and well-tried friend of man.

Of the many favorable notices we have seen o bim, in different papers while he has been lecturing in this state we copy the following from the Phila delphia Daily News:

Among all the sciences known to man perhap there is no there so well defined, fully proved, clearly explained, fixed and established, as is the science of Phrenology, by Prof. O. S. Fowler. Quacks and pretenders may figure largely on paper; men of commensurate ability and fair attainments may bring all their genius and learning to bear in illustrating and the genius and learning to bear in illustrating and their genius and learning to bear in illustrating and their genius and learning to bear in illustrating and practical knowledge of Professor Fowler, who is indisputably acknowledge on all hands to be high priest and king in the profession. We would simply say, in proof of this, is you would hear practical truths enough to think about for a whole lifetime, go and hear him lecture on "Health and Phrenology," or call at his room, and he will read your character as easily as you can read your letters."

The Rochester Democrat, Nov. 7th, reports the escape of thirteen prisoners from Monroe County, init, York State. The prisoners seized the failor, Mr. Bascom, by the throat, wrenched his keys from him, and flung him violently into a closet, when the door was closed upon him and fastened outside by means of a clasp and staple attached to it. All this was done in much less time than it has taken us to relate it, and Mr. Bascom had no opportunity to raise an alarm. After he was shut up his utmost efforts were unavailing to make himself heard, as the door is a very heavy one, made of two thicknesses of plank. Mrs. Bascom, therefore, sat in the office while the struggle wont on, perfectly unconscious of anything perfectly unconscious of anything wrong. The ringleader's (Smith) next step was to ascertain whether the office was clear, and finding that it contained nobody but the lady, he immediately liberated from their cells those of the prisoners who proposed to join in the flight, and Mrs. Baseom was presently as-tonished by the appearance of the whole gang at the iron door, d emanding to be let out.

SHOCKING CASE OF BURNING .- A very distressing case occurred in Hopewell township on Saturday evening week, at the house of Mr. Joshua Blackwell. It appears that a young couple, whose names we did not learn were sitting together by a warm stove. They both fell asleep, the young lady's dress took fire .-As soon as they awoke, the young made every exertion to extinguish the fire, but without success. The young girl rushed to the door enveloped in a sheet of flame, to the room of Mr. Blackwell, and came very near setting fire to the bed-clothing. She lived only fire to the bed-clothing. She lived only a few hours afterwards. The young man was seriously damaged, and will probably be crippled in the hands for life. The parties were engaged to be married, and the ladies had been to Trenton on the day of this sad affair, and had purchased articles for the intended wedding .- Trenton American.

ODD FELLOWSHIF.—The Grand Encampment and the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, in this State, are now holding their annual sessions in Philadelphia. The representatives of the two bodies are present in great strength, and those who come from the interior and western parts of the State take advantage of the opportunity afforded by their visit to the city to provide themselves with elegant and comfortable outfits for the season, at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

THANKSCIVING DAY.—The last Thursday in November, the 24th day of this month, will be observed as Thanksgiving in fifteen States, and one Territory, namely, Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jorsey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Alabama, South Carolina, North Carolina, Minnesota, and Kansas. Thus far the same day has been fixed upon in all the States where the festival

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF A CLERGY-MAN AND A GRASS WIDOW.—The Rev. Mr Keesey, pastor of the United Brethren Church of Greensburg, left his home on the 19th of October, to assist a brother at Altoona. Since then he has not been heard of. It is ascortien tained that he did not go to Altoona, and the most painful apprehensions are felt by his wife and friends on his account. Mr. Keesey is said to be an able and popular preacher happy in his family relations, and no man was more prudent and circumspect in his deport-ment. He has a wife and five children, to whom he was a most kind and affectionate husband and father. For some days before he left, he appeared to be gloomy and in deep trouble. Simultaneous with his leaving home, a very handsome and fascinating young grass widow also disappeared in a mysterious man-ner. The disappearance of the grass widow the wishes of, and unknown to the fair damsel's on the same day that Mr. Keesey left has thrown a dark cloud around the circumstance, and filled the hearts of his wife and children with unalloyed anguish. Mrs. Keesey publishes the following card: Mysterious Disappearance.—Rev. T. L. Kee-sey, minister of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, residing in Greensburg, Westmoreland county, Pa., having a wife and five children, left home on the 19th of October toona, on the following Sabbath. He also intended to stop on his way in Johnstown several days. On inquiry it was ascertained that he had not been at either place, nor can any trace of his whereabouts be ascertained. Any information concerning him will be gladly received by his wife. Address

A mourning class, a vacant seat, Tell us that one we loved to meet Will join our youthful throng no more 'Till all these changing scenes are o'er. No more that voice we loved to hear Shall fill his teachers listening ear, No more its tones shall join to swell,

The song that of a Savour tell. That welcome face, that sparkling eye, And sprightly form must buried lie, Deep in the cold and silent gloom, The rayless night that fills the tomb.

And we live on, but none can say How near or distant is the day, When death's unwelcome hand shall come To lay us in our narrew home. God tells us by this mournful death How vain and fleeting is our breath, And bids our soul's prepare to meet The trial of his judgment seat.

By the Court :- Boas Hausnan, Clerk. aucon Valley, Nov., 16, 1859. A CARD. THE members of the Breinigsville Brass Band take this opportunity to say a few words to the publie in regard to their late excursion. As already known to the public, our Band made an excursion trip to Allentown on Saturday a week-and we feel that we have not fulfilled our duty, as long as we withhold our acknowledgement of thanks due to the citizens of Allentown for the splendid reception and entertainment we received at the hands of the Allentonians. In particular are we highly indebted to the Lehigh Brass Band for the friendly reception received at their hands. To Maj. Amos Ettinger the leader of the Allentown Brass Band, as also the the leader of the Allentown Brass Band, as also the members of that corps, and Prof. Benkhardt, we owe heartfelt thanks, for their generosity, and the sociability displayed towards us - and mere particularly to Maj. Ettinger. We are also indebted to the landlords and hotel keepers for the liberality shown towards us, among whom we may name Messrs. Wieser, A. Gangewere, and Messrs. Hoffman and Deily, Leopold Kern, and others,—but in particular that to model of a landlord, Mr. C. J. Hagenbuch, do we owe most heartful thanks for the placelid questylinger.

most heartfelt thanks for the plendid entertainment received at his house, and for his liberality in the sharges for the same.

It is not possible for us, in this eard, to express our sentiments as fully as we feel them, but we will say that it was the happiest day that we'ever experienced, and the excursion: the incidents connected with it, and the hospitality of the citizens of Allentown will ever be cherished in our memories—and hat should the citizens of Allentown pay us a visit in the same manner, we promise them that our hos-pitality shall know no bounds. THE BREINIGSVILLE BRASS BAND.

ESENWEIN'S TAR AND WOOD NAPTHA PECTORAL,

Jowelry business know that there is searcely an article of Jowelry purchased at a retail stere upon which there is not a profit of from 100 to 400 per which there is not a profit of from 100 to 400 per cent on manufacturers, prices.

We being A ents for the Manufacturers, have adopted this plan of disposing of our goods, rather than selling to Country dealors on time and taking the uncertainty of collecting our bills.

By this arrangement, we bring the purchaser in direct communication with the Manufacturer, and the profits that are made by the dozan hands through which Jowelry has to pass, we give to the purchaser in Premiums, as above stated.

We therefore offer the the following inducement to persons acting as Agents for us.—
