SAMUEL B. LEWIS, of Allentown.
EPHRAIM MICKLEY, of Allentown.

Personalities as Candidates.
The Allentown Democrat has indulged in several of its late issues in a personal attack upon several of the candidates presented for office by the Republican party of Lehigh county. The attacks thus far need no reply, and can only benefit the cause of those they are designed to injure. We do not intend to make an example of our notorious calumniator. We must prefer to exclude personalities from the columns of the Register, and to ask the support of Republican nominees by the people because of their unquestioned fitness for the positions, for which they have been placed in nomination and because of their party principles. We ask the election of the Hon. Henry C. Longnecker to Congress, because he can most effectively promote the tariff interests of Pennsylvania and of Lehigh county by acting in concert with the Republican party. A Democrat loses all his influence and power in Congress by having his hands tied by the action of an anti-tariff Democratic caucus. For the same reason we wish to see the Republican Assemblymen elected from the counties of Lehigh and Carbon. We trust they may add next winter in electing a Republican United States Senator, who may act in concert with the Republican Tariff Senators of the Senate, instead of one whose efforts will be crippled by the efforts of his Democratic anti-tariff associates in that body. In the politics of the County we believe a change would work for the better. We believe our candidates will lose nothing by a comparison with those presented by the Democratic party and therefore trust that no effort may be spared to secure their election. Let us in this question of county politics have a manly, outspoken contest, and if we are beaten we will gracefully yield, and if on the other hand we are successful, we shall expect the same of the Democracy.

The County Ticket.
We need scarcely assure the voters of this county, that the Republican county ticket can be elected. It can be done only, however, by effort. Every ward and township must do its whole duty. Every Republican should be at the polls. Will our friends bear this in mind? Will they be stimulated to the proper effort? Let no Republican be satisfied, unless every Republican voter in the neighborhood deposits his vote in the ballot-box. In Republican districts, let the Republican majority be the greatest possible, greater than ever before, as it can and will be by proper effort. In Democratic districts, let the Democratic majority be as low as possible. Republicans of Hanover, Upper Merion, and the Milford, remember, that the vote of every Republican, in each of your townships, will be as effective, as if it were deposited in the ballot-box in Heidelberg, or Washington. Let it be a matter of ambition, to swell the Republican majorities as high as possible. Let no stone remain unturned. Victory is within our grasp. Shall we not avail ourselves of the opportunity?

MASS MEETING AT LANCASTER.—The State Mass Meeting of the People's party, held at Lancaster, on Wednesday last, is said to have been one of the largest gatherings of the kind ever held in the State. The meeting was presided over by Hon. Thaddeus Stevens. Addresses were delivered by Col. Curtin, Morton McMichael, Esq., of Philadelphia, Hon. A. H. Reeder, Hon. Galusha Groves, and others. It is said, that there were, at least, thirty thousand persons assembled. In the evening, there was a grand torch-light procession of the Wide Awake, from Philadelphia and other sections of the State. We are assured, that Lancaster County, the "Old Guard," may be put down as safe for 5,000 majority.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at present, in consideration of their preferred privileges, to the State of Pennsylvania a tax on goods transported over their road, amounting annually to the sum of $800,000, which would be the annual increase of $45,000. It has been rumored, that the Company would attempt to secure the passage of the Legislature of the State, of a bill, repealing the tax. For several years past, the Company has refused to pay the tax, on the ground, that it is unconstitutional, upon which point they allege, they are sustained by the advice of the ablest jurists of the State, Wm. M. Meredith, of Philadelphia, among the number. The State has brought suit for the arrears in the Courts of Dauphin County, where a decision was rendered by Judge Pearson, adverse to the Company. The case will reach the Supreme Court of the State, and eventually, we presume, the Supreme Court of the United States, inasmuch as the question at issue, is whether the tonnage tax is a violation of the Constitution of the United States. Pending these proceedings in Court, no attempt has been made in the Legislature, to secure the passage of a bill, repealing the tonnage tax, and we presume, that no attempt will be made, until a final decision is rendered by the Courts, adverse to the Company. The Allentown Democrat, several weeks since, charged, that Col. Curtin was at Harrisburg last winter, attempting to lobby through such a bill. We denied the charge, and asserted, that no such bill was offered in the Legislature, last winter. This is an uncontroverted fact.—The Editor of the Allentown Democrat has not had the manhood to retract the charge. We trust, he may yet do Col. Curtin justice. Whilst referring to the subject, let us mention undeniable facts, bearing upon the position of General Foster, upon this question.

General Foster has, at times past, acted as Attorney of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. General Foster, whilst a member of the Legislature, voted for and supported a bill, repealing the tonnage tax on coal, alleging, that it was for the interest of the coal operators of this section of the State.

General Foster lives on the line of the works of the Company, among a people, having an interest in the repeal of the tonnage tax, because its repeal would benefit, in the first place, the Company, and, in the second place, the people, transporting goods over the Railroad, provided the Company would reduce their tolls, after the repeal of the tonnage tax. The people, however, are at the mercy of the Company. It might benefit the Company exclusively. In view of the above undeniable facts, if the Pennsylvania Railroad Company contemplates the repeal of the tonnage tax, whom would they most likely select, as the instrument to carry out their designs? Gen. Foster, or Col. Curtin living in a remote section of the State? We leave this to be considered by all honest and truth-loving men.

The charge was made last fall, that money was brought into this Assembly District, for the purpose of securing the election of Opposition Assemblymen, favorable to the Company's interests. It was a falsehood, known to be such at the time, and proven to be such by events which have transpired since, because SAMUEL J. KISTLER was elected, and the Company did not attempt the passage of a bill repealing the tonnage tax.

The Republican County nominating conventions, of both Carbon and Lehigh Counties, have passed resolutions, instructing their Representatives to vote against the repeal of the tonnage tax. We are not aware, that the same has been done by the Democratic conventions of the two counties. In the characters of Samuel J. Kistler, of Lehigh, and James Lewis, of Carbon, we have sufficient guaranty, that they will not lend themselves, as instruments to any such system of wholesale State robbery.

We understand, that James Bullock, of Carbon, has been down to our county and has been circulating the report, that James Lewis, of Carbon, our candidate for the Legislature, is in favor of the repeal of the tonnage tax. Will his friends in Carbon county, take this Bullock in charge, and stop his mendacious reports.

The voters of Lehigh county need no additional arguments in favor of the repeal of the tonnage tax. The people, irrespectively of party, are convinced. The Democracy are so, and they themselves, as tariff men, are so. Once in a great while, we hear of a Democrat, who, in Lehigh county, has the hardihood to announce the tariff, as a humbug. But such are few, and their wretched leaders would be torn to shreds by the wholesome lessons of political wisdom and policy. We do not find fault with the professions and doctrines of a Lehigh county tariff Democrat. What we aver is, that they are acting in concert with the anti-tariff party, from whom no tariff can be expected: Pennsylvania is the only State, we believe, in the Union, in which the Democratic party does not freely and openly avow itself in favor of the anti-protective tariff policy. In some sections of the Union, the Democratic party is in favor of free-trade. Can we then with safety support a tariff Democrat? Most assuredly not. His efforts will be nullified by the party, to which he belongs, and against the almost united action of the party, a single man or a few men can accomplish but little. Let us for a moment take up the tariff question in the lower House of Congress. A tariff bill is reported by the Committee of Ways and Means. It is important then, that the Committee should be so constituted, as to have a majority of its members in favor of a protective tariff. The Committee is appointed by the Speaker, and the Speaker should be a tariff man, otherwise he would appoint an anti-tariff Committee. A true Democrat, if sent to Congress, will support the cautious candidate for speaker, and inasmuch as but a few Democratic members of the House are in favor of a tariff, the great bulk being otherwise inclined, the cautious candidate is likely to be an anti-tariff man, and yet such a cautious candidate, Democratic representatives from Pennsylvania, however much they may favor tariff, would be bound to support. At the organization of the last House of Representatives, in the large number of persons, whom the Democrats successively supported for the Speakership, they never once voted for a tariff man. Even Smith, of North Carolina, who was elected by the American party, and who was claimed by the Democrats, who supported him for the Speakership, to be an old-line Republican tariff man, finally voted against Mr. Taylor's tariff bill. To come to the point, there is no use in electing a Democrat to Congress, to represent a tariff district, unless the candidate pledges himself to step outside of his party organization, to disown the action of the caucus of the party, as did John Schwartz, of Berks, and John Hickman, of Chester. If this is done, a candidate is no longer a Democrat, and if he keeps on improving, will soon be a good Republican. We need not assure our readers, that the Republican party was true to its pledges on the tariff question. In the last session of Congress, despite the violent opposition of the Democrats, the Republicans succeeded in electing a tariff man, a Speaker, Mr. Pennington, of New Jersey. The Committee of Ways and Means, appointed by this Speaker, reported a tariff bill, and it passed the House, receiving the support of every Republican save two, one of whom wanted a still higher tariff, and opposed by the Democrats of the body, with a few honorable exceptions. The bill passed to the Senate and was supported by every Republican, and was choked off by Democratic Senators. The record cannot be denied, and all true tariff men should, at least, vote for Lincoln, for President, for Republican Congressmen, and for such members of the Senate, as will support the tariff man, the writer of a Republican United States Senator from the State of Pennsylvania. Those, who wish to see Lincoln elected, should by all means vote for Curtin, for Governor, because Curtin's election settles the Presidential contest.

Why is it?—Why is it, that the Douglas Journals throughout the country are continually charging disunionism upon the Republican party? Why is it, they represent the election of Lincoln so dangerous to the Union? Read what the Cleveland Plain Dealer says: "Douglas has met the Fire-Dealers of the South, face to face, and told them what no Southern man in their own country had dared to tell them, that he would hang every one of them as high as Haman, who, in consequence of the election of a Black Republican President, shall attempt to dissolve the Government."

Again, read what Douglas said in his speech, at the great barbeque in Jones' Woods, a few days ago. He said: "I express my firm conviction, that there is not a disunion man in America, who is not a Breckinridge man."

Why then do we hear so much twaddle twaddle about the dissolution of the Union, on the part of the Douglas papers? There is no danger of it. The cry of disunionism is got up merely for political effect, but it is entirely played out. Lincoln will be the next President, and the country, as usual, will continue on in her great and prosperous course.

Col. Curtin.—It is all important, that every friend of Lincoln should be at the polls, in October, to support Col. Curtin for Governor. Elect Curtin, Governor, and the Presidential question is settled. The voice of Pennsylvania will be heard and felt in other States, and the Democracy will give up the contest in despair. Aware of this fact, the friends of Douglas, Breckinridge & Co. are making every effort to secure the election of General Foster. We have no doubt whatever, but that there has been a corrupt bargain between the Democracy and the leaders of the Bell party to defeat Curtin. We believe, that such Bell men, can be influenced by such corrupt leaders, will vote for General Foster. Efort then is all important. We believe, that Curtin can and will be elected Governor, but still, as a matter of caution, would advise all Republicans to leave no stone unturned, until the victory is complete. Republicans of Lehigh! buckle on your armor and to the work, which is before you.

ARE YOU ASSURED?—Let it be seen, that every Republican, in the county, is assessed, at least ten days before the election. Let every man see that his neighbor is assessed. The election comes off on next Tuesday a week, Oct. 9th. An assessment will remove all difficulties in the way of voting, as well as save the time of the electors. In seven of our townships, the number of voters is so large that no time can be spared, if the full vote is to be polled.

The motto, on the coat of arms of Maine, is "Dirigo"—I lead the way. Most truly has Maine led the way, and every other Free State will follow her example in November next.

Speech, lately made, Philadelphia, stated, that he would give $100,000 for every Senator, to whom Col. Curtin spoke last winter, at Washington, for the purpose of influencing their votes in favor of the tariff. Col. Curtin in his speech, at Lancaster, on Wednesday last, went to Washington, to see a number of the public Senators, and found them all in favor of a protective tariff. Of course it was useless for him to speak to Democratic Senators. Col. Curtin further added, that he would like Foster at this offer, and would further give $100 for every Senator, whom General Foster persuaded to support the tariff bill. We think, Curtin is safe in his offer. Not one single Senator was induced by Foster to support the bill.—Bigger, of Pennsylvania, supported it, but he had avowed himself in favor of the bill before Foster's arrival.

PROGRESS OF REPUBLICANISM IN MARYLAND.—Maryland is following in the wake of Missouri, only the revolution seems to be going on more rapidly in favor of Republicanism, than in the former State. A daily Republican paper has been started in Baltimore, called the Border State, which, with the City Worker, (German), is advocating the cause of Old Abe, in Maryland. In Baltimore, 20,000, 200,000 and Germans have joined the Republican ranks. Henry Winter Davis, Judge Marshal of the Supreme Court, and Major John McPhail have come out for Lincoln. Mr. McPhail, at present, holds a State office, and it is his intention to stump Maryland and speak in every county of the State. Dr. Henry M. Fuller, and his Bell-Everett friends, still think, that the South will not omit to the election of Lincoln, when so many of her best sons are advocating his election.

George W. Trowell.—Late advices from Trowell, to the gratifying intelligence, that the people, in that former Democratic stronghold, are almost unanimous for Lincoln. In 47 boroughs of Knoxvile, there are sixty voters, sixty-four of whom are for Lincoln. In the borough of Billland, there are eighty-two voters, of which number eighty-one are for Lincoln. In five townships of that county, the Republicans went desperately to work to secure up some Democrats, if possible; and, after considerable searching, found three; and they intend to convert these before November.—"Stand from under" on the 10th of October, when Trowell, Bradford and Susquehanna come with their majorities for Col. Curtin!

THE OPPOSITION OF NORTHAMPTON.—The Republicans of Northampton met in large numbers at Bath, on Saturday last, for the purpose of preparing for the fall elections. The meeting was organized by the appointment of W. W. Selfridge, of Bethlehem as Chairman. The following excellent county ticket was nominated: Assembly—Peter Walter, R. P. Black, Prothonotary—J. M. Hower, Clerk—B. F. Caffrey, Register—Henry Switzer, Recorder—Amos Healy, Commissioner—Joseph B. Jones, Director—Samuel Riegle, Auditor—Jacob Beer.

In his speech, in this Borough, last Friday evening, Gen. Foster charged the Republicans with having passed the Tariff bill of 1857. On the 2nd passage of that bill the House, the vote stood 123 yeas to 72 nays. Of the 123, who voted for the bill, 67 were Democrats, 39 Republicans, and 17 South Americans. Of the 72, who voted against the bill, there were 31 Democrats, 20 Republicans, and 21 South Americans. The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday, the 10th inst., comes down pretty severely on the Bell and Everett speakers of the free-trade party for their disunion sentiments. There is scarcely a Bell speaker in the North, that does not endeavor to inculcate the idea, that disunion of Lincoln will lead to a dissolution of the Union. The Inquirer thinks, it comes with a bad grace from those, who claim to be free-trading friends of the Union, to be found preaching disunion sentiments to the audience.

COMBINING WITH KNOW-NOTHINGS.—The Democracy have been always bitter in their denunciations of Know-Nothingism. Will our honest foreigners bear in mind, that at this election, the Democratic party, in many States, has been attempting to combine with the Know-Nothing party, and to elect a man, who is as much a Breckinridge man, as the Know-Nothing party. It is a dead party, and is justly represented by dead men.—Harrisburg Daily Sentinel.

DEATH OF GENERAL WALKER.—From the last accounts from Honduras, we hear, that Gen. Walker and his chief officer, Col. Kudler, have been shot by the orders of the Government. Thus has this great filibuster perished in the prime of life. Had his talents, energy and ambition been directed in the proper channel, he might have been a useful, not a highly eminent man.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.
The Oriental Guard of Newark visit Bethlehem this week.
Job Printing daily and expeditiously done at the Register Office.
GREAT GOOD.—The rain, last week, did much good throughout the country. The winter grain already sown will be greatly benefited.

FOOLHARDY.—Mons. De Lave has been walking on a wire, stretched across the Delaware river at Lancaster, during the past week, through foolhardy adventures.
Dr. H. O. Wilson of this county, and Edward Eckert of Northampton, were elected Vice Presidents of the monster Mass Meeting held at Lancaster, on Wednesday last.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY FAIR.—The thirteenth annual exhibition of the Montgomery County Agricultural Society will be held on the 2d, 3rd, and 4th of October, at Springtown.
A Republican Meeting will be held at the house of Jacob Wery, in South Whitehall on Friday evening, the 28th inst. Addresses will be delivered in the German and English Languages.

WE would be very thankful to our friends in town and throughout the county to send us whatever items of local news may fall under their observation. Every one may thus become instrumental in making their County paper interesting.
Persons, wishing to make purchases while attending the Fair this week, would do well to consult the advertising columns of the Register. They can then ascertain, where the best bargains are to be had.

James Doherty, of South Easton, left his horse on Thursday last, and has not been heard of since. He is about 40 years of age, about five feet eight inches high, has brown hair and whiskers, the latter mixed with gray.
CUTTING CORN.—The work of cutting and cropping corn has already commenced, and a considerable quantity is in shock. The yield will be much better than last year, and the work will be much hastened by Lehigh county than was anticipated some weeks ago.

LOST AN EYE.—An employe of the Allentown Iron Works, named George Ward, on Friday the 14th inst., while engaged in hoisting a pig iron, was struck in one of his eyes with a block, attached to the hoisting apparatus. The injury was such, as to result in the loss of eye sight.
A QUEER RAT TRAP.—A rat, passing a heap of oysters in the collar of Jas. R. Temple, Easton, incautiously put his foot into an open oyster, thinking to steal a dainty morsel. The rat was instantly seized, and he was completely, until he could otherwise be disposed of.

Last Thursday a novel race took place on the track at the Farmers' and Mechanics' Institute Easton, between a man by the name of Alexander Adams, and Dempster's celebrated trotting horse. Mr. Adams was to walk half a mile and then the horse was to trot a mile and a quarter. The man won easily.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Daniel Fisher, the driver of an ore train from Springtown to Spring Mill, Montgomery Co., fell from his wagon one day last week, by some accident, and the two near wheels passed over his head, crushing it in the most terrible manner, killing him instantly. He was a single man, about twenty-four years old.

The days are getting perceptibly shorter, and the cooler weather is fast approaching. It is very comfortable that nearly all persons feel disposed to lose half an hour in a comfortable nap. Blessed be the power of sleep, which is a glorious blessing, and blessed be the man who understands how to sleep.

TO SOFTEN OLD PUTTY.—In removing old broken panes from a window, its generally very difficult to get off the hard, dry putty that sticks round the glass and its frame. Dip a small brush in a little nitric or muriatic acid, and rub it on the putty, and it will go over the putty with it. Let it rest awhile and it will soon become so soft that you can remove it with ease.

The Republicans of this Borough have built a large organ on eighth street, opposite the German Lutheran Church. The friends of the Republican cause will hereafter hold their meetings in the organ, which is capable of holding many thousands. Hon. Carl Schurz dedicated it last Monday evening. A lofty spire, 100 feet high, was erected at the organ last Monday morning.

How many young men in Lehigh County will cast their first vote this fall, and for whom will they cast? How many of them will go with us, and cast their first vote for the Republican ticket? In voting, as well as in everything else, it is necessary to vote right. The young man who casts his vote for principle has, in after years, the pride and gratification of knowing that he committed right. We intend to do it, and hope there are others who are with us.

MAN'S CHARACTER.—We may judge of a man's character by what he loves.—What is his hobby? If a person manifests delight in low, sordid objects, the vulgar song and delusory language, in the misfortunes of his fellows, or cruelty to animals, we may at once determine the complexion of his character. On the other hand, if a person manifests delight in virtuous pursuits, engage his heart and draw out his affection—we are satisfied that he is an upright man. A debased man shrinks from association with the good and wise.

Milton Nonnemacher, the son of Paul Nonnemacher, of Lehigh Mountain, Salisbury township, brought during the last summer, to Allentown and sold:
Sca. per qt. $36.00
139 " Raspberries, 10 " " 13.90
628 " Blackberries, 8 " " 50.24
150 " Whiteberries, 10 " " 15.00

FAIR AT EASTON.—The Fair of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Institute opened at Easton, on Tuesday last week. On Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday the weather was very unpropitious, and the Fair on that account was continued until Saturday evening. The display of cattle was large and fine, and the number of horses excellent that of any previous fair. On Thursday, notwithstanding the weather, the attendance was very large. The military drill did not come off on Wednesday, as was advertised. No company was present but the Jordan Artillerists of Allentown. The names of six or seven companies were published in the Easton papers to be present; why they did not make their appearance, is not known. Some considered the whole thing a hoax, got up to draw a crowd to the fair. There seem to be an absence of all rules and regulations on the race course, the only rule seemingly observed, being, that he who could by jockeying and four driving reach the judges' stand first, was entitled to the premium.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Democratic Delegates of the different Wards, Boroughs, and Townships of Northampton County met in Convention at Bath, on Tuesday, 18th inst. The following constituted the Convention: Congress—Kath. Johnson, of Easton; Legislature—Jacob Coepe, of Bushkill, and Peter F. Eilenburger, of Easton. Prothonotary—William Mutchler, of Easton. Clerk of the Peace—George V. Wallace, U. M. Bethel. Register—John Stutz, of Easton. Recorder—Jesse D. Dugan, of Lehigh. Commissioner—Paul Kleppinger, of Lehigh. Director of the Poor—Michael Long, of Bethlehem Twp. Auditor—George Bell, of Saugon.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Agreeably to previous notice, the "North Whitehall Republican Club" met at the public house of John Lentz, at Rockledge, on the L. V. R. R., Sept. 21st. In the absence of the President, Vice President, Erastus Rhoads, presided. The Secretary, Dr. H. O. Wilson, read a paper on "The last meeting." The chairman then introduced Mr. Albright, of Mauch Chunk, who addressed the audience for nearly two hours on the political questions of the campaign. Addresses were likewise made by Dr. D. P. Keiser, Dr. H. O. Wilson, and L. D. Steadler. After some business, the Club adjourned to meet at the public house of Wm. Romic, in Seizeville, on Saturday evening, Sept. 25th. A. MEXER.

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL.—A Farmers' High School is established on a farm of four hundred acres in Centre county, Pa. It is in a highly prosperous condition, the school containing one hundred pupils, coming from the different Agricultural Societies of the State. The pupils of the school are required to labor on the farm three hours daily, thus receiving a practical knowledge of farming, and are acquiring a complete education during the balance of the time. The institution has been so prosperous thus far, that the buildings have been enlarged so as to accommodate 1500 pupils.

Peterson's Ladies Magazine for October is on our table. It is, as usual, filled with gems of thought, expression, and every story entitled "The Ruling Passion," written by the well-known Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, is continued. The Magazine is invaluable on account of the report of the fashions. It is decidedly one of the best family magazines in the country and should be on the table of every family. The subscription price is cheaper than most of the other magazines, being only $2.00 per annum, in advance. Large and elegant engravings are made to clubs. We will mail the magazine to you, and register your subscriber for $2.75 per annum.

A Man to be Hung!
This is not a very startling announcement. There are always men to be hung, besides a good many others who (in the world's judgment) are richly deserving hanging. But only think of the number of men who are under sentence of death in Ontario! Mr. Marsh, a well-known citizen of this county, and should be on the table of every family. The subscription price is cheaper than most of the other magazines, being only $2.00 per annum, in advance. Large and elegant engravings are made to clubs. We will mail the magazine to you, and register your subscriber for $2.75 per annum.
