FARMER AND HOUSEKEEPER.

Food cooled quickly, unless sealed, will keep much longer than if cooled slow. Milkmen cool their milk quickly in order to have it keep. Musty Bottles or jars are sweetened with lye or dissolved soda; allow it to remain in a short time, then seald and dry them. They will not must if a little salt is put in, or what is better, if cleaned and dried when not in use. To PREVENT RUST .- When stoves are not in use, oil them with sweet oil (all grocers keep it), when again used it will burn off with scarce-ly any smell. Coal scuttles should be cleaned and oiled inside and out with "boiled linseed oil," obtained at any paint-shop. SALLY LUNN - A quarter of a pound of butter, a pound of flour, two eggs, salt to tuste, half a gill of yeast, milk to make a soft dough.

Cut up the butter and warm it in a little milk; when the milk is lukewarm stir it into the flour with the eggs beaten light, and the yeast. Bu ter your cake mould, and set it near the fire to rise. When perfectly light bake it in moderate oven. It is always eaten hot. Cooking Hints.—Never bring fat to the table; omlets can be made more flaky by being placed in the oven as soon as done; make broth every other day in summer, and the quicker it couls the longer it will keep; grease a paper with butter and place it over ment that is being baked; to render pork and veal healthy they should always be overdone; rich food is healthy and not stimulating, and high seasoned food is unhealthy and hot food stimulating -Prof Blot. A CHARTREUSE OF APPLES AND RICE. - Buil six ounces of rice, with a stick of cinnumon, is milk until it is thick, stirring in a spoonful of rose water or orange flower water. Pare ten or twelve apples—golden pippins are the best—scoop out the core, and fill up the orfice with raspberry jam. Border a deep dish with paste; put in the apples, leaving a space be tween, and fill it up with rice. Brush the whole over with the yoke of an egg, and sift sugar thickly over it; form a pattern on tops with sweetmeats, and bake it for one hour in a cuick oven a quick oven.

TOMATOES FOR SUPPER. - Few people know how to prepare uncooked tomatoes in the way adopted in my family, and incomparably better than any mode I have ever tasted. By this mode they are very desirable for supper or breakfast. For a family of half a dezen persons, take six eggs, boil four of them hard, dissolve the yelks with vinegar sufficient, add about three teaspoons of mustard and mash as soon as possible; then add the two remaining eggs, (raw) yolk and white, stir well; the add salad oil to make altogether sauce sufficient to cover the tomatoes well; add plenty o salt and cayoune pepper, and beat thoroughly until it trosts. Skin and and cut the tomatsauce over, and you have a dish fit for a Pres-
