FATENING STOCK.—Stock, says The Rural World, will fatten better in the dark than in the light—better in the fall (on account of the longer nights) than in the summer With less food more weight can be secured in the dark than in the light. Experiments have sufficiently demonstrated this. The pig pen should be dark—we have often seen it made so with the finest effect in favor of the fattening of stocks fize known that light temperature.

BREAKING Colles - David, in the Germantown Ielegraph, says he is strongly opposed, both in principle and practice, to "breaking colts;" that is, allowing them to attain the age of two or more years before taking them in hand for learning the principles which are to form so important a part in their future life. There should be no "breaking" a out it. The education should begin as goop as the colt is born and, if properly at ended to, will be per he is large enough to drive -Being led or tied with a halter should be his first lesson; he should never be allowed to break loose, for, once done, he will remember it a long time; and if the lesson be too often permitted, he will make a proficient in this not desirable act.

VALUABLE HINTS -To select good nutmegs pick them with a pin. If they are good the oil will instantly spread around the puncture— When a cask of molasses is bought draw off a few quarts, else the fermentation produced by moving it will burst the cask. Alum or vine gar is good to set colors of red, green or yel low.—Sul Soda will bleach very white; one spoonful is enough for a kettle of clothes - Stir Poland starch with a common candle, and it will not stick to the iron, and will be much nicer - Wash your lea trays with cold suds, polish with a little flour, and rub with a dry cloth -Fr zen potatoes make more starch than fresh ones; they also make nice cake. - A hot shovel held ever varnished furniture will take out white spots .- A bit of glue dissolved in skim milk and water will restore o d crape,-Ribbons of any kind should be washed in cold soap-suds, and not rinsed. - It your flat irons are rough, rub them well with fine salt, and it will make them smooth. - If you are buying a carpet for durability choose small figures .-Scotch snuff in holes where crickets come out will destroy them - Woodashes and commor salt wet with water will stop the cracks of a stoye, and prevent the smoke from escaping -A gallon of strong lye put in a barrel of hard water will make it as soft as rain water

GEARY AND VICTORY!!!

GRAND UNION Republican Mass Convention !! IN OLD BERKS!!! AT READING,

On Wednesday, Aug. 22d, '66. In obedience to a resolution adopted by the CENTRAL GEARY LEAGUE, of the city of Reading, and the Republican Executive Committee, of Berks County, the Union Republicans of the Eastern and Middle counties of Pennsylvania, favorable to the an2-1337

Major-General John W. Geary. Por GOVERNOR of PENNSYLVANIA

are requested to meet in Grand Mass Convention, in the city of Reading, On Wednesday, August 22nd, 1868. Arrangements will be made with all the Railroad Companies to carry delegations from all parts of the State, at the lowest rates. The Committee of Arrangements will make ample provision for the accommodation and comfort of delegations from abroad.

With a reasonable effort on the part of the Republicans of Lancaster, Chester, Lebanon, Dauphin, Schuylkill, Lehigh, Northampton, Montgomery, Delaware, Bucke, Philadelphia and other counties in Eastern and Middle Pennsylvania, this meeting will be the largest ever held in the State. The seven thousand true and tried Republicans of Old Berks will not fail to be represented in full force.

Our aim is to 4-tally celipse the recent failure to rally the Democracy in this city on the 18th July. Such a meeting as we expect here on the 22d of August will not fail to infuse confidence into the Republicans everywhere, and go far to convince the gations from abroad.

publicans everywhere, and go far to convince the hopest Democrats of Old Berks that real patriotism and such mode of reconstructing the Union as will ensure peace and good will among the people of overy section, North and South, can only be found in the measures of the Republican party.

THE BOYS IN BLUE! Of the several counties are especially invited to come, en masse—by hundreds and thousands. The Republican latch strings of Reading will be out.—They will have a cerdial welcome.

GRAND TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION! On the evening before the great meeting, (on Tuesday, Aug, 21) there will be a grand Torchlight Procession, in this city, in which the Boys in Blue, the cession, in this city, in which the Doys in actions are old Wide Awakes and other Union organizations are on who Awakes indones, or cordially invited to participate.

Marshals, or leaders of delegations from the seventhese seve oral counties or districts, are requested to report by mail, to either of the undersigned, not later than August 19th, 1866, the propable number who will attend.

Maj.-Gen. Geary, the next Governor, will positive Maj. Gen. Geary, the next Governal,
