"That Pennsylvania needs all the Protec tion asked for her is undeniable"---so says the Democrat, so says the laborer, so says the manufacturer, so says the REGISTER, and so say we all. This is the voice of the people whom the Honorable Jno. D. Stiles represents and we trust, for all our sakes, that the fear of his misrepresenting us may be unfounded. Spite of all the evidence to the contrary it may be that the sanguine predictions of the ever hopeful Democrat may be verified and J. D. S. be come a "bright particular star" among the Protectionists. If this should be the case we shall rejoice to see him "twinkle"; provided always he sticks to his orbit and refrains from taking up the time of the country with his wearisome "interruptions" and "unparliamentary" remarks.

The issue is between European and American labor. Representatives from Pennsylvavia must so regard it and beware how they sacrifice the "public weal" to party feeling or political rivalries. The people of this District, the City and County of New York for one year, to the bond-holders. The Western Pacific bonds Democrats and Republicans, are about unanimous on this question. Let their members see to it that they are fairly represented.

"The charges against him are that he is an advocate of free trade, and opposed to a protective tariff: that he is not a staunch Republican; was appointed Chief of the Bureau of Statistics under President Johnson's administration because he was a supporter of , my policy;' that he lacks experience, judgment and executive ability, and therefore is incompetent to fill the responsible tion to which he has been appointed.' "For my part," adds our correspondent, "I will say, that if Mr. Walker is to be judged by his actions, and not by his professions, then he is opposed to protection to American industry and is not at heart a Republican. The Pennsylvania Congressional delegation are therefore right in requesting Mr. Walker's removal, and they are supported by many Western Congressmen and Senators."

CONGRESS.

Thusspay, February 24th, 1870.—Senate.—
In the Senate, on Thureday, a resolution deprecating any further inflation of the currency was passed without a division; Senator Fenton spoke at length on the Funding bill; the case of Mr. Revels was considered without decisive action.

House—The resignation of Mr. Whittemore was presented, when resolution was unanimously passed declaring him unworthy to be a member of the House; the Legislative Appropriation bil went through Committee of the Whole.

Friday, Feb. 25th.—Senate.—In the Senate, Mr. Howard introduced a bill to make one State and two Territories of Texas. He took the ground that the present area of that State was too extensive, and the population too incongrous, to afford a proper guarantee for any good government. The bill will be attentively considered by the Committee on Territories, to which it was referred.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill providing fine and imprisonment for all parties engaged in prize fights which it is lubte of the United States.

Sunner, Wilson, and Scott, the that of Messra, dumer, wiston, and Scott htter being applauded by the galleries. Stockton, as the mover of the resolution to Mr. Revel's eredentials, closed the debut concluding, he accounted that Democrats and manufactures and the state of the state o publicans should unite as brothers in all measures to restore peace and prosperity to the South, which sentiment was received with great applause. The debate was very interesting, and was atteiltively listened to by the galleries, which were densely packed. The motion of Mr. Stockton to refer was look by a strict party vote—48 to 8, and by the same vote of 48 to 8 it was ordered that Mr. Revels be sworn in. He accordingly advanced to the desk of the Vice-President, supported by Mr. Wilson. Here the greatest curlosity was shown, as Mr. Colfax was administering the oath. Those in the galleries stood up, and leaned over as far as 1, possible to get a sight of the great center of attraction. As soon as Mr. Revels was sworn in, he was shown to the sent which had been assigned bilm, being the one immediately behind Governor Browniow. On his taking possession of his seat, many Senators and Members of the House came Browniow. On its taking possession of this summary Senators and Members of the House came up to offer their congratulations. The credentials of Gen. Ames have been referred to the Judiciary Committee.

House—The House began its proceedings with barely a quorum present, a call of the Yeas and Nays on two of the important amendments of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill showing about 80 members absent. Mr. Dawes had his Legislative bill disposed of in quick order, and then Mr. Butler, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill to admit the State of Georgia on precisely the same conditions that were required of the States of Virginia and Mississippi. Mr. Butler degired the bill to be passed than Unity; Chromo Lithography; James Vick the Horticulturist; A Cross Husband Cured; So-cial Curiosities; National Debts, the Family—its Government; What Can I do best? Holy Land Houses had adopted his course with Virginia an cratic members, however, appealed for a post concinent until Monday, and Mr. Butler finally yielded, that the bill might be printed. A numbe of bills of a private nature were afterward acte on, and the Indian Appropriation bill was reporte to the Committee of the Whole, with Judge Me cur of Pennsylvania in the chair. Mr. Sargen having charge of the bill, made a speech explain ing its features, after which the House adjourne until Monday.

Fisk & Hatch, and the extreme care they have taken in permitting their maine to be used to market loans, together with the high standing and reputation of those directly interested in the road, entitle she bonds to more than ordinary attention from the public, and merit their confidence. The completed road is already of sufficient value to form sufficient security for the whole proposed amount of mortgages to be sold. When completed, the property will be worth double the amount of the first mortgage bends.

E. S. SHIMER & CO.,

ALLENTOWN, PA.

We have concluded to give up our business in Allentown with a view of eventually settling in the Great West. We have done a good business here, and perhaps we ought to be satisfied, but Allentown is not large enough o suit our ambition. When it numbers 50,000 inhabit dut as we believe it will within 12 years, we may come back again to give you once more ''goods at New York prices.' Meantime, while we are growing rich in the West, you'll have to pay Allentown merchants (all of them, by the way, capital follows) just such prices as they may please to charge you. After Murch 15th or 20th, Paper Muslins may again be sold at 22 cents. That was the price when we opened here. We sell them for '10 cents. Prints may again be sold at 16 cts., Muslins at 18 cts., which we sell at 12% cts., &c., &c. The beautiful credit system will be permitted to pursue the even tener of its way, and people who pay their debts may continue to pay, in increased profifs, for the goods of these who don't. Before leaving we will do the merchants here the favor of publishing the names and addresses of some two or content ourselves with giving them this notice. Mesers. Keck. Weller & Co., clothiers, will occupy our store about the middle of March next. They have bought our 226 00 lease and fixtures. We are compelled, therefore, if pos-$2,025 61 sible, to close out all our stock before that time. We will give a parting slap to high prices. We propose to self enerything at almost any reasonable price. Many goeds will be cleared out less than cost. We are now engaged in marking down our stock and shall continue to do so until all is sold. A rare chance will be thus given to ecure great bargains. See that you take advantage of it. Sale will commence Thursday morning, January 13th.

Very truly yours,

DAVID N. FOSTER.
