Arrival of the Japanese Embassy-Passage of the Turiff bill in the Honse-The old fogy Convention-The Chicago Convention. WASHINGTON, MAY 19.

Monday was a gala day in the Metropolis. As early as 10 o'clock all the avenues leading to the Navy yard were crowded with carriages while the summing up was in progress, a number of the clergymen in attendance upon the Embassy from Japan were to land. At a quarter before 12 the steamer, Philadelphia, with the Embassy on board and the flags of Japan and the United States hoisted on her decks, hove in sight. The growd in waiting amounting to, perhaps, 5,000 or 6,000, gave three cheers as soon as the boat touched the wharf; and the Japanese, coming on deck at the time, were the "observed of all observers." I noticed that one of their artists comm sketching the scenes around the navy yard as soon as the motion of the boat had subsided; soon as the motion of the boat had substitute, and the Marines under arms seemed to attract his particular attention. The sketching of the Japan artists is equal, if not superior, to that of our own, and they seem to take them with a rapidity, not often equaled by other nations. They bring their doctors, barbers, servants &c. with them, and number in all some 70 persons. They have a singular mode of paying their doctors—they are paid a monthly salary as long as those, whom they have in care, are in good health; but no sooner is a nationt taken sick than their pay stops, and patient taken sick than their pay stops, and and they get no more pay until they get him well again. A very wise provision, and one which might with propriety be introduced in America. At twelve o'clock (the hour appoint-America. But will the bill pass the Senate? The friends of a protective policy are now casting their eyes upon the American Senate, hoping for the best, but, fearing the worst. I predict that it will be quashed in the because the Democratic majority in that body will defeat the bill. Our Pennsylvania Republican members acted nobly in this contest for protection; and it is owing solely to their vigorous efforts that the bill was pressed to a vote so soon. The Democrats, tried their best to stave off the bill, but the Republicans were too vigilant for them. The nomination of Bell and Everett at Baltimore by a convention of old fogies falls still-born upon the public mind. The catch penny plat-form (the "Constitution and the Union") will not answer in a time when there are great po-litical questions before the people of this coun-try. Let us suppose an impossibility, for in-stance—that this ticket will be elected; what measures will they carry out? Are they for five summers, the only daughter of Rev. A. S. or against a protective policy? Are they for or against the acquisition of Cuba? Are they in Church, Haverstraw. His nearest neighbor

When she returned, after the lapse of an hour or so, the child was dead. The explanation of the cause of this sudden death is sought in the fact that two dogs belonging to the family were left in the room with the sleeping child, one of which, it is said, mounted the bed, placed its paws upon the little fellow's shoulders, and then drew his breath until he was sufficiented. The child was in feeble health, and it is possible may have induced a spasm that proved fatal. We understand that when the child was

The OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY not only equals, and flavor. It is in fact the best imported Brandles in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best imported by the certificate in this country and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded as a great public good. The CATAWBA BRANDY has long been felt in this country and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded as a great public good. The CATAWBA BRANDY possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported Liquor, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor. It is therefore fully ontitled to the putronage of the public as the above certificate has shown. We feel continued that its reception in this State will be as favorable as that which it has met with in the Great West, and that time ts'not far distant when the superiority of our own Liquors will put an end to their importation from abroad.

For Medical purposes this Brandy has no rival, and has long been needed.
