Where doe re the committee was raised, or after I told him Judge Hall was in favor of it. He turned to me and said: "You might just as well make some money out of this as any one." I told him I did not know how I could get the Tennessee—S. D. Reynolds—he was a strong Lecompton man, I was opposed to it. I used to bore him and joke him about the weakness of the Administration, that could not get a measure passed that they were anxious to have passed. I told him I would take the contract for putting that measure through for $10,000. He took it in earnest. Now, I meant no such thing and was only jobing him and the contract of the con thing, and was only joking him and boring him about the matter; and that was the way Wendell came to me. I told Wendell at the time that I was only boring Reynolds; that I other purposes.

And no such power; that I knew none of the Q. I want to know those, who were interestmembers except some of the Ohio members, and I would not dare to approach them with money. It was then that Mr. Wendell made the prosposition about the $20 000 that Mr. Covode asked me about yesterday; I refused to have anything to do with it that morning, and told him I would study about it, and see him again. I met him again the next morning, and finally took the check for $5,000, and agreed to do all I could for it: which I was agreed to do all I could for it; which I was then doing, and had been doing before.

Q. Did he designate any manner in which you were to exert your influence?

A. No, sir.

Q. Whether with money or solicitation?

A. No, sir; he never intimated that he wanted me to use this on any member.

Q. Did he intimate that you were to keep it A. He did not say; I took it as my own, and Whom did you see? I never ran after a single member; I never had any opportunity without forcing my-self upon any member, which I never did upon self upon any member, which I never did upon any subject; I urged the settlement of that question as I had been doing before. Q. Do you recollect any conversation had with any member?

A. I do not; I never did converse with an member alone about it, unless it was with Judge Hall, who was always in favor of doing just what was done; I do not think I conver d with any other member alone. Q. Did you ever state to any one in what

A. I think not unless it was this man, Reynolds; I may have told Reynolds; I think it very likely that I did; I knew that he knew all about it, and was noways reserved with him: I never told anybody else.

Q. You have not told to any one, whom you recollect, what disposition you made of the $4, A. I think not—only to the members of this committee; I am positive I did not.

Q. You say that you got from the Bank of Metropolis a draft on New York for $4,000? A. I am satisfied that I did; I took back the certificate of deposit within a few days, after deposited the check there, and sent that $4,000 me. My object in doing that was to secure it; I was afraid that they would find out that I was not doing anything, and would stop payment upon it. You returned the certificate of deposit. Q. You returned the certificate of deposit, and, of course, this draft would appear upon A. I do not know anything about their manner of keeping books.

Q. Is your recollection distinct that you took a draft upon New York for $4,000?

A. It has been so long ago that I do not remember the exact points; but I am pretty well satisfied that that was the amount I got.

By the Charkwan—Q. What conversation had you with Mr. Wendell at the time he proposed to give you $20,000? A. That grow out of my gassing with Rey nolds, my joking and plaguing him; he proposed, if I would take the contract, to give me $20,000. Here is a memorandum, which he made and handed to me when he left me. o during the first conversation. I do not now re member which it was. In place of telling it, he wrote it down, while I was looking on.—Says he: "Here is what I will do," and then wrote this: "$5 d—, $5 30—, $5 60—,

The understanding was, that this was $5,000 apeice. I said, "I would rather take the $5,000 down, and not take the contract." By Mr. OLIN-Q. Was this $5,000 apiece for four men ? A, I forget the number of men, who wer

Q. Do you recollect whether it was before the confence committee was raised or after that you changed your deposit and took a draft?

A. I did it within a few days after I first went to the bank; I think it was in the same. week; I got uneasy about it; I did not dare to talk to anybody about it, and did not know getting that matter settled?

A. He said that when he was urging this this matter; I understood him, by that, to mean that if I even wanted more I could have it; that was what I understood by that remark.

Q. Did you not give Mr. Reynolds a portion of this money in consideration of his services in getting you the agency in this matter? A. He said to me one day, "you made a good thing out of this, and you never. would have got it but for me, and you ought to give me something." Says I, "I will give you something, Sim."
