This establishment was under the care of two slaves—Old Barney and young Barney—finther and son. To attend to this establish-ment-was their sole work. But it was by no means an easy employment; for in nothing was Colonel Lloyd more particular than in the management of his horses. The slightest inattention to these was unpardonable, and make the attempt to carry out my resolution to run away; for the chances of success are tenold greater from the city than from the coun-

1 sailed from Baltimore for St. Michael's in the sloop Amanda, Captain Edward Dodson. On my passage, I paid particular attention to the direction which the steamboats took to go the direction which the steamboats took to go to Philadelphia. I found, instead of going down, on reaching North Point they went up the bay, in a north-easterly direction. I deemed this knowledge of the utmost import-ance. My determination to run away was again revived. I resolved to wait only so long as the offering of a favorable opportunity. When that came, I was determined to be off.

NEW York's new City Charter created another Evacuation Day-evaquation of the city offices.
