At a meeting of the Penn Land. Loan. Saving and Building Association held in Reimer's Hall on Monday evening, nine loans were sold at the $68 t three at $63 and two at $50 per loan.

Re-Arrest and Commitment .- On Tuesday of last week, George Burkhardt, formerly a police officer of this city, was arrested in Philadelphia by Officer Cortright, and brought to this city, where after a hearing he was committed to jail to await his trial at the next Court. Burkhardt was arrested last January, charged with encouraging lawlessness on the part of a bolsterous crowd of cannoniers, at the American Hotel, on New Year's eve. He was released upon some friends going his security for his appearance at Court, and he fled il. His re-arrest was made at the instance of his securities.

The Temperance Convention and Excursion. -Every arrangement is being perfected by Jordan Division, Sons of Temperance, of this city, for the Wednesday. The influx of strangers on that occasion is expected to be very large, and to afford them a pleasant trip to one of the most favored spots in the Lehigh Valley, as well as to provide a treat for themselves and the friends of the order. this enterprising division has planned an excur slon to Walnutport, on Thursday, the 29th; and tickets will be issued for the round trip from Allentown, Bethlehem and Catasaugua at reduced rates, and an extra train of comfortable cars will be provided to carry the excursionists. No pains will be spared to make the occasion "a feast of of reason and a flow of soul," and everybody who wishes a day of real pleasure should go along The committee has engaged the Slatington Brass Band to fill the musical part of the programme, and this excellent organization will be on the grounds all day. Addresses will be delivered by inent speakers in both the German and English languages. The Main City agents are now engaged in canvassing the city ob- He has a widowed mother living at Kintnersville, taining the information necessary for this important work. The fact that these gentlemen are well known to our citizens will be an assurance that the work will be done in every way satisfactory to the people.

A Frightful Storm .- On Friday afternoon at half past four o'clock, one of the severest gales that has visited us for a long time commenced blowing from the West and lasted for unwards of half an hour. Immense damage was done to buildings, trees, awnings, signs, etc. Trap-doors were hurled from their fastenings, branches and bs of trees were broken off and slate roofs suffered terribly. The havor was frightful and fears were English Lutheran Church and the Methodist Church, but they returned in safety in the evening. At Bethlehem the storm raged as violently as here, damaging trees and houses to a fearful ex

The storm seems to have been still more severe in the Northern part of the county. Slegfried's bridge, on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was blown away, and a man who was crossing at the time made a narrow escape. Further particulars we have not received. Nearly all the bridges in that vicinity were more or less damaged. At the new school in the Fifth Ward two door were blown from their fastenings and broken up, and one of the chimneys was blown down. The gable end of a house in the course of erce tion by Mr. John Mohr, corner of Eighth and

Gordon streets, was blown down. In the Sixth Ward the storm raged with con erable fury. A new brick ho being built by the Hon. Samuel Bridges, and just ready to be put under roof, was completely blown to the ground. The workmen had just left it a ntes before

One of Ex-Sheriff Holben's new houses had the gable end blown down. A woman who was in bed in the house at the time narrowly escaped with her life, the bricks falling on the bed, although not

At the Robert's Iron Co's furnace, fears wer cutertained that the new stack which is being built would meet with destruction. The slate were blown off the roof and scattered in every direction It however stood the test. A man named John Burger, who was at work during the time, was hit on the head by a plank which was blown from the top of the stack, and received a painful gash in

On Wm. Blumer's farm a corn crib was blown into an adjoining field, striking a wagon in its course, and breaking it into fragments. At the same ace John Hilliard was blown off a load of grain but escaped uninjured.

In the country grain sheaves and recently cu timothy were scattered broadcast over the fields and outhouses suffered severely. The loss which in few cases falls heavily upon one individual must in the aggregate be very great. The rain, which here was merely enough to lay the dust, to the North of us poured down in corrents.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. -- On Sunday afternoon the buildings connected with the iron ore mines belonging to the Estate of Major Fry, on the Lehigh Mountain, in Sallabury township, were de-stroyed by fire. They were worked by the Allentown Iron Company. The large engine which cost over $7,000 will be a complete loss.

CONDUCTORS' EXCURSIONS .- Messrs. Fa gen, Rohn and Cumnings, conductors on the Le-high Valley Railroad, are getting up an excursion to Bethlehem, to start from Wilkesbarre, Pittston and other places in the Susquehanna region. The nductors of the North Pennsylvania Railroad intend running an excursion from Philadelphia to Sethlehem, we believe on Thursday of next week.

A BIG SALE.—It is said that the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company has purchased the coal property of the Lehigh and Luzerne Coal Company, at Nanticoke, Luzerne county. . Prom inent among the members of the Lehigh and Luzerne Company were Messrs. John Leisenring, of Mauch Chunk, and Charles Parrish, of Wilkes-Barre. The latter company is reported to have cleared about $250,000.

SLATE ITEMS.-One day last week David Williams got out of his quarry in Slatington a piece of slate of the following dimensions: thirty feet long, fifteen feet wide, and twenty inches thick; estimated to make twenty-two thousan school slates, worth at the quarry $400.

, THE NEW FURNACE OF THE NORTH PENN non Company. - The excavating for the new furnace of the North Penn Iron Company at Yeager's, two miles below Hellertown, is about completed. At a meeting of the board it was de ided to build an iron cased stack. Their stock is selling very rapidly and they have decided to com lding of the furnace at once. The contract for building it has been given to Matchett k Haintz, of Catasauqua, who also did the exca rating, &c.

Runaway .- Dr. Lesher Trexler and A Steinberger, proprietor of the Keystone House on Tnesday of last week, while driving Kutztown down bill about a mile from Kutztown met with serious accident. The tire of one of the wheels broke, hit the horse and caused him to run, and Dr. Trexler, in jumping out, caught his foot in one of the wheels and was dragged some distance before Mr. Steinberger was able to stop the horse. The Doctor fortunately sustained no dangerous injuries. GALLERY OF FINE ARTS. - Among the principal attractions in Bethlehem is the Excelsio Gallery of Fine Arts of Osborne & Malthaner Their stock of mirror and picture frames, pain ings, chromos, engravings, stereoscopic yiews, and statuettes are well worth a visit. Among the latter are handsome selections from the celebrated Rogers' groups, including the "Council of War," 'Taking the Oath," "The Picket Guard," etc. They also execute photography in all its branches

n the choicest styles of the art. TRIAL OF PLOWS .- Arrangements have een made for a thorough and general trial of plows at the Experimental Farm at West Grove, in Chester county, on Thursday, the 19th of August The committee appointed to arrange and conduct the trial consists of Adrian Cornell of Bucks county; Everard Conrad, of West Grove; Thomas Baker, of Lancaster county ; W. Torbert Ingram, of West Chester; Dr. Hillborn Darlington, of Delaware county; Dr. Hiram Corson, of Montgomery county. This is a very efficient and capable committee. The trial will probably be more complete and particular than any that has taken place in this State for many years. There are now about fifteen different kinds of plows at the farm, ready for trial, and to these there will be added

MAN KILLED ON THE NORTH PENN. RAILnoan.—A brakeman named A. Patterson, living in South Bethichem, was killed on the North Penn. Railroad, a short distance this side of Quakertown were brought here early this morning, and Coroner Brunner held an inquest. Deceased was Bucks county. The cause of the fatal accident is stated to be that deceased had heavy nails in his shoes, and as he was in the act of jumping from one car to another, the tops of the same being wei eight or nine cars passed over him, entirely severing his body. A NOVEL RACE .- There were but few per Saturday afternoon last, between A. Gamble of New York, and the trotting horse "Sasarae" of Harrisburg, the former having undertaken to walk one mile while the horse trotted two and a half. It mas agreed beforehund that the test should b made by traversing half the distance. The horse trotted his mile and a quarter in 3.48 and the man walked half a mile in 3.20, the latter thus being the winner. The race was to have been for $400 a side, but we understand that there was no mon ey staked on either side. - Reading Times.

THE FREEMANSBURG FURNACE. -The Free nansburg Iron Company, incorporated at the late session of the Legislature, have not yet commen ed the erection of their furnaces, owing to the doubt entertained by members of the Company of the existence of iron ore in the vicinity of the proosed works. If ore should not be found within asy reach of the proposed site of the furnace, it is probable that the company will not proceed with he works at the place named, inasmuch as they would be compelled to ship their ore from a disance, and thus be placed at a disadvantage in comparison with the other furnaces, almost all o which have Iron ore beds in their immediate neighborhood. REMINISCENCES OF POTTSVILLE. - The Philadelphia Ledger condenses an article from the Miners' Journal giving interesting reminiscences of the Schuylkill Region forty years ago with what last Tuesday night about 13 o'clock. The remains it is now. It says :- In 1820, when Pottsville had a population of 1800 souls, the conl trade received an additional impetus, and increased from 47,284 crease in a single year, very much less than a weekly shipment now from Schuylkill county, it is asserted, so completely overstocked the market that every operator failed the next two years. The Schuylkill Canal, then the only outlet, carried 1500 tons a week, in boats of a capacity of from 25 to 30 tons. Now, the quantity of coal sent from Schuylkill county to market averages 120,000 tons every week, and amounted to 4.414.356 tons in the year 1868. The boats on the canal now have capacity of 160 to 200 tons. Before 1829, there just mentioned, the track was laid on the Schuylkill Valley Railroad, the second in the United sued the Standard Life Insurance Company, in States, the first railroad being that at Mauch the Supreme Court, before Judge Fithian, for a Chunk, in the Lehigh region. In 1828, however, the Mill Creek, Mount Carbon and Mine Hill Railroads were incorporated. Forty years ago the principal streets of Pottsville were filled with stumps, and the upper road to Port Carbon, now a continuous row of dwelling houses, was an in-distinct path through dense forests. The population of Pottsville has increased from 2464 in 1830 to 14,000 now, and that of Schuylkill county has

During the storm on Friday last, at Springfield ownship, Bucks County, the roof of a barn, which and been lifted by the wind, came down on a funeral procession, instantly killing a man named Sides, a resident of Berks County, and injuring several other persons. The storm was the mossevere for many years, and the damage to crops is immense.

James Cressman, Henry Troxel, Tunt Apple bach, R. J. Linderman, Joseph Thomas, G. H. Goundle and A. H. Moyer, give notice through the Quakertown paper, that application will be made at the coming session of the State Legislature, for a charter to incorporate a savings' bank in that brough. The capital is to be $50,000, with anthority to increase it to $200,000. The object of the bank is to receive money on deposit, discount notes, and the transaction of general banking business.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS .- The plan of not were no railways, and the coal was hauled in deducting the premium from the borrower is being wagons to the landings on the canal. In the year adopted by many of the building and loan associations now starting. This system is working very successfully with the "William Penn," at Norristown. 'We observe that the "Reliance," just commencing at Germantown, has also adopted this idea. The Chronicle thus compares the old and the new plans:

and the new plans:

To illustrate—in an old society, if a member holding ten shares bids out ten loans at twenty per cent., he receives but $800, and the keeping back of the other $200 may be almost rainous to him. Now, if we suppose the age of a saciety to be ten years, it is evident, that if this $200 could be distributed through that time, if would call for a payment of $20 per year, or about $1.60 per month, which is sixteen cents per month on each of his ten shares.

increased from 11,829 to 80,000 in 1800, and about 100,000 at the present time.

The Druids Pic-Nic.—To give some idea of the monster pic-nic to be held at Bethlehem, on the 5th of August next, we publish the following circular which has been sent to all the Groves in this locality by the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements:

The General Committee of the Grand Grove,

The General Committee of the Grand Grove,

The money loaned.

ments, while the society holds ample security for the money loaned.

The question then arises, how many cents per month per share will be equal to the bonus of an old society? In an old society, with a twenty per cent. bonus, the man receiving $800 pays $10 per month dues and interest on the $800 received. In other words he pays, one-fourth more dollars than he receives hundreds of dollars. At the same rate, if he is allowed to receive the whole of one thousand dollars, one-fourth more dollars than he has received hundreds, would amount to $12.50, or 25 cents per share, monthly payment, in addition to his $5 monthly dues and $5 monthly interest. It is clear that twenty-five cents per month per share s clear that twenty-five cents per month per share s the same payment as tweaty per cent. premiun is the same payment as twenty per cent, premain in an old society.

We are glad to see a society organized which, while equally profitable to its members, it is truly the poor man's friend; which gives him the privilege of paying his whole debt monthly, instead of compolling him to pay interest on a large sum which is withheld at a time when he most needs his whole loan.

throughout the country. Only for sale at C. F. ferrman's Music store, 7th and Walnut. Lindseman & Sons' Gold Medal Cycloyd and Square Planes are considered by the most promient musicions in the country a first-class instrument in regard to durability, fullness and brillancy of tone. They sell One Hundred Dollars ower than either Chickering's or Stelnway's ; are in every respect as good, if not superior to those, ences in affirmation of the above can be given Countles. Come and examine them at C. F. Herrmann's Music store, 7th and Walnut. Mr. James Wise, the popular brewer of this city, manufactures better ale, porter, sarsaparilla and mineral water than any other in the State. To be had at almost every bar in the county.

Secretary Routrell is not outflanking the New York stock gamblers any more successfully than Foster's New York store in Allentown is outflanks ing high priced merchants. Foster's success is quite unparalelled in the history of the Dry Goods business here, and can only be accounted for or the ground of his making good his promises to sell many goods at about half the prices charged by other Allentown Merchants.

Tith—Bethiehem Grove, No. 45, under sub-committee Josiah Transue, will have charge of the necessary arrangements at Bethiehem.

Myers' Pennsylvania Brass and String Band of Philadelphia has been engaged to accompany the excursion.

The committee who have the matter in charge have engaged Calypso Island, opposite Bethiehem.

A large dancing platform, 50 by 60 feet, will be erected, and they have engaged the Southwark Hose Company's tent which will be pitched on the Island as a dining and refreshment saloon. Excursion itekets will be issued by the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and the fare at excursion rates will entitle the holder to admission on the Island. It will certainly be a big thing.
