Change of Landlords.

Robert D. Kramer assumed the proprietorship of the Allen House, on Saturday afternoon. He is now the proprietor of the whole of the American. Since his entering into possession of the latter hotel, last spring, the American has undergone a variety of changes and the old hotel looks fresh and young again.

That Visiting Fire Company.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says that the Laurel Fire Company, No. 1, of York, Pa., intend starting on a visit to Harrisburg, Reading and Allentown, on the 30th of October next.

The Home Department.

The Home Department was not fully arranged, but promises to be well worth a visit in itself. Newhart & Stee were arranging a fine display of stockings and Malburg & Wells' extensive assortment of furniture would do credit to a Broadway firm. The sewing machines exhibit prominent positions. Wm. H. Deisher exhibits the Howe, Wm. F. Wilson the Florence, A. Zwanzig the Wheeler & Fiske, Dr. C. H. Wagner the Deering and W. B. Johnson the Singer. Snow Bros exhibited the Huxley Knitting Machine. Schurman, Newhart & Co. made an especially fine display of clothing. A beautiful display of ladies' shoes was arranged by J. Farr. J. Alfred Shaver exhibited Indian relics; H. W. Cole, wood and willow ware; Henry Bitz, hats, caps and furs. There were numerous other exhibits.

The Fruit and Floral Department.

The fruit and floral department presented an especially busy scene. Preparations were going forward rapidly and loads of choicest fruits and flowers were continually arriving. When the arrangements in this department are completed it will form a scene fascinating to the eye.

The Display of Live Stock.

The display of live stock rivals in extent and the quality and number of the breeds of all the other fairs in the country. The exhibition of carriages shows that the farmers have their heart in improvement of farm stock.

Agricultural Implements.

Agricultural implements are shown in profusion. Every article ever invented to lessen farm labor and increase farm production is exhibited there.

The Exhibition Promises to be a Success in Every Sense.

Every article ever invented to lessen farm labor and increase farm production is exhibited there. The exhibition promises to be a success in every sense. The display in every department, perhaps, has never been so complete as now. We hope this paragraph will meet his eyes, and that, in the future, he may exercise a little sympathy for those of us who are working hard.

Our Opinion is, though, that the size of the works are totally inadequate to the wants of the city.

Our lamp posts are in sympathy with the gas.

A little more elbow grease applied to the gas would help the matter, and a few coats of paint would be an improvement over the paint of rust which disfigure so many of the posts. While we are on the subject of lamp-posts, we cannot refrain from again asking, is the city too poor to have placed over the streets the present style of lamps? Philadelphia, New York, Reading and other cities have adopted them, why can't Allentown do the same thing?

The Fire Department.

The American House Company has resolved to purchase a steam fire engine if the necessary funds can be raised. The late fire department was so small that it was difficult to supply with apparatus, and as the American has always shown itself an efficient organization it is hoped this company will be the best steamer. A committee on subscription is now appointed. We will call upon our citizens shortly. Give them a welcome.

On Friday evening last a meeting was held at the Johnson House, for the purpose of re-organizing the Vigilant Fire Company.

The question of purchasing another steamer and outfitting it with the most modern appliances was discussed. It was decided to purchase a new steamer, and it was also decided to purchase a new outfit of apparatus. The meeting adjourned to Monday evening.
