THE POOR MAN'S PARTY.

The Labor Congress which met in Philadelphia, adjourned without achieving any thing practical except to attract the attention public to the demand of the laboring man. To attempt to form a political party to remedy the evils which were there made known, is in our opinion a mistaken idea, just the shrill scream of the iron horse" and a as it would be to start a political temperance party. Neither of them could command enough votes to do any good and the attempt would only end in disgrace and mortification. That labor needs protection is not denied, but how is it to be protected? The Congress denounced Chinese immigration and the Coolie system, as calculated to lower wages, &c.; but services to his country in her hour of need, as is there any difference between that and manufacturing goods in foreign countries, by cheap labor, to compete with our manufactures at home? That is just what Free Trade means and what it will produce if Democratic doctrines are to prevail. That the Chinese can control the market is absurd, but that American labor can be reduced by the abolition of the tariff is most true. No new party is required to remedy the evils complained of. assed the eight hour law, and in Pennsylvaown and who were willing to ruin the country that they might live in power. With them wealth is the one thing needful and to that weith is the one thing needful and to that god they howed down in abject submission for years. But, thank fortune, the lordly butlies no longer reign in Congress nor does the Southern demand meet with the prompt answer as in the days of Democratic triumph. All men are now free and Republicanism means Freedom in its full senses. But the means Freedom in its full senses. But the Democratic idea of wealth and aristocracy still families behind them. oppressions, but every Democratle platform should tend to raise higher the public credit, and to satisfy the people of Europe that the Democratic is the last party in the United States that proposes to whitee or act reductantly about paying the public debt, even though present holders should have bought it below its par value.

What say the Packer organs to that

What say the Packer organs to that. Will they stand by "Old Rosey" now or is he again a "hireling?" No wonder he refused to be their candidate, knowing as he did that their great aim is repudiation. They now have Pendleton at the head if their ticket whose greenback theory is to be the Presidential issue in 1872. Packer is a millionaire but he takes good care not to invest in government securities, because he believes that his party will yet cause the holders of such securities to lose their money. Gen. WANTED ... A MOME.

When Asa Packer was nominated by the Democratic party as its candidate for Governor, he was announced as from Carbon county. Some of the Democratic papers still nnounce him thus. Some time ago, indeed, we saw him announced as from Lehigh, but this we are sure is a mistake, because upon reference to our tax list, we found he was not on and we all pay tax in Lehigh County.

Chunk, Carbon County. Either he or his family owns an elegant residence there. His family certainly resides there if he does not. He was always believed to be a resident there until a few years ago when the tax collector of the borough of Mauch Chunk, in the performance of his duties called upon him, when, lo! his residence was changed, it now being Philadelphia! True to his word of honor, Mr. Packer seized the carpet bag and leaving his house and family behind him went to his his house and family behind him went to his house and family behind him went to his home in Philadelphia. But what a treacherous memory! arrived in Philadelphia, he registers at the hotel 'Asa Packer, Mauch Chunk!' the conching commence, spend the money, at the cheerless aspect of the suite of rooms at the hotel and the sight of the carpet bag in the corner, that sent his thoughts back to his the Corner, that sent his thoughts back to his the Corner, that sent his thoughts back to his the Corner, that sent his thoughts back to his the Corner, the Parish and the Parish and the Parish are sent his thoughts back to his the Corner, that sent his thoughts back to his the Corner, the Parish are soon commence, the people of the sum George, the people of the sum George of the sum Georg of the sum George of the sum George of the sum George of the su the corner, that sent his thoughts back to his mountain retreat among his family and kin? Or was it the fear of the tax gatherer in Philadelphia that inspired the name 'Mauch Chunk" and placed in such bold relief the carpet bag of the wanderer? The "carpet baggers," you know, don't pay any tax. Be that as it may the family and the mansion still are at Mauch Chunk and the carpet bag is still in Philadelphia. Mr. Packer's home is still with the carpet bag, (wonder whether his greenbacks are in it?) but the treacherous memory still records on the regiser "Asa Packer, Mauch Chunk."

A recent authority, indeed, none less than an organ at Packer's late residence, says his nome is in "the shrill scream of the iron horse!" What a beautiful idea. What a poetic home the old gentleman has! Almost Santa Claus? Stripped of its poetry, however, it is eminently practical, for what tax collector would be audacious enough to penctrate "the shrill whistle of a locomotive" or attempt to stop "the iron horse in his mad career?" How joyous it must be in that iome, rushing along to the soothing refrain Bless me, this is pleasant, riding on a rail and paying "nary" tax ! Yet in spite of the assistance of Packer's friends, the "shrill scream of the iron horse" and the tax collectors, the question comes, where is Packer's home? He has a family and a mansion in Mauch Chunk, a home "in carpet bag in Philadelphia. His friends say his home is in Carbon County and "the shrill scream," &c., 'mt he himself says in Philadelphia. What an emulous "pride of our Val-

To settle the vexed question will not some body present him with a house, for his eminent the poor man can not afford one.

Oh! for a home in some enchanted spot, Some lone but beauteous isle,
Where weary mortals freed from toil
May count their great, their horded spoil, And tax collectors reach them not.

What are his claims for public confidence? Where was he during the rebellion? Did he stand by his State when she was threatened by rebel hordes? Was he with the party who tried to save the Union or with the vandals who tried to destroy it? Were his sympathies for or against us? His riches are his merits. To make him the Crossus that he is, thousands of honest men have toiled day after day. Monopolies have tilled his coffers. Is he then a candidate of the party that respects labor and encotrages honest industry? We invite close attention to his career. If a Labor Congress is a necessity and if any rights are to be protected by elegislation, let the laboring man look to it that he votes only for that man and that party that represents his interests. Be not deceived by false names or delusive cries, but judge by the record, which will soonest bring the desired reformation.
