Less than one year ago President Johnson issued an order directing the discharge of any employee of the Government, who should contribute money for electioneering purposes, and he received praise from the negro-screeching Democratic aristocrats for that act. At cils of the nation. that time they did not need the money, as they had the proceeds of the labor of 4,000,-000 of slaves, and heavy contributions in gold from England to keep them straight on the Free trade track. But now how altered. The same President Johnson, not only travels over the country, making the most disgusting speeches himself, but employs others to assist him in enforcing his policy, and raises the tious a doctrine. money, what he does not steal from the Treasury, by forced contributions from his own ap pointees. A worthless, dissipated tool of his is now traveling through this State, collecting the assessments from the different officers. We have heard that he called on our Post Master last week for $500. Whether he got the money or not, we have not heard, but if he did not, the attendance on the Philadelphia Convention, and approval of the disgraceful acts of the President, will not be a protection to him, and he will be compelled to evacuate the office. If he does pay, up, the balance of the proceeds will be very small compensation for the services in attending to his duties. Last year, if any money was contributed, it was done freely .---Now, it must come, or a change in officers. It would be interesting to know how much the President got for signing that bill for the increase of the pay of Members of Congress, or did Doolittle, Cowan & Co. get the funds ? Is or is not the pardon business profitable? is a pertinent and proper question. What must the Johnsonites pay for the support of a venal ress?. Who the cause of
