THE CITY.

Removal. The publication office of THE LEHIOR REG ISTER has been removed to the Register Stationery Store, first floor, Hamilton street two doors above

Sixth, in the building formerly occupied by Young A Sad Misfortune. On Saturday, a little boy, son of Levi Butz, residing on Hamilton street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, ran a pair of seissors into one of his eyes completely destroying the sight.

Real Estate Changes. Wm. K. Mosser and Peter Grim have pur chased the four story brick bullding on Hamilton street, adjoining the Allen House, from Charles W. Rau, for $17,000. Marks of Appreciation. On Friday afternoon last, E. J. Young,

County Superintendent, and R. K. Buchrle, City Superintendent, were each made the recipients of of beautiful presents from the teachers of the county and of the city. Allentown has an extensive china and glassware establishment where as great a variety and as low prices can be found as in the larger cities. We refer to the new store of Bichard Walker, No. 40 West Hamilton street.—Adv. Outfits for Counting Houses. papers of every kind, drafting materials, sta-

Fashti and Pemie's Temptation. Are two great literary successes, written by Argusta Evans and Marion Harland. They are selling by thousands. They are pronounced the novels of the day, and the publishers say they are receiving telegraph orders for them daily. They can be had at the REGISTER Store. Carleton, New York, is the publisher.

Youthful Till-tapper One day last week the money drawer of Al. Kramer, in the market house, was robbed. . young boy, who shall be nameless, was discovered as the thiefund upon being pressed rather strongly confessed his guilt and divulged the place where the money was hid, which was in a wood pile i the rear of the market house. Upon going ther twenty-nine dollars were recovered, but whether that is the whole amount taken is not known.

Curious Economy. A man once said " Times are hard. I must economize. I must stop my paper." We regret that the Almighty did not give that man brains enough to know that stopping a newspaper was the poorest economy he could practice. He drank from twenty-five to thirty glasses of heer a week, and he could not afford to do with one glass les seven days and supply his family with means for improvement, information and cutertainment That man's type can be found all over the country

More Horse Threeing. On last Friday night a valuable horse was stolen from the stable of Charles A. Dorucy, in Allentown. The animal is a dark bay, four years old, afteen and a half hands high, and has two white spots as large as a half dollar (specie) on each side of the neck. Seventy-five dollars reward white spots as large as a fail dollar (opener) cach side of the neck. Seventy-five dollars reward are offered for the capture of the thief, and fity dollars for the recovery of the horse. Mr. Dorney is engaged in the hog droving business in partnership with David II. Scholl.

A Splendid Piano. Linderman & Son's Gold Medal Cycloid and Square Pianos rank among the finest Instruments in the country. Their brilliancy instruments in the country. Their brilliancy and fullness of tone is not surpassed by a concert groud plano at double the price. More instruments of this celebrated make have been said in Allentown, behigh and adjoining counties than of any other manufacture. They can be used many years and not become airy, as most other planos do, in only a few years. Come and examine them at C. F. Herrmann's Store, Seventh and Walmut streets.—Adv.

Determined to Conquer. A few thoughtless words often produce a world of harm. When we published a little, playful squib upon the Allen Passenger Rallway last week, we did not foresee the amount of suffering that would ensue from it. The company went to work on Wednesday, with a determination to surmount every difficulty Providence had placed in their way and ron their cars. Four horses dragged a car through the snow, men were set to work shoveling the snow from the track, and even the energies of the snow plow were taxed to their utnost. Still the sleighs ran smoothest. world of harm. When we published a little, playchergies of the show how were trace to their most. Still the sleighs ran smoothest.

We don't suppose the people have any decided preference for rough-riding horse care over smoothing idling sleighs, and, therefore, in the interests of the Society for the Prevention of Crucity to Dumb Animals, we feel very much inclined to take back what we said.

HOLIDAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Our merchants can create a heavy sale for their holiday goods by advertising in the Recistheir holiday goods by advertising in the Ikribs Ter. A judicious and liberal expenditure for printer's ink cannot fail to bring large returns. As business is now conducted those who do not patronize newspapers must stay in the background, for people go where their attention is called or where they have an juviation to go, so if you have anything to sell let our subscibers know it. Next week is the last chance before the holidays and we will, therefore, offer special inducements.

A MUSEUM OF ELEGANT FANCY GOODS. It has seldom been our lot to examine ore elegant assortment of choice funcy articles han that now on exhibition and sold at H. Dixon's, than that now on exhibition and sold at II. Dixon's, No. 21, South Eighth street, Philadelphia. His stock comprises a fine display of Parian busts and statuecttes, mantal ornaments, vasce, lardiniers, toilet articles, fancy thermometers, blsque figures, toinete oboxes, cigar cases and holders, ornamental match safes, back gammon boards, dominoes, chess men, fancy canes and umbrellas, and a thousand and one other articles suitable for presentation during the holidays. Our readers who are about to visit the city, should by all means call on Mr. Dixon, as they cannot fall to find at his establishment many articles not to be found elsewhere. Remember the location, No. 21 South Eighth street, about midway between Market and Chestnut streets, on the cast side.

DUN OR NOT DUN. Nearly every newspaper we pick up appeals to its debtors for money. When that very useful article of support becomes scarce, those who suffer the most are the printers. Although most of the successful business men are indebted to the newspapers for their fortunes the newspaper is the last to be pald or even thought of in times like these. It is unjust, to say the least. The Demorral says its receipts, week before last were "Shamefully meagre," and it has "about concluded that some of its patrons think it steals its living and that it costs nothing to run a paper."
We are glad that class of patrons does not imbalt the whole globe and that there are business men who value advertising and pay for it cheerfully and promptly. We are continually sending out bills to our neighbors and we wish they would take into consideration the fact that while the amount each is charged with is very triling, in the aggregate the bills amount to enough to set up another printing office, but thus farther estures have been "shamefully meagre."

It is supposed that when walking on the road the night previous he was struck by the up 6 clock trails. Both legs were broken and his head considered by the town until his death some time during the last summer, he having been killed by littery studied.

A GIEAT STORY.

In another part of our paper will be found the opening chapters of a charming story, learning the attractive title of Butfalo Bill, the King of the Butf 28th, Thos. Bitting, of Flourtown, a member of Alman's property without nuch trouble. Having recovered another stolen horse, the property of some person in an adjoining county, the animal was attached to the wagon and driven to Ashkand, and the wagon itself shipped finally at Herndon, on the Susquehanna, for Alman's home in Montgomery Co. Mr. Bitting drove the horse belonging to Mrs. Hicklin from Mr. Carmel to Pottsville, hitched to a wagon that the Detectives had recovered belonging to a person in Easton, arriving home on Saturday last with the property for which he went in search. A reward of $50 dollars was paid by Mr. Aiman to Detective Johnson for the carriage, the Horse Company paying a like reward for the recovered horse.

Mr. Bitting says that Mt. Carmel has been a general rondezvous for horse thieves for some time, and that he believes there are stolen horses and vehicles there now that can be recovered by their legal owners. He saw a very fine chestnut sorrel and a good falling-top wagon at the livery stable, both of which had been taken there by the same persons who left the horse stolen from Mrs. H. Betectives have recovered other stolen property from his locality and it appears to have been a favorite resort for the successful "shovling" of horses and vehicles.

MARCIS KEMMERCH, Esq., Allentown, Agent o World Mutual Life Insurance Co. of N. Y. Date Sie .- Permit us to thank you for the t r in which you have collected for us the $500 insured in . your Company on the life of Daniel H. Kemmerer, our usband and brother. We are truly thankful to you for having persuaded him two years ago to make this wise provision for the wants of his family. Then he was in family record both indicative of many years of usefulness in our midst, and to us then this provision seemed almost useless and unnecessary. But Providence, in the wisdom which is so often hard for us to understand, ordained otherwise, and from a severe attack of Typhoid Pever in and April last he never entirely recovered, but continued retrieved sluking until his sufferings were ended, and he departed this life a few weeks ago. Always careful of his loved ones, this provision for their needs recalls to us anew his forethought and love, and from the midst of our grief and tears we would thus publicly testify to the value of Lite Insurance, and to the reliability and promptness of the World Mutual Life, which you represent, in particular.
