

The Lehigh Register

WILLS & IREDELL. TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

THE CITY.

Reigned.—H. E. Riss, professor of German in Lehigh College has resigned his position and will return to Germany.

Accident.—Franklin Poe, while working at the rollers in the Allentown rolling mill on Wednesday, was considerably injured by a piece of iron breaking from the mill he was working.

Trial of Life.—William Kramer, a convict confined in the Allentown jail, has become dissatisfied with his mode of living and has made several attempts to close his mortal career. He eats ground glass and parakeet of quills from the back of his chair but without any effect.

Allentown Passenger Railroad.—Cars will leave the depot corner of Sixth and Hamilton streets at 7 and 8:15 a. m., to run to the Lehigh and Susquehanna Depot to meet the new trains which commenced running on that road on Monday.

Great Reduction.—Our enterprising manufacturer of wooden goods, Mr. Henry Gabriel, in consequence of the overstocking of the market, will retail cassimere, flannels, carpets, etc., at wholesale prices. We refer to his advertisement in another column.

Decorating Soldiers' Graves.—Gen. R. McAllister, Col. W. H. Harnery, Col. T. W. Good, Capt. B. C. Roth and H. C. Humberger, have been appointed a committee of public works to decorate the graves of the soldiers of the Army of the Potomac, to make arrangements for decorating soldiers' graves, on Sunday, May 30th.

Reported Capture.—The reported capture of Azer, the forger, who escaped from our county last week, is untrue. The report probably originated from the fact that the Commissioners received a letter from Azer, in which he asked what reward was offered for Azer. The reward is $100.

Clean Up.—Mayor Good has given public notice of his intention to enforce the several ordinances of the city relating to the cleaning of streets, alleys, lanes and cellars, and to remove from the cellars, stables, alleys, lanes, gutters and lots, all garbage, rubbish, coal ashes, stoves, and other nuisances injurious to the public health.

Runaway.—The practice of leaving horses stand unhitched in the streets is reprehensible. Yesterday a horse standing at the northwest corner of Sixth and Hamilton streets left very suddenly and ran into an awning post on the opposite corner fortunately doing no other damage than breaking the shaft of the wagon.

Notice to Subscribers.—Our subscribers are requested to remember that we have purchased the subscription books of THE REGISTER OFFICE and retention of all back as well as advance subscriptions must be made at this office. We have authorized one to collect for us. We give this notice, not as a threat, although money is always acceptable, but for the purpose of having our subscribers pay their indebtedness into the right hands when they are ready to settle up.

The Reduction Will Go On.—As the time approaches for the drawing of the Good Will Gift Enterprise the number of tickets in the hands of the managers decreases rapidly, and will not amount to two hundred. These can all be disposed of in a few days and those intending to embark in this enterprise, unless they take time by the forelock, will be deprived of the opportunity to secure a prize. Therefore make no delay but buy tickets at once.

After old Cain.—On Thursday night the house of Peter Weikel, on Seventh street, adjoining the Allentown National Bank, was searched by a burglar, who it is supposed was in search of about two thousand dollars worth of old coin which was kept in the dining room, but which was lately deposited in bank. Nothing was known of the entrance until morning, when in the servant entering the dining room discovered it in a disorderly condition, but the only thing missing is a small box containing thirty cents, not a very rich reward for the various gentlemen's labor.

Good News for Consumers of Gas.—There is no longer any necessity for people being subjected to gas-making monopolies. Every housekeeper should call at C. W. Stuber's, Walnut street, corner of Penn, and witness the workings of Stratton's Portable Air Gas Machine. Go, whether you want to purchase or not. No charge for showing the apparatus, but which is lately requires little or no attention. It is the cheapest thing out, and in many cases will more than pay its cost the first year from the saving in the cost of gas. Persons residing beyond the precincts of gas companies should not for a moment think of being without it.

Beardless Sunday.—Long were the faces and deep were the impressions of the labor-loving Allentownites last Sunday because their favorite beverage was denied them. During last week, at the request of some of the citizens of Lehigh, we are informed, that the local distillers, the trustees of the county to prevent the sale of spirituous and malt liquors on Sundays, and promptly at twelve o'clock on Saturday night the devotees of the exhilarating fluid were informed that lager would not be sold until Monday morning. Slowly and sorrowfully the little groups who had been enjoying a social glass wended their way homeward, then to powder on the calamity that had overtaken them, and to submit, with their characteristic grace, to the inexorable decree of Fate—of the Court.

Burglary.—During Tuesday night week some person or persons entered the dwelling of Mr. James Klein, South Seventh street below Walnut, and stole therefrom all the neat of three large hogs, which the owner had prepared for the summer season, and a gold watch. It appears that on Tuesday the family noticed one of the keys to the back door, and supposing that one of the boarders had the key in his possession paid no particular attention to the loss, but the fact of the house being robbed creates an opinion that some evil disposed person had been in the house, and simplifying his burglarious operations. The watch was kept in barrels on the third floor of the house and the watch in a bureau drawer on a second floor room. How the burglars managed to carry off these articles without alarming the inmates of the house is rather mysterious. The value of the articles stolen is about one hundred and fifty dollars.—Times.

Many Things.—The Bethlehem Times says the Allentown post-office is worth $4,000. The Blue Book says $2400. Job Work done at the Kretzschmar office will rival New York work both in style and price. The Foster Brothers, the new dry goods men, are extensive advertisers. They will make money. George N. Corson, Esq., held a Court of Bankruptcy at the American Hotel, last Wednesday. We are indebted to Gen. James L. Seiffers for a copy of the Pennsylvania Legislative Hand Book, a very useful and valuable publication. Tags and shipping cards, plain or printed, are furnished at this office of manufacturers' prices. These kind of tags are in great demand, and we have an opportunity to display their taste and skill. Lehigh county will be represented through delegates from the various lodges of Junior American Mechanics in the State Council at Harrisburg, next Friday.

The Allentown Rolling Mill suspended operations on Saturday morning last, for the purpose of making repairs.

The Free Methodist Society of Allentown have removed their place of worship from Bohlen's Hall, to the third story of Daniel Reichenbach's new building of Hamilton street.

We take pleasure in doing our Job Work in the hands of small orders, and make no extra charge for it. Small orders receive as much care as large ones.

THE COUNTY.

Well Patronized.—During the year commencing April 1, 1888, and ending April 1, 1889, one thousand nine hundred and sixty persons were furnished with lodging in the station house.

Commonwealth vs. John Miller, Jacob Rhoads, Andrew Kessler, Joseph Kessler, John Rudolph, Charge of gambling with the will of William Fisher. The defendants in this case were charged with playing cards for money. The only witness to the fact were the prosecutor and his wife, and they could only swear to the defendants meeting once and playing for money. Some doubts were raised as to the character of the prosecutor for the truth, as to the character of the defendants and divided the case between the prosecutor and the defendants.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Claver, Larceny on oath of C. Wilson Bennett. Note prospect entered.

Commonwealth vs. James Warner. Charge of fraud. Note prospect entered.

Commonwealth vs. George Burkhard, Bill ignored. Exposure on oath of George Burkhard, Bill ignored.

County to pay the cost of the prosecution. Defendant on oath of David Schardt. Defendant was found guilty. Metzger for Commonwealth; Bowden for Defendant.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Waster. Larceny on oath of Charles Waster. The defendant was indicted for stealing out in the straw, the property of the prosecutor. The oath alleged to have been a mere trifle, only five or six cents, the evidence was very weak and unsatisfactory. The jury acquitted the defendant. Metzger for Commonwealth; Bowden for Defendant.

A RARE CHANCE.—Messrs. LeMaistre & Ross, No. 212 N. 8th Street, Philadelphia, advertise great bargains. Their fair dealing has won for them an enviable reputation and their store is always crowded. They make it their leading policy that no one can afford to get elsewhere.

TWO ELAPSES.—Two more papers of the sun will take place this year, as follows: Partial eclipse of the sun, June 23, at 8:20 in the morning. Total eclipse of the sun, August 5th, at 4:06 in the evening. This will be the greatest eclipse of the sun that will happen in this century until the last of the century.

THE TRAIN.—The train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad due at Easton at 8:45 a. m., was thrown off the track near Chula Dam last Wednesday, caused by a rock falling on the rails. One passenger car containing about thirty persons was upset and one of the lady passengers was slightly injured.

APPOINTMENT.—Capt. Luckenbach, of Bethlehem has been appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue for the 12th Congressional District, composed of the counties of Northampton, Carbon, Monroe, Pike and Wayne. Capt. Luckenbach is a brave soldier, long a leg of the war, and will make an efficient officer.

ANDROUSY TRAVEL.—The Lehigh & Susquehanna Railroad, has put on two more passenger trains on their road, one leaving Mauch Chunk at 7 o'clock a. m. and passing Allentown at 8:38, the other leaving Easton at 7 o'clock a. m. and passing Allentown at 7:42. The need of an arrangement has now felt for some time, and the great accommodation to the traveling public.

LEFT FOR THE WEST.—The following named persons left Reading this week to make their homes in the West—George Hoffman and family, of Bern township, and Benjamin Spang, of Lehigh township, to Missouri; Cyrus Kniff and two brothers, of Centre, go to Ohio; and Daniel Zacharias, of Mulhensberg, and Dr. Yardley Brown's family, go to West Virginia.—Reading Journal.

Beckel; Bath—Samuel Staub; Nazareth—Daniel Reigel; Freeburg—Henry Bloss; South Bethlehem—E. P. Wilbur; Glendon—Joseph Morrison; South Easton—Aaron Palmer. Others are: Hillsden, Staub and Bloss are Republicans and the remainder Democrats.

HOKENDANQUA.—A locomotive passing Hokendank last Thursday afternoon, threw sparks of fire into a haystack, setting it on fire, which connected with a house and barn, both of which were saved from complete destruction by the timely arrival of the firemen.

The gas apparatus in the cellar of Mr. Thomas' house exploded on Saturday evening, badly burning a man from Philadelphia, and also injuring a little boy.—Catawunga Journal.

L. V. R. R.—Work is progressing on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and the road will be built to Waverly, the connecting point with the Erie, and to Elmira, and eventually to Buffalo which will make a coal route to the lakes further west than the D. & W. route. In this connection we understand that the Lehigh Valley road will come into direct competition with the D. L. & W. road, and there seems to be good cause for congratulation on this project, as while it is a narrow gauge route to the west from this immediate vicinity, it will also make a route not controlled entirely by one corporation, and will therefore give our individual citizens a chance to throw their coal into the Western market, and by making a lively competition in that section increase the demand here. And a demand being made, there would be good prices, and certainly no occasion for these rumors in regard to strikes.—Scranton Republican.

THE COMMON SCHOOL.

E. J. Young, Esq., County Superintendent, announces in our advertising columns that a convention of the School Directors of Lehigh county will be held in the Allentown Court House, on Tuesday, May 13th, next, at 10 o'clock a. m., to receive the report of the next succeeding year and to determine the annual salary he shall receive during that time.

APPOINTMENTS FOR THE SIXTH DISTRICT.—On Monday President Grant introduced into the Senate the following nomination for this District: Collector of Internal Revenue, Colonel John R. Breidenbach, Narrisstown; Assessor, Edward Rube, Allentown; Postmaster at Allentown, David H. Defendorf; at Narrisstown, Robert Irwin; at Poststown, Wm. M. Mintz.

Out of these five appointments there are soldiers of the late war. Col. Breidenbach is a lawyer and went out as captain in Col. Morchord's 100th Regiment, and a heavy officer in the army. He is next in numbers, and Col. Breidenbach rose to the position of Major and for long time commanded the Regiment and frequently the Brigade to which he had been attached. No man sacrificed more than he did financially in going into the army. If he had stayed at home he would not be a rich man and would not have been appointed for the position. The appointment is just reward for the services of a brave and sacrificing patriot, and gives general satisfaction.

Edward Rube, Esq., is of our most prominent and active Republics, and has labored hard in the cause. His excellent business qualifications and high standing in the community will make him an efficient officer and his labors will always be prosecuted in the interests of the Government.

The only other appointment which affects the people of this section is that of Postmaster at Allentown. Mr. Defendorf served in a subordinate position in the army, and at an election for Postmaster at Allentown he was elected by the voters of the Republics of Allentown. Our opponents have laid at his door the charge of incompetency, but he has shown sufficient ability to manage his own affairs successfully, and the same ability will characterize him in the management of the office which he will be required to discharge. He is efficient and will be re-elected the duties of the office will be performed with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public.

THE COMMON SCHOOL.—The act authorizing the County Commissioners to use the new prison has been signed by Gov. Geary.

The second term of Muhlenberg College closed last Thursday.

The bill authorizing the Quaker town and Sellersville Turnpike Road Company to take possession of the road between the North Penn and Sellersville and the Perkiomen Branch, in the village of Sellersville, has passed both Houses of the Legislature.

Henry B. Evans, Esq., editor of the West Chester Herald, contemplates going to Europe in the fall.

Trouth blinding is the great sport of the season. The locomotive "E. A. Packer," which has been entirely rebuilt at the Lehigh Valley Shops at Easton, made a "trial trip" recently and worked admirably. The engine is the handsomest and most complete ever constructed in this country, and the attention it has passed over the road with a heavy train attached. Persons who knew the "E. A. Packer" some years ago would not now think it the same engine, so greatly has it been improved in both appearance and power under the supervision and hands of J. J. C. Egan, Esq., the Master Mechanic of the road. It is intended to put the engine on a through passenger train, and hereafter run between Easton and Wilkes-Barre, it having the heavy grade of the mountain between the two places.
