THE CITY.

Removal.

The publication office of THE LEHIGH REGISTER has been removed to the Register Stationery Store, first floor, Hamilton street two doors above Sixth, in the building formerly occupied by Young & Lentz.

For Sale.

A pair of pet grey squirrels, male and female, with the cage, will be sold cheap, apply at the REGISTER OFFICE.—Adv.

Terpsichorean.

A ball will be given at the Fountain House, Tuesday evening, December 7th. Manager, Edwin Hoffert; Assistants, Josiah Trumbour, John Lentz.

Protracted Meetings.

The German Methodist Church is now holding protracted meetings at their church on Linden street between Ninth and Tenth. We understand they have made a large number of converts.

Change of Editors.

Rev. E. J. Koons has assumed the editorial management of the News. We welcome him to the editorial profession of this city and wish him success in his labors.

More Till Tapping.

The money drawer of Helfrich, corner of Sixth and Hamilton, was again robbed on Saturday night. This time the plunder amounted to two dollars in pennies.

Loans Sold.

At a meeting of the Farmers and Mechanics Loan and Building Association, held on Monday evening, 17 loans were sold at the following premiums: 9 at $47, 5 at $46, and 3 at $45.

Allentown has an extensive china and glassware establishment where as great a variety and as low prices can be found as in the larger cities. We refer to the new store of Richard Walker, No. 40 West Hamilton street.—Adv.

Outfits for Counting Houses, papers of every kind, drafting materials, stationery for ladies, penknives, scissors, razors and pocket books can be found in variety at Iredell's Stationery Store, in building formerly occupied by Young & Lentz.—Adv.

The Thieves on the War Path.

The pursuit of plunder has been followed very industriously of late in this city. On Saturday night the store of Wm. Kress, on Ninth above Hamilton, was entered by burglars and twelve hundred cigars and a lot of chewing tobacco were carried off. The entrance was effected by breaking open the rear door.

New Organ for Egypt Church.

Mr. Hanzleman, the organ builder of this city, is constructing a new organ for Egypt Church, in Whitehall township, which will cost $2400. The venerable organ which is now used by this congregation was built in Lancaster, and furnished the accompaniment for the choirs which have sung in that church during the past eighty-six years.

A New Sign.

Messrs. Balliet & Nagle the celebrated clothing men, have put up an immense sign, which for size and beauty has no equal in town. Besides the names of the firm and their occupation, it has painted on it an artistic design of our coat of arms. It is a sign of their untiring energy and ability to keep up with the times, which have brought them such unlimited prosperity.

Butter and Eggs Down.

Mr. Thos. Koch, of Upper Macungie, drove into the city, on Saturday, with a load of butter and eggs. When at the corner of Eighth and Linden, his horse mistook a buffalo robe for something else, ran away, upset the wagon, and scattered destruction among the eggs and butter. Mr. Koch was dragged some distance, but, fortunately, was not seriously hurt.

Excellent Beverages.

James Wise, the celebrated brewer of Allentown, manufactures malt liquors that are pronounced by judges pure, palatable and wholesome. Mr. Wise is one of those who believes people ought to patronize home manufactures, and in order to supply home consumers to their satisfaction he spares no efforts to brew the best ale, porter, etc., in the market.—Adv.

Wonderful Curiosities.

Among the events of rare importance to our citizens this week will be the advent of several living curiosities, who retired from Barnum's Museum when it was burned, instead of staying in and being consumed with the other curiosities, such as wax figures, whales, dogs, etc. They all, we believe, are members of the human family and can be seen for twenty-five cents.

Lecture.

Rev. J. W. Wood will deliver a lecture this (Wednesday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church of this city, upon the Suez canal, illustrated with maps, and its connection with divine prophecy as recorded in Isaiah. All who have been interested in the completion of the great work are cordially invited to be present. Admittance free.

A Splendid Piano.

Linderman & Son's Gold Medal Cycloid and Square Pianos rank among the finest instruments in the country. Their brilliancy and fulness of tone is not surpassed by a concert grand piano at double the price. More instruments of this celebrated make have been sold in Allentown, Lehigh and adjoining counties than of any other manufacture. They can be used many years and not become airy, as most other pianos do, in only a few years. Come and examine them at C. F. Herrmann's Store, Seventh and Walnut streets.—Adv.

The Lincoln Monument.

Four years ago subscriptions were taken for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of our martyred President, at Springfield, Illinois, and each subscriber was promised an engraving of the monument. The Monument Association has fulfilled its promise and on Monday afternoon, Mr. T. H. Moyer, Superintendent of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School, distributed the engravings to those entitled to them. The Association has not sufficient funds to finish the work, and solicits further contributions, and will present each person subscribing with an engraving.

Teachers' Institute.

The Lehigh County Teachers' Institute will assemble at the Court House, this city, on Monday next, December 6th, and continue its sessions until the close of the week. The exercises promise to be unusually interesting. Among the distinguished teachers and professors from different sections of the Union who will be present to deliver addresses upon educational subjects and engage in the discussions are Prof. J. P. Wickersham, of Lancaster, Prof. J. Allen, of Iowa, Rev. Dr. Alexander, of Princeton, New Jersey, Mrs. A. T. Randall, of the Training School, Oswego, New York, Prof. S. A. Potts, Prof. J. S. Ermentrout, of the Keystone Normal School, Prof. Cady, and others.

As the School Law now makes it the duty of the County Superintendent to issue a call for a County Institute once a year, and as the teachers are obliged to attend, the coming Institute, like the one of last year, will be of extraordinary interest, not only to the instructors, but to all concerned in the cause of education. Mr. Young is sparing no efforts to make this one what the law intended it should be, and under his able management, we might truly say, that more beneficial results are obtained than the originators of the act could possibly have expected.

In our next issue we shall give a report of the proceedings up to the time of going to press, with the programme for the remainder of the week. On Thursday evening of Institute week, Dr. Alexander, of Princeton, N. J., will deliver his celebrated lecture upon "The Telescope and its Revelations." The other lecturers will be announced hereafter.

Railroad Smash-up.

On Tuesday morning, about half-past ten, No. 71 furnace train ran into the rear end of No. 33 coal train, at Hamilton street crossing on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and threw seven cars off the track, three of which were much injured. The track was blockaded and passenger trains delayed half an hour. Nobody hurt.

THE COUNTY.

SEALS AND PRESSES.

Seals and presses for societies, corporations, etc., can be procured at the REGISTER store at city prices.

ANOTHER RAILROAD COLLISION.

A baggage master was killed and a conductor fatally injured by a collision on the Morris and Essex Railroad, near Easton, on Saturday.

CHEAP PARLOR ORGANS.

A single reed 5 octave organ at $90. A double reed organ with 5 stops, at $130. A powerful organ with 7 stops at $180, at C. F. Herrmann's, corner of 7th and Walnut.—Adv.

PHILADELPHIA HAY AND STRAW MARKET.

The following are the receipts for the week ending November 27, 1867: Hay, 520 tons; Straw, 62 tons. Prime Timothy Hay, $1 40@1 50; mixed, $1 30@1 35; Straw, $1 30@1 35.

THE BEST OF

Italian violin strings, violins, guitars, flutes, etc., or any other article belonging to musical instruments, can be bought cheaper than anywhere else, at C. F. Herrmann's Music Store, Allentown, Pa.—Adv.

LOAN AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the Washington Loan and Building Association, held on Saturday week, five loans were sold at $87, and five at $85 premium. It was resolved to change the hour of meeting from 3 o'clock to 2 p. m., at which latter time the meetings will be held during the Winter.

RAILROAD COLLISION.

Between seven and eight o'clock on Thursday evening, the locomotive of a coal train on the Reading Railroad ran into the rear portion of a stock train from the west, a short distance above the East Penn Depot, at Reading, overturning one of the cars containing some 200 sheep, between sixty and eighty of which were killed or so much injured that it was necessary to dispatch them.

NO TRUTH IN IT.

There is no truth in the published report that "two brakemen on the North Penn. Railroad became frightened at the manner of the recent death of Mr. Berkelbach and resigned their positions." A brakeman on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, however, who had been railroading but a week, did get enough of it, and the cause was the accident at Bethlehem.

NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENT.

The Reading Daily Times comes to us greatly improved, with a new head and new dress. The "make-up" of the paper has been changed, the telegraphic and local news occupying the first page instead of the third. The Times is one of the neatest, most interesting and best conducted dailies in the interior of Pennsylvania, and we are glad to know that it is a paying concern.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE IN KUTZTOWN.

Property is reported to be on the rise in the borough of Kutztown. David S. Levan recently sold to Jacob R. Freas, of Phœnixville, a two and three-quarter story brick house and lot on Main street, for $3,100. David Reidenauer sold three-quarters of an acre of land to James S. Heffner, of Maxatawny, and a Mr. Ganser of Lehigh county, for $1,200. The latter intend opening a coal depot.

THE ADVANCE.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is a good judge of newspapers, and he says of The Advance, published in Chicago, "I regard it as standing fairly on the highest ground yet reached by religious Journals in America." Dr. Horace Bushnell adds the opinion that "it is the ablest, best and most outspoken paper published." It is an anscetarian, wide-awake, aggressive, and readable Family Journal, having for special contributors such writers as Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, "Grace Greenwood," Alice Cary, etc. By special arrangement with the publishers, we are enabled to club the The Advance with the REGISTER, for $3.75 per annum.

ARREST OF A THIEF.

The North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, says the Easton Express, for some months past has been annoyed by a system of petty thieving along the line of their road, and with a view to the discovery of the thieves, employed the services of Detective Johnson, of Easton, to ferret out the depredators. On Monday he succeeded in arresting a man named Wilson Elsenberger, a resident of Bethlehem, who had just stolen from a freight car at Coopersburg about fifteen gallons of whisky, and secreted it in a coal car under the coal. Elsenberger is a brakeman on a coal train, and is in the employ of the North Penn. Company. He was brought to Allentown for trial.

SHERIFFS' SALES.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided, Judge Sharswood delivering the opinion, that a mortgagee, or a purchaser at Sheriff's sale, is not bound to look beyond the judgment docket to ascertain whether the entries thereon are properly made by authority, and that where there is a defective entry of a judgment, or an unauthorized entry of satisfaction, the Prothonotary is liable for damages to any party injured. Hence, where the Prothonotary, without the authority of the Court, entered on his docket against a judgment, "satisfied on fi. fa.," it was held that the entry was perfectly regular and conclusive as to third persons to whom the judgment itself regularly docketed was constructive notice, and that it was not necessary to search further and ascertain whether there was any record of an order of the Court directing such satisfaction.

APPARENTLY A RETRIBUTION.

One day recently Mr. Audenried drove to the Coplay depot to receive a friend who was expected to arrive on the passenger train. While his horse was there hitched, the operatives of one of the quarries belonging to the Thomas Iron Company arranged a blast, and when all was in readiness to ignite the powder, the workmen informed Mr. Audenried of the danger. Not heeding their reminder he was again given warning, but not manifesting any disposition to move out of danger, the fuse was lit and a terrific explosion quickly followed, and Mr. Audenried's horse dropped dead, a huge stone having struck the animal on the head. The horse was a very valuable one, and we understand Mr. Audenried has since made a demand upon the Thomas Iron Company for $500 damages.

OF IMPORTANCE TO OUR CITIZENS.

In another column we have the advertisement of the World Mutual Life Insurance Company. Mr. J. F. Frueauff, the General Agent for the State, has been in town, and with the care and promptness which characterizes this Company in all its dealings, made out the proof of loss and then paid the $5000 to the administrators of Daniel H. Kemmerer, deceased, without deduction or delay. Martin Kemmerer, the local agent for this company, is well known to all our citizens and should be seen by any contemplating insurance before insuring elsewhere, because in no company can they receive more favorable policies, and more safety and care than in the company he so ably represents. We are glad to hear that this case has brought the matter more vividly to the minds of our people and that the Life Insurance business is again reviving and numbers taking out policies every day.

ANOTHER SUPPOSED SWINDLER.

J. K. writes from South Whitehall to the News, as follows:—"Some scoundrel, calling himself Henry Morris, and representing that he is an agent travelling in the interests of Packer & Co., of Boston, an establishment engaged in a one dollar gift enterprise, sold certain tickets, to be redeemed by articles valued at one dollar, such as cloth, knives, forks, watches, muffs, muslin, &c., the money in each case being paid in advance. The goods were to be delivered at David Fatzinger's tavern on Saturday, the 27th of November. He made conflicting statements with reference to his home, the place in which he was raised, the parties with whom he has been living, &c. He realized about sixty dollars.

"He is a man about 5 feet 4 inches in height, red face, sandy hair, black mustaches (dyed,) wears a white ruffled shirt, breast pin and studs, had a light brown cassimere suit, white overcoat, and talks very little. People throughout the country should beware of him and help bring him to justice."

CONFLAGRATION.

Fire at the Coplay Furnace---Loss Several Thousand dollars.

On Tuesday morning, about six o'clock, fire broke out in the engine house of the upper stack of the Coplay Furnace and communicated to the hoisting apparatus, which was soon enveloped in flames and, as the fire apparatus was deficient, it was entirely destroyed, involving a loss of several thousand dollars. The engine was, fortunately, but slightly damaged, and can be repaired at a small expense. The steam fire engine from Catasauqua proceeded to the fire and arrived on the ground about eight o'clock, but owing to difficulty of getting water was unable to render any service. The fire was extinguished about ten o'clock, without being allowed to extend beyond the stack where it originated. As the other two were built some distance from the first stack their situation favored the efforts of the workmen in saving them. Work, it is expected, will be resumed this afternoon.

ACCIDENT ON THE LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD AT BETHLEHEM—A NEGLIGENT ENGINEER RUNS INTO A PASSENGER TRAIN—LOSS OF LIFE.

On Wednesday evening the down passenger train which passes here at 5:45 was thirty minutes late. As is customary when this train arrives at Bethlehem, the engine and first baggage car went ahead leaving the Philadelphia baggage and passenger cars, with the balance of the train, standing on the main track. Here, while A. W. Berklebach, a baggage-master on the North Penn., was standing in front of his baggage car ready to couple the North Penn. engine, a special engine on the Lehigh Valley Railroad ran into the rear end of the train, breaking a platform or two, and knocking Mr. Berklebach under the baggage car wheels and killing him instantly. A crowd quickly gathered around the scene and while efforts were being made to drag the remains of the unfortunate man from under the car, the Pacific Express from the West came thundering along, but the engineer seeing danger ahead slackened speed though not in time to save him from running into the ill-fated train. By this shock the cars were badly broken and one man had his arm broken, and it was a miracle, indeed, that the slaughter was not appalling. As we understand the case the engineer of the extra train was brought down from the middle to the lower division, and was following the passenger train. It is said he passed two signals without heeding them. At any rate he knew that the passenger train was ahead of him and his carelessness is most culpable. We understand he was discharged and placed under arrest. There might have been a more serious result; mourning might have been carried to more than one home, but it could not have made any of them more desolate than the one Mr. Berklebach left that morning, in the spring-time of his life and with health blooming in his cheeks. He was a man universally liked and his sad death cast a gloom over the employees of the Railroad. He had been in the employ of the company for many years, and was to have been promoted to the position of conductor in a few weeks. He was a soldier in the late rebellion and served out an honorable service. One of the saddest facts of his death is that he was to have been married to a very fine young lady of Bethlehem this week, and her suffering can be better imagined than described. We are informed that upon the night previous he had a curious warning of his fate in a dream, and on Wednesday morning when he related the circumstance to his mother she begged him not to go on the train that day, but he replied "if an accident is to happen my train, I want to be at my post."

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company recently ordered twenty-two large six-wheeled freight locomotives. They have received six of them and the rest will be forthcoming shortly.

We have received the first number of a new paper issued from Lehighton called the Tribune. It claims to be independent in politics. We suppose it will be, that is independent enough to be Democratic. It savors strongly of the Mauch Chunk Democrat.

Mr. Benjamin Kistler, of Allentown, has sold his beautiful house and farm, containing twenty-three acres, in Heidelberg township, now occupied by his son, Dr. W. F. Kistler, to Nathan Snyder, of Weisenberg, for $2,525 50.

On Friday night week, the store of Messrs. J. & P. Gross, in Schneecksville, was burglariously entered and the money drawer containing about sixty or eighty dollars, was robbed of its contents. It is supposed that the thief or thieves affected their entrance through the cellar by means of false keys.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company gives notice that persons holding receipts for full paid stock can have them exchanged for certificates of stock by applying to the Treasurer.

George Bullock, the Republican candidate for Congress in this District in 1864, has presented the Conshohocken Band with sufficient cloth to uniform each member.

Some "big guns" will lecture in Allentown this winter, if the engagements can be effected.

The Norristown Daily Review charges the Bethlehem Times with stealing its editorials, whereupon the Times waxes wroth. The Times should evince more amiability and explain to the Review that it is an honored custom among the papers of the Lehigh Valley, a custom which we have discovered by seeing our own items in a dozen different papers in a week without once seeing the courtesy of a credit bestowed upon them.

A sale of the late Oliver A. Ritter's personal property will be held at his late residence on Saturday next, at one o'clock.

A decision of general interest to farmers, and especially to large stock raisers, has just been made by Commissioner Delano. In some districts persons had been assessed for tax as cattle brokers, who were in the habit of buying cattle in the summer and selling them for beef to butchers and drovers as soon as they were in proper condition. The question of their liability having been referred to the Commissioner, he decided that they were not liable, if such buying, pasturing and selling was necessary to their business as farmers and graziers, or properly incidental thereto. The real cattle broker, under this decision, is held to be one whose regular business is to buy and sell cattle in values greater than $10,000 annually, and simply for profit.

The barn of Thomas Lightfoot, near the Three Tuns, in Montgomery County, was destroyed by fire on Friday last, with its contents, consisting of the summer crop of hay, grain, &c. We have not learned the origin of the fire or the extent of the loss.

People are beginning to understand,—and to understand in earnest, that their best interests are conserved in the wise and benevolent institution of Life Insurance. Prejudice is being banished by knowledge, and everywhere men are availing themselves of the benefits of Life Insurance. The AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA is a company of long standing and undoubted stability. Dr. Wm. J. Romig is agent in this vicinity.

Lehigh County Sunday School Intelligence.

We will welcome to a place in this department any items of Sunday School news from any and every part of the county. Pastors, superintendents and teachers are requested to contribute matter of Sunday School importance. All communications should be addressed to

The Corresponding Secretary,
Lehigh County Sunday School Association,
Post Office box 391, Allentown.

"GATHER THE CHILDREN."—Joel 2, 16.

The Convention of the State Sabbath School Association was held at Williamsport, Lycoming county, in June last, and was an occasion of very great interest. The Rev. George A. Peltz gave a spirited and earnest address upon the year's work. He spoke of the healthy progress that had been made in every direction, especially in literature, organization and charity. He read the account of the organizations of Illinois to show how efficiently their State is being canvassed for Jesus. He had attended that great culmination of Sunday School work, the National Sunday School Convention, held at Newark, N. J., where were met representatives of twenty-seven States. Thus coming to our own State, he asked "What are we doing?" We must realize that there is an immense work before us.

We have to-day, nearly 4,000,000 people and the Governor claims we are the first State in the Union in population. We have, indeed, a great State in area, the seventh in the productions, and in wealth the second. We have about 1,000,000 children between the ages of five and twenty years; of these we have on the rolls of our day schools about 600,000, and on the rolls of Sunday Schools about 350,000. A careful survey indicates that over 600,000 of our youth, between the ages of five and twenty years, are outside of Sunday School influence altogether, and 720,000 of the same are habitually absent from Sunday School.

Our duty then is—first, to get more people into the Sunday School, and second, to do them more good when we get them there. Our motto is, to have a Sunday School in every district school house, and he thanked God that we have a State Superintendent of Schools who is in sympathy with us in this desire. Our great want is thorough organization, County Associations, Borough, City and Town Associations and Institutes all working actively in the cause of Sunday Schools.

In the report of the Secretary, (Rev. Alfred Taylor), Lehigh county is thus spoken of:—"It is refreshing to see the work in Lehigh. Like that in Lawrence, it shows what a few earnest men can do. The population is as thoroughly German as in any county in the State, so much so that in the Conventions a speaker is as apt to deliver himself in the German language as in English. In some other counties the large German population has been considered a valid reason for making no effort at all towards a County Convention work. In Lehigh our last Convention was held in a church, in which only the German language is in use, both in worship and preaching. The first Convention was held in the Court House, in Allentown, in May, 1868. I have never been at any Convention in which the ministers took more interest. Most of the county took warm interest in it. Most of the pastors of the Allentown churches were present, and the debates, while they were kind and courteous, showed marked individuality of thought and decided conviction as to the opinions held. Such debates are much more valuable than those in which the speakers think exactly alike.

"The schools of Lehigh county are for the most part highly flourishing. There are about ninety in the county, attended by about 7,000 children, supposed to be about half the juvenile population of the county. There is an increased desire for teachers' institutes and for all other means of help and improvement in the work. During last year one very successful Institute was held at Catasauqua, which contributed largely to the promotion of interest in the work. The Lehigh County Association has a great work before it and many God bless what has been done and prosper the work for the future."

So ends the report as far as concerns Lehigh county. Now, then, how has the work prospered since then. A livelier interest has been manifested by teachers and scholars in the majority of schools throughout the county. The people are more universally recognizing the blessings of a good Sabbath School and are waking up to their duties in the matter. The old obstacles in the way of progress have yet to be met. Notwithstanding the bright record of little Lehigh, notwithstanding the general good sense of her practical people and the earnest, self-denying efforts of the Sunday School workers amongst them apathy and indifference, prejudice and ignorance, as ever of old, oppose their cold barriers, chilling the warmth of enthusiasm and clinging to the old and effete in preference to "a new and more perfect way." But the thin end of the wedge is inserted, a little leaven is working and by the blessing of the Holy Spirit, it will leaven the whole lump. Already a township association is about started at North Whitehall, under the auspices of the County Association and its meetings have been marked by the earnest, practical remarks of the teachers of the district; all showing a desire for improvement in their schools, a love for their work and for the children committed to their charge. This Association owes its origin, under Providence, to Mr. J. C. Welling, the active Superintendent of the Ironton Sabbath School; and to the various teachers and citizens of the neighborhood, who so warmly co-operate with him in the good work.

In almost all the different townships the people are ready, able and willing to form such an Association and to take hold of the work of the Lord in a business like manner, with the same spirit of order and regularity that would be evinced in the secular concerns of life. All that is wanted is somebody to start it. That which is everybody's business is nobody's business. It is the glory of the Sabbath School work that its laborers are the business men, the farmers, the toilers of the world, who find their sweetest rest in going about the Lord's business. Can it be that they will have Christ's work done in an irregular and desultory manner? Surely not. The command is to "let all things be done decently and in order," that it may not be said of this generation, "that the children of this world are wiser than the children of light."

Who will shoulder the responsibility? Who will undertake the work? Christian men of Lehigh, workers in the Sunday School cause, are you asking of the Lord "what wouldst Thou have me to do." In every township a man is wanted to start into life an Association that shall foster a plant whose fruit and buds and blossoms shall be gathered for heaven.

We take it for granted that by this time all our patrons have visited Philadelphia, and attended the great sale now in progress at the great Oak Hall Buildings of Wanamaker & Brown. All whom we have met with have expressed their surprise and gratification at the rare bargains they were able to effect there. Any man will miss it who lets this chance slip, and any mother will miss it who does not see to it that "the boys" are well provided for in this emergency.

The Great Pictorial Annual.—Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1870, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for each meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. Send for copies to the General Manufactory, at Pittsburgh, Pa., or to the nearest dealer in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. These BITTERS are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Skin and Female Diseases Warranted cured.—See testimonial:—

SALISBURY TOWNSHIP, Lehigh Co., Oct. 31, 1868.

It is with a grateful feeling that I feel able to make the following statement for the benefit of those who are suffering from Scrofula and other Chronic Diseases. My wife had been suffering for several years from tumors or swellings on her neck which after a time would gather and discharge matter, leaving a running sore. She had been treated for more than a year by most eminent physicians without receiving any permanent benefit, her disease becoming worse, until she had five of these running sores on her neck, when I employed Dr. H. D. Longaker, under whose treatment she commenced to improve very fast, the sores on her neck to heal, and all her unpleasant and disagreeable symptoms gradually to disappear, until her health was restored, which was in about four months. I feel perfectly justified, after having tried the treatment of other physicians in recommending all those who are suffering from Scrofula or Chronic Diseases to Dr. Longaker for medical treatment, with a firm belief that they will be satisfied, benefited and cured thereby, as my wife has been.

JAMES BARNER.

(Signed,)

Dr. H. D. Longaker's office is on the East side of Sixth street, between Hamilton and Walnut, Allentown.

Circumstances control some men, other men control circumstances. Four hundred thousand dollars' worth of goods, above and beyond the apparent and ordinary demand, would throw most men into a fever, if not sink them in helpless despair. But Messrs. Wanamaker & Brown seem equal to any emergency, and the people are showing their appreciation of their pluck by handsomely patronizing the Sale.

"No customer must be allowed to leave the store unsupplied." That is one of the orders given at Oak Hall for the present crisis. Not that the salesmen are to be rudely importunate, or to try to over-persuade any one, but that such pains will be taken to suit, and such accommodating prices, that all will, of their own free accord, desire to buy.

NEW YORK PRICE CURRENT.

For November 27th, 1869. Corrected weekly by J. R. Helfrich, Produce Commission Merchant, No. 82 Barclay St., New York.

BUTTER.—Orange & Sussex Co. Fails, good to choice, 40@43; Chenango, Del. and Cattaraugus Co's Fails, choice, 44@48; Fair to good, 36@43; Common 27@34. Susquehanna Co. Falls, choice, 36@38; fair to good, 33@36; Common, 27@30. State Firkins, choice, yellow 40@42; fair to good, 35@38; common, 30@33. N. Y. State Tubs, choice, 40@42; fair to good, 36@38. N. Y. State Dairy choice, 36@38; fair to good, 32@35. N. Y. State Welsh tubs, choice, 38@40; common to good, 30@36. N. Y. State Dairy choice, 36@38; fair to good, 32@35. Western Reserve choice 36@38; fair to good, 32@35; store packed common to good 30@32. Northern Pa. tubs, choice, 40@42; fair to good, 36@40. Rolls in Cloth, choice 35@38; poor to good, 27@30.

Receipts during the past week foot up 22,900 packages, a increase of 9,000 packages over last week. Though the receipts have been large, yet a very small proportion of it was strictly fine, while a fair demand has existed for that firm. Pails are very plenty and selling slowly, buyers preferring tubs or firkins, which are just now in quite limited supply and rather higher. The bulk of the medium and low grades now in store are hard to move at satisfactory prices, and it is beyond question that more or less of it must be a considerable giving away in price before this butter can be moved.

CHEESE.—New factory choice and fancy, 17½@18; fair to good, 16@17. N. Y. State Dairy good to choice, 16@17; poor to good 14@15. N. Y. State part skimmed, 10@13.

EGGS.—Jersey and Penna. well packed in chaff, 40@42. Jersey and Penna. well packed in oats, 42@43. N. Y. State well packed, good order, 40@42. Ohio and Western, loss off 38@40.

Receipts of fresh are light and prices firm at prices quoted.

BEANS.—Marrow choice, new, ₱ bush, 6@6½. 3.20@3.50. Kidney, choice, 3.30@3.40. Mediums, choice, 3.00@3.20. Yellow eyes, choice, 2.60@3.00. Pea beans, choice, 2.60@2.80. Red and common, 2.00@2.40.

DRIED FRUIT.—Apples Prime State, ₱ bush, 11@12; Jersey, Ohio and Pennsylvania, 9@10. Apples Southern new, 10@11. Blackberries, 12@13. Raspberries, 30@32. Cherries pitted, new, 26@28; unpitted, 15@16. Peaches unpealed, new, 10@14. Peaches peeled, new, 18@22. PRUNES.—Aspins, Mixed to Prime, ₱ bbl., 3.25@3.75. Do. Selected, 4.00@4.25. Common, 2.00@3.00.

BEESWAX.—Pure, ₱ lb. 38@40.

POULTRY.—Turkeys, alives, ₱ pair, 75@1.25. Geese alive, ₱ pair, 2.00@3.00.

POULTRY DRESSED.—Turkeys, choice, ₱ lb. 17@20, common to good, 16@16. Chickens, choice, 16@17; common to good, 10@15. Ducks, common to choice, 16@18; Geese, 10@16.

Receipts have been heavy all the week, and the weather being warm and favorable for killing, which caused a heavy decline in prices. Holders were anxious to close out their lots, many of them being very poor and musty. To-day the supply is ample for all requirements, and the stock arriving was on way during the warm days, for part of this week and appeared very slippery. Many such lots must be sold below our lowest prices. We have had very little really fat and handsome poultry this season, but hope we shall be favored with nothing but prime lots for the holidays, and to have it in market at least three days before, respectively for which they are intended. Are chickens and turkeys are all and fine. Two keys 11 to 14, chickens 10 to 12. We beg our friends will not send any more live chickens and turkeys then necessary.

Will our shippers of poultry be kind enough to remember and mark their initials, or full name on the side of every package, that we may know who it is from; many seem to suppose that we ought to know who every package is from, whether the name is on it or not. It is impossible to keep things straight, (receiving as we do hundreds of packages daily,) unless every package has the shippers name or initials on it. Those who are careless in not marking their packages, must not find fault if their poultry are mixed up, or not as they expect returns as they otherwise would; and we would also ask; that they mark the contents on the side of every package, so that we may know what each contains without opening every package to find the kind the customer wants, and send full invoice by mail for each shipment.

GAME.—Rabbits, ₱ pr., 50@60. Partridge, 1.50@1.00. Quails, 62½@. Venison Saddle, 16@18; Venison Whole Deer, 12@13.

Calves Dressed, ₱ lb. 12@18. Do. poor to good, 10@16. Chestnuts, ₱ bushel, 2.50@3.00.

Hickory Nuts, ₱ bushel, 1.62½@2.00.

HONEY.—Clover in small glass boxes, ₱ lb. 40@45. Buckwheat in small glass boxes, ₱ lb. 35@38.

Buckwheat Flour, ₱ cwt, 3.75@4.00.
