T. GOOD. Chairman of the Executive Committee

The County Ticket. We, this day, place, at the head of our col umns, the ticket, placed in nomination, by the county convention, of the Republican Party, which assembled on Saturday last. Considering the number of candidates, whose names were presented to the convention hit could not their friends, should be disappointed. We believe, however, that there was a general acquiescence in the result, and that all went home, determined to give the ticket their hearty and mealous support. The ticket is one, well worthy of support, and we believe, will be elect-

Hon. HENRY C. LONGNECKER, the candidate for Congress, was elected in 1858, mostly on secount of his known opinions in favor of a protective tariff and the same causes will contribute to his re-election, this fall. He is well qualified for his post, for which he was nominsted, has been tried and found faithful, was an efficient member of the last Congress, and the hearty good-will, with which he was nominated by acclamation, shows, that he has the full confidence of the Party, which elected him in 1858, and which has placed him in re-nomnation. Let the Tariff men of Lehigh county as they have the power, his election a certainty.

SAMUER J. KISTLER, the candidate for Assembly, is well known to the people of all parts of our county, as an honest and intelligent; man was an efficient member of the Legislature, in Schurz is not stating his own position, but only the past, when before the people for office, has drawing inferences from the position of Senaalways commanded the support of a large num- tor Douglas, which he denounces, and we can, ber of confiding Democratic friends, and we at once see the cheat, attempted by the Editor

Let his numerous friends of both political parties rally to his support and triumphantly elect him,

LEWIS C. SMITH, the candidate for Prothon otary, hails from Washington township, one of the strongest republican districts in the county. He is known, as an intelligent and worthy citizen by his neighbors and is peculiarly qualified for the discharge of the duties of the of fice, for which, he has been placed in nomination. We are confident of his election.

CHARLES KECK; the candidate for Register of Wills, a few years since, served, as one of the Judges of our county. He is well known in all parts of the county and is universally respected. His character is without a blemish. and his qualifications for the office are ample We believe, that the people will take the matter in hand and elect him.

We have not space to refer at length to the other candidates on the ticket. Dr. S. R. Rittenhouse, of Lower Macungie, for Coroner Charles Schoenly, of Lower Milford, for Auditor, and Samuel B. Republicans of Lehigh, a ticket, well worthy of your heartiest efforts, has been placed in nomination. It is your duty to elect every candidate on the ticket. Will you put forth effort, proportionate to the task, to be accomnlished?

CARL SCHURZ.

Carl Schurz, although yet a young man, ranks as one of the ablest men of the country. Such is the character, which his speeches have his adopted German fellow citizens, but also ing the card. among American Republicans generally. The result of his efforts, in the least, has been the conversion of thousands of honest Germans to the Republican faith, and the political revolution, witnessed at the recent elections in Milwaukie and Dubuque, has been owing to changes among the foreign Germans, among whom ent campaign, he will visit many of the States, Pennsylvania among the number, and we are glad, that we have the opportunity of announcing, that he will shortly address the Republicans of Allentown. The 24th of September has been designated, as the day, when he can address the Republicans of Allentown, and if no more suitable day can be named, we expect to hear him then. We trust, that, when in our midst, he may be listened to with impartiality by our fellow-citizens of all political parties, without prejudice. We are ever ready to hear a fair and candid discussion of political questions, by a political opponent, and trust, that the same spirit may be manifested by the Democrats of our town. Such, however, is not the spirit, which animates many Democratic organs. To prejudice the public mind, against a political foe, for the purpose of destroying his political influence, is the great aim of Democratic Editors. Such is the case with our worthy cotemporary of the Allentown Democrat. No sooner is it known, that Carl Schurz is to visit Pennsylvania, than the Edi-Editor uses the following language:

"This fellow, in agdition to being a Black ist, of the Robesperien School, who look upon every man, who has accumulated wealth, as an aristocrat, and a robber of the poor."

It is unnecessary to say, that the charges are false, destitute of a vestige of truth or foundation, and could only find their origin in the brain of the lying scoendrel, from whom the Editor of the Democrat borrowed his ideas and same before in other newspapers. The Editor This we deny an refer our readers to his printed speeches, which are eminently conservative, statesmanlike and able. The Editor charges again, that Carl Schurz, in his Springfield speech, undertook to county, in which he declared that a Dutchman Schurz did not ridicule the men of the revolution. Carl Schurz did not ridicule the men of the revolution, but predicted the ridiculous position, in which they would be placed by Senator Doug-las' construction of the Declaration of Inde-contempt of all honest reading men. las' construction of the Declaration of Inde pendence and of the Constitution. He is not be otherwise, than that some candidates, and giving utterance to his sentiments, but putting words into the mouth of Senator Douglas In this connexion, the Editor copies the following quotation from the Springfield speech:

"There is your Declaration of Indepen dence, a diplomatic dodge, adopted merely for the purpose of excusing the rebellious colonies in the eyes of civilized mankind. There is your Declaration of Independence, no longer the sacred code of the rights of man, but a hypocritical piece of special pleading, drawn up by a batch of artful pettifoggers, who, when speak-ing of the rights of man, meant but the privileges of a set of aristocratic slaveholders, but styled it "the rights of man," in order to throw dust in the eyes of the world, and to inveigle noble-hearted fools into lending them aid and assistance. [Applause.] There are your boasted Revolutionary sires, no longer heroes and sages, but accomplished humbuggers and hypocrites, who said one thing and another; who passed counterfeit sentiments as genuine, and obtained arms and money and asistance and sympathy under false pretences! Lot our readers bear in mind, that Carl believe, that the people will triumphantly elect of the Democrat. If the Editor had not been informed of the cheat before the publication, we might have attributed it to his ignothe Courts, is well known, is fully competent rance. As the matter stands, we can call to the discharge of the duties of the office, for it nothing else, than a deliberate perversion of

Mr. E. Huntington, one of the electors on the New York Bell and Douglas fusion ticket, has declined and come out for Lincoln. Mr. Orden, on the same ticket, has withdrawn his declination for the present, stating that he will serve as long as no pledge is to be exacted from him that he shall vote for anybody but Bell, if elected.

It would perhaps be just as well if the Rangers would turn out an hour or two earlier than deided upon and make a trip to Bethlehem to settle that whiskey bill of $20 standing against

We believe that the Editor knew the charge in reference to the whiskey bill to have been false, and that he published in his paper an unlawful and deliberate falsehood. Honorable Retraction by a Demo cratic Editor of Centre County. In the last we published an intition, opposite ed with h which Col. Andrew G. Curdidate for Governor is charged with he constitutered disrespectful lauguage against the Germans, in a speech made last May in Bellefonte. The import of the charge against him, as will appear from the follow ing letter, was common talk in the neighborhood of Zion, and naturally spread its way until it reached our ears; and, as a matter of ourse, it is our province to leave nothing undone that is fair, which might add to the success of the Democratic nominee for Governor, Gen. Henry D. Foster. However, we had a right to entertain a higher opinion of Col. Curtin, as a citizen of this county, than to lend himself to the utterance of insult to the Ger and we are willing that justice be done him, though the Heavens fall. We cheerfully accent Mr. Struble's exoneration of Col. Curtin in the matter, as it becomes our duty, as well as the duty of every honorable Democrat, to discountenance falsehood in every instance. If we have been misinformed by common ru-mor, we are as ready to undeceive the public. We would demand the same treatment of our brethren of the press in this county, if the case effected Gen-Foster; we therefore cheerfully give the following letter of Mr. Lot Stru-

As this story has been circulated for some time in this neighborhood, and I am quoted as authority for it, I am much pleased to do justice to Mr. Curtin, by a plain statement of how it originated.

In May last I had a trial in court, and Mr. Curtin was my counsel. During the progress of the trial some person remarked in Mr. Curtin or Mr. Wilson's office (who was also one of my lawyers) that it was hard to understand the suit; and I remarked that there was no trouble in understanding it, except by the double sculled Dutch. I repeated this afterwards in the street, and on my return told it. Mr. Curtin said nothing of the kind, and I do not know that he was even present when I made the remark. What I said was without malice and intended for a joke. Being a Dutchman myself, I did not expect to excite any person by what I said, and certainly lid not expect that it would be charged on a innocent party, to his injury. I trust you will publish this explanation and acquit Mr. Curtin of a charge of which he is innocent. LOT STRUBLE.

Messas. Editors :-- 1 understand a report is in circulation that I am the author of the "skull story" circulated to damage the interests of Col. A. G. Curtin. I would state that this is not so; I repeated merely what I heard others say.

William Darrow, a nephew of Post Master Miller, of Reading, and formerly a clerk in the post office there, fell dead on Friday last, while getting out of the stage at Boumansville, Lancaster county. He was at the time on his way to New Holland, after a visit to Reading. He had studied law in Lancaster and took the census of Earl township, Lancaster county.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—The Wide Awakes of the Borough paraded, on Saturday evening last, and as usual excited the admira-tion of our citizens. After the parade, a large number of the Republicans, of the County, assembled on Market Square, to ratify the nom-inations, made by the County Convention, during the day. Addresses were delivered by John H. Cliver, Esq., W. H. Ainey, Esq., C. M. Runk, Esq., and George Junker.

OFF THE TRACK.—On Wednesday morr ng last, as the train, from Easton, on the Le iigh Valley Railroad, was approaching Allentown, and when about one mile from the lat-ter place, it ran over a plank, which had been left lying across the track, by a party of men engaged in blasting rocks, for the purpose of widening the track. The train was thrown off the track, but no one was hurt. The train was detained about 40 minutes.

THE ALLENTOWN SEMINARY .-- W. understand, that the following pupils, at the Altentown Seminary, under the charge of Rev. Wm. R. Hofford, thisfall, leave the Institution for various Colleges of the country, viz: D. E. Schooller, of Kutztown: A. S. Gerhardt, of Clinton; J. Holt, of South Easton; J. Schindel, of South Whitehall; and F. Pilgram, of the dying man. We answer, while in life Philadelphia. We call attention to the adver- and health, get an insurance on your life, that Everywhere they manage to get their own tools on the county manage to get their own tools on the county and legislative tickets—men, who will work for the election of Breckinridge. Take our own legislative district, for example. Why was Mr. Zacharinh Long thrown overbeard, and Wm. H. Butler, a Breckinridger, nominated in his stead? Even Forney winells a nated in his stead? Even Forney temells a mice," and is leveling his shafts against Foster, because Foster is for Breckinridge and against a Douglas straight ticket.

FLAG PRESENTATION,-The ladies of Allentown, on Friday evening last, presented to the Keystone Club, (Democratic) of Allentown, a flag. The ceremonies of presentation took place at the residence of Thomas B. Wilson, Esq., on Seventh street. Miss Mary Wilson, in behalf of the ladies, accompanied the presentation with remarks, to which a response was made, in behalf of the Club, by William H. Sowden. The faithful afterward assambled. own, a flag. The ceremonies of presentation H. Sowden. The faithful afterward assembled, on the Square, to listen to a speech from H. B. Firce, of Luzerne County. Many of the Democrats seemed to be rather disappointed in their expectations, and left the meeting in disgust. An address was subsequently delivered by Adam Woolever, Esq., of this Borough.

CENSUS OF LEHIGH COUNTY .-- Bolow we append a complete return of the census of Lehigh County, together with the census, ten years ago, showing the gain in ten years. It will be seen, that the increase of population in the County, and in the principal towns, has

WHEREAS the Great Disposer of Events ha seen fit to remove from our midst by the hands of Death our esteemed associate and friend, Allen Apple, therefore Resolved, That while we bow with meek submission to the wise decrees of an unerring and merciful Providence and would not repine at the doings of Him "whose ways are not ou ways," for ourselves, and for our institution, we deeply deplore his loss; and to his family we deeply deplore his loss; and to his family we tender our heartfelt sympathy in this afflictive dispensation which has thus suddenly severed the most endearing ties.

Time is hereunt thort, you must at best be satisfied with a mager account.

All persons were satisfied that the improvement in our State Militia is great since the encampment at Williamsport. The companies here present were fifteen or sixteen from all parts of the State, some companies from other States were present making in all all parts of the State, some companies from other States were present, making in all about 500 or 600 men. The telegraph will have informed you of their names. It is amusing to take a stroll through the different a amusing to take a stroll through the different quarters of the companies and notice the various amusements and devices to kill time while off duty. The morning gun is fired, reveille sounds and soldiers tumble out half dressed, dishevelled, sleepy-looking, struggling for the only wash basin in the quarters, soon however all are rigged up ready for the 6 o'clock parade, an occasional straggler making haste, bucking on his belt, his hat on all awry and receiving a sharp reprimand from his Captain and the laughing stock of his comrades.—Parade out and the laughing stock of his comrades.— Parade over breakfast done and arms hurnished, account ments cleaned, they are ready for the reviewing. Next comes dinner and rest until 3 o'clock, the afternoon parade in a rest until 3 o'clock, the afternoon parade in a hot and weltering sun, and the duties of the day are over. Then comes supper and the fun of the night commences, presuming you will be interested, the far as your own company is concerned, I will confine myself to this quarter, in fact, it was the place, where most every body congregated, drowds of two or three hundred being present nightly, to behold the amusements, brought by your jolly hold the amusements, brought by your jolly crowd; every body in York talks about you; I do not know, that I ever saw or laughed at any thing, more exquisitely tunny, than the performances, which I witnessed at the Allen Rifles' quarters, on a floor immediately in front of the Captain's marquee. There was dancing every night, operatio performances, gymnastic exercises, balloon ascensions, and everything, which could be thought of to amuse. On the turn numerous sights exhibited them-selves; one, which was much observed, had a sign hung out of "Ginder's Hall;" another was a. "Home for friendless children;" another, the "Academy of Music;" a fourth, much patronized, the "Red Lion Hotel," conducted by the congenial editor of the "Democrat," published in your place, and a man, called fadder. We are all sorry in York, that the Rifles will leave to-morrow, and I can assure you, that they will not so soon be forgotten, You may well be proud in having so mag cent a corps; from what you told me, I had formed great expectations, but I, and every one, was surprised, when we witnessed their proficiency. I must finish, not, however, without saying, that, to Gen. Keim, belongs all praise, as a gentleman and commanding offi-

A CARD.—I take pleasure in acknowledging the prompt payment, by the American Life Insurance and Trust Company, of Philadelphia, of the sum of Two Thousand dollars, insurance on the life of my late brother, Victor Blumer.

My brother died on the 24th day of August last—on the 31st of the same month I presented the proofs of his death at the office in Philadelphia, when the money was immediately paid to me.
This promptdess and readiness to meet their patronage of this community.

Allentown, September 6th, 1860. We take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the above card of Wm. H. Blumer; and to the advertisement of the American Life Insurance and Trust Co. also take the liberty of recommending Life Insurance, knowing the people of our commu-nity not to be as familiar with the subject, as their interests demand. It is the surest way with a small capital, to provide for one's family in fact the only opportunity which many ever have to secure anything for their fami lies after death.

What will become of my poor wife and children, when I am gone, is the anxious question of the dying man. We answer, while in life Philadelphia. We call attention to the advertisement of the commencement of the Full session of the Seminary, in another column.

CHEATED.—The Breckinridgers are evidently the superiors of the Douglasites, in mannet of the seminary in the cold of the seminary in the control of the seminary in the se ties of the world. By the annual payment of small sum, a liberal competence is for them at any time, disease, or accident, has deprived them of their head and support.

No more prudent, easy or safe investment can be made for one's family. We regard Life Insurance as one of the best Savings Institu-tions ever devised. The late Abbott Lawrence eathed to his widow $40,000 by means of Life Insurance.

The following are the rates of the "American:"—A man 30 years of age can, by paying $98 a year, provide for his family $5000 after his death, at 25 years by paying $9.20, he secures $1000 for his family, should he die within rates $2,16 &c., larger sums in the same pr years, the Agent of the American Life Insu rance and Trust Company. Books, on the subject, furnished gratis to all who call at the Doctor's office, 4th door west of the Court House, Hamilton street, Allentown, Pa.

DOUGLAS IN ALLENTOWN. - Senator Oouglas arrived at Allentown via the East ennsylvania Railroad, on Monday last, at 12 clock 30 minutes P. M. It had been publicly announced and proclaimed by handbills that he was to be in Allentown and remain until the poon down train of the Lehigh Val-ley Railroad. A number of persons from the country arrived for the purpose of seeing him, and his not coming was considerable of a disand his not coming was considerable of a disappointment. A large concourse of persons of all political parties assembled at the depot of the East Pennsylvatia, Kaliford, for the purpose of seeing the Little Giant." He was introduced to the crowd by R. E. Wright, Esq., as the next President of the United States.— Want of time prevented his making a lengthy speech. At the opening of his speech some officious member of the Keystone Club brought up before him the small statue of the "Little Giant" owned by the Keystone Club. Judge Giant" owned by the Keystone Unit. Judge Douglas did not seem to relish the Red, and remarked to the great chagrin of the Light der, that he would prefer not to see it. Turing the speech we are informed that a prominent temocrat of this Borough was at the slady of the Judge, pulling at his coat-tail and whispering:
"Something on the tariff," to which the Judge replied: "Never mind that now." Want of space prevents our referring more at length to the reception. We are decidedly of the opinion that the prospects of the "Little Giant." n Lehigh county have been damaged by his visit to Allentown. We know it to be the case.

APPLES.—The editor of the Germantown Telegraph has been taking a tour through Northern Pennsylvania and in giving an account of his journey he says;

"During the trip we saw on every side the the apple trees laden with fruit. There was where told us that this would be the greatest apple season experienced in twenty years. Many trees were propped by numerous poles. Cider-presses were being rejuvenated, and the farmers were jubilant at the prospect of full bins and barrels, and plenty of

This will be good news to the lovers of apples. Peaches are very scarce, but if apples are plentiful we can afford to dispense with peaches.
