Honor to an Allentown Lady .- Among the graduates of the Pennsylvania Female College, at Collegeville, Montgomery county, on July 1st, was Miss Ida V. Moser. In reporting the Comencement, a correspondent of the Norristown arald and Free Press speaks as follows, paying Miss Moser a well merited and flattering compl

The commencement exercises on Thursday morning were opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Tolan, of N. J., followed with some beautiful music by the Trappe choir, after which the literary exercises were opened by Miss Ida V. Moser in the "Orationes Salutatorire," in Latin. This sounded very musical, and was doubtless very good, but not being versed in the "mystical lore" we are not competent to judge of its merits. "Life is Real? was the subject of an excellent essay, mildly delivered by Miss Eila C. Tolan, of N. J. Miss Lane followed with an interesting historic essay, in which she portrayed in a touching manner the life and suffering of that beautiful but unfortunate Mary Queen of Scots. "Education is to the human soul what sculpture is to a block of marble" was the subject of a flowery, beautiful essay, by Miss Madge P. Walker, of Trenton, N. J. This production was full of exalted ideas and beautiful similies, and every word was uttered in a clear silvery tone, that was distinctly audible to all parts of the house. Woman—her influence, education and rights, by Miss Ida V. Mosser, of Alientown Lehigh county, Pa. This was, without exception, the fluest production of this much hackneyed subject that it was ever our good fortune to hear. Miss Mosser's appearance, personally, was so entirely in keeping with her sentiments that all hearts were irresistably drawn towards her and enlisted in her cause. ed in her cause.

"Her look, her smile, her motions told Of womanly completeness. While a music as of household songs Was in her voice of sweetness."

Bhe is cloquent, brilliant, yet withal possessed of a pure womanly modesty, and a dignified demeanor, that our revered Lucretia Mott could not fail't admire. The degrees being conferred on the graduating class—Miss Mosser having received the jewel awarded for superior scholarship—the valedletory addresses were delivered by Miss Tolan, followed by the "Parting Ode," sung by the class, when the audience dispersed, highly delighted with the literary feast that had been awarded thom.

Monroe Herbster, a carpenter, who was engaged in repairing the hoisting machine at the Roberts Iron Works, fell from the trestle work to the ground, a distance of fifty-six feet, and was so severely injured that his recovery is doubtful.

A Rare Treat.—Few cities can boast of such a luxury as is served in immense quantities by our enterprising townsmen, Dr. W. E. Barnes & Son, at their Artic Soda Fountain. The beverage is of two rooms on the first floor of the Academy truly delicious, healthful and cooling, and is just during vacation, for the purpose of opening and what is required these hot days. No pains are conducting German Schools. It was resolved that spared to have all the syrups genuine and free a tax for school purposes be levied on all those from all injurious agencies, and the appreciation bject to tax for such purposes of eight mills on of our citizens is attested by the immense numbers of both sexes and of every age who flock to this fountain of health.

Our New Band .- If the visit of the Ringgold Band, a short time since, had anything to do with the re-organization of the old Allentown Band, we thank them for it-they have done ou citizens a favor. The City Cornet, the new band, under the leadership of Peter Hankee, is unde going a severe course of instruction and already excels in its performances the majority of the bras bands in the State. It will, in the course of a few weeks, be enabled to sustain the reputation of the and-the best band in this section. Success be with them.

National Institution. MANY FARMERS are sadly puzzled to know what methods to adopt to keep the bugs from melon and cucumber vines. The following preventive was recently communicated to the New York Farmers' Club by a gentleman of Forest Grove, New Jersey: "The safest and surest remedy is fresh charcoal, pulverized. Dust it on the hill when the seed is put in, and again when the plants come up. If washed off by rain repeat the opera tion. Plants thus treated are perfectly safe, and even when covered with bugs they will often disappear on the first application." Another remedy is to saturate corn-cobs with coal-tar, and place them in the hill, near the vine, but not touching it and it is said the bugs will soon disappear. FINE HARVEST WEATHER.-Last week, rith the exception of a few gloomy hours on Fri-INPANTICIDE.—Amanda C. STATE CONVENTION OF SCHOOL SUPERIN rendents .- A circular has been issued by J. P. Wie ersham, Superintendent of Common Scho of Pennsylvania, from which we learn that a State Convention of School Superintendents will be held York and is the largest passenger engine on the of the Superintendency. A new educational campaign is about to be commenced in this State, and success can only come upon the projection of good plan and its vigorous execution. The folowing questions will come before the Convention for consideration : 1. Examinations .- Should there be any change in the character of examinations, or in the modes of conducting them? Can we improve our mode of certificating teachers? Can our standard of stimating the qualifications of teachers be made more uniform ? 2. Visitations. - Can Superintendents employ their time better than in visiting schools? How can the most good, be done on the occasion of a visit to a school ? 3. Institutes .- When should our County Institutes be held, and how should they be conducted? Can anything be substituted in cities and large owns for the County Institutes, as now conducted, which will be more to the professional advantage 4. Reports .- What facts is it most essential for Superintendents to report? Are the forms for reports now in use the best that we can adopt? Have we any forms that are unneccessary, or are others needed? 5. General Interest in Education .- What can Superintendents do to induce the people to elect better school directors, or to induce them to take In addition to these inquiries, which embrace the special work of the Superintendency, the opinions of the Convention will be solicited in reference to the following topics:

1. Superintendents in relation to County Normal Institutes. 2. Superintendents in relation to State Normal

—The Methodist churches hereabouts have been easting a beggarity number of votes on Lay Representation: South Easton 17 for and 4 against; Phillipsburgh 36 for and 8 against. There must be very little interest in the matter, as in the Phillipsburgh church they cast but 44 votes out of a membership of over 300. We have not seen the membership of versos. We have not seen membership of versos.

—While on church matters, I will mention an evil that is very common in Easton. We sometimes read of deceased persons styled the late Mr. Jones, or the late Mr. Smith, but we know many persons who are living to whom this word should be applied, as they are always late to church services. We can excuse a lady for being late to church because they wish to show their new shawls or the perfect ent of their new basques about the waist; but a man has no excuse for this sin except laziness. However, let us give every one their due. We must confess that nobody in Easton is ever late at a circus or theatre.

ROYER'S FORD, PA., July 8, 1869. Editor Register:—It was my good fortune to attend the Seventeenth Annual Commencement of Pennsylvania Female College, now under the able management of Prof. J. P. Bherman, A. M. The excrelses were held in Trinity Christian Church at Freeland, Montgomery county, Pa. It was a rare intellectual treat, and was very creditable to both teachers and pupils. oth teachers and pupils.
After a voluntary on the organ, the Rev. Mr. olan offered an appropriate prayer.
Then followed the essays of the young ladies, the property of the young ladies, the followed the essays of the young ladies, the followed the essays of the young ladies, the followed with excellent music by the Trappe theore.

The "Orationes Salutatoriee," by Miss Moser, The "Orationes Salutatoric," by Miss Moser, was delivered with grace and dignity.

"Life is Real," by Miss Tolan, was an essay of real merit, and the delivery was easy and natural.

"Mary, Queen of Scots," by Miss Lanc, was listened to with attention, showing that the writer had enlisted the sympathics of the audience.

"Education is to the Human Soul what Sculpture is to a Block of Marble," by Madge P. Walker, was a well written essay abounding in sound practical thought. It was spoken in clear, distinct tones.

tient mought. It was spoken in clearly distinctiones.

"Woman, her Influence, Education and Rights," deserves more than a passing notice. It was a splendid composition, logical, argumentative and clear, and delivered in a style suitable to the sentiments of the essay, with an earnestness which showed that the writer deeply felt the sentiments she expressed.

The degree of A. B. was then conferred upon the graduating class, and the degree of A. M. was conferred upon several graduates of standing, among whom the writer noticed the name of Miss E. S. Price, one of the teachers of the College, who conterred upon several gratuates of stainings, among whom the writer noticed the name of Miss E. S. Price, one of the teachers of the College, who delivered the annual address to the Alumna the evening previous to the Commencement, and which the writer heard very highly commended.

"The Valedictory Address" by Miss Tolan, was also a fine production, and delivered in gentle and feeling tone suitable to the occasion. She paid a well merited tribute of respect to Prof. Sherman and his efficient corps of teachers.

Altogether the exercises were highly interesting and reflect credit upon the Institution.

After the close of the exercises the Alumna, corporation, clergy and other invited guests partook of a bountiful repast at the College refectory.

The jowel of the Phi Theta Delta Society was conferred upon Miss Ida V. Moser for superior schölarship. A gold medal was presented to Miss M. P. Walker by a friend as a mark of appreciation of her musical abilities. n of her musical abilities.

CITY NOTICES.

Eminent New York and Philadelphia Physicians claim that Dubois' Missisquoi Powder actually cures Cancer. It is advertised in this issue.

No one thing has so cursed the dry goods busiess in Allentown and has contributed so much to prolong the reign of high prices among usp as the mixing together in one store of butter and black silks, lard and linen, molasses and muslins, sugar and shirts, pepper and plas, soap and shawls, eggs and edgings, flour and flannels, tea and tickings, candles and cassimeres, beeswax and buttons, alspice and Alpacas, &c., &c. It is a fact that cannot be successfully contradicted, that wherever you find the dry goods business in the hands of grocery stores, you always flud that dry goods are sold at outrageously high prices, being generally exchanged for butter and eggs and made to bear the losses these grocery stores are con stantly sustaining from paying as they do here, the ame price for mere grease that they do for butter and for bad eggs as they do for good ones Foster's New York Store has nothing to do with this rulnous mixing of dry goods and groceries. His customers are not made to pay the losses or poor butter and bad eggs. Even farmers having eggs and butter to sell can make a great saving by disposing of them at the stores in town at a little below the regular price for cash and then buying their goods at Fosters. " So accurate is this science (Life Insurance), -Fires are becoming a matter of disagreeno class of becuriary institutions that are more certainly destined to become universal."-Albert Barnes' " Life at Three-score and Ten."
