BECOMING ' LARMED.

The New York Locating Post, formerly a reoublican paper, but which sold out to the coperiohnsons, is becoming alarmed at the course of President Johnson and his violent and in;olerant speeches. Hear what it says :---

"Does Mr. Johnson know that by his indecoous language and injudicious conduct he is eriously increasing the difficulties under which he country already stoggers ? If he does not, t would be well if some judicious friend-if he ins any such left-would tell him this. It would be well for him to know that he is ery fast making himself personally odious .-The loyal people of the Northern States, those who stood by the Union when it was attacked by rebels, see, with a dissatisfaction and alarm which is no longer concealed, that the President whom their votes elevated to his position, surrounds himself, by his own choice apparenty, with men like Tom Florence, Garret Davis, Saulsbury, and others who, like these, during the war, never concealed their sympathies with reason. They see Mr. Johnson, further, re-moving from office men of ability and of unloubted fidelity to the Union, and putting in their places, not war Democrats, not Republi-cans who agree with his views on the question of representation, but Copperheads, sympathi-zers with treason, persons whose course during the war made them forever hateful to the loyal people

They have seen him but lately, in Louisiana, violate his own often declared policy in regard to the Southern States, and violate it in favor of boastful rebels and to the injury of men who were known as Union men, and they ask why, if the law is to be stretched, if what the President asserts to be the true policy is to be vio-lated, why is it only in the interest of men who lagrant traitors-such men as Mayor Monroe, nen of a temper which makes them bad citizens, and whom it would certainly be more judicious to leave unpardoned. Finally, they are alarmed and hurt at the inlecorous language which Mr. Johnson uses to ward Congress; they are disgusted to hear him on every occasion denouncing Congress, among whose members are many men of spotless hon-or and long tried loyalty, as traitors, rebels, usurpers, 'hanging on the skirts of the Governnent.' They hear him speak of a 'subsidized press,' and they ask, 'Who subsidizes it, when Mr. Johnson has all the patronage ?'

His language and acts show not a wise, tem perate, and conciliatory spirit, not a desire to produce harmony, and to effect his ends with the general concurrence of the nation; they show a petulant spirit, a harsh temper, whose inevitable effect, when used toward an intelli-gent people, jealous of dictation from their public servants, is to arouse a passionate feeling of hostility and opposition."

The leading proposition on which this con-piracy against the country is to be conducted, s the monstrous absurdity, that the rebel states have an inherent, "continuous," uncondiconstitutional right to form a part of the federal government, when they have once acknowledged the fact of the defeat of their inhabitants in an armed attempt to overthrow and subvert it-a proposition which implies that victory paralyzes the powers of the victors, that ruin gins when success is assured, that the only cfr. feet of beating a Southern rebel in the field, in to exalt him into a maker of laws for his anise tion to all our people ; and therefore we accept onist.
