ALLENTOWN, PA.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1860. PETER C. HUBER & JOHN H. OLIVER

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

TO ADVERTISERS. THE "LEHIGH-REGISTER"-HAS A-LARGES CIRCULATION BY SEVERAL HUNDRED THAN ANY OTHER ENGLISH PAPER IN THE COUNTY.

NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT ABRAM LINCOLN OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

HANNIBAL HAMLIN. OF MAINE.

ELECTORAL TICKET. ELECTORS AT LARGE. HON. JAMES POLLOCK,

HON. THOMAS M. HOWE, Edward C. Knight, Robert P. King, Henry Bumm, Robert M. Fonst, Nathan Hills, John M. Broomall, . James W. Fuller, Levi B. Smith, Francis W. Christ,
David Mumma, jr., 11. David Taggart, 12. Thomas B. Hull,

DISTRICT ELECTORS. 13. Francis B. Pennimai
14. Ulyssus Metcet,
15. George Brissler,
16. A. B. Sharpe,
17. Daniel O. Gehr,
18. Samuel Calvin,
19. Edgar Cowan,
20. William McKennan,
21. J. M. Kirkpatrick,
22. James Kerr. . James Kerr, . Richard P. Roberts, in the people of the Territories. That a Territorial Legislature, in the exercise of this inherent right, can abolish slavery, Judge Doug-as has not yet dared to assert. The utmost ritorial Legislature could substantially abolish slavery, by withholding such police regulations, as were necessary to its existence; and this, as the Judge asserts, not with standing the abstract doctrine of the Dred Scott decision, which asserts the Constitutional right of slaveholders to hold their slaves, as property, in the Territories. In the platform, adopted at Baltimore, the question of the right of a Territorial Legislature to abolish slavery remains an open question to be decided by the Supreme Court. to whose decisions all good Democrats are pledged to submit. The Republican Party asserts the power of Congress to prohibit

Bell and Everett have no fixed doctrines upon nois. This ordinance remained undisturbed, quested its repeal, so far as they were concerned, and under its influence the North-Western Territories become free and prosperous States.

the Union, Congress passed the Missouri Com-

the views of the Fathers, the Re

In 1854, Senator Douglas, then Chairman of the Committee on Territories, reported a bill.

organizing into a Territorial Government the conceived the idea of gaining a Slave State .-

be no chance in the bill reported, because the Territory extended too far north to render the formation of a slave State possible. Kansas

State. It was only after this division, that Senator Douglas proposed the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. In the bill not a word islature, upon the subject of slavery, but the right was affirmed of the People deciding for or against slavery, when they came to form a State Convertion prior to admission into the Union. The doctrine of the Kansas-Nebraska of 1856 and in the newspapers of the Demo cratic Party, and, from the stump in that year, a late speech, in the Senate, Senator Benjamin satisfactorily proved, that at the passage of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, in 1854, this was a disputed question among Democratic Senators among them, that the subject should be settled by the decision of the Supreme Court .-

The Dred Scott Decision Southern Senators

claimed was such a decision in their favor

The opinion of the Judges in this case broadly affirmed, that neither Congress nor the People, through a Territorial Legislature, could abolish slavery in any of the Territories. In las proclaimed to the people of Illinois, that every citizen was bound by that decision .-

When subsequently in the canvass in Illinois, with Lincoln, he was driven to the wall, Douglas backed down from his agreement with Democratic Senators, in 1858, and his recent endorsement of the Dred Scott decision, and as-the platform of the party, which nominated subject to the decision of the Supreme Court, which he has, in times past, proclaimed to have been already made. The above brief historical statement of views on the Territorial ques-tion must not only establish Senator Louglas's

Party is most amp'y vindicated.

24. Henry Souther, STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR: Col. Andrew G. Curtin.

OF CENTRE COUNTY.

A CHANGE. Leaving out of consideration the principle of the various political parties in the field, any calm, unprejudiced observer must admit the necessity for a change in the Administrawrong principles, may at the same time be honest. Whilstitis right, that the people should properly understand the political issues before them in the coming election, no one should istration has the disposal of $80,000,000 of in all the North-West Territories, comprising litical canvass, in which he should be a prompatronage per annum, and the appointment of the present States of Ohio, Indiana, and Illia vast number of officers, among whom this patronage is distributed. The Government although the people of a portion of Indiana remay be honestly and economically administered or the reverse, as has been the case with President Buchanan. Honest, capable and efficient officers may be appointed to offices of In 1820, upon the admission of Missouri into trust and profit or the reverse as is now lamentably the fact. This whole question of econo- promise, prohibiting slavery in that portion of my, of efficiency and honesty is not involved the Louisiana purchase, north of the parallel in the political issues prominently before the of 36° 30. In the Territory covered by this country, the question of free homesteads, a prohibition, the present Territories of Kansas Pacific railroad, tariff, slavery extension, &c. and Nebraska were comprised. During Polk's If we acquaint ourselves with the administra- Administration, a similar prohibition was aption of James Buchanan, we learn that in the | plied to Oregon. We might multiply exam-Post-office department we find defaulters to ples and in doing so would only confirm the enormous amounts; in the custom houses we position, that; from the formation of the Fedeswindled and the profits used by the agents of Congress had not only the power to prohibit The course of Mr. Lincoln has been an admir-Sve of an election, doing nothing, for the purpose of electing a Presidential favorite to Congress. The Administration has become stench in the eyes of the American people .-The record of its dark misdeeds is partially in power is to corruption. In making this remark we except no political parties. At all It was known, that for this scheme there would times in the history of the country must there be two political parties, the one watching, checking and detecting the wrongs of the other. This is a great political necessity in a country where the people govern. Asone party, glutted with power, becomes corrupt, another, fresh from the people, supplants it, itself in turn, perhaps, to become the victim of its predecessor's renewed watchfulness. All impartial was said as to the power of a Territorial Legmen, who examine mattters fairly and impartially, must confess, that in view of the corruptions of the Democratic Party, if for no other reason, there is a loud call for change.-In the character of the Republican candidate for the Presidency, whose name in the West bill was approved in the Cincinnati platform has become a household word for honesty, have we the guaranty, that the next adminis-

Republican party. CURTIN TO STUMP THE STATE.-The State Central Committee, at its recent sessions at Cresson, fixed the times and places, when and and that there was a private unnerstanding where Col. Curtin will address his fellow-citizens of the State, during the canvass. The first appointment of Col. C., according to the programme of the Committee, is at West Chester, on the 27th of the present month. The meeting at West Cheseer will also be addressed by the Hon. Thomas P Campbell, of Huntingdon county; and Hon. John Hickman. of Chester. Mr. Campbell will make his first a speech, in Chicago, in 1858, Senator Dougspeech in behalf of the Republican cause. He has been a life-long advocate of the principles of the Democratic Party, but the corruptions of the Party have disgusted him, and he has sought refuge in the Republican Party, as the only one, to be relied on by the People, in the present troubles and difficulties of the country.

tration will be honestly and economically conducted. This is a fact, which the people can and will see, and it is in view of this, more than for any other reason, that we calculate upon a great popular reaction in favor of the full right to decide for or against slavery. In

FIRST GUN FROM THE NORTHWEST .- The Republican candidate for Mayor of Milwaukie, Wisconsin, was elected on Wednesday last by 22029I majority. Milwaukie has usually herete fore gone Democratic by from 2,000 to 3,000 ma 253 jority. This splendid Republican victory does not speak very much in confirmation of the boasted strength of Douglas in the Northwest.

INDEPEDENT CANDIDATE FOR ASSEMBLY. - Mr Ranhan A. Bover, of Catasaugus, in the Catassugus Herald, of last week, announced him. Douglas, still binds him to submit upon this this fall. self, as an Independent Candidate for the Leg-

APHILOSOPHICAL QUASTION .- How in all the world is the Democratic party to preserve the Union of the states when it cannot preserve its own Union:

Whom does Foster favor? The Territorial Question. The question of the rights of Slavery in the It is altogether probable, that it will be a question, which will excite considerable inter-Territories is one, which has agitated the country for years, and which, in times past, having est in political circles, in the few months, yet political parties, has finally divided the Demoeratic Party itself. The position of the exist-Governor, favors for the Presidency. We have ing parties upon the subject may be briefly yet to learn, that he has said or written a single stated, as follows: The adherents of Breckenword upon the subject, since the Baltimore nomiridge maintain, that Congress has supreme nations. All, that is known, in reference to his ecognized as property by the Constitution, its mor. By some it has been said, that he was ssary, it is contended, that Congress should favor of Breckenridge. By some it is stated, egislate to secure the enjoyment of this Con- that Mr. Foster is heartily in favor of the plan stitutional right. The supporters of Douglas of fusion, adopted by the State Central Comare less explicit in their views. Taking Judge mittee. In Monday's Press, of last week, Col. Douglas' essay in Harper's Magazine, as a John W. Forney, referring to the subject, deguide, we infer, that the following are the mands, in behalf of the friends of Douglas, a views of the Judge upon the subject .- | declaration in his favor, by the Democratic Congress has supreme powers in the Territo- nominee for Governor. The question is, doubtries, only so far as they are the property of the less one, which embarrasses Mr. Foster, as it of the Party, to the exclusion of the other, is have fixed the times and places, when and where Mr. Foster, in the canvass, will address have principles, and the leaders of the party slavery in the Territories and demands the ex- must be capable of defending them. Princiercise of this power, when necessary to prevent the extension of slavery. The supporters of cause of difference between the two wings of the injuries he had received. the Democratic Party is one, both of men and the subject, it being for the most part dodged, principles. In announcing his position upon principles, may be corrupt. Men, advocating conflicting. Let us examine the subject for a say about Presidential candidates, cannot lose sight of the fact that the Federal Admin- tion, passed an ordinance, prohibiting slavery died silence at home, during an exciting po-

Douglas Stumping for Himself. Senator Douglas in his route home from Washington to Illinois, has seen fit to journey to New York, thence to Boston, returning find men holding offices and drawing salaries ral Constitution until within a very few years of the Presidency was one of too high a charwithout anything to do; in the execution of it was unanimously conceded by Statesmen of acter to be degraded by candidates taking the meadows, had become fastened in the mire and the public printing we find the government all parties and of all sections of the Union, that political field in behalf of their own claims.—

ment contracts we find swindling practised California, Senator Douglas himself voted for the county may expect in case of his election. by muskrats, and the body was otherwise mu with the convivance of men high in power, as the extension of the Missouri Compromise line and concise admirable letter that in the agony of starvation the lad had at a reward for past political services; in Navyto the Pacific. In the light of the past, and yards, we find hosts of men employed on the of the views of the Fathers, the Republican ly informed of his nomination by the delegation appointed for the purpose by the Chicago Convention, nothing has escaped either his lips or pen, intended to cater to the public prejudices upon the political questions of the day. His course has been preeminently wise and in Territories now comprised in Kansas and contained in the report of the Covode Investigating Committee. The tendency of a party of the Mesouri Compromise. The South to be degraded to the level of pot-house politics, then we recommend, that each candidate for the Presidency, travel in the country, exhibit himself to the crowd, make speeches in his own behalf, drink whiskey, where necessary and sink himself to the level of any aspirant for any local or county office. We trust, that was cut off from the Southern frontier and such a pass may never be reached in Amerithis, it was determined, should form the slave can politica. DOUGLAS MEN IN THE SOUTH .- The Southern pers, of that State, which support Douglas and Johnson, thus expresses itself, upon the slavetrade :

"We are for the repeal of the restrictions upon the African slave trade, regardless of its construed impolicy by the Northern fanatics nd Southern subn ssionists.

We are opposed to tile acquisitions of any re-opened, and the immediate sale and enit was daily asserted, and the People were de-ceived by the assertion, that the People of a within the limits of the Southern States after lavement of all free negroes that are found Territory, at all times, as well as at the period a specified time to emigrate." of the famation of a State Constitution, had

We call the attention of Douglas Democrats to the above expression of views by a Southern supporter of their ticket. It may be remarked, that it is in accordance with the political views of Herschel V. Johnson, their candidate for the Vice Presidency, as expressed in the past.

LINCOLN IN ILLINOIS.—A friend in town, whilst traveling in the cars in central New York, met an intelligent merchant from Illinois, who, in the course of a conversation, stated, that it was generally conceded by intelligent and candid men in the West, that Lincoln will carry Illinois by a decided majority. With Republicans west the only apprehension are in reference to Pennsylvania. That Lincoln will carry the North-western States, it is assumed. We can assure all such, that Pennsylvania may be relied on as sure for the Republican nominee for the Presidency by a large majority.

STRAIGHT DOUGLAS ELECTORAL TICKET .- The serted, that, notwithstanding the abstract doc- friends of Douglas and Johnson, of this State, trine of that case, the people of a Territory opposed to a fusion with the supporters of could practically prohibit slavery by with- Breckenridge and in favor of a straight electoholding proper police regulations. Here was ral ticket for Douglas and Johnson, will meet the rook, on which the political fortunes of in State Convention at Harrisburg to-morrow. Stephen A. Douglas were shattered, and the The result of their deliberations will appear enteing wedge of a schism in the Democratic in our next week's issue. It is but one of the Party, which must not only engulph him po- stages of the "irrepressible conflict," which litically, but which now threatens to effect the is fast driving the Democratic Party to a complete everthrow of the Party itself. But speedy dissolution. From all appearances it speedy dissolution. From all appearances it Hanover or Wurtumburg. By the year 1870 would seem, that the Party will die the death if Pennsylvania progresses as she done, her BRECKENRIDGE ELECTORAL TICKET IN MICHI-GAN .- The preliminary arrangements have been made to form a straight Breckenridge Electoral Ticket in the State of Michigan .glaring inconsistency and treachery to his own party associates, but must also vindicate the proud position of the Republican Party. The two wings of the party seem determined to prosecute the fight to the better end.

LINCOLN'S PROSPECTS IN INDIANA, -We collect the following statements from various sources, and leave our readers to judge, what served as a basis of division between opposing preceding the State election, as to whom Henare the chances of "Old Abe" in Indiana .ry D. Foster, the Democratic candidate for like to know what State he can carry. "Indiana, from present indications, will be lin as the election will come round. The Oplin as the election will come round.

position are firmly united, and working toge

Wide Awake Clubs and power in the Territories, that slavery, being Presidential preferences, is founded upon ru-Vigilance Committees are being formed in every part of the State, and the documents existence in the Territories is a Constitutional right, which Congress cannot impair, and with which a Territorial Legislature, exercising powers, derived from Congress, as a consequence, has no right to interfere. When newill each fill a series of appointments to speak in the German language, "All the German press in Indiana, except one, are for Lincoln, three of them having abandoned the Democratic doctrine and en braced Republicanism. "Judge Petit, of Indiana, writes to his sor in Lafayette, conceding the election of Lincol by the people. THE BENICIA BOY .- John C. Heenan, th Federal Government, Apart from powers thus would doubtless any one similarly situated. Benicia Boy, has made a contract with parties pelonging to Congress, all power is inherent The Party is irrecoverably divided; neither in New York, to give sparring exhibitions for can carry the State single-handed and to fas- three months for the sum of twenty-five ten his fortunes to the success of either wing thousand dollars. GOOD NEWS FROM MARYLAND.—The Repub to commit political suicide. We have not lican Clubs at Baltimore are said to number that he has ventured to say, was that a Ter- learned, that the State Central Committee about 2,500 voters.

A Boy Lives Five Days With His Head Sawed In Two-On the eleventh instant a boy his fellow-Democrats of the State, nor do we believe, that he could undertake the task, even believe, that he could undertake the task, even if assigned him. Once on the stump, and the question of difference in the ranks of the Party must be faced, and answered. Brecken-ridge or Douglas must be supported and to The saw entered his skull about four inches support either is to invite defeat. A more lamentable condition for a once great party could not well be imagined. Political parties are permanently successful, only as they truly represent public opinion. A political party must stance of the brain more than two inches When brought to the New York Hospital, and from the time the accident occurred up to Saturday, the 14th instant, he suffered no

On Saturday morning the disorganized substance of the brain mingled with inflamitor and when views are expressed by prominent the great leading questions, now agitating the and paralysis of the left arm supervended and paralysis of the left arm supervended tion. Politicians, professing the holiest of members of the Party, they are found to be country, Mr. Foster, however little he may about four o'clock in the afternoon. Until this time the deceased made no complaint moment, in the light of our past political his- evade discussing the issues, upon which the his intellect appeared to be perfectly clear, and tory. Congress, in 1787, then composed of many prominent men of the country, who in his condition, and are sorry that the force evident that death must shortly ensue. He took a leading part in drafting the Constitution passed an ordinance prohibiting slavery died silence at home during an exciting no.

Dr. Tuthill, who had the case in charge states it is the most remarkable case of tena city of life that he had ever witnessed. The medical faculty at the Hospital were very de sirous to hold a post mortem examination, but say they were denied the priveledge by the

and the relatives of the deceased.

N. Y. Post July 19. Shocking Fate of a Lost Child.-The New West by way of Albauy. In his route he has been received by the Democracy of his own clique in the different cities and whilst protesting against being drawn into a speech upon the political issues of the day, has pretty generally given a lengthy speech upon the very subjects, which has professed an arritar at the Kossuth Woods on "the subjects, which he professed an anxiety to avoid. It may be said, that he has taken the ning. The barking of his dog in a marsh stump in behalf of his claims for the Presidency. In the past history of the country, it procession to the vicinity, and having started to return to his home on the hill, over the perished from exposure and hunger. During the night of the 5th his cries were heard, but the President in bribing through Congress the slavery in the Territories, but that this power able one. His speeches heretofore made are should be exercised. After the acquisition of an index of his political views and of what tilated. One thumb was in his mouth showing days under a broiling sun by day and exposed to cold at night and finaly perishing. The case is one of the most affecting that has occurred for a long time. Coronor CRAVEN announced the sad intelligence to the bereaved parents and the scene that followed was very

> Mammon Versus Hymen .- The Greenfield Mass., Gazette has the following:
> "A curious circumstance occured on Wednesday. A young man in this village procured a clergyman to marry him, and after the guests had all assembled and the knot was abou to be tied the would be-bridegroom was called out of the house, and soon info rming the cler gyman and guests that he would be back in a moment mysteriously disappeared and after wating an hourthe clergyman left for the Sun-day School celebration, leaving the bride and her friends in doubt as to the mysterious dis-Confederacy, of Georgia, one of the newspa- appearance of the bridegroom. It subsequently appeared that a person to whom the bridegroom loaned twenty-six dollars was about de parting in the cars for New York, and that ifriend had informed him of the fact just as the clergyman was about tying the knot, and thinking that his intended wife was safer than his money left for the depot to collect his bor rowed money before the train should depart. just as the train was starting He got ther more territory until the African slave trade is got on board the cars to find his debtor friend and was carried off to Northampton.

however collected his money went to the telegraph office to inform his intended bride where he was but could not find the operator, and started for Greenfield afoot on the track. A Whately the train overtook him: he got into he cars and reached Greenfield at half past three o'clock, to the great relief of his inten-ded and her friends. He immediately took the lady to the clergyman's residence and had

Winding up Banks in Illinois.-The Audi gives notice that, all the circulating notes ed by the Hamilton County Bank, at Mc Leansboro, Illinois, must be presented for re demption at the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts, at Springfield, Illinois on or before the 30th day of October, 1860. All persons holding such notes, and failing to present them within the time aforesaid will be barred from recovery against the Auditor or stock-

All notes issued by the People's Bank Carmi, Illinois, must be presented for the dividend of 94 per cent., at the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts, at Springfield, Illinoise, on or before the lst day of August, 1860. All persons, holding such notes, and failing to present them within the time aforesaid, will be barred from recovery against the Auditor or stockholders.

The Population of Pennsylvania.—The Philadelphia Bulletin computes the population of Pennsylvania at 3,200,000 and this estimate s made on the supposition of the per centage of increase since 1850. The rapid advance the country is strikingly shown in this. Here we have a single State of the confederacy the thirty-three which is in population as large as that of the Roman States before the recent troubles. It is nearly equal to that of Portugal or Holland, and larger than that of either of the kingdoms of Denmark, Saxony, population will considerably exceed four remains of a saddle, bridle and martingale were found secreted close by very much decay-ed: and also a club upon which the traces of blood were visible.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

AT EASTON. - Senator Davis from Mississippi is stopping at Easton at present with the Hon. Richard Broadhead.

A new counterfeit five dollar note on Farmer's Bank of Schuylkill County has nade its appearance

PROLIFIC .- The census returns in one of the upper townships of Northampton county report fifty living children in four families.

CARBON COUNTY FAIR .-- The Carbon County Agricultural Fair, is to be held at Lehighton, on the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th days

SOLD .- The Franklin Iron Works at South

Easton, were sold on Saturday last, the pur chaser being Mr. Jno. Stuart of that place.

THE ROLLING MILL AT BETHLEHEM. -Workmen are already engaged in digging the oundations of the new rolling mill to be

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS. - The Hon. Richard Broadhead is a candidate for Congress in the old Tenth Legion, subject to the decision of the nominating Convention. By an advertisement in another column the Lehigh County Agricultural Society, will meet at the Allen House, on the 4th day of August next. NEW POST MISTRESS AT MAUCH will be seen that the Executive Committee of

CHUNK.—John Cooper, Esq., post-master of Mauch Chunk, desiring to give other business his attention, resigned his office, whereupon Mrs. Righter was appointed. CHILD DROWNED .- A child of Mr. Owen

Laudenschlager, of Lower Macungie township, two years of age, whilst crossing the Little Le-high on a ford, on Friday last, accidentally fell into the creek and was drowned: ARRESTED .- Lewis Nice, who escaped from the Easton jail, about two years since, was arrested on Saturday night, at Beach and

Noble streets Philadelphia, by officer Green. The prisoner was held for the present FATAL ACCIDENT.—Thomas Melville. employed by Gen. Paul Applebach, while driving a span of horses, between Applebachsville and Hellertown, on the 9th inst., was thrown from the carriage and injured so badly, that

SERENADE .- On last Monday evening a week ago, the Lehigh Cornet Band, of 1st Ward, under the leadership of Mr. Win. Men-ninger serenaded several of our citizens. This Band is rapidly improving, and deserve great credit for their progress.

ACCIDENT AT BETHLEHEM.-Mr. David Hillegas, one of the commissioners of North-ampton county, whilst waiting for the Lehigh Valley Train at Bethlehem, on Thursday last, ted to cross the track, and fell with his nead on the rails. Hishead was cut very badly.

REPUBLICAN CLUB .- A regular meetng of the Central Republican Club of this Borough, will be held this (Wednesday) evening, and addresses in the street, in front of the Club Room, be delivered by E. H. Rauch, Esq., of Mauch Chunk and Prof. Gregory of our Borough. Turn out to hear them.

SAD ACCIDENT.-Wm. Henry Glase, son of Joseph Glase, of Salishtry township, aged ten years, fell from a tree, on Monday a week, and broke his left arm. The boy was dimbing after a bird's nest, and the limb broke, precipitating him to the ground. Mortifica-tion set in in the hand, and the little sufferer expired of his injuries on Saturday.

THE ALLEN RIFLES,-The Allen Rifles have determined to hold two regular drills a week, one on Monday and one on Friday evening, in order to perfect themselves in drill. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings squad drills are also field. We may expect We may expect that, by fall, the Rifles will be prepared to

CURTIN'S APPOINTMENTS .-- Col. Curtain, the Republican nominee for Covenor, will address meetings in this section of the State, at the following times. At Honesdale on the 13th of August: at a Mass Meeting at Stroudsburg on the 14th; at Mauch Chunk on the evening of the 15th; at Allentown on the 16th; and at Easton on the 20th of August blacksmith's ship, are more valuable than masure for peach trees. A shovelfull put round n healthy peach tree will be very likely to keep it in good condition; and it is said, that trees, already diseased, have recovered by the application of these scales. Iron, in any form, vill answer a good purpose.

How often do we hear men excuse ther elves from subscribing to a paper or period-cal, by saying they have no time to read. ical, by saying they When we hear a man thus excuse himself we conclude he has never found time to confer any substantial advantage either upon his family his country or himself. To hear a freeman thus express himself, is truly humiliating, and we can form no other opinion than that such man is of little importance to society.

ALLENTOWN ACADEMY,-By an advertisement, in another column, it will be seen that the fall term of the Allentown Academy Academy is an old established institution, and nder the control of Prof. I, N. Gregory has attained the name of one of the best in Penusylvania. Persons, at a distance, not equainted with the school, can get informaion by applying to any of our citizens.

A NEW OMNIBUS .-- Our old friend W. F Tenger has been to New York and had express y made one of the handsomest and finest-look ng omnibuses to be seen in our Borough. It uns daily nay almost hourly, between the rail road denot and the Allen House. Persons desirous to have a team to take a ride can be gratified at any time, at reasonable terms with first rate equipents at his livery stable in Law

ELECTION.—At a meeting of the Wide wake Club of our Borough on Thursday last, the following officers were elected: President, G. C. Hand: Vice President, S. P. Bliss; Secretary, E. H. Lucas; Corespondent Secretary, John H. Olivor; Treasurer, Edward Ruhe; Captain W. II. R. Hangen; 1st Lieutenant, Sinon P. Snyder; 2nd Lieutenant B. F. Lerch; 3rd Lientenant, Charles Henry; 4th Lieutenant, Geo. Hoffman; 5th Lieutenant, W. II.

isturbed no man's equanimity and the misstatements made can only operate to the preudice of the cause, they are intended to serve. on the list of members, and it is a knowledge tivity, and restores the functions of diseased of this fact, we presume which stirs the bile plants almost as soon as applied. It is chear of the Editor. If he or any other persons and economical top-dressing for grain and The skeleton of a horse found in Cherry twp., Sullivan county, Pa., justify the suipicion that its rider had been murdered. The remains of a saddle, bridle and martingal were found secreted close by very much decayed: and also a club upon which the traces of blood were visible. the Club a complete success.

PARADE OF GOOD FELLOWS .-- A pg' rade of the Ancient Order of Good Fellows took place in Easton on Thursday last. The members of the R. H. Grand Lodge of Philadelphia and those of Lodges in other places were present. Mt. Jefferson Lodge, No. 19 in Easton, was formed in the morning in Third Street, and proceeded to the depot of the Belvidere Delaware Railroad to receive the Philadelphians who arrived with the morning frain. BRANCH RAILROAD .- The contract for the construction of the branch of the East Pennsylvania Railrond, from the Temple, to connect with the Rending Railrond at Tackerton, has been given to Gen. Wm. Karns, wh has already erected his shanties and broken ground on the line. This branch will be 13 iles long, and will be completed in three four months. It will give the Schuylkill coal region a continuous railway outlet to the harbor of New York.

DEATH FROM SUN STROKE.—Newspa pers are beginning to record deaths in various parts of the country from sun stroke. It may do some good to repeat the fact that a wet hand-kerchief placed in the hat over the top of the A REPUBLICAN WIGWAM.—The Republicans of Easton intend to erect a wigwam during the coming Presidential campaign.—The site has not yet been selected. and workmen employed in the sun should re-member this fact and not fail to try it.

ICE WATER.-In health no one ought to flamations of the stomach and bowels, and sometimes sudden death. To drink ice cold liquid at meals retards digestion, chills the body, and has been known to induce the most

CREAM BEER .- As the season is at hand, when refreshing beverages will become desirable, we furnish our readers with the following recipe for making what is sometimes cal ed cream beer. It is an effervescing drink, more pleasant than soda water, and the effer-vesence is much more slow. Two ounces of tartaric acid, two pounds of white sugar, the juice of a lemon, three pints of water. Boil to-

THE ECLIPSE.—If not a local fact, yet still f general local interest, we note that on Wedof general local interest, we note that on wearnesday last, the 18th inst., at 7 o'clock in the morning, an eclipse took place, and was viewed through smoked glass by a great many of our citizens. In this latitude, it was but partial: and its greatest observation was from tial: and its greatest observation was from a watch up to a corn cob.

This latitude, it was but partial: and its greatest observation was from a watch up to a corn cob.

"The plot continues to unfold itself." On Wadredeep part the Great Wadredeep part the Great was the most obstinate to unfold itself." This eclipse is periodical, occurring every nineteenth year. The first notice of it was in moon just touched the South Pole. At pear every nineteenth year until the year 2274 the 24th of April, the shadow will just touch the North Pole. The same eclipse signified their intention will not again appear until a lapse of 12,492 part in the celebration. vears, when it will begin another series of penow going through appointment of Mr. Wright is a well deserved compliment, in view of his fidelity to the Democratic Party, and his qualifications for the post. We have no doubt, that, in the hands Court will be exceptly reported, and that Mr Wright's well-known industry and ability, as eases reported a true and correct syllabus of annointment continues for five years.

ing, a young wan, named William Cavanaugh temporarily residing at Easton, while attempt ing to get upon a moving train of cars at Phillipsburg, fell ufon the track, when the wheels passed over him. Having been removed to his residence, an examination by his physicians disclosed several serious wounds of his head, fracture of the skull and consequent injury of the brain : his left arm was frightfully crush-IRON FOR PEACH TREES.—The scales of from the shoulder to the hand. His system the young criminal whose execution in the jail-yard of this county for the murder of his the great loss of blood, that he died during the wife, is still fresh in the public mind, did on the great loss of blood, that he died during the wife, is still fresh in the public mind, did on night. He continued to sink from the time of the identical day that he purchased the deadly the injury without any intervening reaction of draught wherewith to destroy the sworn partthe system. Thus has a worthy young man, ner of his joys, and of his grid in the full vigor and bloom of early life, been suddenly taken away. The frequent recurrence of such accidents from causes precisely its President. rence of such accidents from causes precisely 148 Fresident.

similar, should serve as a caution to all, that it appears that Harden dropped into the it is always unsafe to attempt getting on or of store of Messrs. Creveling & Davis, at Washacar, while it is in motion. The deceased has a mother and sister, residing in New York, bill, and also a blank cheek on said bank. He whom he assisted with his earnings .- Euston Express.

> We desire to call the attention of our readers to the stock of useful and ornamental ware at the Philadelphia Terra Cotta Manufactory of Messrs. Link and Black, 1010 Chestnut Street, and Germantown Road, Philadel-phia, and to their advertisement in another the Phillipsburg Bank. Having implicit conpart of our paper. Our Farmers and Builders, fidence in the deceptive character of the bogus and those about draining their lands, or who want a good article to conduct water from their lipsburg Bank, but the officers of that institureservoirs to their houses, should call and examine their Vitrified Water and Heat Pipe and Chimney Tops and Flues, also articles for the exterior Description and Chimney and Chimney Tops and C the exterior Decoration and Garden and Plea- Upon being questioned, Harden said that he sure Grounds, such as Vases, Fountains and wanted the money to pay in the Clinton Bank, Statuary. This Establishment is the most extensive in the country, having introduced all check would answer that purpose just as well the improvements in machinery at their facto-ry they are prepared to furnish any quantity. This we believe, was the closing confidence in the confidence of their ware at short notice. Every one visiting Philadelphia should not fail to pay a visit to this establishment to examine the great va-riety of articles made in Terra Cotta. The manufacturers will take pleasure in showing parties interested in this useful and beautiful material whether purchasers or not.

OLD PLASTER .- The value of old plaster says a correspondent of the Germantown Tele-graph, from the walls of buildings, as a man-ure for apple and other fruit trees, has been occupied so unenviable a prominence before demonstrated by repeated trials. It appears, the public, was.
that, when used for this purpose, it is better Had this bold attempt at forgery been sucthat, when used for this purpose, it is better to spread it on, than to bury it beneath the surface, unless it is used as an ingredient in compost, in which case it must be dug in. In all thousand dollars, his murdered victim who post, in which case it must be dug in. In all cases, however, it must be finely broken up, and, if pulverized, it will be so much more efficient in its effects. Old trees, that have passed into senility, and for years ceased to produce fruit, or even to infloresce, have it is bability have made good his intended flight, WIDE AWAKE CLUB.—The young men of our borough are active in organizing a Wide-Awake Club. All anxious to join are requested to be present at the regular meetings of the Association. The attacks made upon the Club in last weak's Democrat have it is soil around the collars, and applying old plaster and bone-dust, mixed, in equal proportions dyed criminals that have ever disgraced Gol's disturbed no man's equanimity and the minimum of the m is no species of vegetation upon which the cf the present. Crime in all its naked hideousfect of this mixture is not immediately benefi- ness would seem to complete the record of his cial; it stimulates the absorbent and circula-A number of Democrats are already enrolled tory systems into vigorous and healthful ac- ard. plants almost as soon as applied: It is cheap and economical top-dressing for grain and grass lands, and may be applied either in the fall or spring. We advise every one who can obtain it to give it a fair trial.

ACCIDENTAL SHOUTING,—Faward ACCIDENTAL SHOUTING,—Faward and economical top-dressing for grain and faunch Chunk, was accidentally killed by the premature discharge of a gun, while gunning obtain it to give it a fair trial.

The pastor, Rev. William G. Mennig, of he German Lutheran Church of this place, will preach a Harvest Sermon, on Sunday next, of the case.

LETTER FROM BETHLEHEM. - BETH-LEUEN, July 20.—" Home again!" How sweetly sound the words! How the memories of the past "come gently stealing over the heart," and bring to light the "scenes of other days.'

Home! what sacred holy feelings Are awakened by the word;
What blest memories come stealing,
By home's potent magic stirred.

What spot on earth is to man so dear as ome? "Friendship is sweet," but love is sweeter; and as we cross the honored thresh old after a long absence, and imprint the warm heart-kiss upon the lips of those we love, we are impressed with the truth of the words "The brilliant draperies of earth impart

A senge of weariness that turns to pain;
But home joys gontly winding round the heart,
And softly clinging, ever will remain.

And softly cinging, ever will remain.

So like a wandering i rd I come to thee,
To sing around the heart-stone as of yore,
And fold my weary wings beneath the tree
That swings its branches by the cottage door."

In commencing the resume of "our Bethleem letters," after a silence of more than six. months, a question presents itself to my mind.
which has often puzzled abler pens than mine—what shall I write about? The gala week is over—the National Guards are gone—and I cannot touch upon that subject, because, in the language of Daestick's particular friend Damphool, I was "just in time to be too late!" And in this sorry plight I am almost provoked into using the old stereotyped exchamation "Is there nothing new under the sun?" It was my good fortune, a few months since, whilst sojourning in a southern city, to become accuration. journing in a southern city, to become acquainted with "one of ye brilliant novel writers;" and to a question as to how in the name of all that is bad, ye said novel writer got all the body, and has been known to induce the most dangerous internal congestion. If ice is put in milk or on butter, and they are not used at the time, they lose their freshness, and become sour and stale: for the essential nature of both is changed when once frozen and then thaw?

I have any material to commence on, but as I progress the plot unfolds itself!" And so I hope that, in this information. material to manufacture so many "hair-breadth Joids itself!" And so I hope that, in this instance, if I know not-what to write about now, the plot may unfold itself as I proceed.—Euraka! I have it! Did you ever see a "traveling ambrotype shop?" We have such an institution among us at present. Although I have often seen these traveling ambrotypists in some of the southern and western States, I have never before noticed one in this section, and therefore have come to the conclusion that gether five minutes. When nearly cold, add the white of three eggs well beaten, with half a cup of flour, and half an ounce of essence of wintergreen. Bottle and keep in a cool place. Take two tablespoonsful of this syrup for a tumbler of water, and add one-quarter of a tenspoon-bler of water. And when he is fairly launched into the trading world, he seems to assume his new avo-cation of "trade and travel" with cheerfulness. I have often seen him sit in his car-

Wednesday next, the 25th instant, the Grand Division of Sons of Temperance of Pennsylvathe year 958, when the shadow caused by the nia will meet here for the transaction of busieach aess-and it is also in contemplation to hold a subsequent appearance the obscuration has been further North. It will continue to appearance the obscuration has been further North. It will continue to appearance the obscuration has grand Temperance Mass Meeting or festival upon the occasion. It is understood that a upon the occasion. It is understood that a large number of "Sons and Daughters" of Philadelphia and other places have already signified their intention to be present and take

'Madame rumor" says that we are to have riodical visitations precisely like that it is another encampment" and more "soldiering" some time in August; that a committee of New APPOINTED STATE REPORTER.—On packed and distinguished fellow towns man, Robert E. Wright, Esq., State Reporter to fill the meaney, caused by the expiration of the term of Josey Casey, Esq. There were a number of applicants for the position, and the manner of Mr. Wright is a well deserved.

York gentlemen have been here and made the necessary arrangements; and that the "company" is none other, than the famous New York Seventh regiment. But then "Madame Rumor" (like Stephen) "issued a liar, the d—l can't believe her;" and between me and you dear reader, I don't believe a word of what the old dame has put forth in this instance.

Among the visitors solourning in our bo-York gentlemen have been here and made the

Among the visitors sojourning in our borough we notice John Ross, the intelligent Chief of the Cherokee Indians. He is said to be well educated, humane in his conduct towards of Mr Wright, the decisions of our Supreme his people, and as a consequence very popular. telligent and beautiful Quaker lady, a native Compiler, will furnish to the Bar, in each of Pennsylvania, and she is said to exercise a powerful influence over her husband. In one particular especially has John Ross shown his tinent statement of the facts, and a brief synopsis of the argument of counsel. In all these respects, improvements can be made in our Reports, and we believe, that Mr. Wright has among some of the wealthy Cherokees: and among some of the wealthy for this he has the thanks of every true friend of humanity. His mild but firm conduct in his matter has already had a salutary.

Mr. G. C: Reeser, of our town announces elf as a candidate for Recorder before the Democratic County Convention;" but he does not define his position on the "nigger" question, whether he is for Douglas squatter sovereignty or Breckenridge slave-code De-

HARDEN AS A FORGER.-We have been credibly informed that JACOB S. HARDEN, draught wherewith to destroy the sworn part-then filled up the check, making it payable to the bearer, indersed thereon the name of John I. Blair, and presented it at the counter of the Easton Bank, but the officers would not accept are prepared to furnish any quantity This we believe, was the closing chapter in a ware at short notice. Every one visit-miserable fraudulent scheme, planned and prosecuted to an unprofitable end, and which would probably have remained buried in oblivion—so far as identity of person was concerned—had not Harden himself during his incarceration unbosomed the transaction to Sheriff Sweeny. The story is corroborated by the of-ficers of the bank, who have a distinct recolection of the details of the matter as above related, but did not know at the time who the individual y'clept Harden, who has since then cessful, the Bank would have suffered by an acquaintance with Harden to the tune of one short but eventful career. - Philipsburg Stand

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING, - Edward sie, N. Y., a few days since. He was a about 16 years of age and a youth of great promise. We have been unable to learn the particulars