LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Doings of Congress—Speech of Hon. Henry C Longnecker on the tariff—Our Representa tive and the assertion that he "dodged." WASHINGTON CITY, May 10.

Congress has done very little of importance for the last two or three weeks, and the pros pect at present is that not much real busine complished by either House unti after the Chicago Convention. This will have the effect to prolong the session until July although many members are anxious to ad join in June. A large number of publicmong them some really beneficent -- measure have been before Congress, and been pretty oroughly discussed in either one or the other House, but none of importance have as yo passed both branches, except bills of a privat nature unimportant to the public at large. The Hon. Henry C. Longnecker had th floor on Saturday on the bill to modify the tar-iff of 1857, and delivered a powerful speech in favor of protection to American industry. It was an effort worthy of a living and important was an effort worthy of a living and important but much abused principle—and if the peopla of Lehigh and Bucks counties want an able advocate of this vital principle of political economy to represent them here in the lower House, let them roturn Henry C. Longneuker, next Outchar. They and O. no. hellow next October. They can do no better-they are likely to fare worse by a change.

are likely to fare worse by a change. The late row at Charleston in the Democrat-ic camp is the general topic of conversation-here. Men of all parties here agree that there is now no hope of electing any Democrat Pres-ident of the United States, and the fact is also self-evident to all unprejudiced minds that the Democratic party has been rent in twain by the "irrepressible conflict" between free labor and slave labor, and will soon follow in the wake of the Whig and American parties, and the Methodist and other churches, which have whose tears and sobs told how agonizin divided on this subject. The days of the Dem-ocratic party were numbered from the hour the parting. The men, as a general thing, did not exhibit much feeling, but acted and departed from their ancient faith, the faith of the fathers, and sold themselves to the Moloch of slavery. To observant minds there were but two vital objects in the free States that kept it alive and in power thus long-the name and the spoils. It is true, we may add to this the fraud and deception practised on the masses by-gone campaigns--such as the cry of 'Polk, Dallas and the tariff of 42," and "Buchanan and free Kansas"-but they had vitality only until the fraud was discovered.

notice that the Allentown Democrat and "Republikaner" still persist in their not very laudable,-and I must say not very honorable, -mode of warfare against Mr. Longnecker.-Now I am one of those who believe that there ceed direct to Utah. honesty in politics-and every high-minded and honorable man will agree with me hereas well as in any thing else. It cannot be sufficient excuse for those who indulge in slander and falsehood and vituperation against a political opponent, to say that "everything fair in politics," because the mode of attacks poisoned shafts of falsehoods-ofter -the penetrate beyond the political and involve the rivate character of an opponent. And if we examine more closely, if we scrutinize the mo tives of those who say that "everything is fair in politics," we shall always find that these unprincipled attacks upon the character of a political opponent eminate from prejudiced minds. It is not my object to put myself forward as an apologist for anything Mr. Long-necker may have done, or anything he may have omitted to do-he is amply able to defen himself against all assaults, and is accountable for his conduct in the Halls of Congress to his own constituents-yet I cannot leave this occasion pass without contradicting the false as sertion of the above named prints that Mr. L. ad "dodged" on the tariff question and the Blake resolution. The assertion that any Renublican member from Pennsylvania would dodge a vote on the tariff question is a canard that no same man will believe. When the water. metion to suspend the rules, in order to take up the tariff question for consideration, was de on the 21st of March, Mr. Longnecker was absent because he was paired off with an anti-tariff Democrat, Mr. Harris of Virginia. This pairing of members is nothing new here When a member of either party wishes to absent himself on account of business &c., that he is compelled to attend to, in some other part of the country perhaps, it is thought un gentlemanly if the party whom he applies to does not furnish him with a pair. And thus it happened that Mr. L. did not vote on this before the House, he was confined to his room of the woman, who had ceased struggling, and was now supposed to be dead, floated toward Salt Line by sickness

The aim and object, however, of these prints to injure our Representative is well understood with a last effort, dived after her. The brief by intelligent men.-The district is close, and space when they were submerged appeared an t seems they are willing to stoop to almost anything, if they can by that means succeed in prejudicing a few ignorant minds against in prejudicing a few ignorant minds against our able Representative. Would it not have better if the editors of these journals had first tried to find out how much truth there was in this matter, before they seized upon their willing pens to uphold a sinking cause-to indite a "leader" on "dodging" for the edification of their readers? A FEARFUL CATASTROPHE PREVENTED. - The Cincinnati Gazette of the 3d inst. records the following brave deed : Yesterday, soon after a freight train had passed Shelbyville station, on the Cincinnati and Indianapolis Railrond a rail slipped several inches from its place, but without the knowledge even of any one on it. This was on a curve, rendering it doubly dangerous. As the passenger train going west neared the place soon after, the engineer discovered a little boy standing in the centre of the track, energetically waving a handkerchief. He was not inclined to stop at first, knowing the fondness of all boys for sport; but fearing some difficulty, he whistled and applied the brakes, and succeeded in stopping the train the fight, I did no more than many others did, within five feet of the loosened rail. If he had and why should I be singled out as a target brakes, and not done so, we should have had to chronicle against which public opinion should be direct-another shocking railroad accident. The litted, I cannot say. It is said I cut the ropes, the boy wessen name is McBride, on walking and was the chief instigator in breaking up along the track, had discovered that the rail the fight. Now, as far as the cutting of th had been slipped, and took this method to save the train. He is a noble little fellow, and should be richly rewarded.

A MINISTER ASKED TO LOAN A HOOP SKIRT. -A well-known ministor in Chelsen, Mass., was greatly surprised, some time since, receiving an epistle from a lady friend at Cape Ann, taining sundry and divers female confidences relative to approaching marriage, and an urgent request to send immediately a " hoop skirt." The minister was completely dumb-founded. It was a strange epistle for him to receive, but there was the superscription, Rev. , as plain as could be. In the course of home. I wish to give them an opportunity of replying to any statement I may hereafter the fair correspondent had indited two letters, one to the reverend request make. I have seen it stated in one of the ing his presence to tie the marriage knot and the other to a female friend, enlarging on the Donald to challenge me. Now, I know nothanticipated occasion, and requesting her ser-vices in procuring that highly useful article a paper, and I have nothing to say in relation hoop skirt. By some hocus poous the letters were placed in the wrong envelopes, but luckily the rightful owners exchanged letters, and the the rightful owners exchanged letters, and the
