A Westbury, Vt., substriber of the New England Farmer thus writes about the effect of bone dust :-. I see a great deal in the paper about the use of bone dust or flour. I have thought a good many times I would give you a little of my experience in that matter. In 1844 I lived in a hones of an inde-pendent farmer, and planted about three-fourths of an acre of corn on a pine plain. That farmer had, been for many years anthering all the old, bones have ould ded. That spring her carried them to a plas-ter mill and got them ground. He gave me a peck of the flour, which I put on one-half of my piece of eorn. I thad a wonderful effect. The stalks grew a foot talier than on the other half, and ware dark-er colored, and the ears were from two to four lineh-ce langer. The difference, I could only tell them that dry bones did it. The farmer experimented with it by putting hone on two rows, plaster of Paris on the adjoining it wo, house ashes on the next two, then two with pothing but the manure, which was applied allies to the whole up the transformer the ofference in the adjoining two, house ashes on the order the flour was wonderful. Our Ground Bone is prepared expressly fare, t contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparius, or any thing else. During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been finites upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsapa-rilla, but often no curative properties whater-er. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Barsaparilla which flood the market, until the has followed the use of the various extracts of Barsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become. synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still. we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as ahall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests. upon it. And we think we have ground: for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the disease it is intend-ed to size.
