DAMAGES AGAINST A GAS COMPANY .---- An ac-tion for damages, brought by John Murphy, proprietor of a hotel in the vicinity of the Reading Railroad, at Pottstown, against the mon Pleas of Montgomery county last week, and resulted in an award of $1400 for the plaintiff. The Gas Company erected their works, in the fall of 1850, on a lot adjoining Mr. Murphy's promises, and in consequence of their proximity, the water in a well belonging to the hotel was alleged to have been spoiled and become unfit for uso. It was also alleged that in consequence of the odor of gas about the hotel, the value of the property, for tavern purposes, had been seriously impaired.
