The Red Lion. What's the matter? what's the fuse? what's loose

What's the cause of this mighty commotion!
Is the Jordan on fire? is the Lehigh dried up?
Have the mountains been set all in motion?

What does Jack vell about? what is got into Brown? Why is all the world racing and running?— It is the Red Lion, he lays himself down With an air full of comfort and cunning;

He shakes his thick mane as if in great anger But not with intent to devour, For he merely roars out: where is friend Gange-And asks him the very same hour :

TOR the better accommodation of our customers, and the public generally, we will about the first of March, 1860, move to No. 36 East Hamilton St., next door to the Post Office. Where the largest stock of Queensware ever officed in Lehigh county, will be opened for sale at the lowest possible prices. Wholesale and retail, in sets or by the plece. Stores taking an assortment will be supplied at Philadelphia prices. All in want of any thing in our line are cordially invited to call and examine our goods and prices and satisfy themselves of the truth of the above statements. Our stock consists in part of every pattern, style, quality and color of China, Glass and Queensware, Stone, Rockingham, Yellow and Brittania Ware, Lumps of all kinds. Who says that you had been chased out of Square,

Cause fifty more rocks had been kicking?

It cannot be true, for it would not be fair,

Unless through some partisan tricking.

This pleases old Gangwere, and puts him in cheer. And he sings out: we'll make it all right, sir. Had I but continued to take some one's beer, I could stay where I was, without doubt, sir.

They think that the square is a magnet of might, Surpassing the North Pole's attraction, And draws to its focus, by day and by night The friends of a pure Malt-Decection.

My." Proteels," have always been splendid, they say, And so was my "Swietzer"—by Jingo! And Segars that I've frequently given away, Are selling at 3 cents in Mingo.

And had I not served up so "bully," indeed, It would be "by golly" no wonder, That no one would follow me over the street, When others do serve over yonder.

Now, finally, friends and acquaintances, come Your old daddy Gangewer has plenty of room You'll find none so clever and sprightly.

And should his new cellar take fire, the flame Could be quenched with delicious lager
And the fire in the stomach his lunches will tame,
Then mind and look out for

It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of naturo, the natury discharge of the functions of naturo, the Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the hence it of using this who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach de-rangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of then sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of hadily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nuvising mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hos-tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeirs, but ask for Hostktter's Celebrated STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters' on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Reliable Testimony.

We call the attention of the reader to the following letter from President Smith, of Wesleyan University: MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb. 28, 1859. SETH W. FOWLE & CO.— Gentlemen:—I first made use of the Oxygenated Litters some seven or eight years since. Having suffered for twenty years from a form of dyspepsis, which was attended with a nervous headache, on an average of not less than one day in a week, I was induced, by the unpretchding rec-ommendation of Dr. Green, "to try one bottle, and if no benefit was received to discontinue the use."

The use of one bottle warranted a further trial, to the extent of some three or four, with a careful observance of the accompanying directions. The result was, an almost entire relief from the usual dyspeptic symptoms and their depressing, painful consequences. I believe these Bitters produced an onlire change in the habits of my system, and upon the active energies of the digestive organs. I now deem myself as exempt from Dyspepsia as most persons. These Bitters have also been of service to other members of my family. Very respectfully yours,

AUGUSTUS W. SMITH. THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS. STODDARD, N. H., Sept. 30, 1859. Mesers. BETH W. FOWLE & Co.. Gents : - I was, for many years, a great sufferer from Dyspepsia or Waterbrash, and tried almost everything within my reach, but to no benefit, until I was induced by the recommendation of my physician, Dr. Hazelton, to make use of the Oxygenated Bitters. The first bottle produced but a slight alteration in the discuse, and had it not been for the urgent request of my physician, I should then have discontinued their use, thinking them to be of no avail; but his confidence inspired me to persevere, and after using to the extent of half a dozen bottles. I had entirely regained my health. I hope all Dyspeptic persons will be induced to give them a fair trial, being confident that the remedy is the most potent for the various forms of Dyspepsia, that has been pro-STEARNS FOSTER.

OXYGENATED BITTERS. - To such of our renders as are troubled with the debility incident to the approach of warm weather, we cordially recommend the use of the Oxygenated Bitters as an invigorating tonic, - con taining no alcohol in its composition, and pos more real merit than any preparation of the kind we have ever known. - Ogdensburg Republican.
