ALLENTOWN, PENNA.
TO ADVERTISERS.
The REGISTER has a larger circulation than any other English paper in the county.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1866.
REPUBLICAN STATE NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.
Major General John W. Geary,
OF QUAKERTOWN, COUNTY.

THE REGISTER FOR THE CAMPAIGN, FOR ONLY SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS.

We offer THE REGISTER as a campaign paper from this date until November 1st, so as to give every one an opportunity of seeing how the "causes" are conducted and its results, for SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS—This barely pays for the paper on which it is printed, but we are desirous of circulating sound doctrine, and therefore appeal to every Republican in Lehigh county to aid us. Send in the names with the cash.

Important Decision.

Judge Underwood, of the United States District Court of Virginia, on Tuesday decided a very important principle at Alexandria. It came up in the matter of Thomas J. Jarvis. He was tried before the provost judge, under the freedmen's bureau, for assaulting and injuring a negro boy, and found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, to be paid to the boy, and imprisonment until paid. This sentence was approved by Gen. Augur. Application for the writ of habeas corpus was made by the counsel of Jarvis, under the supposed assurance of protection of the late peace proclamation. The prisoner was brought before Judge Underwood under the writ, which was returned by the officers of General Augur, stating all the facts of the case, and adding that he had been held under military authority by order of the President of the United States—all of which was duly certified on the back of the writ. The hearing consumed six hours, after which Judge Underwood decided in substance that the peace proclamation did not apply to such cases, and remanded the prisoner to custody. If successful it would have been immediately followed by an application for a similar writ in the case of Jefferson Davis. It is not doubted that the secession sympathizers in Virginia and everywhere else regard Andrew Johnson's peace proclamation as a universal pardon, and is merely preparatory to the full forgiveness and release of the chief of the Confederacy. But Judge Underwood does not think so.

The opprobrious press and orators are very anxious that laws shall be passed by Congress, definitely fixing the boundaries between them and the freedmen. Now, though we are opposed to class legislation making invidious distinctions between citizens, yet in this instance the necessity is so apparent, that we feel disposed to yield and favor the passage of the law by Congress to the following effect:

Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act, the leaders of the opprobrious press and of many of their followers as they may induce to do so by the use of money, whiskey or abuse, may apply to the Assessor of Internal Revenue of his district, in writing, setting forth that he desires the worst white prefixed to his name, which shall be done by said Assessor, and returned upon the payment of $100 United States. He shall also be liable to pay for advertising, and all that profess to belong to said opprobrious party that do not so apply, shall be deemed and taken to be the equals of freedmen. This act not to apply to any members of the Union party.

Gen. Harry T. Hays, who commanded a brigade under Stonewall Jackson, has been nominated for sheriff of New Orleans. This is the way they reward officers in the army under the traitor oligarchy. What do the loyal Democracy think of the plan of their leaders to govern the country by reconstructed traitors, to the exclusion of the brave soldiers who have preserved the farms, at least, by which these beautiful reconstructed are to enter upon and enjoy the high places in the nation.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The enactment of the civil rights bill into a law has had a magical effect. The President has been officially announced that he will cheerfully carry it into effect—that he is not as indignant at the action of Congress as his friends insisted. The salutary effects of that legislation, are seen in the willingness of all sides to confide the work of "reconstruction," "reunion," or whatever you choose to style it, to the majesties in Congress. There is no more noise about the injustice of keeping eleven sovereign States out of the Union.

The Southern leaders in Washington have at last abandoned all reliance on the President's policy. Eminent patriots like Governor Hamilton of Texas, Governor Holden of North Carolina, Governor Brownlow of Tennessee, Governor Belmont of Virginia, boldly declared it to be a failure, it is obvious that the opinions and wishes of "heretics" like Lee will go farther, and be more acceptable to the worshippers of "my policy" than the words of the Union generals. Nothing, however, can prevent the completion of the work of Congress. It can indeed be immovably hindered by the co-operation of the Southern people. They know what is expected and will be exacted; and if they anticipate the alternative, or avow a willingness to accept the conditions precedent, the work is done, and we are once more a happy and united people. Mr. Stephens of Georgia, is reported to have said that the Southern States could not be forced to take these conditions if they camp back, it must be unconditionally. Then, of course, they will have to stay as they are. Congress will do the work patriotically and permanently.

General Grant was arrested and fined for fast driving in the streets of Washington last week.

Washington Correspondence.

The President and his cabinet are not united. Mr. Seward, Secretary of State, is emphatically with the President in his policy. He says the Southern rebels are loyal, and should be readmitted to the Union as equals with the loyal States, without guarantees for the future; that the test-act should be repealed or modified; and that the Republican Union party must now give way to a new party. The intelligent, loyal people of the country, however, differ from Mr. Seward now, as they did in 1861, when he asserted in his speech in New York, that the war would be over in 90 days, and when he told the British Minister that in 90 days the rebellion would be put down and the supremacy of the Government restored in the Southern States.

Mr. Dennison, Postmaster General, sees everything color de rose; believes that Congress and the President will harmonize; that just at this time there is a dark cloud in the political horizon which casts shadows upon political affairs; but, with the eye of hope, he penetrates behind this cloud and sees the sun of triumph lighting up the view. He believes that the Union party has not yet fulfilled its destiny, and that it must not surrender to opponents. He is gentlemanly and yielding to a fault toward the President and his policy, but underneath this softness there is a firm determination that it is genuine and true. He expresses a determination not to resign under any circumstances.

Mr. Speed, Attorney General, is unqualifiedly with Congress, and opposed to the policy of the President. He is discreet in the expression of his opinions, does not unnecessarily harass or oppose the President, but stands firmly by his convictions of what he believes to be the true principles in this contest.

Mr. Stanton, Secretary of War, is reticent, looks a good way ahead, and under no circumstances will exercise his power to put men under the Union party or the country into place. He is staunch and true, but politics, is inclined to stand by the President, but does not agree with him in his measures and policy. In a conversation with a gentleman a short time ago, he said: "I could not remain here, and would not, if required to make any appointments, or to aid in any act contrary to my principles and convictions."

WHAT CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE THINKS.

The Chief Justice is frank and outspoken in his opinions. He believes that the President is not a man of great talents, but that he started wrong in his work of reconstruction; that having builded upon an untenable foundation, his superstructure, his policy, must fail and fall. Mr. Chase feels a warm personal friendship for the President, and feels a deep sympathy for him in the trials and labors that are upon him. He would be glad to consult with the President, and aid him in the solution of these difficult questions; but the President does not seek his advice, and probably but, on the contrary, desire its provisions to be made still more stringent, and assert that in their opinion the Radicals are the truest and best friends of the Southern people.

THE POLICY.

What is the President's policy, upon which he is risking so much? Many inquire. This is the chimera, this phantom, this ignis fatuus policy that is leading the President this wild dance? What is the policy, manifestly, as far as developed, all can perceive; what is ultimately intended to accomplish none can say; yet one thing is certain, the people and their representatives do not approve this policy as far as developed, the manifest tendency of which seems to be to surround every principle of right and justice.

One thing is certain, the President has determined to carry through his policy, and before it all other considerations must go down—reason, justice, everything must give way. To that policy he would sacrifice the Union party, were it necessary. He would sacrifice any and a personal friendship. Yes, his very life would weigh nothing in the scales against his determination to carry it through.

RELEASE OF THE PIRATE SEMMES.

The President has ordered the unconditional release of the pirate Semmes, notwithstanding the adverse opinions of Generals Grant and Sherman and the Attorney General. This action is bitterly denounced in Washington. The deeds of this man, confined to no law, military or civil, are well remembered, and that he should now be set at liberty, without being compelled to answer for at least some of his crimes, is greatly to be regretted.

Death of Hon. Daniel S. Dickerson.—Mr. Dickerson died at the residence of S. G. Corey, his son in law, in New York, on the 12th inst., of strangled hernia. He was down with the day before, attending to business. He died peacefully, and was conscious to the last.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL PASSED BY THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

The Senate, on Friday, the 6th inst., passed the Civil Rights Bill over the President's veto, by a vote of 33 to 15. The same bill passed the House on Monday, by a vote of 122 to 21. The Civil Rights Bill is now a law, having passed both Houses of Congress by the required two-thirds.

The State Legislature adjourned sine die on Thursday, according to previous resolution. Hon. Lewis W. Hall, of Blair, the Republican nominee, was elected Speaker of the Senate for the recess, and would be Governor in case of the death or resignation of that officer.

It will be recalled that the act of Congress prohibiting deserters from exercising the right to vote was generally disregarded in this State by the Democracy at the last election, on the ground that the question of suffrage was a State affair, over which Congress could exercise no authority. Our Legislature now in session have accordingly taken the matter in hand, and in the House after a warm discussion, a bill disfranchising deserters was passed by a vote of 58 to 26, the yeas being all Democrats.

Saturday April 14th was the first anniversary of the assassination of that great and good man, our late President Lincoln. Public offices were closed throughout the country, and at Washington and other places, ceremonies appropriate to the solemn occasion were observed. Would that the man of our lamented patriot Father had fallen upon his successor.

THE FENIAN MOVEMENT.

The Fenians have actually commenced war-like demonstrations. Bodies of armed men, numbering several hundred, were at last reported to have landed on Campy Bello Island, in Passamaquoddy Bay. Bands of armed Fenians were also assembling at Calais, Maine, bent on the invasion of Canada. No hostile collision with the British forces has yet taken place.

A bill to reimburse Pennsylvania for money advanced amounting to $800,000 to equip and assist the militia called out in 1863, to assist in repelling Lee's invasion of the State, passed the Senate on Tuesday last—having formerly passed the House. The President will undoubtedly sign it. The passage of this bill is a great justice to Pennsylvania, after repeated unsuccessful efforts hitherto, to induce Governor Curtin, who visited Washington and exerted his personal influence to put it through. The citizens of Pennsylvania can never honor or Governor Curtin sufficiently for his noble and untiring exertions in behalf of the Union and his native State.

LOYAL REPUBLICANS ARRIVING AT WASHINGTON.

They are daily from the South, who strongly oppose any modification of the test oath looking to the admission to Congress of men who were identified with the late rebellion, but, on the contrary, desire its provisions to be made still more stringent, and assert that in their opinion the Radicals are the truest and best friends of the Southern people.

LOCAL RECORD.

TERMS OF THIS PAPER: $2.50 per Year, or $2.00 if Paid Strictly in Advance.

Council passed a resolution, last week, ordering a strict enforcement of the law against those who refuse to do their duty, and every one who refuses to comply with the law should be punished with all the severity allowable.

SCHOOL STATEMENTS.

By the Common School Law of the State, it is made the duty of Directors to publish an annual statement of the amount of moneys received and expended on the school, and the names of the donors, and setting forth all the financial operations of the district.

J. P. Shindel (Gobin), late Colonel of the 47th regiment P.V., has settled in Lebanon, Pa., and commenced the practice of law there. The Colonel has done good service for his country, and we hope he may favorably receive a lawyer by the people among whom he has located.

TO POSTMASTERS.—It is not only made the duty of a Postmaster to give notice promptly to the publisher of a newspaper of the non-receipt of copies by the publisher of the paper, but it has been decided by the Court that in such a case the Postmaster makes himself liable for the subscription price.

"No pains will be spared," as the quack said when saving off a poor fellow's leg to cure him of the rheumatism. No pains will be spared by M. J. Kramer and his obliging clerks to accommodate all who call to examine our new and improved goods, at our Mammoth store opposite the Eagle Hotel.

The Daily News says: we learn that a company of gentlemen in Lower Saucony, and especially the village of Lehigh, are endeavoring to acquire a large tract of land adjoining the Hellertown station, of Mr. John Geisinger, at $200 per acre, on which they intend to erect a large laundry and machine shop. The name of the firm is to be Kling, Geisinger & Co.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

On the 9th of April a great excitement prevailed throughout the country, occasioned by the surrender of Lee to Gen. Grant. But that is entirely eclipsed by the excitement occasioned at Allentown, Pa., on the 10th inst., at which time a large number of persons, dressed in a large new invoice of dress goods—the most complete and beautiful ever brought to this town. Go see them. Remember the place, 2 doors above the Eagle Hotel.

Boys' clothing from $4 to $20 a suit, at Weiss' store, No. 51 East Hamilton street.

No. 1 and 2 truck stalls, were taken by Joseph Morton, for $15 each, and No. 3 by J. Gussler, at $5, for $15.25.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

On Saturday week, a little five year old daughter of Mr. Daniel Eckstein, residing in Upper Merion township, was seriously burned by her clothes taking fire, that she died the day following, after great suffering. The accident happened while she was taking fire, while she was endeavoring to light a candle, during her mother's absence to the barn for milking.

GRAND OPENING.—There will be a grand opening of all kinds of Spring and Summer Dress Goods, at Burdge and Jones' cheap cash store, on Thursday the 10th inst., at which time the ladies of Allentown and Lehigh county will be invited to call and examine their stock, which has been selected, with their usual care and taste, comprising all the newest styles and makes in the market.

FAIR.—The Columbia Fire Company is making arrangements to hold a Fair during the strawberry season, to aid them in purchasing their new steamer. A committee of ladies has been appointed to call and examine contributions for the Fair. The 4th ward (our own) is we believe, the banner ward in amount of contributions. From the way in which things are moving we conclude that the Fair will be a decided success.

THE TRI-ANNUAL CONVENTION OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

The tri-annual convention of School Directors of the County of Lehigh, and of the respective counties of the Commonwealth, on the first Tuesday of May, 1866 (the first of the month) to elect a County Superintendent. The School Directors elected this Spring Superintendent, and the County Superintendent is confined to the old or present members of the different School Boards.

ADVANCING IN PRICE.—Domestic goods of all kinds have advanced considerably in price the past ten days and are still advancing in the cities; but Burdge & Jones with their usual care and taste, have selected their stock before the advance took place, which they will continue to sell for one week longer; at panic prices. Those that are in need of anything in their line, had better call at once, as they can save money, by so doing.

A coal company has now piled near Honesdale 350,000 tons of coal—said to be the largest body of coal ever collected in one heap on the face of the earth. It would require a train over two hundred and sixty miles long to remove the stock. 700,000 tons would be needed, reaching in one continuous stream, 2,000 miles. This large deposit will give some idea of the magnitude of the coal interests of our State.—Easton Journal.

COPPER IN THE LEHIGH VALLEY.—For some time past workmen have been engaged in prospecting for copper on the farm of John Yost, along the Lehigh Valley Railroad, between Allentown and Bethlehem. We have their claims that they have found it in paying quantities. Messrs. Hamilton & Baum are now working the mine. This makes the seventh mineral production of the Valley. It was always believed that Salisbury was a "great country" now we know it.—News.

READ! READ! READ!—The community at large, are always fond of reading or getting the latest and best news, and in order to gratify their desires, we will give them the latest and best news; if you wish to see the latest and best news, call on us at our store, at Poplar, Mohair, Alpaca, Silks, Delaines, Challis, Plaids, Duane, Carpets, Muslins, Tickings, Calicoes and all kinds of dry goods. Our store is on Seventh street above Hamilton, at Huber Bros. 3 doors above the Eagle Hotel, where you will find all the above mentioned articles, at the lowest prices, and in fact 10 per cent, cheaper than elsewhere. This is carried out, beyond our reach and no contaminated article enters the system. This is no theory, but a well-established fact. All kinds of indigestible food should be avoided; but instances do not readily dissolve or refuse down in the stomach, come under this head; garden vegetables, and fruits of all kinds, have no effect in the stomach especially when eaten with fresh fruit. It will be more prudent to abstain STUNNED—The bill incorporating the Lehigh Valley Fire Insurance Co., to be located at Allentown, has been signed by the Governor. The corporation is organized in the name of Jacob S. Dillingham, Charles S. Bush, John William Christian, John D. Lowell, William H. Almy, Benjamin J. Hagenbuch, F. E. Hammon, Milton Appel, Martin Keener, and George B. Schell, all of Allentown. George B. Schell, Allentown, Nelson Keener, George Probst, and Joshua Blahler, The Company is to be, as we learn, organized on the 1st of May, and a meeting of the directors is to be held on next Thursday afternoon, at the Second National Bank, to take preliminary steps for organizing. The authorized capital of the Company is $500,000. A good start has been made, and the bill is greatly needed here, and we are glad to see the matter in the hands of so many of our leading citizens.—News.

At Weiss' new clothing store, you can buy a superior suit for $33. Call and see before you buy elsewhere.

Mr. Editor: Permit me, through your columns, to recommend Mr. Gottlieb Souder, our worthy fellow citizen and live-long teacher, to the kind consideration of the public generally, and especially of the School Directors of our county, at the next ensuing election of a County School Superintendent. Mr. Souder is a professional teacher of high standing, of mature age, and of long experience, and of a high moral character.
