"A Meteor.—To the Editor of the N. 1."

Tribune.—Sir: Sitting on the roof of my residence this evening, with a party of ladies and gentlemen, I was fortunate enough to witness the passage of a meteoric body through the passage of a meteoric body through the human than the passage of a meteoric body through the passage of a meteo of lightning in the south-west. The highest atde it attained, as near as I could judge, was about a quarter of a mile. Upon consult the thermometer a few minutes after. found it marked 78.

EDWARD L. GILL." New York, July 20, 1860.

We noticed in the Easton Express the fol plays, may possibly be correct. In this way we satisfactorily account for the change of direction, noticed in the appearance of the meteor in different localities.

"A STRANGE METEOROLOGICAL VISITOR. ter and behavior. At the moment of its advent. the atmosphere was perfectly calm, the sky clear, and the temperature about 870 Fahrenheit. This blazing intruder was first noticed the 28th day of May. by persons on the south side of Northampton st., near Fourth, immediately over Mt. Jefferbody might not inaptly be described by comparing it with one of our fire-plugs, with its erer. She died on the second day after her larger extremity for the nuclous, and in its fright. passage, constantly throwing off disintegrated masses of its substance, which, falling in the rear, were rapidly consumed by their own family flame, and this combustion forming the train of the meteor. Its light was a blueish yellow, report or of a sulphurous appearance, wholly unlike that of any 'falling star' or similar body known—and its elevation could not have been much above two hundred feet from the earth. But what seemed most to distinguish this body from all preceding ones of a similar kind, was its uniform resistance to the attraction of the earth, or gravitation,-for it seemed to maintain an even elevation, though it manifested an irregular and faltering face; its general rate of speed being apparently about one mile to the minute, so that the whole time of its visibility to us in this part of the Borough, was about one minute.

The direction of this body was nearly East, as it crossed the Delaware a little below the bridge, and became extinct, as was believed, on the hills of Phillipsburg. As a great deal of speculation will naturally follow this pine nomenon, and a good deal of inquiry will be elicited, it may be well to anticipate some of these so as to impart an intelligent direction can engage himself. to earnest enquiry. For example, some will maintain that it was a species of rocket, or other pyrotechnic experiment. This could not be, for it emitted no sparks, nor produced the rushing noise peculiar to artificial fireworks: and moreover, it described no arch, as all known projectiles must, but seemed rather to fly like a huge, sulphurous bird, than rush

Others will contend that it was purely gaseous, being an agglomeration of combustible gases, like carburetted and sulphureted hydrogen; emanating from some hoe in the vi cinity, ignited spontaneously by its own mo-tion, or by electricity, and propelled in the di-rection of the vacuum, which its own combus-tion first created in the manner of a common whirlwind, and afterwards assisted by a slight

All the information I have been able t gather as to the first appearance of this remarkable body, is derived from several lad who were at the time on College hill; as who say that the first intimation they had its presence, was a bright light suddenly lighting the darkness around them, and so bright that they could distinctly "see each other faces," and simultaneously with this, an explosion like the training of the second simultaneously with this, an explosion like the training of the second simultaneously with this, an explosion like the training of the second plosion like the starting hiss of a rocket, cau plosion like the starting miss of a rowar, caused them to look up, when they beheld the strange body diretly over head, and in an instant it started off in its triumphant career.

Whatever was the origin or nature of the strange light, it was certainly something no and as it was evidently purely local, and puduced for the edification of our citizens as Jersey neighbors alone, it becomes them to vestigate and speculate upon it for the bene of general me eneral meteorological science. Yours Respectfully,

CHASING UP A RAILROAD COMPANY On or about the 4th inst., a young man, hailing from Philadelphia, bought an excursion ticket, at the Bethlehem station, of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, for Mauch Chunk, good for one day only. After the time had expired, he attempted to use it on his return. The conductor, as was his duty to do, demanded his fare, which the young man refused to pay, upon which he was ejected from the train at the Lehighton station. He came back to Mauch Chunk for legal redress (entering complaint for assault and battery,) but couldn't get a bit of law. He next went to Bethlehem nd made a similar complaint, but couldn't get a constable to serve the warrant. He next chased up the Railroad conductors to Easton, but there he met with no better success. He then started for Bethlehem, and after passing the Freemansburg station, the conductor, Mr. Ramsey, politely demanded his ticket, which Mr. Young Man refused to give up. Mr. Ramsey, pulled the rope, locomotive whistled down brakes, train stopped, and young man was politely handed outside. On leaving the platform, he made a desperate attempt to fall down and hurt himself, but the brakesman held on to him, and sayed him precious limbared. to him, and saved his precious limbs and a lawsuit against the Company for damages, which was, no doubt, what he was after.

Should this individual again appear on any of the Railroad trains, he should, by all means, be taken into custody, and the state of his mind enquired into. If he has a father, mother, guardian or friend, notice should be given to him, her or them, that he is at large, without a protector .- Mauch Chunk Gazette.

THE HARVEST .- The wheat and rye harvest for 1860 is over, and the golden sheafs with their heavy heads are stowed away in the capacious barns of our farmers. July 4, 1860. THE VALUE OF GOOD HEALTH cannot be over estinated and no better legacy can be transmitted from parent to offenring than a sound and robust constitution. What are honors and distinction without health gest themselves to any of us, until, enfeebled by sickness, we look about for some means of recovery To all troubled with that dread disorder Consumption Bronchitis, Asthma, or any form of Lung or Throat complaint we can confidently recommend Dr O. PHELPS BROWN'S great remedy the ACACIAN BALSAM. Its effects surpass, in healing qualities, all conception. It is the only medicine in the world, that, by its combination of rare ingredients, climinates an electric power which, seizing upon the nerves, the stomach, the lungs, the heart, the brain, ect., infuses ad ditional vital force into every organ, and by the renewed action and energy thus obtained expells all morbid influences from the body, produces a reaction which checks diseases, and produces even in the worst cases, a restoration to perfect health, in a short ime. What is it? How Cured? Thousands of persous have Piles-suffer for years with the disease-yet few know what it is, or how it s cured. Every case of piles, whether manifested in the form of external tumors, frequent bleedings, or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon congestion of the abdominal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation and suffering; and the disease can only be fundanentally cured by medicines which, taken internal ly, relieve this venous congestion. Hence ointments washes, and even injections, are so ineffectual. HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC PILE SPE-CIFIC, a simple sugar pill, two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upo which the disease depends. Hundred have been cured by it, even of the most obstinute cases. All will be promptly benefited by it. Pree, 50 cents a

THE most elaborate and noted work of Art ever painted by an American Artist, is the "COURT OF DEATH," by REMBRAND PRAKE. This paintng covers 312 square feet of canvass—contains 28 life Size Figures, and has never been valued at less 25,000 Dollars.

PEALE'S COURT OF DEATH.

It has been gazed upon with admiration and de-light by tens of thousands. The subscriber has pur-chased the painting, and issued a splendid Chromo Lithographic Engraving Of it, presenting a perfect FACSIMILE COPY of the original painting, WITH ALL ITS BEAUTI-FUL COLORS.

The size of the Engraving is 23 by 31 inches, and the price ($1,) for which it is offered, is only one-fifth the usual price of similar works—100,000—being issued instead of 5,000, the usual number. The home of every faimily in the land, should be adorned with this picture, as besides its beauty as an ornament, the lesson it teaches, illustrating the evils of Intemperance and War, and the end of a good—a Christian Life are invaluable. Mr. PRALE SEYS of the ian Life are invaluable. Mr. PEALE says of the tion Life are invaluable. Mr. PEALE says of the Engraving: "I can certify that it is an accurate and admirable copy of the Original Painting." Testimonials without number, have been received from distinguished Clergymen in praise of the Engraving.
