Her arm commenced swelling very rapidly, and the wound would have resulted in her death, had not a physician passed at the time, who was called in and relieved the wound by bleeding.

Great Conflagration in New York City. Half a Block of Buildings Burned .-- Fortythree Families rendered Homeless .-- Total loss about $100.000.

An extensive conflagration occurred on Mon-day afternoon, in the North Western part of the Ninth Ward, in New York city, by which forty-three families were rendered homeless, and thirty-three buildings destroyed, together with nearly all the furniture they contained. About 121 o'clock, smoke was discovered issuing from a small frame stable, located near the corner of Charles alley (commonly known as "Pig Alley") a narrow lane passing through the block, bounded by Washington street, Charles street, Perry street and Main street. Both sides of Pig alley were lined with frame and brick stables, occupied principally by cart-men, and were pretty well stocked with hay and feed.

While the persons who discovered the while the persons who discovered the smoke were watching it, a heavy body of fire jourst through the roof of the stable, and he-fore an falarm could be sounded, the finnes, fed by the light and combustible material in the adjoining stables, were sweeping furiously the adjoining stables, were sweeping furiously the adjoining stables, were sweeping furiously in every direction. The size of the Engraving is 23 by 31 inches, and the price ($1,) for which it is offered, is only one-fifth the usual price of a imilar works-100,000-being is-sued instead of 2,060, the usual number. The home of every faimily in the land, should be adorned with this picture, as besides its beauty as an ornament, the losson it teaches, illustrating the wile of Intemperance and War, and the end of a good-a Oksie-tian Life are invaluable. Mr. PRALE says of the Engraving: "I can certify that it is an accurate and admirable copy of the Original Painting." Testi-monials without number, have been received from distinguished Clergymen in praise of the Engraving. Many who receive it, say they would not part with it for tom times its cost, if they could not procure monther.
