THE LEHIGH REGISTER. Will be sent to any address from this date until after the next election.

FOR THIRTY CENTS. The Lehigh Register contains more reading matter than any other newspaper published in the country, and is the only one which is so well adapted to the wants of our citizens.

LEHIGH TOWNSHIP has a population of 3,770. Number of dwellings, 407; farms, 277; number of industrial establishments, 48. The oldest inhabitant is a widow, aged 88 years.

COLLISION.—Last week a collision between a couple of carriages occurred on Ninth street near Hamilton. Cause—the street lamps were not lit.

FOOT BURNED.—Wm. J. Wood, working at Bessler's Pipe Works, on the canal, in Hanover township, had his foot burned, Tuesday, by the overturning of a ladle which was being filled with molten iron. It is doing well.

QUARANTINE MASTER.—Dr. John H. Gilson has been appointed Quarantine Master at Philadelphia, in place of George S. Smith.

ANOTHER VETERAN GONE.—Peter Brey, one of our oldest and most prominent citizens, died Tuesday afternoon, at the advanced age of seventy-three years.

A HORSE THIEF BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.—On Monday a horse was stolen at Nazareth from Samuel Brown. Pursuit being given the animal was traced to White Deer, where it was found that a man named Peter Gorman had traded him to Mr. Seiple.

THE BUREAU.—The other day, when a train on the North Pennsylvania Railroad entered the tunnel above Sellersville, nearly a mile in length, the train running very slowly a passenger sought to avail himself of the three minutes afforded by the person in charge of changing his line.

TO WILKESBARRE.—The excursion of the Columbia Fire Company to Wilkesbarre, on Thursday of this week, promises to be a success to the company financially, as well as the most pleasant of the kind ever enjoyed in this city.

SHOPTIGHT.—Last week Aaron Winch entered the jewelry establishment of J. R. Weber, on Hamilton street near Eighth, for the purpose of purchasing a watch.

CONTRACT PROMISES.—A special meeting of the City Councils was held last night. Select Council-President Hoffman in the chair.

AMERICA RUSSIA STREET IN.—From the Consular Record we extract the following in reference to the manufacture of Russia sheet iron in this country.

MELANCHOLIC ACCIDENT.—A child of Mr. Morris, the miller at Lehighville, was drowned on Friday by falling into Lehigh's mill race. She was about eight years of age.

THE CAMP GROUNDS.—W. H. Gross, the photographer, in Klaus' Hall, corner of Fifth and Hamilton streets, has taken a stereoscopic view of the camp meeting now being held in Grosvenor's Woods.

WANTED TO SEE HIMSELF.—Daniel Seifert, alias Dutch Dan, was arrested at Geisler's woods by Constable Henry, on Thursday, on the charge of stealing a looking-glass. He was taken to Alderman Beck and committed to answer.

HOT BLOODS.—One of the most conspicuous causes of delays on railroads is hot bloods, and it is somewhat singular that when the hot blood machinery has been solved, no one has brought out a cure for this evil.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Wm. Hopkins was run over on the East Pennsylvania Railroad, between Boyertown and Lehigh, Friday night. When his remains were discovered parts of his body lay on both sides of the road.

THE FAIR.—Work on the Fair grounds is busily engaged putting up new accommodations for the poultry on the Fair Grounds and in repairing the horse and carriage stands.

THESSALONIANS.—Five young boys from the Sixth Ward were arrested for trespassing on the orchard of Robt. Steckel, on Thursday, and were fined one dollar each, after receiving a severe reprimand from Alderman Beck, who was discharged.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY'S NEW STORY is to begin in the September Number. It opens in London, but it is evident that the scene must soon change to this country.

REPORT OF coal transported over the Lehigh Valley Railroad for the week ending August 18th, 1870, compared with same time last year:

Table with 2 columns: Total for Rail Canal, 1870 and 1869. Values range from 82,007 to 1,541,764.

NOXIOUS INSECTS.—This is the season for the largest portion of our winged insects to deposit their eggs. If our people would hang bottles containing fluid of sweetened water among their fruit and shade trees, they would be benefited.

NUMEROUS INSECTS.—The wise provisions of the ordinance passed relative to the numbering of houses are to be strictly enforced by the Mayor.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A very serious and painful accident occurred to one of our men, Henry Winkler, on Thursday, at the East Penn depot.

THE CENSUS OF UPPER MIDDLESEX.—Asht. H. Frazier, Census Marshal, has completed his work in Upper Middlesex, and reports as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Total, 1870 and 1869. Values range from 2,410 to 53,125.

ENCAMPMENT.—The religious service which commenced last Sunday in Geisler's grove, have proved very interesting to all, and we trust also beneficial to a great many.

DEATHS LAST WEEK.—Number of dwellings, 200; number of families, 208.

GRINDER, after building up a reputation for Bethlesem, is carrying a reputation for his own Lehigh Creek.

LABOR STOCK of sheet music, instructors, blank books, music paper and cards at C. F. Herrmann's Music Store, Allentown, Pa.—Ad.

A THIRD REASON why T. C. Kernahan, of the Allentown China, Glassware and Lamp Store can sell cheaper than others, is because he sells more than any two in the county put together.

CHEAP PARLOR ORGANS.—A single reed 5 octave organ at $80. A double reed organ with 7 stops at $120. A powerful organ with 7 stops at $150. C. F. Herrmann's, corner of 7th and Walnut.—Ad.

AN EXCELLENT REASON why T. C. Kernahan, of the Allentown China, Glassware and Lamp Store can sell cheaper than others, is because he sells more than any two in the county put together.

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.—R. Clay Hamersly, Esq., has opened a real estate agency at Catasauqua. On his list are a number of valuable properties. Those having business in Mr. Hamersly's line would do well to call on him.

THE WILSON IMPARTY.—The new military drill manual, which has lately been organized in Bethlehem, has selected a very suitable and appropriate name, that of our worthy Burgess. At their late election the following officers were elected: Captain, M. J. Wherle; Lieutenants, Michael Boyle; Sergeant, Patrick Shannon.—Times.

A CRIB IN TROUBLE.—Robt. T. Ryall, of Philadelphia, at the time champion billiardist of Pennsylvania, visited Allentown last week. On Saturday night his conduct was objectionable to the police and he was placed in the lock-up. He was brought before the Mayor Monday morning and discharged.

ANXIOUS FOR AN EARLY GRAVE.—J. Schindler, the gentleman who attempted the lives of his wife and child, in Bethlehem, on Thursday night, returned to that borough on Saturday and went to his hiding place. He has not been seen since.

ENVELOPES 75 cts. $1.00 and $2.50 a box. Note Paper 15 cts. 20 cts. and 25 cts. a box. Letter Paper 15 cts. and 20 cts. a box. Foolscap and Legal Cap 25 cts. 20 cts. and 40 cts. a box.

LADIES' BIKET, Note and Initial Paper. Blank and Colored. The Lehigh Valley Stationery and Printing Co., 20th and Hamilton streets, Allentown, Pa.

A SPLENDID PIANO.—Linderman & Son's Gold Medal Cycloid and Square Pianos rank among the best in the market. They are made of the finest materials and are finished with the most perfect workmanship.

STAMPS.—People seem to be not very clear in their minds as to the present situation of the stamp market. The amendments made in Congress do not take effect till October 1st, and for the present the law remains precisely the same as heretofore.

IMPROVEMENTS being effected in freight locomotives, as well as in all other important branches of machinery. Several modifications have been made in the design of the engine, and the result is a more powerful and economical engine.

FOR THE COMMUNITY.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad, under the management of Messrs. Edwin Shalton and F. B. Lankers, is pleased to announce that they have secured a large quantity of coal at a very low price.

THE CITY OF ALLENTOWN.—We believe the most moderate estimates of the population of this city have not fallen below 20,000. As in all other cities of rapid growth the census has been taken with great care and accuracy.

A MAGNIFICENT IMPROVEMENT.—Messrs. Helmholtz, Helfrich & Co., furniture dealers, at 23rd and Hamilton streets, have made extensive alterations to their establishment.

PROPERTY SALES.—J. W. Fuller, Jr., has purchased the real estate of John Lazarus, near the car wheel works of Messrs. McKee, Fuller & Co. This is one of the most valuable farms in Lehigh Valley.

THE PAPER.—We understand that Messrs. J. Fryer and W. H. Bartholomew intend shortly to establish a newspaper in this place, to be called the "Lehigh Record."

ACCIDENT TO THE STREET SWINKLER.—We regret to learn that the valuable horse of James Hutchinson, attached to the street swinkler, was killed on Friday last.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—Messrs. Robert Houser and James M. Campbell were driving up Front street, last week, when the horse became frightened and ran away with the carriage.

SCHOOL.—The private school of Mr. R. A. Lytle, which has been in session for some time, is well patronized. The school is well conducted and the pupils are making good progress.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last the small engine of the Lehigh Canal Iron Company, used to haul coal, was running on the track when it was struck by a passenger train.

CAR WHEEL WORKS OF MCKEE, FULLER & CO.—This new enterprise of our beautiful Valley has grown into considerable magnitude within the past few years.

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATE NOMINATIONS.—The Democrats of our place held their Delegate Convention at W. G. Boyl's hotel, on Saturday evening last.

POLITICAL.—In the Committee Room, of the Board of Supervisors, on the 20th of August, a meeting of the Democratic County Convention was held.

ALLENTOWN has an extensive china and glassware establishment where as great a variety and as low prices can be found as in the larger cities. We refer to the establishment of Wm. Walker, No. 40 West Hamilton street.—Ad.

THE most beautiful violins, violas, cellos, flutes, etc., or any other articles belonging to musical instruments, can be bought cheaper than anywhere else, at C. F. Herrmann's Music Store, Allentown, Pa.—Ad.

AN EXCURSION.—The Reformed Sunday Schools of Reading will make an excursion to Bethlehem Island, near Bethlehem, on Thursday next.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Lehigh Weidner received a very severe and painful cut in her hand while opening a flour barrel, Monday afternoon. Dr. E. G. Martin was called in attendance.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Jerusalem Sunday School of Salisbury township, will hold their annual picnic on Saturday afternoon, the 27th of August, 1870, in Ueberhorst's woods, near the public road leading from Mohr's Tavern to Bethlehem.

THE DAILY NEWS SALES UNDER A NEW CAPTAIN.—Mr. T. F. Emmons sales the public this morning as editor of the Daily News. We have no doubt his management will give increased circulation to the paper, and that the public will reap increased profits therefrom.

POSTED UP.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, who has been "doing" the Lehigh coal region, writes of meeting coal trains on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, loaded with coal, and to eight thousand tons each, running very fast, scarcely exceeding fifteen miles an hour.

PHILADELPHIA GOSPEL.—They had a twenty thousand dollar fire in the Twenty-third ward, which broke out yesterday morning. Greenwood's woolen mill was "the price to the flames."

Carbondale has a population of 6,500. When the census was taken the borough had three persons over 90 years of age, and has but two.

A neighboring officer says he never knew such a long-continued dry spell as he now experiences. He hasn't had a drink of beer for fourteen hours.

THE GREAT MISDEED of former days was an utter want of any precautions. No efficient means were adopted for the prevention of sickness.

There is a prospect of a large apple crop this fall. Mrs. Magruder's school will open on September 5th, in the Presbyterian Church.

Reed Cloud hats are the latest rage. If they are anything like the ones we have seen, they will be a success.

George Francis Train, in a recent lecture in Morristown, said: "I would rather speak ten minutes in the Tabernacle, in Salt Lake City, than in any other place on the globe."

Charles B. Smith—of the Zyn and myk fame—has been preaching on the European war. He says "Rome is doomed to die, and Turkey will fall with it."

Business prospects are hopeful. A soap-maker's wife spent $80,000 worth of diamonds at Saratoga.

THE BOYETOWN HOME.—The principal facts as ascertained by the trial are these—Mr. Wm. R. Lytle, the father of the child, was a resident of Boyertown, Pa.
