The Lehigh Register.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY

ROBERT IREDELL, JR.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

No paper discontinued until all arearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

Our subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly will confer a great favor upon us by sending word to this office.

Subscribers about removing will please send us their old address as well as the new.

THE CITY.

Removal.

The publication office of THE LEHIGH REGISTER has been removed to the Register Stationery Store, first floor, Hamilton street two doors above Sixth, in the building formerly occupied by Young & Lentz.

Gone to Washington.

Hon. John D. Stiles, member of Congress from this District, left for Washington on Sunday night, to be in his seat at the opening of Congress.

Real Estate Changes.

George Hartzel has purchased Thomas Steckel's two-story frame house, with lot of ground, on Fifth street between Gordon and Liberty, for $1150.

Personal.

T. B. Leisenring, formerly editor of the Daily News, announces himself, as a fire, life and accident insurance agent, and general intelligence office. His headquarters are with A. K. Wittman, Esq., No. 6 West Hamilton street.

Allentown has an extensive china and glassware establishment where as great a variety and as low prices can be found as in the larger cities. We refer to the new store of Richard Walker, No. 40 West Hamilton street.—Adv.

New Arrangement for Conductors.

Conductors on the express trains from Harrisburg to New York now stop at Allentown, instead of conducting trains through to New York, and are relieved here by Jersey Central Conductors.

Outfits for Counting Houses, papers of every kind, drafting materials, stationery for ladies, penknives, scissors, razors and pocket books can be found in variety at Iredell's Stationery Store, in building formerly occupied by Young & Lentz.—Adv.

A Very Unfortunate Man.

Jonas Laury, a carpenter in the employ of William Clewell, on Thursday morning had the misfortune to cut one of his fingers very badly, and in the afternoon sawed his thumb almost in two. Several years ago he fell from a scaffold, by which he lost a leg, and not long since he lost a finger.—News.

New Hat and Cap Store.

E. R. Mathews has opened a new hat and cap store at No. 23, North Seventh street, near the old Allentown National Bank, where he is selling so cheap that everybody can afford to buy a new hat and cap. Give him a call and be satisfied.—Adv. [dec 8-4t*

WISE'S SUCCESS.

If anybody is surprised at Wise's success it is because they have not enquired into the cause. We will tell them: it is because he produces first-class articles and then advertises extensively to let everybody know that he makes the best ale, porter, sarsaparilla and mineral water in the State. —Adv.

New Mail Arrangement.

On Friday last the new mail arrangement, by which we receive a mail from New York by the 4.15 train, went into effect. We now have two mails to and from New York daily, and three to Philadelphia and two in return. The average number of letters now sent from the Allentown Post Office is fifteen hundred daily.

Programme of Lectures.

The County Superintendent has announced the following order for the lectures to be delivered before the Teachers' Institute, at the Court House, this week:—Wednesday evening—Dr. Alexander, of Princeton College, on the Telescope and its revelations; Thursday evening—Prof. Wickersham, subject not announced; Friday evening—Rev. Dr. Osborne, of Lafayette College, on the Life and Literature of the Arabs.

Collision on the Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroad.

On Wednesday night two coal trains collided on the Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroad, at the first curve below Allentown. Both engines were demolished and the coal cars were broken up and thrown around promiscuously. All Thursday was occupied in clearing away the wreck. All hands escaped injury except one of the engineers, and his injuries were slight.

Annual Elections.

The annual election for officers of the First National Bank of Allentown will be held at the banking house on Tuesday, January 11th.

The meeting of the Union Building and Loan Association for the election of officers has been postponed to first Monday evening in January.

The cashier of the Second National Bank gives notice elsewhere that the annual election for nine directors will be held on Tuesday, January 11th, 1870, between the hours of 11 a. m., and 1 p. m.

A Splendid Piano.

Linderman & Son's Gold Medal Cycloid and Square Pianos rank among the finest instruments in the country. Their brilliancy and fullness of tone is not surpassed by a concert grand piano at double the price. More instruments of this celebrated make have been sold in Allentown, Lehigh and adjoining counties than of any other manufacture. They can be used many years and not become airy, as most other pianos do, in only a few years. Come and examine them at C. F. Herrmann's Store, Seventh and Walnut streets.—Adv.

Another Advantageous Arrangement.

The Western Union Telegraph Company are furnishing their offices with blanks for the dispatching of night messages. By this new arrangement messages will be taken in at any time during the day and will be sent during the following night, the charge on such business being reduced to half their day rates, and far below the rates of all opposition lines. Where the dispatch transmitted is not of urgent importance, those who use the line will find the new plan a great saving, and it shows the laudable disposition of the Western Union Company to grant all possible accommodation to the public.

A Long Farewell.

The heavy snow storm and the enterprise of the Passenger Railway Company have compelled our citizens and the traveling public to bid adieu to the street cars until the weather and the snow again permit their running. The Company submitted to the snow without a gasp. Its wonderful snow-plow worked like a charm; it broke on its first trip. That wonderful exhibition of mechanical skill seemed to be its last hope: no other effort was made, and now the track lies imbedded in the snow and ice from six to eight inches deep. Public-spirited citizens were disappointed in not seeing the familiar form of the enterprising head with paper box filled with salt under his arm and spoon in hand vigorously applying the absorbing medicant. Verily, the world moves if street cars do not.

The Teachers' Institute.

The sessions of the Teachers' Institute of Lehigh County opened in the Court House, Monday afternoon, at one o'clock, County Supt. Young in the chair. R. K. Buehrle, Esq., opened with prayer. Owing to the storm the attendance was limited, but the ardor of Mr. Young could not be snowed in and he made a very happy address, bidding a hearty welcome to the teachers of the county. The Superintendent then made the following appointments:—Secretary, Mr. Abbott; Executive Committee, Messrs. La Rue, Desch and Little. Prof. Allen, of Iowa, then addressed the Institute.

In the evening, Prof. Allen delivered a lecture upon Words, which was a very interesting and able address.

We had relied upon the services of a friend for a full report of the proceedings, but as the report has not been received we take the liberty of publishing the following digest of Prof. Allen's lecture as published in the News:—He stated that there were better poets than Shakspeare, and better orators than Cicero, who were utterly unable to speak a word, and that much depends upon the gestures of the speaker. In evidence of this he related the case of Demosthenes when first he was hissed from the stage, and with what flaming thought and burning words he riveted the attention of his countrymen. Language as the offspring of nature, points us to that time when our first parents were living in accordance with nature. Nature has language and she speaks clearly, and is understood by all mankind. The rustling of the wind, the hurricane, and all speak to us in pleasant language. He showed how clearly nature's language is written in the Book of Nature, and how deeply the student of nature reads, and how much he is interested in them.

Much exceedingly valuable information is bound up in words of daily usage. Words betray our nativity by our provincialisms, which be proved by very many happy and well timed, as well as humorous, incidents.

Thousands of our towns and villages indicate by their names whence their founders came.

Moral and religious benefit may be derived from words. The old Hebrew Bible contains no less than eleven different names for wine, and all having a bad signification. The names given to intoxicating drinks have the same general roots. This is a subject, fellow-teachers, even worthy of our serious perusal and attention.

Latin, Greek, in connection with German, are the very Keystone of all languages. No one can be a good student of the English language unless he understands something of these languages.

The way we use words is a most amusing and very interesting study.

Corruption of language leads to corruption of taste, and corruption of taste to corruption of morals.

The common practice of exaggeration is equally as bad, if not morally, at least intellectually. Here the Professor conclusively showed how exaggeration and seeing as well as usage, almost become a disease, as much so as the taste of the drunkard, for intoxicating drinks is a disease. Here the Professor was very pleasant in his anecdotes. The best authors use the plainest language, and consequently are most admired.

He was particularly severe upon those wordy and voluminous speakers in the profession.

He very lucidly explained various paradoxes of the language.

Words are constantly increasing in number, idioms and phrases and strange words are continually bubbling up from English fountains which he proved by various, firm examples.

THE COUNTY.

NEW LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Berks county has an Odd Fellows' Mutual Life Insurance Company. It was organized at Reading, on Wednesday last, by the election of the following officers:—President, Wm. H. Strick land; Vice President, Amos Hooker; Secretary, James F. Van Horne; Treasurer, Simeon S. Sands; Directors, Chas. F. Frick, Albert D. Boas, H. C. L. Crecelius, James Hill, J. J. Tyson; Executive Committee, Albert D. Boas, H. C. L. Crecelius, James Hill.

THAT SWINDLE.

Last week we published an item concerning the swindling of one Wilson, who represented himself as agent of Parker & Co., Boston, to whom we sent a copy of the paper and they have returned the following in answer:

BOSTON, December 3, 1869.

Mr. Robt. Iredell, Jr., Dear Sir:—We thank you very much for kindly inserting that paragraph exposing swindling operations of some Wilson. We have tried to prevent this by inserting a small paragraph at the foot of our advertisement. We hope it may keep others from falling into the same error and paying money to unknown parties. Yours, respectfully, PARKER & CO.

A USEFUL MAN.

We know of no gentleman in all this section of the State who holds as many places of trust and honor, as our highly esteemed friend Hon. Joseph Laubach, of Allen township. He is at present an Associate Judge of the Courts of the county; President of the Northampton Savings Bank; President of the Board of Trustees of the Allentown Female College; President of the Lehigh Valley Iron Company; Treasurer of the Siegfried's Bridge Company, and a member of the Board of Trustees of Franklin and Marshall College, at Lancaster. It is but seldom that we find so many important positions held by one man, and it is an endorsement of character and standing that the Judge may well feel proud of.—Easton Express.

THE BOROUGH OF KUTZTOWN.

The new railroad from Port Clinton to Topton, says the Reading Times, is now completed to within half a mile of Kutztown, and will be finished all the way and ready for the cars in a week or two more. The railroad passes east of the borough, through the property of the Rev. Mr. Reller. This will have a tendency to draw improvements in that direction.

Kutztown, we are told, is badly in need of mechanics, artizans, &c. It needs a baker, one or two master carpenters, and masons, besides plasterers, bricklayers, and housebuilders generally. There is also said to be an excellent opening for a good physician. By-and-bye Kutztown will want one or two daily newspapers. No town of any consequence can get along or flourish without printer's ink.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.

The statistical tables of the late Synod of the German Reformed Church have just been published. They present the following summary:—Classes, 19; ministers, 299; congregations, 705; members, 88,284; communed during the year, 71,154; baptized members not confirmed, 48,417; baptisms, 9,472; confirmations, 4,780; received on certificate, 2,000; excommunicated, 4; dismissed, 1,078; deaths, 3,065; Sunday schools, 687; Sunday school scholars, 35,615; and receipts for benevolent purposes, $54,024.66. This shows an increase on last year's statistics of ministers, 13; members, 2,227; baptisms, 767; confirmations, 42; receptions on certificate, 405; communed, 108; dismissed, 205; deaths, 390; Sunday schools, 32; scholars, 4,273. The united summary of the whole church is as follows: Synods, 3; classes, 31; ministers, 521; congregations, 1,179; members, 117,910; baptized members not confirmed, 68,362; baptisms, 12,776; confirmations, 7,068; reception by certificate, 3,595; communed, 90,722; excommunicated, 144; dismissed, 1,537; deaths, 3,778; Sunday schools, 1,019; Sunday school scholars, 49,980; and benevolent contributions, $76,453.15.

THE ADVANCE OF THE TYPOGRAPHICAL ART.

We know of no other art that has undergone greater improvement within the past ten years than that of printing, and for this improvement the larger share of the honor belongs to the type founders, none of whom have contributed more to the perfection in newspaper printing than Messrs. Collins & M'Leester. They have just issued a supplement displaying their "full-grown" series of newspaper types, printed upon news paper, and under the ordinary conditions attending newspaper printing. The result is a model for a newspaper of the next decade. It is too far ahead of the present day, but shows what can be done with Collins & M'Leester's type. We purchased, nearly two years ago, a new dress for the Norristown Herald, and one year ago we also purchased a new dress for this paper, both from the foundry of Messrs. Collins & M'Leester. Any one can see for themselves that their type makes better printing, and with less care, than any other type made. That it will wear as long as any other, giving a good, even impression until the letter is entirely worn away, we know by experience.

VISITING THE SCHOOLS.

The Harrisburg Telegraph has the following remarks in regard to a subject, which, though of great importance, receives but little attention:—If there is one duty in the world of which parents and guardians are negligent, it is that of visiting the schools. How few parents there are who visit the schools, notwithstanding the invitation is open to all. It is the duty of parents to manifest some further interest in the work than merely to send their children to school. The teacher wants and in order to be successful must have the hearty co-operation of parents. If they talk with him frequently about his pupils, at their homes, it is well; if they visit the school room occasionally, and seem interested with the teacher in making a pleasant thing of learning, it is much better. The presence of a father or mother at the child's recitation, once a week, or even once a month, will have a salutary influence on both teacher and child. Even the parent in many instances, will be benefited. His or her attention will be awakened to questions which might otherwise go unthought of for years, and which have practical bearing on the mind. To parents everywhere then, we say, visit the schools of your neighborhood at least two or three times during the term. Your children will be delighted with your presence, and teachers, who feel an interest in the great trust confided to their care, will ever give you a cordial welcome. We hear of considerable complaint among the teachers of the county generally in regard to the apparent apathy of parents upon this all-important duty. May we hope for a reform!

LARGE STOCK OF

sheet music, instructors, blank books, music paper and cards at C. F. Herrmann's Music Store, Allentown.—Adv.

SEALS AND PRESSES.

Seals and presses for societies, corporations, etc., can be procured at the REGISTER store at city prices.

CHEAP PARLOR ORGANS.

A single reed 5 octave organ at $90. A double reed organ with 5 stops, at $130. A powerful organ with 7 stops at $180, at C. F. Herrmann's, corner of 7th and Walnut.—Adv.

THE BEST OF

Italian violin strings, violins, guitars, flutes, etc., or any other article belonging to musical instruments, can be bought cheaper than anywhere else, at C. F. Herrmann's Music Store, Allentown, Pa.—Adv.

A HANDSOME SPECIMEN.

We have received from the Herald and Free Press printing establishment, at Norristown, a beautifully printed calender of an original and artistic design. It is printed in four colors, exclusively from type, and we do not think that its equal could be produced in three offices in the State, outside of Philadelphia.

REAL ESTATE SALE.

The real estate of William M. Kistler, consisting of grist and saw mills, and farm of thirty-five acres and sixty-five perches, situated in Lynn township, advertised in the REGISTER, was sold at public sale, on Saturday, to John D. Kistler, for $7,050.

RAILROAD CHANGES.

The Morris and Essex trains will leave the Lehigh and Susquehanna depot, foot of 4th street, Easton, hereafter, instead of the Lehigh Valley depot at South Easton. Notice has been given that application will be made at the next session of the New Jersey Legislature for authority to increase the capital stock of the road.

CREDITED THE WRONG COMPANY.

A member of Pocahontas Fire Company of Hokendauqua, requests us to say that the company of which he is a member, and not the Fire Company of Catasauqua, was at the fire at Coplay, and that they were in working order at 7 instead of 8 o'clock. We wrote Hokendauqua, but the types make us say Catasauqua.

TO THE LADIES AS WELL AS THE MERCHANTS

We recommend those persons who make purchases in Philadelphia to call at LeMaistre & Ross's, 212 N. Eighth street, and see the unparalleled bargains in white goods, laces, embroideries, curtains, handkerchiefs, etc. This firm is one of the few in this country who deal in this class of goods exclusively and such has been their success that they have recently greatly enlarged and refitted their store to accommodate their increasing trade. The firm informs us that they can supply our merchants to better advantage and at five per cent. lower prices than any other jobbers in that city.

NO OFFENCE INTENDED.

We again counsel amiability on the part of the Bethlehem Times. Mr. Godshalk, we know, is extremely sensitive, and perhaps our remarks gave him cause to think us ungrateful, for we are indebted to him for many words of kindness and encouragement bestowed upon us when we launched our bark upon these troubled waters, but we assure him, that although in his issue of the 27th ult. he published six items without credit which had been written for and first appeared in this paper, we intended no slur upon him or upon the Times. We regret, too, that his extreme sensitiveness caused him to utter a known and deliberate falsehood in regard to this paper.

HOW MONEY IS LOST AND WON.

Many of our readers will remember that about nine years ago quite a sensation and excitement was produced in the lower townships of Bucks county, by the discovery of what was supposed to be an extensive lead mine. The property fell into the hands of a man named Geo. Trumbower, who sold it to several gentlemen for $24,000. These in turn sold it to a company of gentlemen for $60,000. The company went on to erect five or six buildings, and put up an extensive steam engine and the stock of the "Bucks County Lead Company" was readily sold in market. The company then valued their property at $100,000, and made an effort to sell out at that figure, but failed. After working it some time the products of the mine failed to pay expenses, and the Superintendent recently sold the concern for his wages and money advanced. The property fell into the Sheriff's hands, and was knocked off for $9,000 to the same Geo. Trumbower who owned it in the first instance.—Spirit of the Times.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Some of our Fashion Magazines favor us with long and elaborate descriptions of the right kind of jackets for boys. Straight jackets would be better for those who lounge around our corners.

The horse stealing business is becoming lively—as almost every one of our exchanges contains accounts either of stealing from stables, or by hiring a team and running it off.

Strong efforts are being made to establish a Normal School at West Chester. The Academy property, worth $56,000, subscriptions to the amount of $31,000, and $15,000 from the State are available, making $81,000, toward the desired $100,000.

The first locomotive passed over the bridge of the Wilmington and Reading Railroad at Birdsboro', on Thursday afternoon. It was the "Alabama," a freight engine on the Reading Road, that had the honor.

We have just received a neatly printed copy of the "Proceedings of the Chester County Teachers' Institute," held at West Chester, Pa., during the week commencing Oct. 25th, 1869. The pamphlet contains 72 pages. A lecture by Theodore Tilton, of New York, and one by Dr. I. I. Hayes, the Arctic Explorer, are alone worth the price of the book; it contains, besides, several essays in full, and a complete list of all the teachers in the county. Any teacher desiring a copy can obtain it, by mail, by remitting 25 cents to George F. Worrall, West Chester, Pa.

The new stock of the First National Bank is selling rapidly. It is considered a first-class investment and the increase of capital will be of great benefit to our business men.

Some more horrible suffering on account of making a pet of a dog. A little dog belonging to Daniel Kirkner, at Barren Hill, Montgomery county, went mad, bit Mr. Kirkner, his two children, his teamster, a neighbor, a horse and a goat. Then the dog was killed and the patients were put under the care of Dr. Fry, the celebrated hydrophobia doctor.

We learn from the Norristown Republican that a most daring robbery was committed at Phœnixville, on Wednesday last. Two men entered the dwelling-house of the Misses Knerr about 3 o'clock in the morning, and after binding the ladies with a bed cord, proceeded to search and rob the house. They succeeded in getting two thousand dollars in U. S. Bonds and one thousand in Philadelphia Sixes. They showed no disposition to do personal injury, but on the other hand were very polite. The alarm was given soon after the departure of the thieves, but no traces of them could be found. The Misses K. had just built several houses in Phœnixville and were going to make use of their bonds the next day in paying the contractor.

Upon the retirement of the old "Hill Officers" of Montgomery county, and the incoming of the new, a grand supper was given at the Rambo House, Norristown, on last Wednesday evening, which was participated in by the bar and a number of other invited guests. It is described as a grand affair in which a great deal of mirth and merriment was indulged in.

Slatington has organized a literary society. At the meeting on Thursday evening the subject for discussion was, "Should the temperance men of Pennsylvania make strenuous efforts to have the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage prohibited by law throughout the State?"

THE EMAUS IRON COMPANY.

The Trustees of the Emaus Iron Company will hold a public meeting on Saturday, the 11th inst., at 1 o'clock p. m., at Giering's Hall, Emaus, to which all those interested in the projected enterprise are invited. A list for subscriptions to stock will be open. The enterprising portion of the inhabitants of Emaus are evidently bent on realizing the advantages which the location of Emaus offers for building and profitably working a furnace. Pamphlets, explaining the advantages of the enterprise, may be had at the office of Messrs. Good & Ruhe, Allentown.

SAFETY CAR WHEELS.

A safety car wheel, which, it is claimed, will prevent railroad accidents, has recently been exhibited in New York. The invention is reported as consisting of an axle, with two wheels attached to either end. These wheels run on both sides of the rail, but they do not touch it except where the surface of the inner wheel rolls on the top of the rail. The bevel of the wheels is such that when a car is off the track, the outer wheels force it on again, since they cannot leave the track so long as there are any sound rails.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE PAYMENT OF THE REVENUE TAXES.

It has been well known that persons dealing in liquors and tobacco are liable to imprisonment as well as fine, as the penalty for the non-payment of their revenue taxes. Collectors often address the Revenue Department stating that per-one having no property that can be seized are pursuing business other than the above mentioned in their districts without paying the special taxes imposed upon their occupation. The department has recently suggested a remedy against this disadvantage, which, if invoked, is likely to prove effectual. The Commissioner has instructed that persons without property neglecting or refusing to pay the special taxes upon occupations, be indicted in the proper Courts. If convicted, they will be sentenced to pay the fine or penalty, and committed until the sentence is complied with. Business men would do well to to make a note of the above decision.

CITY NOTICES.

Among all the attractions and inducements to buy, offered by other and newer clothing houses in Philadelphia, we notice that the old established concern of ROCKHILL & WILSON not only holds its own, but keeps pace with all the modern improvements, actually taking the lead in most of them. Their "GREAT BROWN HALL" is stocked from basement to roof, with everything that can be called for, in men's and boys' wear. Purchasing their materials, as they do, in immense quantities, and having the entire product of whole mills, on certain classes of goods, their facilities for furnishing their patrons with superior fabrics are unsurpassed. There is no house in Philadelphia or any other city, which has such complete arrangements for making up its goods, and especially in the most exquisite style. Both in the "ready-made" and "custom" departments, most of our readers can testify that ROCKHILL & WILSON never fail to give them entire satisfaction.

The AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY is no new company, with a reputation still to make and the confidence of the people still to win. It has been before the people for the past twenty years and its record is open to the inspection of all. It can show a long list of paid policies, and point to hundreds of cases to verify its promptness, fidelity to contract, and liberality in settlements.

You ought to have a policy in the AMERICAN. Dr. Wm. J. Romig, is agent for this company.

To turn gray hair to its natural color and beauty, use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, the best and most reliable preparation science has given us.

Would you have continual cheerfulness and happiness on your wife's or mamma's face? Would you have your home irradiated with the sunbeams of joy which can come only from the well gotten up smile of lovely woman in her best estate—Matron?

Then you must be considerate of the good woman's comfort. And you must depend on her for the making of all the little boys' clothes. When you can buy of others for the little fellows as good, as beautiful, and as cheap, as ROCKHILL & WILSON make them, it is a sin to inflict that much toil on your wife.

Our readers will do well to take their families with them when they go to Philadelphia to buy their clothes, as we know all the boys like ROCKHILL & WILSON'S, and we don't think we couldn't do it ourselves if we were to try.)

And so we and all our readers constantly do throughout the land. ROCKHILL & WILSON'S, whenever we go that way; and hardly anybody considers a trip to the city fully made complished, unless a visit from the Great Brown Hall is a part of the purchases.

The Great Pictorial Annual,—Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1870, for distribution gratis, this autumn at the United States and all other Hostetter agencies throughout the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it contains a large amount of useful information, interesting to the merchant, the farmer, the mechanic, the miner, the planter, and the professional man; and the calculations have been made for various latitudes and latitudes as accurate and reliable as can be obtained from the National Observatory.

The tonic, liver, and extraordinary sanitary merits of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the stupendous and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annual to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and must be had for the asking. Send or copies to the General Manufactory, at Pittsburgh, Pa., or to the nearest dealer in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. These BITTERS are sold in every city, town and village, and are constantly used throughout the civilized world.

Receipts during the past week foot up 16,540 packages, a decrease of about 5,500 packages over last week. The actually continued large receipts and the very light demand, which has become less from day to day, have caused a heavy and weak feeling in the Butter market, and some decline in prices, notwithstanding the efforts to sustain them by the commission men, to save their consignors from loss. For the bulk of the stock of State butter there is almost no inquiry. A little extra fine is being looked after by our city trade, but they are so particular as to nearly that very little suits them.

The market has been glutted with poultry all the week, and the weather being unfavorable it had to be sold very low. The stock has been poor and soft, even lots that started nice and in good order arrived soft and had to be forced off at low prices, as unfavorable was the weather. Prices have been very irregular during the past week, occasionally very few lots have sold in bulk at the outside rates—now give, low as they are. To-day the weather is cooler, and by all appearance it is clear and soft weather is cooler, and by all appearance it is clear and soft weather is cooler, and will look for much better prices next week. We hope our shippers will not be discouraged, but keep on and send up the choice two weeks what they had the past two.

Will our shippers of poultry bear in mind on each to remember to put upon the outside of each box, full name on the side of every package, that we may know who it is from; many times we have to open a box to find out who they are from, otherwise would not be so particular. Please mark plainly, and if you have a number of boxes, mark them 1, 2, 3, &c., and send bill of items by mail for each shipment.

GAME.—Rabbits, 9@10. Squirrels, 1.25@1.50. Grouse, 50@1.00. Quails, 1.12½@1.25. Venison Saddles, 12@13. Venison, whole, 8@9.

HUNTER'S CANCER AND PILE EMPIRIC.—I have compiled a full, concise and complete statement, plainly printed, for the information of those afflicted with Cancer, Tumor, Piles, &c., and the treatment necessary for their cure. Physicians in this and other countries will find Each Package Good for Several Months, as they so often leave your house, on the receipt of a letter. In short it makes just such treatment as is necessary to be had from the medical profession at the Free Institutes. I will send one of these packages to any person sending me $5 dollars. The package contains directions for using, which if followed, will cure any case. Please send your address, which will be returned if not called for in 30 days. Address, DR. W. HARTZELL, Clerk, Fox Chase, Phila. Six cents will be expected to pay return postage on letter. Please state how you heard of this remedy. Dr. Hunter is not a physician, a connection as with Doctors, and the Doctors are not connected with Dr. Hunter in the compounding of the medicine. Dr. Hunter is a practical Medical Botanist, and has been in the business for a number of years. Three more will be completed and ready for sale by the 1st of December. Dr. Hunter is well known in this vicinity, and has practiced in Columbia, Montgomery, Delaware and Philadelphia counties. Dr. Hunter is a pract
