THE GREATEST DUEL ON RECORD .---- An old Mississippian furnishes the following to the Woodville [Miss.] Republican.

The famous duel, in which forty or more gentlemen were engaged, in 1828, is still re-membered in Natchez. Col. Jim Bowie; the famous fighter and inventer of the knife, which famous fighter and inventer of the knife, which bears his name, used to spend a great deal of his time in Natchez. He was challenged by a gentleman of Alexandria, La., whose friends to the number of twenty or more, accompani-ed him to Natchez to see fair p ay, knowing Bowie was a desperate man, and had his own friends about him. All parties went upon the field. The combatant stock their places in the field. The combatants took their places in the Provincetown men refused, and returned home center, separated from their friends in the rear without any bait, rather than submit to digor enough not to endanger them with their balls ging clams and paying more than they have been accustomed to give for them at home. Behold the battle array thus:--Twenty armed Louisianians, fifty yards behind their champ-ion and his seconds and surgeon, and opposite them, as far behind Bowie and his seconds and A HEROINE .- At the fire which burned the Institute at Cleveland, Ohio a few days, while surgeon, twenty armed Mississippians. Behold the heights of Natchez thronged with spectators, and a steamer in the river rounded too, its decks black with passengers, watching with a deep interest the scene. The plan of fight was to exchange shots twice with pistols, and to close with the knives. Bowie being armed with his own terrible weapon. At the first fire, both parties escaped. At the second, the Louisianian was too quick, and took advantage of Bowie, who waited the word. At this Bowie's second cried, "Foul play!" and shot the Louisianian dead. The second of the lat-ter instantly killed the slayer of his principal. Bowie drove his knife into this man. The surgeons crossed blades, while, with loud cries, came on the two parties of friends, the light of battle in their eyes. In a moment, ťhe whole number were engaged in a fearful con-flict. Dirks, pistols and knives were used with fatal effect, until one party drove the other from the field. I do not know how many were killed and wounded in all, but it was a dreadful slaughter. Bowie fought like a lion, but fell covered with wounds. For months he ingered at the Mansion Honse before he fully recovered.

The OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY not only equals, I but even estels the best imported Brandies in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corrolocated by the cert fi-sate of many of our most distinguished analyti al Chemists, some of which accouptny this circular. The want of PURE BRANDY has long been felt 1 in this country and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of those vile compounds hithorto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded as a great public good. The CATAWBA BRANDY possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported Liquor, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor. It is therefore fully emitted to the patronge of the pub-lic as the above cartificate has shown. We feel con-fident that its reception in this State will be as far-vorable as that which it has mot with in the Great West, and that time is not far distant when the superiority of our own Liquors will put an end to their importation from abroad.
